MEDALS FOR THE LATE TURKISH CONTINGENT.

War Office, October 10, 1862.

MEMORANDUM.

The Turkish Medals due to those persons who served in the late Turkish Contingent during the Russian war, whose names have been included in a nominal list furnished to this Department by the General Officer who commanded that Force, have been received in this country, and are ready for distribution.

Applications for these Medals must be made to this Department by letter, addressed to the "Under Secretary of State for War, War Office, London, "S W.," with the words "Application for Turkish Medal" in the corner of the cover. Those persons below the grade of officer, who received certificates of discharge at the time, should forward such certificates with their applications. Those who are now serving in the Army must forward their applications through their present Commanding Officer, accompanied by a statement of their service in the Force in each case. The Medals of deceased persons will be forwarded to the legal representative in each case, on proper proof of identity being furnished.

It must be distinctly understood that, in order to obviate a double issue, no application can be entertained from those persons who served in the Turkish Contingent, and have already received, or are entitled to, the Turkish Crimean Medal, for service in the British Army before Sebastopol.

Board of Trade, Whitehall, October 9, 1862.

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs an extract of a despatch from Her Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires at Buenos Ayres, inclosing a copy of a new Customs Law for the Argentine Republic, of which the following is a translation :—

THE NEW CUSTOM-HOUSE LAW OF THE ARGENTINE REPUBLIC.

Buenos Ayres, August 19, 1862.

SECTION 1.

Of Imports by Water.

ART. 1. Gold and silver, coined or in bullion, unset precious stones, printing machines, their necessities, together with the paper used exclusively for printing, lithographic presses, printed books and paper, horned cattle for breeding, plants of every kind, fresh fruits, firewood, charcoal, coal, posts for cattle pens, lime, and all articles destined exclusively to the working of mines, and the extraction of their metals, are declared free of duty on their importation.

ART. 2. Gold and silver, worked or manufactured, with or without precious stones, cloth of silk embroidered with gold or silver, and every instrument or utensil with handle or ornament of the aforesaid metals, machines for the use and exercise of any industry, wools for embroidery, together with the thread and silk for sewing or embroidering, quicksilver, common salt, soda and carbonate of soda, saltpetre, gypsum, stone for building, bricks, anchors, laths, woodwork for orchards, timber in balks, unworked brass and steel, copper moulded or in pigs, lead in sheets or bars, iron in bar, ingots, sheets, or hoops, tin, solder of tin, unworked wax, talc, oblon, rushes for chair bottoms, wire for fences, tortoise-shell, tar, pitch, ploughs, and agricultural implements; and in general all primary articles for the use of industry shall pay 5 per cent. on their value.

ART. 3. Silks of all kinds shall pay 8 per cent.

ART. 4. Wool, linen, or cotton, manufactured or woven, tanned hides, worked metals, excepting those of gold and silver, ready made clothing, boots and shoes, paper of all classes except that of printing, instruments or utensils of arts, drugs, and all other articles not mentioned in the other resolutions of this law shall pay 15 per cent.

ART. 5. Sugar, tobacco, yerba mate, coffee, tea, cocoa, coca, olive oil, table salt, all classes of groceries, wines, and spirituous liquors, in general shall pay 20 per cent.

ART. 6. From the preceding article are excepted wheat, which shall pay 12 rials per fanega; flour, which shall pay an equal amount per quintal; and Indian corn, a dollar per fanega; the importation of Indian corn, by and in grain and flour, being free.

ART. 7. The wharfage due for goods despatched direct shall be 5 centimos for each arrabas of weight, or its equivalent in measurement, according to the classification of bulk, which the Executive will determine.

ART. 8. Liquids in casks shall be measured or refilled at the time of their despatch, without taking into notice other leakage that actually proved; for those in bottles, if the parties interested are not desirous of inspecting them, will be given 5 per cent. for breakage.

ART. 9. The executive power is authorized to allow the free introduction of seeds destined for agriculture, and also for those articles which in his judgment he shall consider exclusively destined to religion, and requested by curates in charge of churches or heads of confraternities; instruments or utensils of science, machines for undertaking new fabrics or industries, furniture, and implements of immigrants, and those things destined exclusively to their establishment.

