

Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and become absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said George Cubitt, his heirs and assigns for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing scheme has reference.

“The district of Saint Clement, Barnsbury, being :—

“All that part of the chapelry district of Saint James, Lower Holloway, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, which is situate to the south of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said chapelry district from the parish of Saint Mary, Islington, in the said county and diocese, at a point upon the western side of the Liverpool-road opposite to the middle of the eastern end of Adam and Eve-lane, otherwise called Westbourne-road east; and extending thence south-westward to and along the middle of the said lane or road to the boundary dividing the said chapelry district from the consolidated chapelry of Saint Luke, West Holloway, in the same county and diocese; and continuing thence first in the last-named direction, then north-westward, and then again south-westward along the last described boundary as far as a point in the middle of the Caledonian-road :— And all which said part of the chapelry district of Saint James, Lower Holloway aforesaid, is also situate to the east of another imaginary line commencing at the last described point upon the boundary dividing the said chapelry district from the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Luke, West Holloway, in the middle of the Caledonian-road as aforesaid; and extending thence southward along such boundary as far as the point at which it diverges from the middle of the said road; and continuing thence in the same direction along the middle of the same road to the boundary which divides the said chapelry district from the new parish of Saint Andrew, Islington, in the county and diocese aforesaid.”

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron of the chapelry district of Saint James, Lower Holloway aforesaid, out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and such incumbent and such patron have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in Law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the Diocese of London.

At the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of August, 1862,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words following; that is to say :

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty seven, sections six and eight, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the Prebend of Horningsham, in the collegiate church of Heytesbury, and now vested in us.

“Whereas on the vacancy of the said Prebend, which occurred on or about the tenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, by the decease of the Reverend John Nelson Clerk, the then Prebendary, all the lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments theretofore belonging to the said Prebend (except rights of patronage), became by virtue of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

“And whereas the lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments aforesaid consist of reversions expectant upon beneficial leases, and produce during the subsistence of such leases only a small annual revenue, and partly on that account and partly on account of the character or situation of the property, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

“And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

“And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or such parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

“Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments, in writing, duly executed according to law from time to time, to sell or dispose of and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act, of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the
