Whitehall, January 12, 1863.

THE following Addresses of Congratulation to the Queen, on the attainment of his Majority by His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Baronet, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for Presentation, have accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously :

Unto Her Most Excellent Majesty VICTORIA, QUEEN of Great Britain and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, the loyal and dutiful Address of the President, Vice-Presidents, and other constituent Members of the General Committee of Management of the Educational Institute of Scotland.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and most dutiful subjects, the President, Vice-Presidents, and other constituent Members of the General Committee of Management of the Educational Institute of Scotland, in stated meeting assembled, beg leave, with the most profound respect, to approach your Majesty, for the purpose of expressing our devoted loyalty to your Majesty's person and family ; our admiration of the many virtues which have enthroned your Majesty in the hearts and affections of all your subjects ; and especially our most grateful recognition of the unceasing care and watchfulness exercised by your Majesty, in conjunction with His Royal Highness the late lamented Prince Consort, in rearing in the paths of religion and virtue, a family who adorn the illustrious rank to which they belong.

We would further present to your Majesty our humble but most sincere congratulations on the attainment of his Majority by His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, and on the interesting and most important Alliance which, with the consent and approval of your Majesty, he is about to form with an illustrious Princess. In His Royal Highness we feel an especial interest, not only as the destined heir to the throne of the greatest country in the world, but as having conferred on Scotland the distinguished honour of receiving a portion of his education in this northern part of the kingdom. It is our most earnest prayer that the Matrimonial Alliance of His Royal Highness may be long-enduring and happy ; and that, when at a day—which we trust is yet far distant—he is called upon, by the Supreme Disposer of Events, to assume the high functions so long and so beneficially exercised by your Majesty, he may follow in the footsteps of his illustrious Parents, and thereby encircle his throne with the same ardent loyalty and affection which your subjects universally entertain for your Majesty's person and government.

Ordered by the Meeting, on the 27th day of December, 1862, to be signed by the President, sealed with the Seal of the Incorporation, and transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., Secretary of State for the Home Department, for presentation to Her Majesty.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council, dated, at Windsor, the thirtieth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two (reciting certain provisions of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to prevent the enlisting or engagement of Her Majesty's Subjects to serve in Foreign Service, and the fitting out or equipping in Her Majesty's dominions vessels for warlike purposes, without Her Majesty's license"); Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, being desirous of enabling Her subjects to engage in and enter the naval and military service of the Emperor of China, was pleased to order, and it was thereby ordered, that from and after the first day of September then next, it should be lawful for Horatio Nelson Lay, one of Her Majesty's subjects, and Sherard Osborn, a Captain in Her Majesty's Navy, to enter into the military and naval service of the said Emperor, and to accept any commission, warrant, or other appointment under the said Emperor, and to accept any money, pay, or reward for their services, and to fit out, equip, purchase, and acquire ships or vessels of war for the use of the said Emperor, and to engage and enlist British subjects to enter the military and naval service of the said Emperor. And it was thereby further ordered, that it should be lawful for every British subject to enlist and enter himself, by engaging and enlisting himself with the said Horatio Nelson Lay and Sherard Osborn, and no other person or persons whatsoever, in the military and naval service of the said Emperor, and to serve the said Emperor in any military, warlike, or other operations, either by land, or by sea, and, for that purpose, to go to any place or places beyond the seas, and to accept any commission, warrant, or other appointment from or under the said emperor, and to accept any money, pay, or reward for his service: Provided always, that the license and permission thereby given should be in force only for the term of two years from the said first day of September then next, unless by Order in Council, made in manner aforesaid, such period should be further extended;

And it is hereby ordered, that it shall be lawful for all officers in Her Majesty's military service to serve the said Emperor in any military, warlike, or other operations, and for that purpose to go to any place or places beyond the seas, and to accept any commission, warrant, or other appointment from or under the said Emperor, and to accept any money, pay, or reward for their services: Provided always, that the license and permission hereby given shall be in force only until the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, unless by Order in Council, made in manner aforesaid, such period should be further extended.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 9th day of January, 1863.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Act of the Session of Parliament of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign (Chapter ninety-four), "to remove doubts as to the exercise of power and jurisdiction by Her Majesty within divers countries and places out of Her Majesty's dominions and to render the same more effectual," hereinafter called The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, it was enacted (among other things) that it was and should be lawful for Her Majesty to hold, exercise, and enjoy any power or jurisdiction which Her Majesty then had or might at any time thereafter have within any country or place out of Her Majesty's dominions, in the same and as ample a manner as if Her Majesty had acquired such power or jurisdiction by the cession or conquest of territory;

And whereas Her Majesty has had and now has power and jurisdiction in the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased on the twenty-seventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to make, by Order in Council dated that day, provision for the exercise of Her power and jurisdiction aforesaid:

And whereas it has seemed to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to be expedient at the present time to revise the provisions of the said Order, and to make further provision for the due exercise of Her Majesty's power and jurisdiction aforesaid, and for the more regular and efficient administration of justice and the better maintenance of order among all classes of Her Majesty's subjects and of persons enjoying Her Majesty's protection resident in or resorting to the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers in this behalf by The Foreign Jurisdiction Act or otherwise in Her vested, is pleased by and with the advice of Her Privy Council to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

I.—PRELIMINARY.

1. This Order shall come into operation on the first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three.

2. The Order of the twenty-seventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, shall be repealed.

This repeal shall not affect the past operation of that Order, or any appointment made or thing done under it.

Pending proceedings shall be regulated by this Order as far as the nature and circumstance of each case admit.

3. In this Order—

the term “the Ottoman dominions” means the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte;

the term “month” means calendar month; words importing the plural or the singular may be construed as referring to one person or thing, or more than one person or thing, and words importing the masculine as referring to females (as the case may require).

4. The provisions of this Order relating to British subjects apply to all subjects of Her Majesty, whether by birth or by naturalization, and also to all persons enjoying Her Majesty's protection in the Ottoman dominions.

