Foreign Office, November 3, 1862.

IT is hereby notified, that on the 30th October, Earl Russell, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, received from Her Britannic Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires at Caracas, a despatch, enclosing the copy of a decree issued by the Venezuelan Government, declaring the ports and coasts of Maracaybo in that republic to be in a state of blockade.

The decree, in so far as it relates to the blockade, is as follows:—

ART. 1°. Se declaran cerrados los puertos y costas de Maracaybo: esto es, toda la linea que corre del Cabo de San Roman, en la peninsula de Paraguana, à la punta de Espada en la peninsula Goajira.

ART. 2°. Los puertos y costas espresados en el Articulo anterior se declaran tambien en estado de bloquer.

ART. 3°. El bloquer surtira sus efectos à los sesenta dias despues de esta fecha, en cuanto à los buques procedentes de Europa; à los trunta dias respecto à los despachados de Demerara y de las Antillas, excepto los buques que vengan de San Thomas, Sta. Cruz, Curazao y sus dependencias, para los corales el termino será de ocho dias.

ART. 4°. Si antes de expirar tales plazas, se acercare algun buque, sea cual fuere su nacionalidad, à los puertos y lugares bloqueados, la fuerza bloqueadora, le notificará la existencia del bloquer, anotando en sus papeles de navegacion el dia y el lugar ó la altura en que lo haya encontrado y tambien la notification hecha. En caso de insistir el buque en su pretension de entrar à pesar del aviso, quedara sujeto à ser detenido y confiscado.

ART. 5°. Quedando prohibida toda comunicacion con los puntos à que se extiende el bloquer, la fuerza encargada de él tan solo permitirá la salida de los buques extranjeros que hayan entrado àntes de su establecimiento.

ART. 6°. Los Comandantes de los buques bloqueadores procederan con los buques que detengan por violacion del bloquer del modo prevenido en la Ordenanza de Corso de 30 de Marzo de 1822, que se aplicará en lo que no se oponga à las disposiciones anteriores.

(Translation.)

ART. 1. That the ports and coasts of Maracaybo are to be closed: that is, all the line which runs from Cape San Roman, in the peninsula of Paraguaná, to the point Espada, in the Goajira peninsula.

ART. 2. The ports and coasts referred to in the preceding Article are also declared in a state of blockade.

ART. 3. The blockade will be effective sixty days after date with regard to vessels arriving from Europe; thirty days for those despatched from Demerara and the other West India Islands, excepting the vessels coming from St. Thomas, St. Croix, Curazoa and its dependencies, for which the time will be eight days.

ART. 4. If before the expiration of such terms a vessel shall arrive, whatever be its nationality, to the ports and places blockaded, the blockading forces will notify the existence of the blockade, noting in its log-book the day and place, or the latitude in which such vessel was met, and also the notification made. In case the vessel should insist in the pretension to enter, notwithstanding the notification, it will be subject to detention and confiscation.

ART. 5. All communication with the places to which the blockade is extended being prohibited, the force in charge thereof will only allow the sailing of such foreign vessels as have entered before the blockade was established.

ART. 6. The Commanders of the blockading force will proceed against the vessels which they detain in consequence of violation of the blockade, in the manner provided by the Order on Privateering of the 30th of March, 1822, which will be applied in a manner not at variance with the anterior dispositions.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the forty-sixth section of "The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862," it is enacted that if any lighthouse, buoy, or beacon is erected or placed or reconstructed, repaired, or replaced by any local authority having jurisdiction in the matter of lighthouses, buoys, or beacons, Her Majesty may, on the application of the said local authority, by Order in Council fix such dues to be paid to the said local authority in respect of every ship which enters the port or harbour under the jurisdiction of such local authority, or the estuary wherein such lighthouse, buoy, or beacon is situate, and which passes the said lighthouse, buoy, or beacon, and derives benefit therefrom as Her Majesty may deem reasonable. And whereas the Corporation of the Trinity House, in Kingston-upon-Hull, being the local authority having jurisdiction in the matters hereinafter mentioned, have erected, and are now exhibiting, four beacons, each carrying a light, whereof two are on the west side of Whitton Ness, in the parish of Whitton, in the county of Lincoln, and two on the east side of the said Ness, in the parish of Wintringham, in the said county, and have also placed a buoy in the River Humber, of Whitton Ness aforesaid : Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers vested in her by the said recited Act, by and with the advice of her Privy Council, is pleased to direct that there shall be paid to the said Corporation of the Trinity House, in Kingston-upon-Hull, in respect of every ship, including every vessel used in navigation not propelled by oars, which being in the River Humber shall pass and derive benefit from the said beacons, lights, and buoy, or any of them (except vessels of Her Majesty's Royal Navy, Government revenue vessels, vessels belonging to or used by the general lighthouse authorities, or by the Board of Trade, and vessels when supplied with the ordinary fishing gear, and employed in catching fish, or in carrying to port fresh fish from the fishing grounds), for each time of passing and deriving benefit from such beacons, lights, and buoy, or any of them, if the burthen of such vessel shall be less than twenty tons, the sum of twopence, and if the burthen of such vessel shall amount to or exceed twenty tons, then a sum which shall be at the rate of twopence for every entire number of ten tons in the burthen of such vessels, including the first twenty tons.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 1st day of November, 1862,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the 333rd section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted that, subject to the provisions contained in the fifth part of that Act, it shall be lawful for every Pilotage authority, by bye-law made with the consent of Her Majesty in Council from time to time, to do within its districts all or any of the things specified in that behalf in the said section.

And whereas the Trinity House Corporation being the pilotage authority under the said Act for the London and English channel districts, the limits whereof now are "the waters of the Thames and Medway as high as London-bridge and Rochester-bridge, respectively, and also the seas and channels leading thereto or therefrom, as far as Orfordness to the north and Dungeness to the south, and the seas between Dungeness and the Isle of Wight," has submitted for the consent of Her Majesty in Council the bye-law, a copy whereof is set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed, with respect to the pilotage of the said London and English channel districts.

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that the said bye-law is proper and reasonable ;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Her by the said recited Act, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to approve, and doth hereby approve of and signify Her consent to the said bye-law as a bye-law of the said Trinity House with respect to the pilotage of the London and English channel districts.

SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Order refers.

From and after the first publication in the London Gazette of the Order signifying the consent of Her Majesty in Council to this bye-law, there shall be paid to all Trinity House pilots for all ships piloted within the limits of the London and English channel districts such dues in respect of their pilotage services as are specified in the table following :—

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the seventh day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of All Saints, situate at Crawley Down, in the parish of Worth, in the county of Sussex, and in the diocese of Chichester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of All Saints, situate at Crawley Down aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Ashhurst Turner, Bishop of Chichester, testified by his having signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Worth, described in the schedule hereunto annexed, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of All Saints, Crawley Down.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Ashhurst Turner, Bishop of Chichester, testified as aforesaid, we further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect thereof should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet."

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of All Saints, Crawley Down, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Worth, in the county of Sussex, and in the diocese of Chichester, which is situate to the east and north-east of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides such parish from the parish of Burstow, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Winchester, at a point in the middle of 'Rushmore-lane,' and opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'C.D. A.S. D.C. 1862, No. 1.' and placed on the eastern side of such lane; and extending thence first south-eastward, and then south-westward, and then southward along the middle of the same lane (passing Pot Common and the eastern side of Crabbett Park), as far as a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'C.D. A.S. D.C. 1862, No. 2.' and placed on the eastern side of the said lane at the middle of the northern extremity of the fence which divides the close numbered 609, upon the Tithe Commutation Map of the said parish of Worth, and upon the Map hereunto annexed, from the close numbered 590, upon the same Maps; and extending thence first south-eastward to the said boundary stone, and then southward along the middle of the said fence, and along the middle of the fences which divide the close numbered 609, as aforesaid, and the closes numbered respectively 607, 606, and 604, upon the said Maps, from the closes numbered respectively 592, 593, 598, 599, and 599a, upon the same Maps, to a boundary stone inscribed 'C.D. A.S. D.C. 1862, No. 3,' and placed on the northern side of the road which leads from Crawley to Turners Hill, at a point opposite to the middle of the southern extremity of the fence which divides the said close numbered 604, from the close numbered 599a as aforesaid, and near to and on the eastern side of Hay Heath; and extending thence first south-eastward along the middle of the last described road (crossing the line of the East Grinstead Branch of the London, Brighton, and South Coast Railway), as far as a point where the road leading from Worth Church and the road leading from Standing Hall Farm, join the said road leading from Crawley to Turners Hill; and continuing thence first eastward and then south-eastward along the road last referred to (passing the southern side of Telley's Farm), as far as a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'C.D. A.S. D.C. 1862, No. 4,' and placed on the southern side of such road at the middle of the north-western extremity of the fence, which divides the close numbered 999, upon the said Maps, from the close numbered 991, upon the same Maps; and extending thence still south-eastward to the last mentioned boundary stone; and continuing thence in the same direction along the middle of the last described fence, and along the middle of the fences which divide the close numbered 999, as aforesaid, and the closes numbered respectively 998 and 997, upon the said Maps, from the closes numbered respectively 992 and 996, upon the same Maps, to a boundary stone inscribed 'C.D. A.S. D.C. 1862, No. 5,' and placed upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Worth from the parish of West Hoathly, in the said county of Sussex, and in the diocese of Chichester aforesaid."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof; and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of All Saints, situate at Crawley Down, in the parish of Worth, in the county of Sussex, to be called "The District Chapelry of All Saints, Crawley Down," be accordingly made; and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners, with reference to the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, in the said church, and with reference to the fees to be paid in respect of those offices, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Chichester.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 1st day of November, 1862.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventh day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the new parish of Saint Catherine, at Wigan, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Chester.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said new parish of Saint Catherine, at Wigan, which is hereinafter mentioned and described, should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas a sum of three thousand and thirty pounds has been paid to us upon the understanding that until such money shall have been invested by us in lands or hereditaments, to be secured for the benefit of the incumbent of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, there shall be paid by us to such incumbent by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of November and the first day of May in every year, the annual sum of one hundred pounds, and we have undertaken to make such payments accordingly.