SECTION 2.

Of Exports by Land and Water.

ART. 10. Horse and cattle hides of every kind, mule and sheep hides in general, hide cuttings, jerked and salted meat, salt tongues, ostrich feathers, bones, bone ash, horns and horn cuttings, horsehair, dirty or washed wool, animal oil, tallow grease, rendered or raw; horses and cattle, of hair and wool per head, will pay 5 per cent. of their value on exportation.

ART. 11. All other produce or manufactured articles of the Argentine provinces which are not mentioned in the preceding Article, such as gold and silver, coined or in bullion, is free of export duty.

SECTION 3.

Of the Deposit and Transit.

ART. 12. The Custom-house duty established shall admit in deposit every article which, on its introduction, is subject to import duty.

ART. 13. The deposit shall be made at the discretion of the Government in public or private warehouses, or on board, in the ports under the immediate jurisdiction of the Custom-house; the State not being responsible for loss or damage to merchandize deposited in private warehouses; and in this case the expenses of storage and wharfage to be defrayed by the importer.

ART. 14. To the executive power corresponds in every case the regulation of deposits in private warehouses, moreover, he is equally empowered to regulate the services of the Custom House porters, in all or part on behalf of the parties interested, in which case these are exempted from the wharfage dues which correspond to them.

ART. 15. The term for which merchandize shall be admitted to deposit, is limited to two years, reckoning from the date of the entry of the vessel; after this the merchandize shall be despatched for consumption or transit; notwithstanding, however, the deposit may be renewed, subject to the examination of the goods, and the payment of the arrears of storage and wharfage.

ART. 16. The dues of wharfage and storage shall be paid at the removal of the merchandize from the warehouses, and it shall be regulated by a tariff, which the executive power shall form and revise every year, upon the basis of the effective expenses of the deposit, excepting for sales of manufactures in general, which will pay one-eighth per cent. per month upon their value in deposit.

ART. 17. A month begun for storage shall be considered as a month finished for the recovery of the dues.

ART. 18. Merchandize taken out in transit for abroad, is exempted from the dues of wharfage and storage for the first twelve months of their deposit.

ART. 19. The state is responsible for the goods deposited in the stores under his charge, excepting in cases which cannot be provided against, in which it is not blamable or in damages incurred by the inherent nature of the effects, or their coverings.

ART. 20. The Custom House will allow the free transit of merchandize in deposit by water from one port to another of the Republic.

ART. 21. The Custom House will also allow the transshipment of all merchandize, free of duty, within the term of ninety days, counting from the day of the entry of the vessel bringing the same.

SECTION 4.

Of the manner of Calculating the Duties.

ART. 22. The duties shall be regulated by an inspector, accompanied by valuator, and shall be estimated on imported goods according to their value in bond, and on exports according to their value in the public market at the time of their shipment, except those, which according to their character, can be previously classified and valued, the duties whereof shall be calculated according to the tariff of valuations formed on this basis.

ART. 23. The executive shall make such tariff or fix the valuations on such goods and produce every six months.

ART. 24. In every case where a manufactured article is composed of two or more materials which are subject to different duties, that which pays the higher duty shall be the one collectable.

ART. 25. Goods, which at the time of despatch are in a damaged condition, shall be valued according to the price they realise in public auction after deducting the duties payable.

ART. 26. In case of any dispute between the inspector, valuator, or owner, on account of any goods or produce not included in the tariff of valuation, the despatch thereof shall be suspended until the question shall be settled; and when the parties cannot agree, the Custom House has the right and may be compelled to take such goods or produce at the valuation which they put thereon, paying therefor in Treasury Bill.

ART. 27. Merchants shall accept bills, at 6 months sights, for all duties exceeding $50; all duties less than $50 silver shall be paid in cash.

ART. 28. Export duties shall be paid in cash, and shall be liquidated at the place of shipment, it being prohibited to ship any goods without first paying the duties thereon.

