FRIDAY, JANUARY 9, 1863.

War Office, Pall Mall,

January 8, 1863.

THE Secretary of State for War has received a Despatch and its Enclosures, addressed to him by Brigadier-General Staveley, C.B., Commanding Her Majesty's Troops in China, of which the following are copies :

Head-Quarters, near Kah-ding, 24th October, 1862.

SIR,

I have the honor to report, for your information, that the Chinese authorities having expressed their willingness to place a garrison in Kah-ding, if the allied forces would recapture it for them, the place was taken by storm after a bombardment of two hours, this morning, by the force under my immediate command, mentioned in the accompanying return marked (A), as well as the British naval force under Captain Borlase, C.B., and the French troops, placed respectively at my disposal by Vice-Admiral Sir James Hope and Captain Fancón, commanding His Imperial Majesty's forces in China, also the so-called Ward's force, under the command of an American (Colonel Burgoviene), and Lieutenant Kingsley's 67th Regiment, battalion of 500 Chinese, and 6 mortars worked by Chinese, under Lieutenant Cane, R.A., all detailed in return marked (A).

The guns and mortars were got into position during the night, and opened fire so soon as the walls could be seen. At 8 o'clock, two practicable breaches having been made, the French and British each established their bridges, the British under the direction of Lieutenant Knevvitt, R.N., and Lieutenant Lyster, R.E., the storming parties of the 31st and 67th Regiments, under the command of Captain Christian, 31st Regiment, then planted their ladders and entered the place without opposition, the enemy escaping by the opposite side of the city.

The place had been considerably strengthened since our last visit, by an outwork made to flank the walls, and protected by a sort of bomb-proof, which however was not proof against 8-inch mortar shells.

I gave over the place to Colonel Burgoviene and his men, and, except the storming parties, none of Her Majesty's naval or military forces were allowed to enter it.

The re-capture of Kah-ding completes the radius of thirty miles round Shanghai, which it was decided should be cleared of the Tai-ping rebels.

I trust that the excellent conduct of the troops under very tempting circumstances, and the very arduous nature of the service, will be favourably considered.

I wish to mention for favourable notice, Captain C. Gordon, commanding Royal Engineers; Captain Mansergh, Deputy Assistant-Adjutant-General; Captain Gammell, Deputy Assistant-Quartermaster-General; Dr. Rennie, 31st Regiment, Senior Medical Officer; Assistant-Commissary-General Thompson, in charge of Commissariat; Lieutenant Jebb, 31st Regiment; and the Prince Witgenstein, of the 1st Prussian Lancer Guard Regiment, who acted as my Aides-de-Camp.

I take this opportunity of recording the great assistance I have invariably received on the occasions of the various expeditions from Mr. Consul Medhurst, and Mr. C. Alabaster, of the Consular service.

I also wish to mention the services performed by Commander Strode, of Her Majesty's ship "Vulcan," who was employed during the whole of the operations against the Tai-pings, and whose name was inadvertently omitted in my recommendatory despatch; also of his first lieutenant, Lieutenant Grant.

Commander Strode had the working of the naval 32-pounders on all occasions when they were used, and was assisted by Lieutenant Grant.

In transmitting a list of casualties marked (B), I have much satisfaction in calling your attention to the Senior Medical Officer's report (herewith forwarded) on the health of the field force.

I have, &c.,

C. STAVELEY, Brigadier-General,
Commanding Her Majesty's Troops in China.

of State for War, War Office,

We shall not cease to pray that His Royal Highness may receive the richest blessings of Divine Providence and Grace, and that influenced by the counsels and example of his illustrious Parents, His Royal Highness may ever secure that loyal attachment and support which are now rendered by all classes to the person and government of your Majesty.

It is also our sincere and daily prayer that your Majesty may reign long and happily amidst the increasing prosperity of a faithful and devoted people, and that your Majesty's family may occupy the throne of the British Empire in succeeding generations.

In the address which we thus presume to offer to your Majesty, we are confident that we express the sentiments of the entire connection of Wesleyan Methodists in the British dominions, and in all parts of the world.

And whereas it was further ordered, that the first meeting of the Highway Board for the said West Division, should be held at the Court-house, at Hexham, in the said District, on Tuesday, the 14th day of April, 1863, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon.

And whereas it was also further ordered that there should be a Waywarden elected for each of the said places, of Masters Close, Blackcarts and Ryehill, and Apperley, there having been no Surveyors elected previously to the said places.

And whereas the Justices at the last-mentioned Quarter Sessions, did appoint the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, to be holden at the Moot Hall, in and for the county of Northumberland, on Wednesday, the 7th day of January, 1863, for the taking into consideration the confirmation of this Provisional Order, by a Final Order.

And whereas such Provisional Order has been duly published in the London Gazette and in three newspapers circulating in the county, and a copy of such order has been sent by post, in a prepaid letter, to the overseers of every parish in the proposed highway districts, and there was added to the notice of the said Provisional Order a notice that the Justices at the said sessions did thereby appoint these present General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, holden at the Moot Hall, in this county, on Wednesday, the 7th day of January, 1863, for the taking into consideration of the said Provisional Order by a Final Order.

And whereas the said Clerk of the Peace did send, with the notice required by law to be given of the holding of Courts of General Quarter Sessions, a notice in form marked B in the schedule of the said Act (25 and 26 Vic., cap. 61), or as near thereto as circumstances admit, of the appointment so made by the Justices, in relation to the confirmation of the said Provisional Order, now, at these sessions, after fully considering the matter in all its bearings and hearing all objections thereto, it is ordered that the said Provisional Order be, and the same is hereby confirmed, subject to the following variations:—

That, instead of the districts being called by the names mentioned in the said Provisional Order, the north district shall be called the Belford district, the middle district shall be called the Alnwick district, the east district shall be called the Morpeth district, and the west district shall be called the Hexham district.

And that wherever in the said Provisional Order the words north district or north division, middle district or middle division, east district or east division, west district or west division, occur, there shall be substituted for them the words Belford district, Alnwick district, Morpeth district, and Hexham district, respectively.

And inasmuch as the Highway Act requires that the first meetings of the said highway boards shall be held in the districts, and whereas it is not lawful to include in the respective districts the towns of Alnwick, Morpeth, and Hexham, in consequence of their being, respectively, boards of health districts, it is ordered, that the first meeting of the said highway board for the Alnwick district shall be held at the Red Lion Inn, at Alnmouth, in the said district, on Tuesday, the 14th day of April, 1863, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon; and for the Morpeth district, at the Belsay Castle Inn, at Belsay, in the said Morpeth district, on Tuesday, the 14th day of April, 1863, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon; and for the Hexham district, at the Angel Inn, at Corbridge, in the said Hexham district, on Tuesday, the 14th day of April, 1863, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon.

And, lastly, it is ordered, that the first meeting of the highway board for the said Belford district shall be held at the Blue Bell Inn, at Belford, in the said district, on Tuesday, the 14th day of April, 1863, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon.
