"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the chapelry district of Saint James, Lower Holloway, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said chapelry district of Saint James, Lower Holloway, hereinafter mentioned and described, such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, should be constituted a separate district in the manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas it has been proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient that, in consideration of the transfer of the said sum of five thousand pounds three pounds per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities as aforesaid, the whole right of patronage of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, should be assigned to the said George Cubitt, his heirs and assigns, in the manner hereinafter recommended.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said chapelry district of Saint James, Lower Holloway, described in the schedule hereunto annexed, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Clement, Barnsbury.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such