SECTION 5.

Extra Duties.

ART. 29. All goods liable to import duties shall pay an additional duty of 2½ per cent., excepting goods upon which specific duties are imposed, and which shall pay such specific duties.

ART. 30. The produce of the country, subject to export duty, shall pay an extra duty of 5 per cent.

ART. 31. All additional duties shall be collected and payable apart from the ordinary.

SECTION 6.

General Rules.

ART. 32. The tariff of valuations at present in force in the Custom-houses of this Province, shall hold good for the whole of the Republic, until the end of the present year.

ART. 33. The payment of all duties in the Custom-houses of the Republic shall be payable in any of the moneys which have been legalized by the National Law of the 1st October, 1860, or in the paper money of Buenos Aires, at the rate of 20 dollars m/c for every silver dollar, at the option of the parties themselves. All documents heretofore issued to be taken in payment for customs are hereby declared null and void.

ART. 34. Duties shall also be payable through-out the Custom-houses of the Republic in the national copper coin, at its nominal value, or in Bolivian silver money, according to its relative value with gold in the market.

ART. 35. In the province of Corienko the duties shall be also payable in the current paper money of said province, and shall be taken for its full value in gold until it shall be withdrawn from circulation.

ART. 36. All goods upon which import duties shall have been paid in any Custom-house of the Republic, shall have free transit throughout its territory; land transit being prohibited for those which shall not have paid duty, excepting only for such goods as are intended for transportation from the port of Concordia to the ports of Brazil on the Uruguay.

ART. 37. This law shall take force from and after 15 days' publication in the respective Custom-houses of the Republic.

ART. 38. All laws or regulations conflicting with the foregoing shall be, and are hereby repealed.

ART. 39. Let this be published.

Given in the National Congress in Buenos Aires, this 18th August, 1862.

CONTRACT FOR APPOINTMENTS FOR THE ROYAL MARINES.

Department of the Comptroller of Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-House, October 7, 1862.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday, the 23rd instant, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, all such quantities of

GOLD BASKET CORD, GOLD BRAID, GOLD LACE, and GOLD EMBROIDERED CROWNS,

as shall from time to time be demanded, under a contract for twelve calendar months certain, and further until the expiration of three calendar months' warning.

Patterns of the articles may be seen at the Royal Marine Office, New-street, Spring-gardens, between the hours of eleven and two o'clock.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the above Department.

Particular attention is called to the recent modifications of the conditions of the contract, which may be seen at the said Department.

No tender will be received after half-past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Appointments," and must also be delivered at Somerset-house, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £200, for the due performance of the contract.

EDW. BERNARD,

Assistant Inspector-General of Imports and Exports.

Office of the Inspector-General of Imports and Exports, Custom House, London, 9th October, 1862.

CONTRACT FOR OXEN FOR SALT BEEF FOR HER MAJESTY'S NAVY.

Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Somerset - House,
October 6, 1862.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby give notice, that on Thursday, the 30th instant, at half-past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Yard at Deptford, all such

OXEN FOR SALT BEEF,

as shall from time to time be demanded between the 31st October next, and the 31st March, 1863, both days inclusive.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office.

Particular attention is called to the recent modifications of the conditions of the contract, which may be seen at the said office.

No tender will be received after half-past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Oxen for Salt Beef," and must also be delivered at Somerset-House, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £500, for the due performance of the contract.

South Sea House, London.

NOTICE.—The Directors of the South Sea Company having under the provisions of the Act of Parliament of the 17th Victoria (generally known as "The South Sea Company's Winding-up Act, 1854.") proceeded to wind up the affairs, and divide and distribute the assets of that Company, as in the said Act is directed, all persons having any claim or claims against the said South Sea Company for or in respect of any stock now or lately standing in their books, or the dividend or dividends thereon, or any debt or debts, obligations or engagements, of the said Company, are requested forthwith to send the particulars of their respective claims, and of the documentary or other evidence in support thereof, to the Office of the Trustees of the above mentioned Company, at the South Sea House, Threadneedle-street, London, at which office personal attendance is given every