"And whereas certain land suitable for the site of a church for the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, has, under the provisions of the statutes called or known as the 'Church Building Acts,' been duly granted and conveyed to us as and for such site by William Ince Anderson, of Euxton Hall, in the said county of Lancaster, Esquire.

"And whereas Thomas Knowles, of Ince, in Makerfield, in the same county, Esquire (one of the persons by whom the said sum of three thousand and thirty pounds has been provided and has been so paid to us as aforesaid), and certain other persons (being responsible parties) to the number of ten in all, are held and bound to us in the penal sum of six thousand pounds, by a bond or obligation sealed by them and dated the tenth day of July now last past, for the erection within two years from such date, upon the site so granted and conveyed to us as aforesaid, of a church for the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, such church to be erected to our satisfaction and to be of the clear value of three thousand pounds.

"And whereas it is proposed that one half part at least of the sittings in the said intended church shall be free and unappropriated, and that the remainder of the said sittings shall be let at annual rents after a rate or scale to be fixed and determined by us in accordance with the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, and that the proceeds of the said rents not otherwise appropriated by law, shall be applied towards the support of, and as and for a stipend for, the minister of the said district; and so soon as such district shall have become, under the provisions of the herein firstly mentioned Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, then of the perpetual curate thereof, and to such other purposes as may be hereafter ordered and declared by us, by an instrument in writing under our common seal, with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, pursuant to the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act.

"And whereas we are of opinion that there is reason to expect that from and after the consecration of the church so to be erected for the said district as aforesaid, an income equivalent at the least to one hundred pounds per annum, will be received by the minister or perpetual curate of the said district or new parish, from the rents of pews let for his benefit as aforesaid.

"And whereas it has been proposed to us by the persons who have provided the said hereinbefore mentioned capital sum of three thousand and thirty pounds as an endowment for the said district and new parish, and it appears to us to be expedient that in consideration of such sum, the whole right of patronage of the said district or new parish (as the case may be) and of the nomination of the minister or perpetual curate thereto, should be vested in, and exercised by, the five several persons hereinafter named.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of Chester, in testimony of which consent he has signed and sealed this scheme, that all that part of the new parish of Saint Catherine, at Wigan, described in the schedule hereunto annexed (all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed), shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and shall be named 'The District of Ince in Makerfield.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district or new parish and of the nomination of the minister or perpetual curate thereof, shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised jointly by, the Reverend William Marsh, of Beckenham, in the county of Kent, Doctor of Divinity, by the Reverend William Carus, Clerk, Canon of the Cathedral Church of Winchester, by the Reverend John Venn, Clerk, Prebendary of the Cathedral Church of Hereford, by the Reverend Edmund Holland, of Benhall Lodge, in the county of Suffolk, Clerk, and by the Reverend Edward Auriol, of Mecklenburgh-square, in the county of Middlesex, Clerk, and their heirs or assigns.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Ince in Makerfield, being:—

"All that part of the new parish of Saint Catherine at Wigan, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Chester, which is comprised within the limits of the township of Ince, in Makerfield."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has been, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore firstly mentioned Act, transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron of the perpetual curacy of the said new parish of Saint Catherine, at Wigan, out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and such patron, for his part, has signified his assent to the same scheme.

And whereas the period of one calendar month has now expired since the date of the transmission of the said draft to the said incumbent as aforesaid, and no observations thereupon or objections thereto have been made by him.

And whereas, moreover, since the date of the transmission of such draft to the said incumbent as aforesaid (to wit, on the eleventh day of July now last past) a writ of sequestration was issued, under the hand and seal of the said John, Bishop of Chester, whereby the temporalities of the cure of the said new parish of Saint Catherine, at Wigan, were sequestered into the hand of George Nuttall Shawcross, of Wigan aforesaid, the sequestrator in the same writ named and appointed.

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has been transmitted to the said George Nuttall Shawcross, as such sequestrator as aforesaid, and he, the said George Nuttall Shawcross has since signified his assent as such sequestrator to the same scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in Law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the Diocese of Chester.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 1st day of November, 1862,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, sections two, three, four, and seven; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventh day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, sections two, three, four, and seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for assigning certain lands and hereditaments as the endowment of the See of Peterborough.

"Whereas the Right Reverend George, Bishop of Peterborough, succeeded to the See of Peterborough on an avoidance which happened before the passing of the hereinbefore mentioned Act, and is in receipt of the amount named by Act of Parliament as the income of the Bishop of Peterborough, viz.: four thousand and five hundred pounds per annum, and the said George, Bishop of Peterborough, has signified to us his willingness to accept as the endowment for his See the lands, tenements, and hereditaments particularly described in the two parts of the schedule hereto annexed, whereof those portions which are specified in the first part of the schedule now belong to the said Bishop and his successors in the said See, and the portions specified in the second part of the same schedule are now vested in us, the lands, tenements, and hereditaments, so specified in the said two parts of the schedule aforesaid, being, in the opinion of our Estates Committee, convenient to be held as the endowment of the See, and calculated to secure to the holder thereof as nearly as may be (after deducting costs of management) a net annual income of four thousand and five hundred pounds and no more, and that such assignment of lands and hereditaments as is hereinafter recommended and proposed should be made so that all the lands and hereditaments not so assigned, which now form part of the endowment of the said See, may thereupon become vested in us and applicable to the purposes of our common fund.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said George, Bishop of Peterborough, testified by his having signed this scheme, and sealed the same with his episcopal seal, we humbly recommend and propose that upon the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly published Order, the lands, tenements, and hereditaments, particularly described in the two parts of the schedule hereunto annexed, with their appurtenances, and all the right, title, estate, and interest therein, together with all tithes or rent charges in lieu of tithes arising thereout, or charged thereupon, and the benefit of the perpetual land-tax (if any) charged upon the same premises, shall be assigned as the endowment of the Bishoprick of Peterborough, and shall as from the twenty-ninth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, become and be absolutely vested in the said Bishop, in as full and ample a manner as if the same had formed part of the ancient possessions of the same See, subject nevertheless, to the liabilities and charges to which the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, are now liable.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Act or of any other Act of Parliament.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 1st day of November, 1862.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words following ; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Saint Andrew, Holborn, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, and out of the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Gray's-inn-road, in the same county and diocese.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said parish of Saint Andrew, Holborn, and of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Gray's-inn-road, hereinafter mentioned and described, such portions not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas a sum of five thousand pounds, three pounds per centum Reduced Bank Annuities, has been contributed and transferred to our account and into our name in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, by John Gellibrand Hubbard, of Number 19, Birchinn-lane, London, Esquire, upon an understanding that until the proceeds of any sale which may be made by us of such Stock shall have been invested in lands or other hereditaments to be secured for the benefit of the incumbent of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, there shall be paid by us to such incumbent by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of November and the first day of May in every year, the annual sum of one hundred and fifty pounds ; and we have undertaken to make such payments accordingly.

"And whereas it has been proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient that, in consideration of the transfer of the said sum of five thousand pounds, three pounds per centum Reduced Bank Annuities as aforesaid, the whole right of patronage of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister thereof should be assigned to the said John Gellibrand Hubbard, his heirs, and assigns, in manner hereinafter also recommended.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said parish of Saint Andrew, Holborn, and of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Gray's-inn-road, described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Alban, Holborn.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and become absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said John Gellibrand Hubbard, his heirs, and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

The SCHEDULE, to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Alban, Holborn, being :—

"All that portion of the parish of Saint Andrew, Holborn, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is situate to the north and north-east of an imaginary line, commencing upon the boundary dividing the said parish from the new parish of Saint Peter, Saffron-hill, in the same county and diocese, at a point on the northern side of the roadway of lower Holborn, opposite to the middle of the southern end of Leather-lane; and extending thence, westward, along the northern side of the roadway aforesaid, to a point opposite to the middle of the southern end of Gray's-inn-lane; and extending thence, north-westward, to and along the middle of the last-named lane, as far as the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Andrew, Holborn, from the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Gray's-inn-road, in the county and diocese aforesaid.

"And also all that portion of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Gray's-inn-road, which is situate to the south of an imaginary line, extending along the middle of Liquorpond-street."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, been transmitted to the incumbents and to the patrons of the churches of the said parish of Saint Andrew, Holborn, and of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Gray's-inn-road, (out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken), and certain observations and objections which have been offered and taken by the incumbent of the said parish, and by the patron and incumbent of the said new parish respectively, have been laid before Her Majesty in Council together with the said scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has, notwithstanding such observations and objections, been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 1st day of November, 1862.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourteenth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church, situate at Gawcott, in the parish of Buckingham, in the county of Buckingham, and in the diocese of Oxford.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church, situate at Gawcott aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Samuel, Bishop of Oxford, testified by his having signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Buckingham, described in the schedule hereunto annexed, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Gawcott.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Samuel, Bishop of Oxford, testified as aforesaid, we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect thereof should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order with respect thereto, as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet."

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Gawcott, being :—

"All that part of the parish of Buckingham, in the county of Buckingham, and in the diocese of Oxford, which is comprised within the respective limits of the chapelry or hamlet of Gawcott, and of the hamlet of Lenborough."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof; and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church, situate at Gawcott, in the parish of Buckingham, in the county of Buckingham, to be called "The District Chapelry of Gawcott," be accordingly made; and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners with reference to the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials in the said church, and with reference to the fees to be paid in respect of those offices, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Oxford.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 1st day of November, 1862.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes and districts.