The provisions of this Order relating to British subjects shall also, until it is otherwise ordered, extend to subjects of the United States of the Ionian Islands, resident in or resorting to the Ottoman dominions, except in the following particulars:—

- (1.) So far as those provisions relate to trial in civil cases with a jury (with respect to which Ionian subjects shall be in the same position as foreigners), or to the serving on juries in civil cases:
- (2.) So far as those provisions confer or relate to the power of imposing punishment of an amount greater than that which can now be lawfully awarded in the case of an Ionian subject by a Consular Officer of Her Majesty in the Ottoman dominions:
- (3.) So far as those provisions confer or relate to the power of deporting from the Ottoman dominions.

The provisions of this Order relating to British vessels extend to vessels navigating under the national commercial flag of the United States of the Ionian Islands.

The provisions of this Order relating to foreigners apply to subjects of the Sublime Ottoman Porte and subjects or citizens of any other Power or State (not being enemies of Her Majesty).

II. GENERAL PROVISIONS RESPECTING HER MAJESTY'S JURISDICTION.

5. All Her Majesty's jurisdiction exerciseable in the Ottoman dominions for the judicial hearing and determination of matters in difference between British subjects, or between British subjects and foreigners,—or for the administration or control of the property or persons of British subjects,—or for the repression or punishment of crimes or offences committed by British subjects,—or for the maintenance of order among British subjects,—shall be exercised under and according to the provisions of this Order, and not otherwise.

6. Subject to the other provisions of this Order, the civil and criminal jurisdiction aforesaid shall, as far as circumstances admit, be exercised upon the principles of and in conformity with the Common Law, the Rules of Equity, the Statute Law, and other Law, for the time being in force in and for England, and with the powers vested in and pursuant to the course of procedure and practice observed by and before Courts of Justice and Justices of the Peace in England, according to their respective jurisdictions and authorities.

7. Nothing in this Order shall be deemed to deprive Her Majesty's Consular Officers of the right to observe and to enforce the observance of any reasonable custom obtaining within the Ottoman dominions or to deprive any person of the benefit thereof, except where this Order contains some express and specific provision incompatible with the observance of such custom.

8. Except as to offences against the Capitulations, Articles of Peace, and Treaties between Her Majesty and the Sublime Ottoman Porte, or against any Rules and Regulations for the observance thereof or for the maintenance of order among British subjects in the Ottoman dominions made by or under the authority of Her Majesty, or against any of the provisions of this Order, or any Rule made under it,—

No act done by a British subject in the Ottoman dominions or on board a British vessel within those dominions, which would not by a Court or Justice having criminal jurisdiction in England be deemed a crime or offence rendering the person doing such act amenable to punishment in England, shall, in the exercise of criminal jurisdiction under this Order, be deemed a crime or offence rendering the person doing such act amenable to punishment.

III.—CONSTITUTION OF HER MAJESTY'S CONSULAR COURTS.

1.—THE SUPREME CONSULAR COURT AT CONSTANTINOPLE.

9. There shall be a Court styled “Her Britannic Majesty's Supreme Consular Court for the Dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte.”

10. The Supreme Consular Court shall hold its ordinary sittings at Constantinople; but may, on emergency, sit at any other place within the district of the Consulate-General of Constantinople, and may at any time hold its ordinary sittings at any such place within the Ottoman dominions as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State may approve.

11. There shall be one Judge of the Supreme Consular Court.

He shall be appointed by Her Majesty by warrant under Her Royal sign manual.

He shall be, at the time of his appointment, a member of the Bar of England, Scotland, or Ireland, of not less than seven years' standing, or a subject of Her Majesty (by birth or naturalization) who shall have filled the office of Legal Vice-Consul in the Ottoman dominions or the office of Law Secretary to the Supreme Consular Court.

He shall hold by special commission from Her Majesty the appointment of Vice-Consul, but shall have rank and precedence as if he held the appointment of Consul-General.

He may, in case of his absence from the district of the Consulate-General of Constantinople, either in the discharge of his duty, or with permission of one Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, or in case of illness, appoint, by writing under his hand and seal, a fit person to be his Deputy, who shall have all the power and authority of Judge.

During a vacancy in the office of Judge, or on emergency, a fit person, approved by one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, may temporarily be and act as Acting Judge, with all the power and authority of Judge.

12. There shall be attached to the Court—

- (1.) One Legal Vice-Consul;
- (2.) One Law Secretary;
- (3.) So many officers and clerks as one of Her Majesty's Secretaries of State may from time to time think fit.

One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State may from time to time temporarily attach to the Court such persons holding appointments as Consuls or Vice-Consuls as he may think fit.

13. The legal Vice-Consul and the Law Secretary shall be appointed by Her Majesty.

They shall respectively hold by special commission from Her Majesty the appointment of Vice-Consul; but the Legal Vice-Consul shall always have rank and precedence above the Law Secretary.

The Legal Vice-Consul shall act as Registrar of the Court.

The Law Secretary shall discharge such duties in connexion with the conduct of criminal prosecutions as the Judge may from time to time direct.

The Legal Vice-Consul shall hear and determine in a summary way such criminal charges as may under this Order be properly so heard and determined, and as may be specially referred to him by the Judge.

The Law Secretary shall hear and determine in a summary way such criminal charges as may under this Order be properly so heard and determined, and as the Judge may from time to time think necessary for the despatch of urgent business to refer specially to him.

Where a suit or proceeding of a civil nature, originally instituted in the Supreme Consular Court, relates to money, goods, or other property, or any civil right or other matter at issue of a less amount or value than one hundred pounds sterling, or is instituted for the recovery of damages of a less amount than one hundred pounds sterling, the Judge may refer such suit or proceeding specially to the Legal Vice-Consul to be heard and determined by him, or if it appears to the Judge necessary for the despatch of urgent business he may refer such suit or proceeding specially to the Law Secretary to be heard and determined by him; but in all such cases an appeal shall lie as of course to the Judge.

In case of the absence or illness of the Legal Vice-Consul or Law Secretary, or during a vacancy in the office of Legal Vice-Consul or Law Secretary, or during the temporary employment of the Legal Vice-Consul or Law Secretary in any other capacity, the Judge may, by writing under his hand and seal, appoint the Law Secretary to act temporarily as Legal Vice-Consul (if the case so requires), or any fit person approved by one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State to act temporarily as Legal Vice-Consul or as Law Secretary (as the case may require). The Law Secretary or other person so appointed shall have all the power and authority of Legal Vice-Consul or of Law Secretary (as the case may be).

