Lord Chamberlain's Office, December 18, 1862.

THE Remains of Field Marshal His Royal Highness The Prince Consort, Husband of Her Majesty The Queen, and Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, were this day removed from the entrance of the Royal Vault, in Saint George's Chapel, Windsor, in which They had been temporarily placed after the Funeral of his Royal Highness, on Monday, the 23rd of December, 1861, and were deposited in the Mausoleum prepared for Their reception in the Grounds at Frogmore, in the presence of His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, K.G., His Royal Highness The Prince Arthur, His Royal Highness The Prince Leopold, and His Royal Highness The Prince Louis of Hesse, K.G.

The Viscount Sydney, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household; Lieutenant-General The Honourable Charles Grey, Private Secretary to His Royal Highness The Prince Consort; Colonel The Honourable Sir Charles Phipps, K.C.B., Treasurer to His Royal Highness The Prince Consort; and Colonel Biddulph, Master of the Household, were also present on the occasion.

Whitehall, December 18, 1862.

THE following Addresses of Congratulation to the Queen, on the attainment of his Majority by His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Baronet, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for Presentation, have accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Liverpool, approach your Majesty with the expression of our heartfelt congratulations on the attainment of his majority by His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

Fully appreciating the anxiety which your Majesty has ever displayed in promoting the happiness of your Royal Family, we observe with much satisfaction that your Majesty has entered into a treaty for a Marriage between His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales and Her Royal Highness the Princess Alexandra of Denmark.

We fervently pray that your Majesty may long live to see developed in the character of His Royal Highness the happy results of the care and attention with which he was educated under the direction of your Majesty and your most deeply lamented Consort, and that, when the time shall arrive (which may God long avert) that His Royal Highness is to ascend the Throne of his Ancestors, he may reflect the brilliant example he has received from your Majesty of the well performed duties of a Constitutional Sovereign, and of every excellence in domestic and social life.

Given under the Common Seal of the borough of Liverpool, this 10th day of November, 1862.

Richd. Cardwell Gardner, Mayor.

And the following on the same subject: from
The Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the town and borough of Tenterden.