"We humbly recommend and propose that there shall be paid by us, out of the common fund, in the said Acts mentioned, in each and every year, to the incumbent for the time being, of each of the benefices or churches described in the first Schedule hereunto annexed, the annual sum set opposite to the name of each such benefice or church, in the last column of the same Schedule, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year: Provided always, that in the case of the vicarage of the parish of Langford, with the chapelry of Little Faringdon annexed; and in the case of the vicarage of the parish of Norwell, with the chapelry of Carlton-upon-Trent annexed, the grant recommended as aforesaid shall be paid only upon the production to us, on or before the first day of May and the first day of November, in each and every year, of a Certificate under the hand of the bishop of the diocese, that a curate, duly licensed by such bishop, has been employed within each such parish or district, as the case may be, during the preceding half year.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the lands and hereditaments described in the second Schedule hereunto annexed, situate within the parishes of Saint Chad and Saint Michael, Lichfield, in the county of Stafford, and diocese of Lichfield, formerly belonging to the prebend of Freeford, in the cathedral church of Lichfield, and now vested in us, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law, other than this scheme, and any du'y gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, be transferred to, and become absolutely vested in, the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of Christ Church, Lichfield, in the same county and diocese.

"And we further recommend and propose that all our right, title, and interest to and in the churchyard of the parish of Scamblesby, in the said county and diocese of Lincoln, shall, in like manner and by the authority aforesaid, be transferred to, and become absolutely vested in, the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Scamblesby.

"And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the Reverend John Morgan, Clerk, the perpetual curate or incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the parish of Llandudno, in the county of Carnarvon, and diocese of Bangor, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that the tithes, or rent charges in lieu of tithes, described in the third schedule hereunto annexed, and therein numbered I, arising out of, or upon, lands situate within the said parish of Llandudno, with their appurtenances, and also the lands and hereditaments described in the same schedule, and therein numbered II, situate within the said parish of Llandudno, with their appurtenances, all which formerly belonged to the archdeaconry of Merioneth, in the same diocese, and are now vested in us, and all our estate and interest therein shall, in like manner and by the authority aforesaid, be transferred to, and become absolutely vested in, the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Llandudno, in lieu of, and in full substitution for, and discharge of, the annual sum or stipend of twenty pounds, now payable by us to the said perpetual curate or incumbent, in respect of the estates formerly belonging to the said archdeaconry, and also in lieu of, and full substitution for, and discharge of, the annual sum or stipend of twenty pounds, now payable by us to the same perpetual curate or incumbent, under the provisions of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-five.

"And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the Reverend Thomas Aubertin, clerk, the perpetual curate or incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the parish of Melton Ross cum New Barnetby, in the county and diocese of Lincoln aforesaid, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that the tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes, described in the fourth schedule hereunto annexed, and therein numbered I, arising out of or upon lands situate within the said parish of Melton Ross cum New Barnetby, with their appurtenances, and also the lands and hereditaments described in the same schedule, and therein numbered II, situate within the said parish of Melton Ross cum New Barnetby, with their appurtenances, all of which formerly belonged to the said prebend of Melton Ross cum Scamblesby, and are now vested in us, and all our estate and interest therein, shall, in like manner and by the authority aforesaid, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Melton Ross cum New Barnetby, in lieu of and in full substitution for and discharge of the annual sum or stipend of fifteen pounds, now payable by us to the said perpetual curate or incumbent, in respect of the estates formerly belonging to the said prebend, and also of the annual sum or stipend of fifteen pounds, now payable by us to the same perpetual curate or incumbent, under the provisions of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the thirty-first day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight.

"And whereas under the provisions of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-first day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, an annual sum or stipend of twenty pounds was made payable by us, in each and every year, to the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the parish of Farndon, with the vicarage of the parish of Balderton annexed, in the county of Nottingham, and diocese of Lincoln, upon the production to us of a certificate under the hand of the bishop of the diocese that a curate, duly licensed, has been employed within the parish in which the said vicar or incumbent has not for such year resided.

"And whereas it has been represented to us and it appears to us to be expedient, that such condition should no longer be enforced.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that the said annual sum or stipend of twenty pounds shall be payable by us to the vicar or incumbent of the said vicarage of Farndon with Balderton, irrespectively of such condition as aforesaid.

"And whereas the grants which are hereinbefore recommended to be made to the benefices or churches of Saint Martin, Hereford; Saint Leonard, Shoreditch, London; Saint Matthias, Stoke Newington, London; and Usworth, respectively; are so recommended by us, with special reference to and in compliance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly mentioned Act.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that the several grants which are hereinbefore recommended to be made to the said lastly-mentioned benefices or churches shall commence and take effect from the twenty-eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, being the day on which the said hereinbefore secondly mentioned Act received your Majesty's assent.

"And whereas the grant which is hereinbefore recommended to be made to the vicarage of Llandyfriog, with the rectory of Llanfair Trêlygen annexed, is so recommended by us in respect of the reserved rent accruing under the lease of certain property formerly belonging to the archdeaconry of Cardigan, with the prebend of Llandyfriog annexed.

"And whereas under the provisions of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the first day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, the property formerly belonging to the said archdeaconry, with the said prebend annexed, became vested in us in reversion, as from the first day of January, in the same year.

"And whereas the incumbent of the said vicarage of Llandyfriog, with the rectory of Trêlygen annexed, was not licensed thereto until after the date at which such property became vested in us as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that the said grant hereinbefore recommended to be made to the said lastly-mentioned benefice or church, shall commence and take effect as from the fifteenth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, being the date at which the present incumbent of the said benefice or church, was licensed thereto by the bishop of the diocese.

"And whereas the grant which is hereinbefore recommended to be made to the perpetual curacy of Llandudno, is so recommended by us in respect, of property which became vested in us by the expiration of a lease, on or about the twenty-fifth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

"And whereas the grant which is hereinbefore recommended to be made to the perpetual curacy of Melton Ross cum New Barnetby, is so recommended by us in respect of property which became vested in us by the expiration of a lease, on or about the seventh day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that the annual payments, respectively so recommended by us as last-mentioned, shall, in each case, commence and take effect as from the respective dates of the expiration of such leases as aforesaid, that is to say, that the grant hereinbefore recommended to be made to the said perpetual curacy of Landudno, shall commence and take effect from the said twenty-fifth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two; and that the grant hereinbefore recommended to be made to the perpetual curacy of Melton Ross cum New Barnetby, shall commence and take effect from the said seventh day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 1st day of November, 1862.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls, within the new parish of Saint Stephen, Heigham Green, in the county of Suffolk, and in the diocese of Ely.

"Whereas the church of the said new parish of Saint Stephen, Heigham Green, is in the patronage of the vicar or incumbent, for the time being, of the vicarage of the parish of Gazeley, in the said county and diocese.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us, that the church of the said new parish is at present ill endowed, and that it is desirable that some additional provision should be made for the cure of souls within the said new parish.

"And whereas the master or keeper, fellows, and scholars of the college or hall of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, in the University of Cambridge, are the patrons of the vicarage of the said parish of Gazeley, and the Reverend William Cooke is the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the same parish.

"And whereas the said William Cooke, as such vicar or incumbent as aforesaid, with the consents of the Right Reverend Thomas, Bishop of Ely (the bishop of the diocese), and of the said master or keeper, fellows, and scholars (as such patrons as aforesaid), has by a deed, bearing date the eighteenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, duly annexed to the perpetual curacy of the said new parish of Saint Stephen, Heigham Green, for the benefit of the incumbent thereof and his successors, certain portions of the vicarial tithe rent-charges heretofore belonging to, and forming part of the endowments of the vicarage of the said parish of Gazeley, and arising within the limits of the said new parish of Saint Stephen, Heigham Green, and amounting together to the annual sum of one hundred and one pounds seventeen shillings and sixpence.

"And whereas such annexation of the said vicarial tithe rent-charges as aforesaid, was made upon the understanding, that out of the 'common fund,' created by the herein firstly mentioned Act, the capital sum, hereinafter mentioned, should be appropriated by us to the said new parish of Saint Stephen, Heigham Green, and also that the arrangement, with respect to the patronage of the same new parish which is hereinafter mentioned, should be submitted by us to your Majesty in Council.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered to appropriate out of the 'common fund,' so created as aforesaid, to the perpetual curacy of the said new parish of Saint Stephen, Heigham Green, the sum of three hundred and eighty-five pounds, and that such capital sum, or any part thereof, may be paid or applied by us towards the cost of providing a parsonage house for the incumbent for the time being of the said new parish.

"And we further recommend and propose, with the consents of the said Thomas, Bishop of Ely, and William Cooke (testified by their having respectively signed and sealed this scheme), that the whole right of patronage of the church of the perpetual curacy of the said new parish of Saint Stephen, Heigham Green, and of the nomination of a perpetual curate or incumbent to serve the same, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be transferred from the said William Cooke, as such vicar as aforesaid and his successors, in the same vicarage, and be assigned to, and be for ever vested in, and shall and may, from time to time, be exercised by the master or keeper, fellows, and scholars of the college or hall of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, in the University of Cambridge aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Ely.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 1st day of November, 1862,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourteenth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John the Baptist, situate at Netherfield, in the parish of Battle, in the county of Sussex, and in the diocese of Chichester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint John the Baptist, situate at Netherfield aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Ashhurst Turner, Bishop of Chichester, testified by his having signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion; be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Battle, described in the schedule hereunto annexed, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint John the Baptist, Netherfield.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Ashhurst Turner, Bishop of Chichester, testified as aforesaid, we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect thereof should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church, for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet."

