

“ Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds, or such smaller Sum as the said Lords or others of Her Majesty’s Privy Council may in any Case by such Order direct.”

And whereas, on the tenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, the Lords of Her Majesty’s Privy Council, in and by an Order (reciting therein that a contagious or infectious disease known or described as the Sheep Pox, or Variola Ovina, then prevailed among the Sheep in some parts of the United Kingdom, and that it was expedient to take measures to prevent such disorder from spreading), did, in pursuance and exercise of the powers so vested in them as aforesaid, make and ordain the several orders and regulations following (that is to say):—

I.

“ It shall not be lawful for any person to remove any Sheep or Lambs to or from any or either of the parishes and tythings following, all lying and being in the county of Wilts, and near to the town of Devizes, that is to say, the parishes or tythings of Horton, Bishop’s Cannings, Allcannings, Etchilhampton, and Allington, or to drive or conduct any Sheep or Lambs through or by way of such parishes or tythings, or any or either of them, unless the person so removing, driving, or conducting such Sheep or Lambs shall first have obtained a certificate, in writing, signed by some person who may have been authorized by two or more Justices of the said county of Wilts to seize Sheep or Lambs infected with or labouring under the said disorders, under the 1st section of the said Act, that such removal, driving or conducting may take place without danger of spreading the said disease.

II.

“ All Sheep and Lambs dying in any of the stages of the said disease, wheresoever such death or deaths shall or may occur, shall forthwith be buried by the person or persons in whose possession such Sheep or Lambs may be at the time of death, with their skins on, in pits of not less than five feet in depth, and the carcasses so buried shall be covered with quicklime.

III.

“ All sheds and places whatsoever, and all railway trucks and other vehicles which may or shall have been used or occupied by Sheep or Lambs affected by the said disease, shall forthwith, after having been so used, be thoroughly cleansed with water, and immediately afterwards purified with chloride of lime by the person or persons in possession of such sheds, places, trucks, and vehicles, respectively.

IV.

“ Every person in possession of any Sheep or Lambs in or amongst which the said disease shall manifest itself, shall forthwith give notice, in writing, of the fact to the Chief Constable or Superintendent of Police of the county or borough, in which such Sheep or Lambs may be.

V.

“ And it is further ordered that this Order shall continue in force for three calendar months from and after the date hereof.”

AND WHEREAS the said disease now prevails in the several parishes following, that is to say, the parishes of

Stanton St. Bernard,
Avebury,
Aldbourne,

all respectively in the county of Wilts, and the parish of

Hampstead Norris,

in the county of Berks, and it is expedient to take measures for preventing such disease from spreading; Now, THEREFORE, the Lords of Her Majesty’s Privy Council do hereby, in pursuance and exercise of the powers so vested in them as aforesaid, make and ordain the following order, namely:

It shall not be lawful for any person to remove any Sheep or Lambs to or from any or either of the above-mentioned parishes of

Stanton St. Bernard,
Avebury,
Aldbourne, and Hampstead Norris,

or to drive or conduct any Sheep or Lambs through or by way of such parishes or any or either of them, unless the person so removing, driving or conducting such Sheep or Lambs shall first have obtained a certificate, in writing, signed by some person who may have been authorized by two or more Justices of the said counties of Wilts or Berks, respectively, to seize Sheep or Lambs infected with or labouring under the said disorders, under the 1st section of the said Act, that such removal, driving, or conducting may take place without danger of spreading the said disease.

And it is further ORDERED that this Order shall continue in force for three calendar months from and after the tenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.