Every Consul or Vice-Consul temporarily attached to the Court under Article 12 shall discharge such duties in connexion with the Court as the Judge may from time to time, with the approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, direct; and for that purpose shall have the like power and authority as the Legal Vice-Consul.

II.—THE PROVISIONAL CONSULAR COURTS.

14. Each of Her Majesty's Consuls-General, Consuls, and Vice-Consuls (holding a commission as such from Her Majesty), resident in the Ottoman dominions (with the exception of Her Majesty's Consul-General at Constantinople, and with such other exceptions as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State may at any time think fit to make), or any person acting temporarily, with the approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, as such a Consul-General, Consul, or Vice-Consul, shall, for and in his own Consular district, hold and form a Court styled "Her Britannic Majesty's Consular Court at [Smyrna, or as the case may be],"—hereinafter called a Provincial Consular Court.

IV.—JURIES. ASSESSORS.

15. Every male British subject resident in the Ottoman dominions,—being of the age of twenty-one years or upwards,—being able to speak and read English,—having or earning a gross income at the rate or not less than fifty pounds a year,—not having been attainted of treason or felony, or convicted of any crime that is infamous (unless he has obtained a free pardon),—and not being under outlawry,—shall be qualified to serve on a jury.

16. All persons so qualified shall be liable so to serve, except the following:—

Persons in Her Majesty's Diplomatic, Consular, or other Civil Service in actual employment;

Officers, clerks, keepers of prisons, messengers, and other persons attached to or in the service of any Consular Court;

Officers and others on full pay in Her Majesty's Navy or Army, or in actual employment in the service of any Department connected therewith;

Persons holding appointments in the Civil service, and Commissioned Officers in the Naval or Military service, of the Sublime Ottoman Porte;

Clergymen and ministers in the actual discharge of professional duties;

Advocates and attorneys in actual practice;

Physicians, surgeons, and apothecaries in actual practice;

And except persons disabled by mental or bodily infirmity.

17. On or before the fourteenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and on or before the fourteenth day of January, in every subsequent year, each Consular Court shall make out a list of the persons so qualified and liable, resident within its district.

The list shall, on or before the twenty-first day of the same respective month, be affixed in some conspicuous place in the Court, and shall be there exhibited until the thirty-first day of that month, with a notice annexed that on a day specified, not being sooner than the seventh or later than the fourteenth day of the then next month, the Court will hold a special sitting for the revision of the list.

The Court shall hold such special sitting accordingly, and at such sitting, or at some adjournment thereof (of which public notice shall be given), shall revise the list by striking out the name of any person appearing to be not qualified or not liable to serve, and by inserting the name of any person omitted and appearing to be so qualified and liable, either on the application of the person omitted, or on such notice to him as the Court may direct.

The list shall be finally revised and settled not later than the twenty-first day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and not later than the twenty-first day of February, in every subsequent year, and when settled shall be affixed in some conspicuous place in the Court, and be there exhibited during not less than two months.

Such list, as settled in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and in every subsequent year respectively, shall be brought into use, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, on the first day of May, and in every subsequent year on the first day of March, and shall be used as the Jury List of the Court, as to the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three for the ten months, and as to every subsequent year for the twelve months, then next ensuing.

18. Where, in pursuance of this Order, a jury is required, the Court shall summon so many of the persons comprised in the jury list, not fewer than fifteen, as may seem requisite.

Any person failing to attend according to such summons shall be liable to such fine of not more than ten pounds sterling, as the Court may impose.

Any such fine shall not be levied until after the expiration of fourteen days. The proper officer of the Court shall forthwith give to the person fined notice in writing of the imposition of the fine, and require him within six days after receipt of the notice to file an affidavit excusing his non-attendance (if he desire to so do). The Court shall consider the affidavit, and may, if it seems proper, remit the fine.

19. A jury shall consist of five jurors.

In civil and in criminal cases the like challenges shall be allowed as in England, with this addition, that in civil cases each party may challenge three jurors peremptorily.

A jury shall be required to give an unanimous verdict.

Where there is a jury, all the proceedings at the trial shall be conducted in English,—evidence, if given in any other language, being interpreted in the usual way.

20. Where a Provincial Consular Court (not held before a resident Legal Vice-Consul) proceeds, in pursuance of this Order, to hear and determine any case, civil or criminal, with Assessors, the Court shall nominate and summon as Assessors not less than two and not more than four indifferent British subjects of good repute, resident in the district of the Court.

Where, however, by reason of local circumstances, the Court is able to obtain the presence of one fit person only as Assessor, the Court may sit with him alone as Assessor, and where for like reasons it is not able to obtain the presence of any fit person as Assessor, it may sit without an Assessor; but in every such case the Court shall record in the minutes of proceedings its reasons for sitting with one Assessor only, or without an Assessor.

An Assessor shall not have voice or vote in the decision of the Court in any case, civil or criminal, but an Assessor dissenting in a civil case from any decision of the Court, or in a criminal case from any decision of the Court or the conviction or the amount of punishment awarded, may record in the minutes of proceedings his dissent and the grounds thereof, and an Assessor dissenting shall be entitled to receive gratis a certified copy of the minutes.

V.—JURISDICTION AND AUTHORITIES OF THE CONSULAR COURTS.

1.—IN GENERAL.

21. All Her Majesty's jurisdiction, civil and criminal, exercisable in the Ottoman dominions shall, for and within the district of the Consulate-General of Constantinople, be vested exclusively in the Supreme Consular Court as its ordinary original jurisdiction.

22. All Her Majesty's jurisdiction, civil and criminal, exercisable in the Ottoman dominions beyond the district of the Consulate-General of Constantinople, and not under this Order vested exclusively in the Supreme Consular Court, shall, to the extent and in the manner provided by this Order, be vested in the Provincial Consular Courts each for and within its own district.

23. The Supreme Consular Court shall have, in all matters civil and criminal, an original jurisdiction concurrent with the jurisdiction of the several Provincial Consular Courts, such concurrent jurisdiction to be exercised subject and according to the other provisions of this Order.

24. The Judge of the Supreme Consular Court may visit, or appoint the Legal Vice-Consul or the Law Secretary of the Supreme Consular Court to visit, in a magisterial or judicial capacity, any Provincial Consular Court, and there inquire of, or hear and determine, any case, civil or criminal, pending in that Court, or arising within its district,—or may appoint the resident Legal Vice-Consul of any Provincial Consular Court to visit in like manner any Provincial Consular Court where there is not a resident Legal Vice-Consul.

