

pieces of Solognesies, 5915 pieces of Deriabanders, 2000 pieces of Betilles Orifacels, 1400 pieces of Betilles Calewapho, 1700 pieces of Betilles Allegia's, 1300 pieces of Betilles Ternatanes, 1700 pieces of Betilles Sestergantiun, 10080 pieces of Bherms, 2316 pieces of Chints of divers sorts, 7760 pieces of Caatchies of divers sorts, 4000 pieces of Cannekins, 30000 pieces of Corroots, 1920 pieces of Cambays from the Coast, 723 pair of painted Cambayes in Coats, 6 pieces of painted Hangings for Chambers, 6200 pieces of Fotalfens, 6246 pieces of Guiras, 19176 pieces of divers sorts of Gingham, 13600 Negroes Shirts, 18080 pieces of Niquanjas, 23039 pieces of divers Roemalls, 9000 pieces of Kankenias, 16052 pieces of Siadder Borael, 10760 pieces of divers Bafas, 51000 pieces of divers sorts of Guinea-Stuffs, 9280 pieces of Sail-Cloth.

Paris, August 20. The Duke of Martemar having his Majesties leave to come a shoar on account of his Indisposition, hath left the Command of his Squadron (till the Arrival of the Chevalier Foxwise) with the Chevalier d'Anfreville, who hath taken a Ship of Algiers, whose Passports he had examined, and found they had expired three years since; and therefore he was to be looked upon as a Pirate, and one that sailed with pretended Commissions, Another of the King's Ships meeting with an Algerine on their own Coast, and having Commanded the Captain to produce his Passports, he returned answer, That they lay in the mouth of his Cannon, and those that had a mind to be further satisfied about them, must look for them there: Whereupon the French Ship gave him two Broad-sides, killing him about 30 of his Men; and the Algerine also had made himself ready to make him a return in the same kind, but finding himself unable to maint in a Fight, he made the best of his way homeward, and had the good luck to escape into Port, though in a torn condition: In this Action the French lost about 7 or 8 Men. The 15 Gallies that have been before Civita Vecchia, have since also appeared before Naples: There are 15 others sitting out at Marseilles to believe these against their return. The King has given the Government of Foix, void by the death of the Marquis de Foix, to his Son, who is Ensign to the First Company of Musquetiers. And his Majesty has likewise disposed of the vacant Benefices: The Bishop of Montauban is promoted to the Archbishoprick of Ithouffe. The old Bishop of Nismes having resigned his Bishoprick (accepting in lieu thereof of the Abby of Lire in Normandy) that is now divided into two, and out of it is erected the new Bishoprick of Alez, which is conferred upon Doctor de Saultx of the Colledge of Sorbonne. The Bishop of Layaur succeeds to the remaining part of Nismes; and his vacancy is given to the Prior of St. Victor, Brother to the Marquis de Maily that lately Married Made-moiselle St. Hermine. We hear, that the Chevalier d' Humieres, Brother to the Marechal, is lately dead at Naples. They write from Rome, that the Pope had assisted a third time at a Congregation held concerning the Quintists; where it was decreed, That Doctor Molinus should publicly recant several Propositions drawn out of his Books, his Letters, and the Confessions of some that have been apprehended for those Opinions: And it is since said, that the said Doctor has accordingly made a publick Recantation in St. Peter's Church.

Windsor, August 13. The Sieur Zulestein being sent from the Prince of Orange to make the Compliments of Condolence in his Highness's Name, upon the death of the late Duchess of Modena, has had his Audience of Their Majesties, as also of the Queen Dowager, and her Royal Highness the Princess Ann of Denmark; being conducted by Sir Charles Cottrell Master of the Ceremonies; by whom he was also conducted in the same manner to his Audiences of Leave.

Windsor, August 16. This day Their Majesties left this place; the King going for Portsmouth on His Progress, and the Queen towards the Bath.

London, August 15. Yesterday his Royal Highness Prince George of Denmark landed at Harwich, and arrived here this afternoon, from whence he went immediately for Windsor.

These are to give Notice, That the Post will go every day in the week during his Majesties Progress, from the General Post-Office in Lombard-street; to the Town where his Majesty shall be during his whole Progress and absence from London: And that the Post will in like manner return from the said places. And that the Post will go to, and return from Bathe every day in the week during Her Majesties abode there.

The Master, Wardens, and Assistants of the Trinity House of Deptford-Strond, do give Notice to all Masters of Ships, That whereas the Port of ow in the West of England, hath for some years past been accounted a Barr'd place, which did occasion Ships in bad weather (to the great detriment and loss of several) to swim the same; there is now at the Entrance into the said Harbour, not less than Three Fathoms at Low Water; and it is accordingly so laid down by Captain Collins the King's Hydrographer, in the Draught thereof by him lately taken, to which they are referred.

Advertisements.

THE 14th Instant, one Richard Anis alias Ellis, an Irish Man, about 19 years of Age, round visage, lank light brown Hair, swarthy Complexion, with a black Coat, the false sleeves black and Gold coloured Velvet; Robbed his Master Mr. Tasker at Greenwich, of a Mother of Pearl Spoon, the Handle Silver Gilt, the Fashion a Horse's Leg, 4 Silver Salts, a pair of Candlessticks, Snuffers, and Snuff-dish, Point Crewats, Ruffles, and several other Laces, a Drab-berry and coloured Coat, with Gold and silk Buttons, a pair of Gold Top'd Gloves, and Gold Fringe for Gloves, Linnen, and divers other things of considerable value. Whoever gives Notice of the said Person, so as the Goods may be had again, or he is secured, to Mr. Nicols at the Indian-Queen on Lothgate Hill, or to Mrs. Hall at the Elephant and Castle without Temple-Bar, shall have a Guinea Reward.

A Youth about 17 years of Age, low of Stature, broad Shoulders, goes Wadling, round faced, bushy brown Hair, with Pock-holes in his Face; and wearing a Drab-berry Coat, Leather Breeches, and a black Hat; went away from his Master Thomas Dance. Whoever gives Notice of him, or the said Thomas Dance at the Crown Inn in Usbridge, or to Mr. John Simcoe at the Crown Inn in Holborn, shall have 20s Reward.

There will be a 12 Stone Plate of 50 l. price Run for in Woodstock-Park upon the 23d of September next, to be won by Three Heats; every Horse that is put in, is obliged to be sold for 100 Guineas; and is to be kept at Woodstock or Woodstock-Park Seven days before the Plate is Run for. The next day there will be a Heat for a Buck and Doe; the winning to be sold for twenty Pounds.

The Steward for the Basingstoke Plate, which is to be Run the First Tuesday in October next, desires all Gentlemen to enter their Horses, and pay their Money to Mr. John Coleman, Mayor of Basingstoke, or to Mr. John Ansl at the Cross Keys Tavern in Covent Garden, a month before the said Plate is Run for; where the Articles are to be seen.

These are to give Notice, That there's newly come over four hundred Canary Birds from Germany; which are to be sold at the black Bull at Tower-Dock, London.

Lost from Mr. Thomas Blagrave of Faringdon in Berk, the 17th Instant, a Mare and Colt; the Mare a dark brown, with short Bars, about 9 years old, and 14 hands high: The Colt a Roan colour, with a bald Face, and Suckles. Whoever lectures them, and give Notice to Mr. Blagrave before said, or to Mr. Richard Edmondson, Linnen-Draper at the White-Bear in Gracechurch-street, shall have a Guinea Reward.