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint John the Baptist, Netherfield; being:—

"All that part of the parish of Battle, in the county of Sussex, and in the diocese of Chichester, which is situate to the north-west of an imaginary line commencing at the boundary post placed on the southern side of the road leading from Ashburnham to Battle, at the point where the boundary dividing the parish of Penhurst, in the county and diocese aforesaid from the parish of Catsfield, in the same county and diocese, meets the boundary of the said parish of Battle; and extending thence, first northward, to the middle of such road, and then north-eastward, along the middle of the same road, as far as a point opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of the turnpike-road leading from Beech Down to Heathfield; and extending thence, north-westward, to and along the middle of the last described road, as far as a point opposite to a boundary stone, inscribed 'N. St. J.D.C., 1862., No. 1,' and placed on the northern side of the said road, at the middle of the south-western end of the fence dividing the inclosure called Mile Oak Wood, and numbered 657, upon the Tithe Commutation Map of the said parish of Battle, and upon the map hereunto annexed, from the inclosure numbered 517, upon the same maps; and extending thence, north-eastward, to such boundary stone, and continuing thence in the same direction along the middle of the said fence, and of the fences dividing the inclosures numbered respectively, 657, as aforesaid, 656, 674, and 654, upon the said maps, from the inclosures numbered respectively, 518, 658, and 655, upon the same maps, to a point in the middle of the stream flowing from Beech Mill Pond, opposite to a boundary stone, inscribed 'N. St. J.D.C., 1862, No. 2,' and placed on the eastern bank of such stream, at a point opposite to the eastern extremity of the fence dividing the inclosure numbered 654 from the inclosure numbered 655 as aforesaid; and extending thence, first eastward, along the middle of such stream, and then north-eastward, along the middle of the same stream passing under the road leading from Battle to Netherfield Church, and passing also under the Flimwell and Hastings turnpike-road to the boundary which divides the said parish of Battle from the parish of Mountfield, in the county and diocese aforesaid, near Pond Wood."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof; and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John the Baptist, situate at Netherfield, in the parish of Battle, in the county of Sussex, to be called "The District Chapelry of Saint John the Baptist, Netherfield," be accordingly made; and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners with reference to the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials in the said church, and with reference to the fees to be paid in respect of those offices, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Chichester.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 1st day of November, 1862.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Saint Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, out of the new parish or reputed new parish of Camden Town (sometime part of the said parish of Saint Pancras), out of the new parish or reputed new parish of Kentish Town (also sometime part of the said parish of Saint Pancras), and out of the new parish of Saint Paul,

Camden New Town (also sometime part of the said parish of Saint Pancras)

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular parts of the said parish of Saint Pancras, of the said new parish or reputed new parish of Camden Town, of the said new parish or reputed new parish of Kentish Town, and of the said new parish of Saint Paul, Camden New Town, hereinafter mentioned and described, (such parts not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship,) should be constituted a separate district, in the manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas certain hereditaments and premises situate within the said parish of Saint Pancras have become vested in us under the provisions of and for the purposes of the herein-mentioned Acts.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme,) we humbly recommend and propose that all those parts of the said parish of Saint Pancras, of the said new parish or reputed new parish of Camden Town, of the said new parish or reputed new parish of Kentish Town, and of the said new parish of Saint Paul, Camden New Town, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, (all which parts, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed,) shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The district of Saint Thomas, Agar Town.'

"And we further recommend and propose that there shall be paid by us in each and every year, by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November, to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the provisions of the said secondly mentioned Act, the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds, and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister as aforesaid; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry of such district shall happen on any day other than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount next thereafter payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister making the vacancy or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister succeeding to such district: Provided always, that if it shall appear to us to be expedient at any future time that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the minister of the said district, or instead of any part of such annual sum, any land, tithe, or other hereditament should be conveyed or secured to such minister and his successors, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Thomas, Agar Town, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Saint Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, and also all that part of the new parish or reputed new parish of Camden Town (sometime part of the said parish of Saint Pancras), and also all that part of the new parish or reputed new parish of Kentish Town (also sometime part of the said parish of Saint Pancras), and also all that part of the new parish of Saint Paul, Camden New Town (also sometime part of the said parish of Saint Pancras), which are comprised within and bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Pancras from the new parish of All Saints, Battle Bridge, in the same county and diocese, at the point on the western side of Maiden-lan-bridge, where the said boundary is joined by the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Pancras from the new parish of Saint Luke, King's Cross, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence, south-westward, along the last described boundary to its junction in Wharf-road with the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Pancras from the new parish or reputed new parish of the parish chapel of Saint Pancras (also sometime part of the said parish of Saint Pancras); and extending thence in a direction, generally north-westward or south-westward, along the last-described boundary to its junction in King's-road with the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Pancras from the new parish or reputed new parish of Camden Town aforesaid; and extending thence, north-westward, along the last-described boundary as far as a point in the middle of the line of the North London Railway; and extending thence, westward, along the middle of the said line of railway as far as the boundary in the middle of the Kentish Town-road which divides the last-named new parish or reputed new parish from the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Haverstock-hill (also sometime part of the said parish of Saint Pancras); and extending thence, northward, along the last-described boundary and along the boundary dividing the last-named new parish from the new parish or reputed new parish of Kentish Town aforesaid, as far as a point in the middle of the Kentish Town-road aforesaid, opposite to the middle of the western end of Rochester-road; and extending thence, first eastward, to and along the middle of the last-named road, and then south-eastward, along the middle of the same road (crossing the boundary which divides the last-named new parish or reputed new parish from the new parish of Saint Paul, Camden New Town aforesaid) to a point in the middle of Camden-road; and extending thence, north-eastward, along the middle of the last-named road as far as a point opposite to the middle of the north-western end of the roadway which forms the north-eastern side of Rochester-square; and extending thence, south-eastward, to and along the middle of such roadway to a point in the middle of the street called Stratford-place; and extending thence, north-eastward, along the middle of Stratford-place to a point in the middle of Murray-street; and extending thence, south-eastward, along the middle of the last-named street to a point in the middle of Saint Paul's-road; and extending thence, eastward, along the middle of the last-named road to a point on the boundary dividing the said new parish of Saint Paul, Camden New Town from the new parish of Saint Andrew, Islington, in the county and diocese aforesaid upon the western side of Maiden-lane otherwise called York-road; and extending thence, south-eastward, along the last-described boundary to its junction with the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Pancras from the new parish of Saint Andrew, Islington aforesaid; and continuing thence, in the last-mentioned direction, along the last-described boundary to its junction with the boundary dividing the parish of Saint Pancras from the new parish of All Saints, Battle Bridge, as aforesaid; and continuing thence, southward, along the boundary last referred to as far as the point on the western side of Maiden-lane-bridge, where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly mentioned Act, been transmitted to the incumbents and to the patrons of the churches of the said parish of Saint Pancras, of the said new parish or reputed new parish of Camden Town, of the said new parish or reputed new parish of Kentish Town, and of the said new parish of Saint Paul, Camden New Town, (out of which parish and new parishes, or reputed new parishes, it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken).

And whereas one calendar month has elapsed since a draft of the said scheme was so transmitted as aforesaid.

And whereas certain objections to the said scheme have been made by the incumbent of the new parish of Saint Paul, Camden New Town.

And whereas the said scheme has, notwithstanding such objections, been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 1st day of November, 1862,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the district chapelry of Christ Church, Hoxton (some time part of the parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch), in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the portion of the said district chapelry of Christ Church, Hoxton, which is hereinafter mentioned and described, such portion not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, should be constituted a separate district, in manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas certain hereditaments and premises, situate within the said parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch, have become vested in us under the provisions of, and for the purposes of, the herein-mentioned Acts.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that all that portion of the said district chapelry of Christ Church, Hoxton, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portion, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Saviour, Hoxton.'

"And we further recommend and propose that there shall be paid by us in each and every year to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, the sum of two hundred pounds; and that so soon as a church shall have been built within such district, and shall have been duly approved by us, and consecrated as the church of such district and for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and such district shall have thereupon become, according to the provisions of the same Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, there shall be paid by us in each and every year to the perpetual curate for the time being of such new parish the further sum of one hundred pounds, making together the annual sum of three hundred pounds; and that the said sums of two hundred pounds and one hundred pounds respectively shall be paid, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year; and that the first of each of such respective payments, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or the first day of November next after the day of the date of the license of such minister, or of the approval and consecration of such church as aforesaid, as the case may be; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or incumbency of such district or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount next thereafter payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or perpetual curate making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish: Provided always, that if it shall appear to us to be expedient at any future time that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the minister or perpetual curate of the said district or new parish, or instead of any part of such annual sum, any land, tithe, or other hereditament should be conveyed or secured to such minister or perpetual curate and his successors, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The district of Saint Saviour, Hoxton, being:—

"All that portion of the district chapelry of Christ Church, Hoxton (some time part of the parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch), in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, which is situate to the east of an imaginary line commencing at the boundary stone near the northern end of the Rosemary Branch-bridge, which marks the point where the boundary which divides the new parish of Saint Matthew, Islington, in the county and diocese aforesaid, from the particular district of Saint Peter, De Beauvoir Town, in the same county and diocese, meets the northern boundary of the said district chapelry of Christ Church, Hoxton; and extending thence, southward, in a straight line to and along the said Rosemary Branch-bridge to its southern extremity; and continuing thence, in the same direction, and in a straight line to a point in the middle of the northern end of the street called 'Bridport-place;' and extending thence, in the same direction, along the middle of such street to the boundary near the southern extremity of the same street which divides the said district chapelry of Christ Church, Hoxton, from the district parish of Saint John, Hoxton (also sometime part of the said parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch)."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly mentioned Act, been transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron of the said district chapelry of Christ Church, Hoxton (out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken), and such incumbent and patron have respectively signified their assent to the said scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London:

Arthur Helps.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 1st day of November, 1862.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourteenth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church called Christ Church, situate at Crouch End, in the parish of Hornsey, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church, called Christ Church, situate at Crouch End aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, testified by his having signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Hornsey, described in the schedule hereunto annexed, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Hornsey.'