25. A Provincial Consular Court may, of its own motion, or on the application of any person concerned, report to the Supreme Consular Court the pendency of any case, civil, or criminal, which appears to the Provincial Consular Court fit to be heard and determined by the Supreme Consular Court.

The Supreme Consular Court shall thereupon direct in what mode and where the case shall be heard and determined.

26. Every Consular Court shall, in the exercise of every part of its respective jurisdiction, be a Court of Record.

27. Each Provincial Consular Court shall execute any writ or order issuing from the Supreme Consular Court, and take security from any person named in any writ or order for his appearance personally or by attorney, and in default of such security being given, or when specially ordered by the Supreme Consular Court so to do, send such person to Constantinople on board one of Her Majesty's vessels of war, or if there is no such vessel available, then on board any British or other fit vessel.

The order of the Supreme Consular Court shall be sufficient authority to the commander or master of such vessel of war or other vessel to receive and detain such person, and carry him to and deliver him up at Constantinople according to the order.

28. The several Consular Courts shall be auxiliary to one another in all particulars relative to the administration of justice, civil or criminal.

29. Each Provincial Consular Court shall, every six months, furnish to the Supreme Consular Court a full and faithful report of every case, civil and criminal, brought before it, in such form as the Judge of the Supreme Consular Court may from time to time direct.

II.—IN CIVIL MATTERS.

RECONCILIATION AND ARBITRATION.

30. Every Consular Court and its officers shall, as far as there is proper opportunity, promote reconciliation, and encourage and facilitate the settlement in an amicable way, and without recourse to litigation, of matters in difference between persons over whom the Court has jurisdiction.

31. Every Consular Court may promote reconciliation, and encourage and facilitate the settlement in an amicable way, of any suit or proceeding pending before it.

32. A Consular Court may, with the consent of the parties, refer to arbitration the final determination of any suit or proceeding pending before it, or of all matters in difference between the parties, on such terms and with such directions as to appointment of an arbitrator and other things as may seem fit, and may, if it thinks fit, take from the parties, or any of them, security to abide by the result of the reference.

In any such case, the award shall be final and conclusive.

On the application of any party, a decree of the Court may be entered in conformity with the award, and such decree shall not be open to any appeal or re-hearing whatever.

33. Every agreement for reference to arbitration or submission to arbitration, by consent between or by British subjects, may, on the application of any party, be made a rule of the Consular Court having jurisdiction in the matter of the reference or submission, which Court shall thereupon have power and authority to enforce the agreement or submission, and the award made thereunder, and to control and regulate the proceedings before and after the award, in such manner and on such terms as may be just.

GENERAL AUTHORITY OF COURTS.

34. The Supreme and every other Consular Court shall be a Court of Law and of Equity; and (subject to the other provisions of this Order) shall have and may exercise all jurisdiction, power and authority, legal, equitable, or other, which any Consul of Her Majesty, by custom has or may exercise in the Ottoman dominions.

SPECIAL AUTHORITIES OF COURTS.

35. The Supreme and every other Consular Court shall be a Court of Bankruptcy, and as such shall, as far as circumstances admit, have, each for and within its own district, with respect to British subjects, and to their debtors and creditors, being either British subjects or foreigners submitting to the jurisdiction of the Court, all such jurisdiction as for the time being belongs to the Court of Bankruptcy and the County Courts in England, or to any other judicial authority having for the time being jurisdiction in England in Bankruptcy.

36. The Supreme Consular Court shall be a Court of Vice-Admiralty, and as such shall, for and within the Ottoman dominions, and for vessels and persons coming within those dominions, have all such jurisdiction as for the time being belongs to any Court of Vice-Admiralty in any of Her Majesty's possessions abroad, excepting any jurisdiction relating to prize or booty.

Every Provincial Consular Court held before a resident Legal Vice-Consul shall be a Court of Vice-Admiralty, and as such shall, for its own district, and for vessels and persons coming within that district have the like jurisdiction.

37. The Supreme Consular Court shall, as far as circumstances admit, have in itself exclusively, for and within the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, with respect to British subjects, all such jurisdiction relative to the custody and management of the persons and estates of persons of unsound mind, as for the time being belongs to the Lord Chancellor, or other person or persons in England, intrusted by virtue of Her Majesty's sign manual, with the care and commitment of the custody of the persons and estates of persons found by inquisition in England, idiotic, lunatic, or of unsound mind.

38. The Supreme Consular Court shall be a Court for Matrimonial Causes, and as such shall, as far as circumstances admit, have in itself exclusively, for and within the Ottoman dominions, with respect to British subjects, all such jurisdiction, except the jurisdiction relative to dissolution or nullity or jactitation of marriage; as for the time being belongs to the Court for Divorce and Matrimonial Causes in England.

39. The Supreme Consular Court shall be a Court of Probate, and as such shall, as far as circumstances admit, have, for and within the Ottoman dominions, with respect to the property of British subjects, having at the time of death their fixed places of abode within those dominions, all such jurisdiction, as for the time being belongs to Her Majesty's Court of Probate in England.

A Provincial Consular Court shall, however, also have power to grant probate or administration where there is no contention respecting the right to the grant, and it is proved on oath that the deceased had at the time of his death his fixed place of abode within the jurisdiction of the particular Court.

Probate or administration granted by a Provincial Consular Court shall have effect over all the property of the deceased within the Ottoman dominions, and shall effectually discharge persons dealing with an executor or administrator thereunder, notwithstanding any defect may afterwards appear in the grant. Such a grant shall not be impeachable by reason only that the deceased had not at the time of his death his fixed place of abode, within the particular jurisdiction.

From the death of a British subject, having at the time of death his fixed place of abode within the Ottoman dominions, intestate, until administration granted, his personal property within those dominions, shall be vested in the Judge of the Supreme Consular Court, as the personal property of an intestate in England, is vested in the Judge of Her Majesty's Court of Probate there.

