CONTRACT FOR BUSBIES, &c., FOR THE ROYAL MARINE ARTILLERY.

Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Somerset-House, September 11, 1862.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday, the 25th instant, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, all such quantities of

for the use of the Royal Marine Artillery, as may from time to time be demanded, under a contract for twelve months certain, and further until the expiration of three months' warning.

Patterns of the articles may be seen at the Royal Marine Office, New-street, Spring-gardens, between the hours of eleven and two o'clock.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application to the Office of the Comptroller of Victualling, Somerset House.

Particular attention is called to the recent modifications of the conditions of the contract, which may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after half-past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Busbies, &c.," and must also be delivered at Somerset-house, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £200, for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACT FOR SALT PORK.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling, Somerset-House,
August 11, 1862.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday the 7th October next, at half-past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at the undermentioned Ports, the following quantities of all of the cure of the present season, viz. :—

SALT PORK,

NAVY PORK.

	Tierces.	Barrels.
Deptford	2,400	... 2,400
Haulbowline	2,400	... 2,400

When to be delivered :

The Pork to be delivered into the respective Stores as follows ; viz. : one-third of each quantity for each place by the 31st day of January, 1863 ; another third thereof by the 10th day of March, 1863 ; and the remainder thereof by the 30th day of April, 1863 ; or any greater portion, or the whole, at any earlier period, if preferred by the party tendering, and to be paid for by bills at seven days after date, which will be sent to parties as usual.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any ; and also an unlimited power of selection.

Every tender must specify the name of the person by whom the meat is intended to be cured, the brand of the meat, and the place of cure.

Tenders for pork, of the cure of the United States of America, will not be admitted.

Persons tendering for more than one Port must give a separate tender for each Port.

Persons tendering must give a reference to a banker for each surety proposed ; and they are desired to take special notice that the use of wooden hoops is abolished, and that iron hoops only will be required for the casks in accordance with the conditions of the contract.

A form of the tender may be obtained, and the conditions of the contract, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at this office, at the Victualling Yards at Gosport and Plymouth, or by applying to the Agent Victualler at Haulbowline, or to the Collectors of Her Majesty's Customs at Bristol, Limerick, Belfast, Waterford, and Newry, or to the Secretary to the Postmaster-General at Dublin, or to the Commander conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Resident Agent for Transports at Leith.

No tender will be admitted for a less quantity than 100 tierces, or 100 barrels.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose ; but it will not be necessary that the party tendering, or an agent appointed by him, should attend at this Office, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner of the envelope the words " Tender for Salt Pork," and " Comptroller for Victualling," and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.

MARY NORTON, Deceased, Spinster.

Pursuant to the Act of Parliament of the 22nd and 23rd Victoria, chapter 35, intituled "An Act to further amend the Law of Property, and to relieve Trustees."

To the relatives of John Staples, formerly of Riverhead, near Sevenoaks, in the county of Kent, and to the relatives of Ann Staples (the wife of the said John Staples), whose maiden name was Peake or Pake.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Mary Norton, of Riverhead aforesaid, who died on the 7th of February, 1861, by her Will, dated the 12th of July, 1858, and proved in the Principal Registry, on the 27th of April, 1861, devised and bequeathed the proceeds of the sale of certain real estates to the trustees named in her said will, upon trust, to pay and divide one moiety thereof equally between the nephews and nieces of the said John Staples, and the issue of such of them as should be dead, and the other moiety between the nephews and nieces of the said Ann Staples, and the issue of such of them as should be dead.

All persons claiming any beneficial interest in or under such devise and bequest, are hereby required to send particulars of their claims or demands, and of their relationship to the said John Staples or Ann Staples respectively, on or before the 11th day of November, 1862, to James Porter, of No. 7, Gloucester-place, Camberwell, in the county of Surrey (the acting executor and trustee of the said will), or to Henry Minett, of Ross, in the county of Hereford, Solicitor, in order that the same may be investigated and ascertained. And notice is hereby given, that the said James Porter will, immediately after the said 11th day of November, 1862, proceed to distribute and pay the net proceeds of the sale of the said real estates to the persons appearing to be entitled thereto, having regard only to the claims of such persons as shall then have been proved and established. And that the said James Porter will not be liable for any part of the said proceeds to any person or persons of whose claims or demands he shall not then have had notice, or whose claim shall not be proved and established.

The said John Staples died in the year 1810, and is supposed to have had one nephew and two nieces only, all of whom were children of his sister Sarah, afterwards the wife of Russell, the names of such children were Richard Russell, Mary Russell, and Sarah Russell. Richard married and had issue. Mary married George Heath and had issue. Sarah married Williamson and had issue, three sons, named respectively George, John, and Thomas, all of whom died as it is believed without issue.

The said Ann Staples, whose maiden name was Peake or Pake, died in the year 1819, and was previous to her marriage resident at Bury Saint Edmunds: it is believed she had several brothers and sisters.—Dated 18th September, 1862.

HENRY MINETT, Ross, Herefordshire, Solicitor for the said James Porter.