"And with the like consent of the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, testified as aforesaid, we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect thereof should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Hornsey, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Hornsey, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is comprised within and bounded by an imaginary line, commencing at a point in the middle of Hornsey-lane, where the boundary dividing the said parish from the consolidated chapelry of Saint Michael, Highgate, in the same county and diocese, meets the boundary dividing the said parish of Hornsey from the new-parish of Saint John, Upper Holloway, in the same county and diocese; and extending thence, eastward, along the last described boundary, and along the boundary dividing the said parish of Hornsey from the new parish of Saint Mark, Tollington Park, in the same county and diocese, as far as the boundary stone marking the north-eastern angle of the last-named new parish, and placed on the southern side of a certain lane leading from Crouch Hill to Mount Pleasant; and extending thence, first northward, to the middle of such lane, and then eastward, along the middle of the same lane, and along the middle of a certain footpath leading therefrom to Hornsey, as far as a point in such footpath, opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'H. Ch. Ch. D.C. 1862, No. 1,' and placed in the middle of the southern end of the fence dividing a certain close belonging to the Reverend John Jenkins, of Stevenage, in the county of Hertford, Clerk, from the house and premises called Mount Pleasant, belonging to, and in the occupation of Peter Robinson, Esquire; and extending thence, in a direct line, northward, to such boundary stone, and continuing thence in the same direction, along the middle of the said fence and of the fence dividing the before-mentioned close belonging to the Reverend John Jenkins from certain land belonging to Mr. John Loat, of Balham Hill, in the county of Surrey, Builder, and Mr. George Streater Kempson, of Abingdon-street, Westminster, Solicitor, and which is let on a building lease to Mr. Alfred Syer, of Haringay Park, Lead Merchant, to a boundary stone inscribed 'H. Ch. Ch. D.C. 1862, No. 2,' and placed at the junction of the last described fence with the fence dividing certain land belonging to Henry Weston Elder, of Crouch End, Esquire, from the land belonging to Mr. Loat and Mr. Kempson as aforesaid; and extending thence, westward, along the middle of the last described fence and of the wall or fence dividing certain premises belonging to John Gibbons, of Crouch End, Esquire, and Samuel Sugden, of Southgate, Esquire, from the gardens belonging to the dwellings and premises known as Haringay Park, to a point in the middle of that portion of the road leading from Islington to Tottenham, which is called Crouch End Hill, opposite to the middle of the western extremity of the last described wall or fence; and extending thence, northward, along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with Middle Lane, and continuing thence, in the same direction, along the middle of the last-named lane, as far as a point opposite to the middle of the north-eastern end of the footpath leading from the same lane to Jacksons or Priory Lane; and extending thence, south-westward, to and along the middle of such last described footpath, as far as a point in the middle of Maynard-street; and extending thence, north-westward, along the middle of such street, as far as a point opposite to the middle of the north-eastern end of a certain footpath leading to Churchyard Bottom Wood; and extending thence, south-westward, to and along the middle of the last described footpath to the boundary dividing the said parish of Hornsey from the new parish of Saint James, Muswell-hill, in the same county and diocese, on the eastern side of Churchyard Bottom Wood aforesaid; and continuing thence, in the same direction, along the last described boundary for a distance of five hundred and forty-four yards or thereabouts, to a boundary stone inscribed 'H.

Ch. Ch. D.C. 1862, No. 3,' and placed in the middle of the northern extremity of the fence dividing the house and premises belonging to, and in the occupation of, Mr. Robert Besley, of the Priory, Highgate, from certain land belonging to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England; and extending thence, southward, to and along the middle of the last described fence to the boundary dividing the parish of Hornsey from the consolidated chapelry of Saint Michael, Highgate, as aforesaid, in the middle of the eastern extremity of Jacksons or Priory Lane aforesaid; and continuing thence, in the last-mentioned direction, along the last described boundary to the point in the middle of Hornsey Lane, where the said imaginary line commenced."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church called Christ Church, situate at Crouch End, in the parish of Hornsey, in the county of Middlesex, to be called "The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Hornsey," be accordingly made; and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners with reference to the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials in the said church, and with reference to the fees to be paid in respect of those offices, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 1st day of November, 1862,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the six and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Charlton, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said parish of Charlton, hereinafter mentioned and described (such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship), should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes in manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas by a deed, bearing date the seventh day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and being under the hands and seals of the Reverend Francis Cameron, the Rector of the rectory of the parish of Charlton aforesaid, Clerk, and of Sir Thomas Maryon Wilson, of Charlton aforesaid, Baronet, the patron of the said rectory of the parish of Charlton, under the hand and episcopal seal of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, the Ordinary of the said Rectory, and in whose diocese the said parish and rectory are situate, and under the common seal of us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, which deed is intended to be enrolled in your Majesty's High Court of Chancery, at Westminster, certain tithe commutation rent charges, or portions of tithe commutation rent charges, amounting in gross to the sum of two hundred and two pounds fifteen shillings and three pence per annum, issuing, arising, and payable out of or in respect of certain lands, tenements, and hereditaments situate within the said parish of Charlton, together with certain extraordinary charges in respect of hop grounds and market gardens forming part of the same lands and hereditaments, which said tithe commutation rent charges and other charges, heretofore formed part of the endowments of the said rectory of Charlton, have been granted and secured to the minister of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, so soon as one shall be appointed and licensed, and to his successors, ministers thereof.

"And whereas it has been proposed to us by the said Francis Cameron, and it appears to us to be expedient that, in consideration of such grant of tithe commutation rent charges and other charges as aforesaid, the whole right of patronage of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister of the same, should be assigned to, and vested in, the person or persons who for the time being may be entitled to nominate or appoint an incumbent to the rectory of the said parish of Charlton, upon a vacancy thereof.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said parish of Charlton which is described in the schedule hereunder written (all which part together with the boundaries thereof is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed), shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become, and be constituted, a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Paul, Charlton.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister thereof shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to, and be vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the person or persons who, for the time being, may be entitled to nominate or appoint an incumbent to the rectory of the said parish of Charlton, upon a vacancy thereof.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Paul, Charlton, being :—

"All that part of the parish of Charlton, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of London, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is situate to the north-west of an imaginary line, commencing upon the boundary dividing such parish from the parish of Greenwich, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of that portion of the turnpike-road leading from Blackheath to Woolwich which is called 'Charlton Road;' and extending thence first eastward, and then north-eastward, and then northward along the middle of such turnpike-road, as far as a point opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of Church-lane; and extending thence first westward to and along the middle of such lane, and then north-westward along the middle of the same lane, as far as a point opposite to the south-western end of the wall forming the northern boundary of the churchyard of the church of the said parish of Charlton; and extending thence first north-eastward, to and along the northern side of the said wall, and then south-eastward along the eastern side of the wall, forming the eastern boundary of the said churchyard to the extremity of the last-described wall, and continuing thence in the last-mentioned direction, and in a straight line to a point in the middle of the turnpike-road, called Charlton-road aforesaid; and extending thence first eastward, along the middle of such turnpike-road, and then north-eastward along the middle of that portion of the same turnpike-road which is called 'Little Heath,' as far as the boundary dividing the said parish of Charlton from the new parish of Saint Thomas, Woolwich, in the same county and diocese."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, been transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron of the parish out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and such incumbent and patron have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 1st day of November, 1862.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme, for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Billingham, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that the particular part of the said parish of Billingham, herein-after mentioned and described (such part not at present containing within its limits, any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship), should be constituted a separate district in manner herein-after set forth.

"And whereas certain lands and hereditaments situate within the said parish of Billingham, and also certain tithes or rent-charges in lieu of tithes, arising, issuing, and payable out or in respect of certain lands and hereditaments, situate within the same parish, have become vested in us under the provisions of, and for the purposes of, the herein-mentioned Acts.

"And whereas by a deed, bearing date the twenty-first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and under the respective corporate or common seals of the Very Reverend George Waddington, Doctor of Divinity, the Dean and the Chapter of the cathedral church of Christ and Blessed Mary the Virgin, at Durham, and of us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, a clear rent-charge, or annual sum of one hundred pounds, issuing and payable out of and charged upon certain lands, tenelements, and hereditaments, situate at or near to Haverton Hill, within the said parish of Billingham, has been granted and secured by the said Dean and Chapter, to or for the use of the minister or incumbent of the district herein-after recommended to be constituted so soon as one shall be appointed and licensed, and to his successors, ministers, or incumbents thereof for the time being; and so soon as such district shall have become, under the provisions of the herein secondly-mentioned Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, then to the incumbent for the time being of the said new parish.

"And whereas by the herein-before mentioned deed, the said Dean and Chapter have also granted and conveyed to us and our successors, two acres of land, situate at or near to Haverton Hill aforesaid, as and for a site for a church and burial ground for the district herein-after recommended to be constituted; and by the same deed the said Dean and Chapter have likewise granted and conveyed to us and our successors four acres of land, also situate at or near to Haverton Hill aforesaid, as and for a site for a house of residence for the minister or incumbent of the same church.

