THE Queen has been graciously pleased to appoint George Frere, Esq., to be Her Majesty's Judge, Edgar Leopold Layard, Esq., to be Her Majesty's Arbitrator, and William Tasker Smith, Esq., to be Secretary or Registrar, in the Mixed Court established at the Cape of Good Hope, under the Treaty of the 7th of April, 1862, between Great Britain and the United States, for the suppression of the African Slave Trade.

Foreign Office, October 25, 1862.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to appoint George Skelton, Esq., to be Her Majesty's Judge, and William Smith, Esq., to be Secretary or Registrar, in the Mixed Court established at Sierra Leone, under the Treaty of the 7th of April, 1862, between Great Britain and the United States, for the suppression of the African Slave Trade.

Foreign Office, October 28, 1862.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to appoint Sir Andrew Buchanan, K.C.B., now Her Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to the King of the Netherlands, to be Her Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the King of Prussia.

Downing Street, October 25, 1862.

An Ordinance, No. 19, of 1862, having been enacted by the Governor of Mauritius and its Dependencies, with the advice and consent of the Council of Government thereof, and confirmed by Her Majesty, entitled as follows:—"An Ordinance for enabling the Government to pay three hundred thousand pounds from the Colonial Treasury and to borrow money on debentures to the extent of one million pounds for the construction of Railways in the Colony";—Section IV. of which Ordinance is as follows:—

"Every Debenture shall be signed on behalf of the Government by the Secretary and Treasurer of the Government of Mauritius for the time being, and by Her Majesty's Agents-General for Crown Colonies in London for the time being, or by either of them, as Agents for the negotiation of the loan, provided that if the Secretary of State think fit to appoint any public officer in London to sign such debentures on behalf of the Government of Mauritius, the said debentures may be signed by the public officer so appointed instead of the Secretary and Treasurer of the Government, and any public notice in the London Gazette of such appointment shall be deemed and held sufficient evidence thereof."

Notice is hereby given, that in pursuance of the said IVth Section of the said Ordinance, Edward Bullock Andrews, Esq., Collector of Internal Revenues in Mauritius, has been appointed, by the Secretary of State for the Department of the Colonies, His Grace the Duke of Newcastle, K.G., to sign, in London, on behalf of the Government of Mauritius, the debentures to be at present issued under the said Ordinance, to the extent of two hundred thousand pounds, instead of the Secretary and Treasurer of the Government of Mauritius.

VICTORIA, R.

VICTORIA, by the grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland Queen, Defender of the Faith. To all to whom these presents shall come, Greeting.

WHEREAS it has been represented unto Us that the Principality of Dhar, in the Province of Malwa, in India, has for many years been under Our protection, and on the death of the Rajah, in the month of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, the Government of India allowed the adopted heir of the late Rajah to succeed to the Principality. That shortly after this event the mercenary soldiers of the Rajah of Dhar rose in revolt, and burnt the stations of Bhopawa and Sirdarpore, hoisted the Mussulman standard, seized the fortress of Dhar, and defied Our authority. That for the suppression and punishment of these outrages a force, consisting of Our troops and of the European and native troops of the East India
