

In the Matter of the Joint Stock Companies Acts, 1856, 1857, and 1859; and the National Ventilation Company (Limited) in Liquidation.

CHARLES GRAHAM CARTTAR, of No. 7, Skinners'-place, Sise-lane, in the city of London, Accountant, the Liquidator duly appointed for voluntarily winding up the National Ventilation Company (Limited), do hereby give notice, on behalf of the said Company, that an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Shareholders of the said National Ventilation Company (Limited), will be held on Tuesday, the 25th day of November, 1862, at the Registered Offices of the said Company, situate at No. 7, Skinner's-place, Sise-lane aforesaid, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of confirming certain Special Resolutions which were duly read and unanimously passed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Shareholders of the said Company, held at the said Registered Offices of the said Company, on Friday, the 24th day of October, 1862 (and which said Meeting was duly convened by notice), a copy of which resolutions are as follows:

1. That the Shareholders of the National Ventilation Company (Limited), in extraordinary meeting assembled, having heard the said agreement read, do hereby sanction and confirm the same, and the acts of the parties therein and thereto, and do hereby further consent to the said Charles Graham Carttar receiving, as Liquidator aforesaid, of and from the Ventilation and Sanitary Improvements Company (Limited), certain shares fully paid up in the said Ventilation and Sanitary Improvements Company (Limited), as and for the purchase money for the several letters patent and other effects more particularly set forth in the two respective schedules subjoined to the said recited agreement; and do hereby further authorize and empower the said Charles Graham Carttar, as Liquidator aforesaid, to enter into any other arrangements whereby such Shareholders may, in lieu of receiving cash or shares, or in addition thereto, participate in the profits, or receive any other benefit from the said Ventilation and Sanitary Improvements Company (Limited).

2. That the compromise entered into by the Liquidator with George Gravely, of Weldon Wansford, in the county of Northamptonshire, and James Lee, of No. 9, Thavies-inn, Holborn, in the county of Middlesex, whereby the said Liquidator received a composition of five shillings per share on the amount due on the shares respectively held by them in the National Ventilation Company (Limited), be and is hereby confirmed, approved, and sanctioned, pursuant to section 16 of the said Joint Stock Companies Act, 1857.

Dated this 14th day of November, 1862.

C. Graham Carttar, Liquidator for and on behalf of the Company.