If any person, other than one of Her Majesty's Consular Officers, takes possession of, and in any manner administers any part of the personal property of any person deceased, without obtaining probate or administration within three months after the death of the deceased, or within one month after the termination of any suit or dispute respecting probate or administration (if there is any such which is not ended within two months after the death of the deceased), he shall be liable to such penalty not exceeding one hundred pounds sterling, as the Court having jurisdiction in the matter of the property of the deceased may think fit to impose.

TRIAL WITH A JURY.

40. Where a suit instituted in the Supreme Consular Court, or in a Provincial Consular Court held before a resident Legal Vice-Consul, relates to money, goods, or other property, or any civil right or other matter at issue, of the amount or value of fifty pounds sterling or upwards,—or is brought for recovery of damages, of the amount of fifty pounds sterling or upwards,—the suit shall, on the demand of either party, be tried with a jury.

In any case (except where, according to the Rules of the Court, the suit is to be heard and determined in a summary way) a suit so instituted may be tried with a jury, if the Court, of its own motion, or on the application of either party, thinks fit so to order.

One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State may, by order under his hand, extend the present provision to any Provincial Consulate Court not held before a resident Legal Vice-Consul, where it appears to him a sufficient jury list can be obtained.

TRIAL WITH ASSESSORS.

41. Where a suit instituted in a Provincial Consular Court not held before a resident Legal Vice-Consul, relates to money, goods, or other property, of a less amount or value than three hundred pounds sterling, or does not relate to, or involve, directly or indirectly, a question respecting any civil right or other matter at issue, of the amount or value of three hundred pounds sterling, or upwards,—or is brought for recovery of damages of a less amount than three hundred pounds sterling,—the Court may hear and determine the case without Assessors.

In all other cases the Court shall hear and determine the case with Assessors.

III.—IN CRIMINAL MATTERS.

42. Every Consular Court shall have authority to cause to be apprehended and brought before it, any British subject being within the district of the Court, and charged with having committed a crime or offence within the Ottoman dominions, or on board a British vessel within those dominions, and to deal with the accused according to the jurisdiction of the Court, and in conformity with the provisions of this Order; or where the crime or offence is triable, and is to be tried in England, to take the preliminary examination, and to commit the accused for trial, and cause or allow him to be taken to England.

43. Where a person charged with a crime or offence escapes or removes from the Consular district within which the crime or offence was committed and is found within another Consular district, the Consular Court within the district of which he is found may proceed in the case to examination, trial, and punishment, or in a summary way (as the case may require), in the same manner as if the crime or offence had been committed in its own district; or may, on the requisition or with the consent of the Court of the district within which the crime or offence was committed, send him in custody to that Court, or require him to give security for his surrender to that Court, there to answer the charge and be dealt with according to law.

Where any person is to be so sent in custody a warrant shall be issued by the Court within the district of which he is found, and such warrant shall be sufficient authority to any person to whom it is directed to receive and detain the person therein named, and carry him to and deliver him up to the Court of the district within which the crime or offence was committed, according to the warrant.

44. Where a warrant or order of arrest is issued by a competent authority in Malta for the apprehension of a British subject, a native of Malta, or of any of its dependencies, who is accused of having committed a crime or offence within the jurisdiction of the authority issuing the warrant or order, and who is, or is supposed to be, in the Ottoman dominions, and the warrant or order is produced to a Consular Court, the Court may back the warrant or order, and the same, when so backed, shall be sufficient authority to any person to whom the warrant or order was originally directed, and also to any constable or other officer of the Court by which it is backed, to apprehend the accused at any place in the Ottoman dominions where the Court by which the warrant or order is backed has jurisdiction, and to carry him to and deliver him up at Malta, according to the warrant or order.

45. Malta shall be (under the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, section iv.) the British Colony to which any person may be sent for trial who is charged with the commission of any crime or offence the cognizance whereof appertains to a Consular Court in the Ottoman dominions, where it is expedient that the crime or offence should be inquired of, tried, determined, and punished within Her Majesty's dominions.

The Judge of the Supreme Consular Court may, where it appears so expedient, by warrant under his hand and seal and the seal of the Supreme Consular Court, cause the accused to be sent for trial to Malta accordingly.

Such warrant shall be sufficient authority to any person to whom it is directed to receive and detain the person therein named, and carry him to and deliver him up at Malta, according to the warrant.

Where any person is to be so sent to Malta, the Consular Court before which he is charged shall take the preliminary examination, and shall bind over such of the proper witnesses as may be British subjects in their own recognizances to appear and give evidence on the trial.

46. A Consular Court may promote reconciliation and encourage and facilitate the settlement in an amicable way of proceedings for assault or any other offence not amounting to felony and being of a private or personal character, on terms of payment of compensation or other terms that may seem reasonable or expedient, and may thereupon order the proceedings to be stayed.

47. All crimes which in England are capital shall be tried by the Judge of the Supreme Consular Court with a jury.

Other crimes and offences above the degree of misdemeanour, tried before the judge or any Officer of the Supreme Consular Court, and not heard and determined in a summary way, shall be tried with a jury.

Any crime or offence tried before the Judge or any Officer of the Supreme Consular Court may be tried with a jury where the Judge or other Officer so directs.

Subject to the foregoing provisions, such classes of criminal cases within the original jurisdiction (ordinary or concurrent) of the Supreme Consular Court as the Judge, having regard to the law and practice existing in England, may from time to time direct, shall be heard and determined in a summary way.

48. The Supreme Consular Court may impose the punishment of imprisonment for any term not exceeding twenty years, with or without hard labour, and with or without a fine not exceeding five hundred pounds sterling, or the punishment of a fine alone not exceeding five hundred pounds sterling.

49. Where any person is convicted of murder, the proper officer of the Court, under the direction of the Judge, shall, in open court, require the offender to state, if he has anything to say why judgment of death should not be recorded against him. If such offender does not allege anything that would be sufficient in law to prevent such judgment if the offence had been committed and the trial had been had in England, the Court may order such judgment to be entered on record.

Thereupon the proper officer shall enter judgment of death on record against such offender, as if judgment of death had been actually pronounced against him in open court by the Court.

The Judge of the Supreme Consular Court shall forthwith send a report of every such judgment, with a copy of the minutes of proceedings and notes of evidence and any observations he may think fit to make, to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, for his direction as to the punishment to be actually imposed, such actual punishment not to exceed the measure of imprisonment and fine mentioned in Article 48.