"And whereas it has been proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that in consideration of the said grants by the said Dean and

Chapter as aforesaid, the whole right of patronage of the district herein-after recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent of the same, and so soon as such district shall have become a new parish as aforesaid, then of the said new parish and of the perpetual curate thereof, should be assigned to the said Dean and Chapter and their successors, in manner herein-after mentioned.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of Durham (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme,) we humbly recommend and propose, that all that part of the said parish of Billingham, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that such district shall be named 'The District of Haverton Hill.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the provisions of the herein secondly-mentioned Act, the annual sum of one hundred and twenty pounds; and that upon any building within such district, being duly licensed by the bishop of the diocese for the performance of divine service, according to the provisions of the same Act, there shall be paid by us, in like manner, to such minister, the further annual sum of thirty pounds, making together the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds; and that so soon as a church or chapel shall have been erected within such district, and shall have been approved by us, and consecrated as the church or chapel of such district, and for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and such district shall have thereupon become, according to the provisions of the same Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, there shall be paid by us, to the perpetual curate for the time being of such new parish, the further annual sum of fifty pounds, making in the whole the sum of two hundred pounds; and that the said sums of one hundred and twenty pounds, one hundred and fifty pounds, or two hundred pounds, as the case may be, shall be paid by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister, or of such building, or of the consecration of such church or chapel as aforesaid, as the case may be; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or perpetual curacy of such district or new parish, shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount then next thereafter payable, shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or the perpetual curate making the vacancy; or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish: Provided always, that if it shall appear to us to be expedient at any future time, that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the minister or perpetual curate of the said district or new parish, or instead of any part of such annual sum, any land, tithe, or other hereditament should be conveyed or secured to such minister or perpetual curate and his successors, nothing herein, or in any other scheme contained, shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said district or new parish, and of the nomination of the minister or perpetual curate thereof, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to, and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may, from time to time, be exercised by the Dean and Chapter of the said Cathedral Church of Durham, and their successors, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Haverton Hill, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Billingham, in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is situate to the east and south of an imaginary line, commencing on the boundary dividing such parish from the parish of Middlesborough, in the county of York and in the diocese of York, at a point in the middle of the river Tees, opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'H.H.D. 1862, No. 1,' and placed at the eastern end of the embankment, which divides the close numbered 328 on the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Billingham, and on the map hereunto annexed, from the close numbered 397 on the same maps; and extending thence, north-westward, and in a direct line (crossing certain land which is now being reclaimed from the said river Tees), to such boundary stone; and extending thence, in the same direction, along the middle of the said embankment to the entrance gate to the close numbered 397 as aforesaid; and extending thence, first, northward, along the middle of such gate, and then westward along the middle of the fence which divides the same close from Marsh-lane to the junction of such last-mentioned fence with the fence which divides the close numbered 334 on the said maps, from the close numbered 397 as aforesaid; and extending thence in a direction, generally northward, along the middle of the last-mentioned fence and of the fences which divide the closes numbered respectively 335 and 340 on the said maps, from the closes numbered respectively 396 and 345 on the same maps to the junction of the fence dividing the close numbered 340 from the close numbered 345 as aforesaid, with the fence which divides the close numbered 341 from the said last-mentioned closes, at which point of junction a boundary stone, inscribed 'H. H. D. 1862, No. 2,' is placed; and extending thence in a direction, generally north-eastward, along the middle of the fences which divide the close numbered 341 as aforesaid, and the closes numbered respectively 344, 348, 392, 389, 383, 381, 378, and 377 on the said maps from the close numbered 345 as aforesaid, and from the closes numbered respectively 346, 347, 394, 393, 388, 384, 402, 404, and 407 on the same maps (crossing the Port Clarence Branch of the Hartlepool Railway), to a point in the middle of the watercourse, known as 'The Main Stell,' opposite to a boundary stone, inscribed 'H. H. D. 1862, No. 3,' and placed on the eastern bank of the said watercourse; and extending thence, first, northward, and then eastward along the middle of the Main Stell aforesaid to the eastern boundary of the said parish of Billingham."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly-mentioned Act, been transmitted to the incumbent, and to the patrons of the vicarage of the said parish of Billingham, out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted, shall be taken, and such incumbent and patrons have respectively signified their assent to such scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law, immediately from and after the time when this order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Durham.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the new parish of Benfieldside, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said new parish of Benfieldside, hereinafter mentioned and described (such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship) should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas certain hereditaments and premises, situate within the said new parish of Benfieldside, have become vested in us under the provisions of and for the purposes of the herein-mentioned Acts.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of Durham (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said new parish of Benfieldside which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part together with the boundaries thereof is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that such district shall be named 'The District of Consett.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us in each and every year, to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licenced according to the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds; and that upon any building within such district being duly licensed by the bishop of the diocese for the performance of divine service according to the provisions of the same Act, there shall be paid by us in like manner to such minister the further sum of fifty pounds, making together the sum of two hundred pounds; and that so soon as a church or chapel shall have been erected within such district, and shall have been approved by us, and consecrated as the church or chapel of such district, and for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and such district shall have thereupon become, according to the provisions of the same Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, there shall be paid by us to the perpetual curate for the time being of such new parish the further sum of one hundred pounds, making in the whole the sum of three hundred pounds; and that the said sums of one hundred and fifty pounds, two hundred pounds, or three hundred pounds, as the case may be, shall be paid by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year; and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the license of such minister, or of such building, or of the consecration of such church or chapel as aforesaid, as the case may be; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or perpetual curacy of such district or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount then next thereafter payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or the perpetual curate, making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish: Provided always, that if it shall appear to us to be expedient at any future time that, instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the minister or perpetual curate of the said district or new parish, or instead of any part of such annual sum, any land, tithe, or other hereditament should be conveyed or secured to such minister or perpetual curate and his successors, nothing herein, or in any other scheme contained, shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution.

No. 22677.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Consett being:—

"All that part of the new parish of Benfieldside, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, which is situate to the south of an imaginary line, commencing upon the boundary dividing the said new parish from the parish of Shotley, in the county of Northumberland, and in the said diocese of Durham, at a point in the middle of the river Derwent, opposite to the middle of the northern end of the stream, called Howden Burn; and extending thence, first southward to and along the middle of such stream, and then south-eastward, along the middle of the same stream, as far as the boundary which divides the township of Benfieldside from the township of Conside and Kntsley on the western side of Pemberton Road; and extending thence in a direction, either northward or eastward, along such township boundary to its junction (near Tin Mill Colliery) with the boundary which divides the said township of Benfieldside from a detached portion of the chapelry of Ebchester within the said new parish; and extending thence, first north-eastward and then south-eastward, along the last-described boundary to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Benfieldside from the parish of Lanchester, in the county and diocese of Durham aforesaid, at a point on the southern side of the turnpike road, leading from Shotley Bridge to Durham."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the herein-before secondly mentioned Act, been transmitted to the incumbent and to the patrons of the said new parish of Benfieldside (out of which it is intended that the district, therein recommended to be constituted, shall be taken) and such incumbent and patrons have respectfully signified their assent to the said scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law, immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Durham.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 1st day of November, 1862.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parochial chapelry of Witton-le-Wear, in the parish of Saint Andrew, Auckland, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the portions of the said parochial chapelry of Witton-le-Wear, which are hereinafter-mentioned and described, such portions not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, should be constituted a separate district in the manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas certain hereditaments and premises, situate within the said parochial chapelry of Witton-le-Wear, have become vested in us under the provisions of, and for the purposes of, the herein-mentioned Acts.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of Durham, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said parochial chapelry of Witton-le-Wear, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Fir Tree.'

"And we further recommend and propose that there shall be paid by us to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, the annual sum of two hundred pounds, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, and that the first such payment or a proportionate part thereof shall be made on the first day of May or the first day of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister, and that in case a vacancy in the ministry of such district shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount next thereafter payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister succeeding to such district: Provided always, that if it shall appear to us to be expedient at any future time, that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the minister of the said district, or instead of any part of such annual sum, any land tithe or other hereditament should be conveyed or secured to such minister and his successors, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

The District of Fir Tree, being:—

"All those portions of the parochial chapelry of Witton-le-Wear, in the parish of Saint Andrew, Auckland, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, which are comprised within and constitute the township of North Bedburn. And also all those portions of the same parochial chapelry which are comprised within so much of the township of Witton-le-Wear, as is situate to the north-west of an imaginary line, commencing upon the boundary dividing the said township of North Bedburn from the township of Witton-le-Wear aforesaid, at a point in the middle of the road leading from Howden, past Harghill Hill, to Witton-le-Wear; and extending thence south-westward, along the middle of such road as far as a point opposite to the middle of the eastern end of Douglas Lane; and extending thence westward to and along the middle of such lane to a point in the middle of the road leading from Fir Tree to Witton-le-Wear aforesaid; and extending thence southward for a distance of ninety-five yards or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-described road to a point in the centre of the culvert which carries such road over a certain stream flowing from Douglas Lane, through Millstone Quarry, to the river Wear; and extending thence first south-westward, along the middle of the said stream (crossing under the line of the Wear Valley Branch of the Stockton and Darlington Railway); and then south-eastward, along the middle of the same stream, to the boundary in the middle of the said River Wear, which divides the said parochial chapelry of Witton-le-Wear from the parochial chapelry of Hamsterley, in the parish of Saint Andrew, Auckland aforesaid."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly mentioned Act, been transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron of the said parochial chapelry of Witton-le-Wear (out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken).

And whereas certain observations have been made by such patron and incumbent upon the subject of such scheme, and whereas the said scheme has, notwithstanding such observations, been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law, immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Durham.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the first and second years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and seven; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the fourteenth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the first and second years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and seven; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint James, situate at Tunbridge Wells, in the district parish of the Holy Trinity, Tunbridge Wells, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint James, situate at Tunbridge Wells aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend John Bird, Archbishop of Canterbury (the bishop of the diocese), and of the Reverend Edward Hoare, the incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the said district parish of the Holy Trinity, Tunbridge Wells (testified by their having respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said district parish of the Holy Trinity, Tunbridge Wells, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said Church of Saint James, and that such proposed district should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint James, Tunbridge Wells.'

"And, with the like consents of the said John Bird, Archbishop of Canterbury, and Edward Hoare (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings, should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint James, and that the fees to be received in respect thereof, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being. Provided always, that so long as the said Edward Hoare shall continue to be the incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the said district parish of the Holy Trinity, Tunbridge Wells, all the fees which shall be received in respect of the performance of the said offices in the said church of Saint James, shall be paid by the said minister thereof to the said Edward Hoare.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet."

