AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 19th day of July, 1862,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fifth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property now vested in us.

"Whereas under an Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and another Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and by virtue of an Order of your Majesty in Council, made under the provisions of the said Acts, and bearing date the eighth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, and duly published in the London Gazette, on the ninth day of the same month and year, all lands, tenements, and hereditaments, then belonging to the prebend of Huntington (except rights of patronage) became absolutely vested in us, subject to the then subsisting lease thereof for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas under and by virtue of a certain indenture, bearing date the twenty-first day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and made or expressed to be made between Anne Isabella Petrie Price, late of Huntington Court, in the county of Hereford, widow of Fowler Price, late of the same place, Esquire, deceased, and now of Versailles, in the Kingdom of France, of the one part, and us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the other part, the outstanding leasehold interest in the lands, tenements, and hereditaments aforesaid, together with the fee simple in possession in certain other lands, tenements, and hereditaments, situate in the parishes of Holmer, Burghill, and Hampton Bishop, in the county of Hereford, and particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, became and are now vested in us.

"And whereas the lands, tenements, and hereditaments aforesaid, or some portions thereof, on account of their character or situation, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time, and from time to time, think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or in any part or parts thereof in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, all or any of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament.