50. Where a Provincial Consular Court is held before a resident Legal Vice-Consul, crimes and offences above the degree of misdemeanour, tried before the Court, and not heard and determined in a summary way, shall be tried with a jury.

Any crime or offence may be tried with a jury where the Court so directs.

Subject to the foregoing provisions, such classes of criminal cases as the Judge of the Supreme Consular Court, with the advice and assistance of the resident Legal Vice-Consul, having regard to the law and practice existing in England, may from time to time direct, shall be heard and determined in a summary way.

51. A Provincial Consular Court held before a resident Legal Vice-Consul may impose the punishment of imprisonment for any term not exceeding two years, with or without hard labour, and with or without a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds sterling, or the punishment of a fine alone not exceeding one hundred pounds sterling.

52. Where the crime or offence with which any person is charged before a Provincial Consular Court, not held before a resident Legal Vice-Consul, is any crime or offence other than assault endangering life, cutting, maiming, arson, or housebreaking, and appears to the Court to be such that, if proved, it would be adequately punished by imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for not more than three months, or by a fine of not more than twenty-five pounds sterling, the Court shall hear and determine the case in a summary way and without Assessors.

In other cases the Court shall hear and determine the case on indictment and with Assessors.

53. A Provincial Consular Court not held before a resident Legal Vice-Consul may impose the punishment of imprisonment for any term not exceeding twelve months, with or without hard labour, and with or without a fine of fifty pounds sterling, or the punishment of a fine alone not exceeding fifty pounds sterling.

54. Where the crime or offence with which any person is charged before a Provincial Consular Court appears to the Court to be such that, if proved, it would not be adequately punished by such punishment as the Court has power to impose, and the accused is not to be sent for trial to England or Malta, the Court shall reserve the case to be heard and determined by or under the special authority of the Supreme Consular Court.

The Provincial Consular Court shall take the depositions, and forthwith send them, with a minute of other evidence, if any, and a report on the case, to the Supreme Consular Court.

The Supreme Consular Court shall direct in what mode and where the case shall be heard and determined.

55. The Supreme and every other Consular Court in imposing punishments shall have regard, as far as circumstances admit, and subject to the other provisions of this Order, to the punishments imposed by the law of England in like cases.

56. A Consular Court may order any person convicted before it of any crime or offence to pay all or any part of the expenses of his trial and imprisonment or other punishment.

Where it appears to the Court that a charge is malicious, or frivolous and vexatious, the Court may order all or any part of the expenses of the prosecution to be paid by the prosecutor.

57. Where the circumstances of the case render it just or expedient, the Judge of the Supreme Consular Court may report to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State recommending a mitigation or remission of any punishment awarded by the Supreme or any other Consular Court; and on such recommendation any such punishment may be mitigated or remitted.

But no such recommendation shall be made with respect to any punishment awarded by a Provincial Consular Court, except on the recommendation of that Court, or on the dissent of the Assessors or Assessor, if any, from the conviction or from the amount of punishment awarded.

58. The Judge of the Supreme Consular Court may, where it seems expedient, by warrant under his hand and the seal of the Supreme Consular Court, cause any offender convicted before any Consular Court and sentenced to imprisonment, to be sent to and imprisoned at any such place in the Ottoman dominions, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State may, from time to time, approve.

Such warrant shall be sufficient authority to any person to whom it is directed, to receive and detain the person therein named and carry him to and deliver him up at such place, according to the warrant.

59. Malta shall be (under the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, section v.) the British Colony to which any offender sentenced to suffer imprisonment in respect of any crime or offence of which he is convicted before any Consular Court may be sent, where it is expedient that the sentence passed in the Ottoman dominions should be carried into effect within Her Majesty's dominions.

The Judge of the Supreme Consular Court may, where it appears so expedient, by warrant under his hand and seal and the seal of the Supreme Consular Court, cause such offender to be sent to Malta, in order that the sentence passed upon him may be there carried into effect accordingly.

Such warrant shall be sufficient authority to any person to whom it is directed to receive and detain the person therein named and carry him to and deliver him up at Malta, according to the warrant.

60. The Supreme Consular Court shall forthwith send to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State a report of the sentence passed by the Judge or any Officer of the Court in every case not heard and determined in a summary way, with a copy of the minutes of proceedings and notes of evidence and any observations the Court may think fit to make.

Every Provincial Consular Court shall forthwith send to the Supreme Consular Court a report of the sentence passed by it in every case not heard and determined in a summary way, with a copy of the minutes of proceedings and notes of evidence and any observations the Court may think fit to make. The Supreme Consular Court shall forthwith transmit the same, with any observations the Court may think fit to make, to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

VI.—DEPORTATION OF OFFENDERS.

61. (i.) Where it is shown, on oath, to the satisfaction of a Consular Court, that there is reasonable ground to apprehend that any British subject in the Ottoman dominions is about to commit a breach of the public peace,—or that the acts or conduct of any such British subject are or is likely to produce or excite to a breach of the public peace,—the Court may cause him to be brought before it and require him to give security to the satisfaction of the Court, to keep the peace, or for his future good behaviour, as the case may require :

(ii.) Where any British subject is convicted of any crime or offence before a Consular Court, or before a Court in the sentence of which one of Her Majesty's Consular Officers concurs, the Consular Court for the district in which he happens to be may require him to give security to the satisfaction of the Court for his future good behaviour.

In either of these cases, if the person required to give security fails to do so, the Court may order that he be deported from the Ottoman dominions to such place as the Court may direct.

The Court shall not, however, without the consent of the person to be deported, direct the deportation of a native of Malta or any of its dependencies to any place other than Malta,—or of a native of Gibraltar to any place other than Gibraltar,—or of a native of any part of Her Majesty's dominions other than Malta, its dependencies, or Gibraltar, to any place other than England.

A Provincial Consular Court shall forthwith report to the Supreme Consular Court any order of deportation made by it, and the grounds thereof. The Supreme Consular Court may reverse the order, or may confirm it with or without variation, and in case of confirmation, shall direct it to be carried into effect.

The person to be deported shall be detained in custody until a fit opportunity for his deportation occurs.

He shall, as soon as may be practicable, (and in the case of a person convicted, either after execution of the sentence or while it is in course of execution,) be embarked in custody under the warrant of the Supreme Consular Court on board one of Her Majesty's vessels of war, or, if there is no such vessel available then on board any British or other fit vessel bound to the place of deportation.