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District chapelry of Saint James, Tunbridge Wells, being:—

"All that part of the district parish of the Holy Trinity, Tunbridge Wells, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury, wherein the present Incumbent of such district parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is situate to the north-east of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said district parish from that portion of the parish of Frant, in the diocese of Chichester, which is situate within the said county of Kent, at a point in the middle of the lane leading through High Wood to Hall's Hole; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of such lane to its northern extremity; and continuing thence in the same direction across the road leading from Frant, past Hall's Hole, to the Hastings-road to the middle of the south-eastern end of Hall's Hole-lane; and continuing thence still in the same direction along the middle of the last-named lane to a point in the middle of the Hastings-road aforesaid; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last named-road as far as a point opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of the road leading through Calverley Park Gardens; and extending thence first north-westward to and along the middle of the last described road, and then westward along the middle of the same road, to a point in the middle of Calverley-road; and continuing thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named road, for a distance of fifty-five yards or thereabouts, to a point opposite to the middle of the southern end of a certain lane leading past the front of Calverley-cottages to Calverley-street; and extending thence first northward to and along the middle of the said lane, and then north-westward along the middle of the same lane, to a point in the middle of Calverley-street aforesaid; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with the Victoria School-road; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named road to a point in the middle of Quarry-road; and extending thence first north-eastward, and then northward along the middle of the last-named road, for a distance of two-hundred yards or thereabouts, to a point opposite to the middle of the eastern end of a certain new road connecting Quarry-road with Railway-road; and extending thence westward to and along the middle of the said new road to a point in the middle of Railway-road aforesaid; and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named road, for a distance of twenty yards or thereabouts, to a point opposite to the middle of the eastern end of another new road leading to the line of the South Eastern Railway; and extending thence westward to and along the middle of the last described new road to its extremity; and continuing thence in the last mentioned direction to the boundary which divides the said district parish of the Holy Trinity, Tunbridge Wells, from the new parish of Saint John, Tunbridge Wells, in the county of Kent, and diocese of Canterbury aforesaid, in the middle of the said line of the South Eastern Railway aforesaid."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof; and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint James, situate in the district parish of the Holy Trinity, Tunbridge Wells, in the county of Kent, to be called "The District Chapelry of Saint James, Tunbridge Wells," be accordingly made, and that the recommendations of the said commissioners with reference to the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, and churchings, in the said church, and with reference to the fees to be paid in respect of those offices, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts. And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Canterbury.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourteenth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church called Christ Church, situate in the parish of Penrith, in the county of Cumberland, and in the diocese of Carlisle.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church called Christ Church, situate at Penrith aforesaid,

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Honourable and Right Reverend Samuel, Bishop of Carlisle, testified by his having signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Penrith, described in the schedule hereunto annexed, all which part together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Penrith.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Samuel, Bishop of Carlisle, testified as aforesaid, we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient, that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at Christ Church aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect thereof should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend Samuel Johnson Butler, the present Incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Penrith, shall continue to be such Incumbent, all the fees which shall be received in respect of the performance of the said offices in the said church called Christ Church, shall be paid by the said minister thereof to the said Samuel Johnson Butler.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet."

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Penrith, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Penrith, in the county of Cumberland, and in the diocese of Carlisle, which is situate to the north of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides such parish from the parish of Newton Regny, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of the road leading from Newton to Penrith, and extending thence south eastward along the middle of such road so far as a point opposite to the middle of the western end of the footpath leading therefrom to Gillwilly lane, and extending thence eastward to and along the middle of such footpath to a point in the middle of the said lane, and continuing thence first southward and then eastward along the middle of such lane as far as a point in the centre of the foot bridge which carries the same lane over the line of the Lancaster and Carlisle Railway, and extending thence southward along the middle of such line of railway as far as a point under the centre of the bridge which carries the first described road leading from Newton to Penrith over the said line of railway, and extending thence eastward along the middle of such bridge, and along the middle of the road last referred to as far as a point opposite to the middle of the south western end of Scott lane, and extending thence north eastward to and along the middle of the last named lane to its extremity, and continuing thence in the last mentioned direction and in a straight line across the open space at the southern end of the street called 'Middle-gate' and of the street called 'Wilson's-row' to a point opposite to the middle of the north western end of Queen-street, and extending thence south eastward to and along the middle of the last named street as far as a point opposite to the middle of the south western end of Hunter-lane, and extending thence north eastward to and along the middle of the last named lane to the middle of Meeting House-lane, and extending thence south eastward along the middle of the last named lane to a point opposite to the middle of the south western end of Arthur-street, and extending thence north eastward to and along the middle of such street to its extremity, at a point opposite to the middle of the south western end of the fence which divides the close numbered 291 on the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Penrith, and on the map hereunto annexed from the close numbered 279 on the same maps, and extending thence still north eastward to and along the middle of the said fence, and continuing in a direction either north-westward or north eastward along the middle of the fences which divide the closes and premises numbered respectively 281 and 282 on the said maps, and the road leading therefrom, and the closes and premises numbered respectively 293 and 284 on the same maps, from the close numbered 280 on the said maps, and from the said close numbered 279 to a point in the middle of Beacon-road, opposite to the middle of the north-eastern end of the fence which divides the said close and premises numbered 284 from the close numbered 279 as aforesaid.

"And all which said part of the parish of Penrith is also situate to the west of another imaginary line commencing at the said point in the middle of Beacon-road, opposite to the middle of the north-eastern end of the fence which divides the said close and premises numbered 284 from the close numbered 279 as aforesaid, and extending thence north westward along the middle of the last named road to its junction with the road called 'Fair Hill Brow,' and extending thence westward along the middle of the last named road and across the southern end of the road called 'Carlisle Brow,' to a point in the middle of the turnpike road leading from Penrith to Carlisle, and extending thence in a direction generally northward along the middle of such turnpike road, passing Milestone House, Stoney Beck, and Plumpton Head, to the boundary which divides the said parish of Penrith from the parish of Hesketh in the Forest, in the county and diocese aforesaid."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof; and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church called 'Christ Church,' situate in the parish of Penrith, in the county of Cumberland, to be called "The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Penrith," be accordingly made, and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners with reference to the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials in the said church, and with reference to the fees to be paid in respect of those offices, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Carlisle.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourteenth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words following; that is to say—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Dacre, in the parochial chapelry of Pateley Bridge, in the parish of Ripon, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Dacre aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Robert, Bishop of Ripon, testified by his having signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parochial chapelry of Pateley Bridge, described in the schedule hereunto annexed, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Dacre.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Robert, Bishop of Ripon, testified as aforesaid, we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect thereof should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet."

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Dacre, being:—

"All that part of the parochial chapelry of Pateley Bridge, in the parish of Ripon, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon, which is comprised within the limits of the township of Dacre."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof; and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Dacre, in the parochial chapelry of Pateley Bridge, in the parish of Ripon, in the county of York, to be called "The District Chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Dacre," be accordingly made; and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners with reference to the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, in the said church, and with reference to the fees to be paid in respect of those offices, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Ripon.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 1st day of November, 1862,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order of Her Majesty in Council, dated the eleventh of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, Her Majesty was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it was thereby ordered, that powers should be vested in the Town Council of the borough of Beaumaris for providing requisite places of burial for the inhabitants of the said parish of Beaumaris, under the provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "an Act to make further provision for the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the metropolis."

And whereas in and by section 9 of the said Act, it is enacted that "where, previously to the making of any Order in Council under this Act, in relation to any borough, it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the petition of the the Town Council, so made as aforesaid, or otherwise, that any parish; wholly or in part, within such borough, is provided with a sufficient burial ground, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, in and by such Order, to direct that no part of such parish shall be assessed towards defraying the expences of executing this Act in such borough, and in such case no burial-ground provided for such borough under this Act shall be deemed to be provided for such parish; and any money required to be raised in such borough for defraying such expences, or paying any money borrowed under this Act by the Council of such borough, or any interest thereon, by means of a rate to be levied in such borough, shall be raised by a separate rate, to be levied within such parts of such borough as are not exempted under such Order from being assessed as aforesaid; and (so far as may be consistent with this provision), the Council of such borough shall have all such powers for making and levying such rate, and all provisions shall be applicable in respect thereof, as in the case of a borough rate made under the said Act of the fifth and sixth years of King William the Fourth."

And whereas, in and by section 1, of a certain other act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, and intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England" (after reciting, amongst other Acts, the said Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty's reign), it is enacted, that "it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council, for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council, made under any of the said recited Acts, or this Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit."

And by section 21 of the same Act, it is also enacted, among other things, "that the said Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty, and this Act shall be read and construed together as one Act."

And whereas, since the date and making of the said Order in Council, the Town Council of the borough of Beaumaris, have presented a petition to Her Majesty, under their common seal, stating therein and thereby that the said borough of Beaumaris is composed of the following parishes, wholly or in part, situate within the limits of the said borough, namely: Beaumaris, Llanfaes, Llandegfan, Llanistyn, Llanfihangel Tinsilwy, and Penmon, which parishes (except Beaumaris) are severally provided with sufficient burial-grounds, but that that fact did not appear on the petition upon which the said Order was made.