The warrant of the Court shall be sufficient authority to the commander or master of such vessel of war, or other vessel, to receive and detain the person to be deported and carry him to and deliver him up at the place of deportation, according to the warrant.

The Supreme or other Consular Court may order the person to be deported to pay all or any part of the expenses of his deportation. Subject thereto, the expenses of deportation shall be defrayed as the expenses relating to distressed British subjects are defrayed, or in such other manner as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State may from time to time direct.

The Supreme Consular Court shall forthwith report to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State any order of deportation made or confirmed by it and the grounds thereof, and shall also inform Her Majesty's Ambassador, Minister, or Chargé d'Affaires at the Sublime Ottoman Porte of the same.

If any person deported returns to the Ottoman dominions without the permission of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State (which permission the Secretary of State may give) he shall be liable on conviction thereof to punishment (in the discretion of the Court before which he is convicted) by imprisonment for not more than one month, with or without hard labour, and with or without a fine of not more than ten pounds sterling, or by a fine of not more than twenty pounds sterling alone, and also to be forthwith again deported in manner hereinbefore provided.

VII.—REGISTRATION OF RESIDENTS AND OTHERS.

62. Every British subject resident in the Ottoman dominions,—being of the age of 21 years or upwards,—or being married or a widower or widow, though under that age,—shall, in the year 1863, in the month of March, and in every subsequent year in the month of January, register himself or herself in a register to be kept at the Consulate of the Consular district within which he or she resides.

Every such British subject not so resident arriving at any place within the Ottoman dominions where a Consular Office is maintained, unless borne on the muster-roll of a British vessel there arriving, shall, within one month after his or her arrival, register himself or herself in a register to be kept at the Consular Office,—but so that no person shall be required to register himself or herself more than once in any year, reckoned from any 1st day of January.

Every such British subject shall on every such registration of himself or herself pay a fee of five shillings.

Any such British subject failing so to register himself or herself, and not excusing his or her failure to the satisfaction of the Consular Officer, shall not be entitled to be recognized or protected as a British subject in the Ottoman dominions, and shall be liable to a fine of not more than forty shillings for each instance of such failure; in the case of a married woman (not living apart from her husband) such fine to be levied on her husband's property.

The Consular Officer shall issue to every British subject so registered a certificate of registration under his hand and Consular seal.

VIII.—DEATHS OF BRITISH SUBJECTS NON-RESIDENT.

63. Where a British subject, not having at the time of death his fixed place of abode in the Ottoman dominions, dies in those dominions, the Consular Court, within whose district he dies, shall, where the circumstances of the case appear to the Court so to require, forthwith on the death of the deceased, or as soon after as may be, take possession of his personal property within the particular jurisdiction, or put it under the seal of the Court (in either case, if the nature of the property or other circumstances so require, making an inventory), and so keep the property until it can be dealt with according to law.

IX.—OFFENCES AGAINST RELIGION.

64. If any British subject is guilty of publicly deriding, mocking, or insulting any religion established or observed within the Ottoman dominions,—or of publicly offering any insult to any religious service, feast, or ceremony established or kept in any part of those dominions, or to any place of worship, tomb, or sanctuary belonging to any such religion, or to the ministers or professors thereof,—or wilfully commits any act tending to bring any such religion, or its ceremonies, mode of worship, or observances into hatred, ridicule, or contempt, and thereby to provoke a breach of the public peace,—he shall be liable (in the discretion of the Court) to imprisonment for not more than two years, with or without hard labour, and with or without a fine of not more than one hundred pounds sterling, or to a fine of not more than one hundred pounds sterling alone.

Notwithstanding anything in this Order, every charge against a British subject of having committed any such offence shall be heard and determined in a summary way, and any Provincial Consular Court shall have power to impose the punishment aforesaid.

Her Majesty's Consular Officers shall take such precautionary measures as may seem to them proper and expedient for the prevention of such offences.

X.—FOREIGNERS. FOREIGN TRIBUNALS.

65. Where a foreigner desires to institute or take any suit or proceeding of a civil nature against a British subject, or a British subject against a foreigner, the Supreme or other Consular Court, according to its respective jurisdiction, shall entertain the same, and shall hear and determine it, either by the Judge or proper Consular Officer sitting alone, or, if all parties desire, or the Court think fit to direct, a trial with a jury, then by such Judge or Officer with a jury, but in all other respects according to the ordinary course of the Court:

Provided that the foreigner first obtains and files in the Court the consent in writing of the competent local authority on behalf of the Sublime Ottoman Porte or of the Consul of his own nation (as the case may be) to his submitting, and does submit, to the jurisdiction of the Court, and, if required, gives security to the satisfaction of the Court, by deposit or otherwise, to pay fees, damages, costs, and expenses, and abide by and perform such decision as may be given by the Supreme or other Consular Court originally or on appeal (as the case may require).

66. Where it is shown to a Consular Court that the attendance of a British subject to give evidence, or for any other purpose connected with the administration of justice, is required in a Court or before a judicial officer of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, or in a Court or before a judicial officer in the Ottoman dominions of any State in amity with Her Majesty, the Consular Court may, in cases and under circumstances which would require the attendance of such British subject before one of Her Majesty's Consular Courts in the Ottoman dominions, and if it seems to the Consular Court just and expedient so to do, make an order for the attendance of such British subject in such Court or before such judicial officer and for such purpose as aforesaid,—but so that a Provincial Consular Court shall not have power to make an order for such attendance of a British subject at any place beyond the particular jurisdiction of the Court.

Any British subject, duly served with such an order, and with reasonable notice of the time and place at which his attendance is required, failing to attend accordingly, and not excusing his failure to the satisfaction of the Court making the order, shall be liable to a fine of not more than one hundred pounds sterling, or to imprisonment for not more than one month, in the discretion of the Court.

XI.—APPEAL TO SUPREME CONSULAR COURT.

I.—IN CIVIL CASES.