And in the said petition, the said Town Council of the borough of Beaumaris humbly prayed Her Most Gracious Majesty, that She would be pleased to order that the said Order in Council might be varied or amended, by directing that no part of such parishes (except Beaumaris) should be assessed towards defraying the expenses of executing the said Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, under which the said Order was made, in the said borough; also that the burial-ground, provided under the said Act for such borough, should be deemed to be provided for such parish of Beaumaris only, and that any money required to be raised in such borough of Beaumaris for defraying expenses, or paying any money borrowed under the said Act by the Council of such borough of Beaumaris, or interest thereon, by means of a rate to be levied in such borough of Beaumaris, should be raised by a separate rate to be levied within the said parish of Beaumaris; and that the said parishes of Llanfaes, Llandegfan, Llanistyn, Llanfihangel Tinsilwy, and Penmon, should be declared by the said Order to be exempted from being assessed to any expenses of providing a place of burial for the said parish of Beaumaris.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Order in Council of the eleventh of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, be, and the same is hereby, varied and amended accordingly, and that no part of the said parishes, or any of them (other than and except the said parish of Beaumaris), shall be assessed towards defraying the expences of executing the said Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth of Her Majesty's reign, under which the said Order was made, in the said borough. And also that the burial-ground provided under the said Act for such borough, shall be deemed to be provided for such parish of Beaumaris only, and that any money required to be raised in such borough of Beaumaris, for defraying expences or paying any money borrowed under the said Act, by the Council of such borough of Beaumaris, or interest thereon, by means of a rate to be levied in such borough of Beaumaris, shall be raised by a separate rate to be levied within the said parish of Beaumaris; and that the said parishes of Llanfaes, Llandegfan, Llanistyn, Llanfihangel Tinsilwy, and Penmon, shall be exempt from being assessed to any expences of providing a place of burial for the said parish of Beaumaris.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis;" it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-ground or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require), that after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time, as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation, shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish;

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground shall be opened in the undermentioned parishes; without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials shall be discontinued therein;

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the nineteenth day of July last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the first day of September last, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in either of the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and that burials in the said parishes shall be discontinued (except as is herein otherwise directed), as follows; viz.:

LINTON, KENT.—Forthwith in the vaults under the parish church.

WYKE, NEAR WINCHESTER.—Forthwith beneath the parish church, and from and after the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the churchyard; with the exception of now existing vaults and brick graves, which can be opened without the disturbance of human remains, and in which each coffin shall be separately entombed in brick or stone work properly cemented.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 1st day of November, 1862,

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis;" it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-ground or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require), that after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time, as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish;

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground shall be opened in the undermentioned parish without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials shall be discontinued therein;

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the sixth day of August last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the eighteenth day of September last, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in the undermentioned parish without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials in the said parish shall be discontinued (except as is herein otherwise directed), as follows ; viz. :

GILDERSOME.—Forthwith within the church ; and that from and after the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, no grave or vault be reopened in the churchyard unless to bury another member of the family of those previously buried therein ; also, that no grave be dug less than five feet deep, nor in soil not free from water, coffins, or undecayed bones ; and that all coffins buried in vaults be separately enclosed in masonry or brickwork properly cemented.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 1st day of November, 1862,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit ;

And whereas certain Orders in Council have been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter mentioned, from the time mentioned in such Orders respectively ; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be postponed ;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards be postponed, as follows ; viz. :

In CROWLE churchyard, from the first of October to the twelfth of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

In WHITBY churchyard, from the first of October, to the sixth of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

In ILLINGWORTH churchyard, from the first January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, to the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

In DALSTON churchyard, Cumberland, from the thirty-first of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, to the thirty-first of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 1st day of November, 1862,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament, held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Burial Acts," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to order such Acts to be done by, or under the directions of the churchwardens or such other persons as may have the care of any vaults or places of burial, for preventing them from becoming or continuing dangerous or injurious to the public health ; and that every such Order in Council shall be published in the London Gazette, and that such churchwardens or other persons shall do or cause to be done all acts ordered as aforesaid, and the expenses incurred in and about the doing thereof, shall be paid out of the poor rates of the parish : provided always, that no such representation shall be made until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the churchwardens or other persons, or one of the churchwardens or other persons having the care of the vaults or places of burial to which the representation relates :

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representations having been duly given to the churchwardens or other persons having the care of the Churchyards of Saint Mary's, Hull, and Chilham, near Canterbury, has made representations stating that he is of opinion that, for the purpose of preventing the vaults and graves beneath the church of Saint Mary's, Hull, and the mausoleum adjoining the north side of the church of Chilham, near Canterbury, from becoming or continuing dangerous to the public health, an Order should be made for the adoption of the measures which are hereinafter set forth :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to Order, and it is hereby Ordered, that the churchwardens of Saint Mary's, Hull, or such other persons as may have the care of the vaults beneath that church ; and the churchwardens of Chilham, near Canterbury, or such other persons as may have the care of the mausoleum adjoining the north side of the church, do respectively adopt, or cause to be adopted, the following measures, viz. :—

SAINT MARY'S, HULL ; that the vaults and graves beneath the church be filled up with earth mixed with charcoal and covered with a layer of concrete.

CHILHAM, near CANTERBURY; that the opening or communication at present existing between the chancel and the mausoleum, adjoining the north side of the church, be closed by brickwork two feet thick, well cemented, and that suitable gratings, opening into the churchyard, be made for the purpose of ventilation.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in either of the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and that interments in the same should be discontinued, with the following modifications; viz:

OLD CLEEVE, SOMERSET.—Forthwith in the churchyard, except in graves which can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposure of coffins or disturbance of entire bones.

CHILHAM, KENT.—Forthwith beneath the church.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the fifteenth day of December next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of or on some conspicuous places within the parishes affected by such representation, one month before the said fifteenth day of December.

Llandudno Pier.

(Application for Provisional Order for Powers to erect a Pier and to levy Tolls).

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to the Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council for Trade and Foreign Plantations, on or before the 23rd day of December next, by the promoters of the Llandudno Pier Company (limited), to make a Provisional Order pursuant to the provisions of the General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, and the General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, Amendment Act, for the following powers, or some of them:—

To construct a pier, jetty, and landing-place, with all proper works, approaches, and other conveniences connected therewith, for the embarking and landing of passengers, goods, and merchandise, that is to say:

A pier, commencing at a point on the Esplanade between the North and South Parades, opposite Gloddaeth-street, in the town of Llandudno, in the parish of Llandudno, in the county of Carnarvon, and extending seaward, in an easterly direction, 1350 feet, or thereabouts;

To levy tolls, rates, and duties upon, or in respect of, such pier and works, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of such tolls, rates, or duties; and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights or privileges.

And notice is hereby further given, that before the 30th day of November instant, proper plans and sections of the proposed pier and works, and also a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Carnarvon, at his office at Carnarvon, in the said county, and at the office of the Admiralty, and the Board of Trade, Whitehall, London.

And notice is hereby further given, that on and after the 23rd day of December next, printed copies of the proposed provisional Order will be furnished, to all persons applying for the same, at the price of one shilling each, by the parliamentary agents for the promoters, at their office as under.—Dated this 3rd day of November, 1862.

Cleeve and Evesham Turnpike Road,
(Continuation of Term; Repeal or Amendment of Act.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act passed in the first year of the reign of King William the fourth, intituled "An Act for more effectually repairing the road from Albion-street, in the town of Cheltenham, in the county of Gloucester, to Bunch-lane, in or near the village of Bishop's Cleeve, in the said county, to join the turnpike road leading from the town of Evesham, in the county of Worcester, to the said town of Cheltenham," and to continue and extend the term granted by the said Act, or any further term granted by any subsequent Act in extension of the original term, or to repeal the said first-mentioned Act, and to create a further term, and to make further provision with reference to the said road, or some part thereof; and power will be taken in the said Bill to continue or alter the tolls, rates, and duties authorized by the said first-mentioned Act to be taken on the said road, to levy new tolls, rates, or duties thereon, or on some part thereof, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of such tolls, rates or duties, to extinguish, pay off, compound, reduce, or make other arrangements with reference to the mortgages, debts, and other charges on the said road and tolls, and the interest thereof, to vary and extinguish some of the rights, privileges, and remedies of the mortgagees and other creditors thereon, to impose and vary penalties and restrictions on or in respect of acts and offences committed on or near the said road, and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights and privileges.

And notice is hereby also given, that printed copies of the said Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 23rd day of December next.

Dated this 30th day of October, 1862.

Henry Plumbe, Solicitor for the Bill.

In the Matter of a Patent granted to Samuel Cunliffe Lister, of Manningham, near Bradford, in the county of York, for the invention of "improvements in preparing and combing wool and other fibrous materials," bearing date the 24th day of February, 1851.

NOTICE is hereby, that the Patentee of the said letters patent has applied by petition to Her Majesty's Solicitor-General for leave, certified by his fiat and signature, to enter with the Clerk of the Patents of England a disclaimer and memorandum of alteration of certain parts of the title and specification to the said letters patent; and any person intending to oppose such application must give notice thereof at the office of the Solicitor-General, No. 11, New-square, Lincoln's-inn, within ten days from the date hereof.—Dated this 4th day of November, 1862.

William Carmichael, Agent for the Petitioner,
No. 24, Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane.

The whole of the articles to be delivered within two months from the date of contract.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the articles, but separate tenders must be made for each port, and no attention will be paid to any offers not so made.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any.

Samples of the articles may be seen at the Victualling Yards at Deptford and Gosport.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office, and at the Victualling Yard at Gosport, or to the Officer conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

Particular attention is called to the recent modification of the conditions of the contracts, which may be seen at the said office, and at the Victualling Yard at Gosport, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and to his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for" and must also be delivered at Somerset-house.

CONTRACT FOR RUM.

Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Somerset - House, October 31, 1862.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday, the 13th November next, at half-past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the undermentioned article; viz.:

Rum, 50,000 gallons; to be delivered in three weeks from the day of the date hereof, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the rum.

Payment will be made for the proof gallons to one-tenth of a gallon, the liquid contents being ascertained to the half gallon.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power for selection.

The rum to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where it is lying.

Samples of the rum to be sent in pints for each Import Mark, and the average strength of each Mark Ex to be stated, and not an average of different marks or strengths of several imports; and any parcel of rum that is found not to be of the same quality, mark, or average strength of the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the officers.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contract has been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office, or to the Officer conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

Particular attention is called to the recent modification of the conditions of the contract, which may be seen at the said office, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and to his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Rum," and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.