67. Where any decision of a Provincial Consular Court, sitting with or without Assessors, is given in a civil case in respect of a sum or matter at issue of the amount or value of fifty pounds sterling or upwards,—or determines, directly or indirectly, any claim or question respecting property or any civil right, of the amount or value of fifty pounds sterling or upwards,—any party aggrieved by the decision may apply to the Provincial Consular Court for leave to appeal to the Supreme Consular Court, and shall be entitled to leave on the terms prescribed by the Rules made under this Order, and subject to such restrictions and exceptions as may be therein contained.

In any other case the Provincial Consular Court may, if it seems just and expedient, give leave to appeal on like terms.

In any case the Supreme Consular Court may give leave to appeal on such terms as may seem just.

II.—IN CRIMINAL CASES.

68. Where any person is convicted otherwise than in any summary way of a crime or offence, the Court or Consular Officer before whom he is tried may reserve for the consideration of the Supreme Consular Court any question of law arising on the trial.

The Court or Officer shall then state a special case setting out the question reserved, with the facts and circumstances on which it arose, and shall send the case to the Supreme Consular Court.

69. Where any person is convicted in a summary way of a crime or offence, and is dissatisfied with the conviction as being erroneous in point of law, the Court or Consular Officer before whom he is tried shall, on his application, unless the application appears merely frivolous, in which case the Court or Officer may refuse the application, state a special case setting out the facts and the grounds of the conviction for the opinion of the Supreme Consular Court, and send it to that Court.

70. In any such case the Court or Consular Officer shall, as may seem fit, either postpone judgment on the conviction, or respite execution of the judgment, and either commit the person convicted to prison, or take proper security for him to appear and receive judgment, or to render himself in execution (as the case may require) at an appointed time and place.

71. The Supreme Consular Court shall hear and finally determine the matter, and thereupon shall reverse, affirm, or amend any judgment given at the trial,—or set aside such judgment, and order an entry to be made in the minutes of proceedings that in the judgment of the Supreme Consular Court the person ought not to have been convicted,—or arrest the judgment,—or order judgment to be given at a subsequent sitting of the Court or Officer by whom the case is stated,—or make such other order as justice may require,—and shall also give all necessary and proper consequential directions.

72. The judgment of the Supreme Consular Court shall be delivered in open court after the public hearing of any argument offered on behalf of the prosecution or of the person convicted.

73. Before delivering judgment, the Supreme Consular Court may, if necessary, cause the special case to be amended by the Court or Consular Officer by whom it was stated.

XII.—APPEAL TO HER MAJESTY IN COUNCIL.

74. Where any decision of the Supreme Consular Court is given in a civil case in respect of a sum or matter at issue of the amount or value of five hundred pounds sterling or upwards,—or determines directly or indirectly any claim or question respecting property or any civil right of the amount or value of five hundred pounds sterling or upwards,—any party aggrieved by the decision may, within fifteen days after the same is given, apply by motion to the Supreme Consular Court for leave to appeal to Her Majesty in Council.

If leave to appeal is applied for by a party adjudged to pay money, or perform a duty, the Supreme Consular Court shall direct either that the decision appealed from be carried into execution, or that the execution thereof be suspended, pending the appeal, as the Court may consider to be consistent with real and substantial justice.

If the Court directs the decision to be carried into execution, the party in whose favour it is given shall, before the execution of it, give security to the satisfaction of the Court for the due performance of such order as Her Majesty in Council may think fit to make.

If the Court directs the execution of the decision to be suspended pending the appeal, the party against whom the decision is given shall, before any order for suspension of execution, give security to the satisfaction of the Court for the due performance of such order as Her Majesty in Council may think fit to make.

In all cases security shall also be given by the appellant to the satisfaction of the Court to an amount not exceeding five hundred pounds sterling, for the prosecution of the appeal, and for payment of all such costs as may be awarded to any respondent by Her Majesty in Council, or by the Lords of the Judicial Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council.

If the last-mentioned security is given within one month from the filing of the motion-paper for leave to appeal, then, and not otherwise, the Supreme Consular Court shall give leave to appeal, and the appellant shall be at liberty to prefer and prosecute his appeal to Her Majesty in Council according to the rules for the time being in force respecting appeals to Her Majesty in Council from her colonies, or such other rules as Her Majesty in Council may from time to time think fit to make concerning appeals from the Supreme Consular Court.

In any case other than the cases hereinbefore described, the Supreme Consular Court, if it considers it just or expedient to do so, may give leave to appeal on the terms and in the manner aforesaid.

This Order shall not affect the right of Her Majesty at any time, on the humble petition of a party aggrieved by a decision of the Supreme Consular Court, to admit his appeal thereon, on such terms and in such manner as Her Majesty in Council may think fit, and to deal with the decision appealed from in such manner as may be just.

XIII.—RULES.

75. The Judge of the Supreme Consular Court may, notwithstanding anything herein contained, at any time after the making of this Order, and from time to time, frame Rules for the effectual execution of this Order, and for the observance of the Capitulations, Articles of Peace, and Treaties between Her Majesty and the Sublime Ottoman Porte, and for the maintenance of order among British subjects in the Ottoman dominions, and may thereby impose reasonable penalties; and also Rules for the regulation of procedure and pleading, forms of writs, and other proceedings, expenses of witnesses and prosecutions, costs and fees, in civil and criminal cases, in the Supreme Consular Court and other Consular Courts, and the regulation of appeals to the Supreme Consular Court from the other Consular Courts.

The Rules affecting the conduct of civil suits shall be so framed as to secure, as far as may be, that cases shall be decided on their merits according to substantial justice without excessive regard to technicalities of pleading or procedure and without unnecessary delay.

No Rules shall take effect unless and until approved by one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

A copy of the Rules for the time being in force shall be exhibited in some conspicuous place in each Consular Court and Consulate in the Ottoman dominions. Printed copies shall be provided and sold at such reasonable price as the Judge of the Supreme Consular Court shall from time to time direct.

No penalty shall be enforced in any Court for the breach of any Rule until the Rule has been so exhibited in the Court for one month.

For the purpose of convicting any person committing a breach of any Rule, and for all other purposes of law, a printed copy of the Rule, purporting to be certified under the hand of the Judge of the Supreme Consular Court, and the seal of the Court, or under the hand and Consular seal of one of Her Majesty's Consular Officers, shall be taken as conclusive evidence of the same, and no proof of the handwriting or seal purporting to certify the same, shall be required.

XIV.—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

76. In every case, civil or criminal, heard in a Consular Court, proper minutes of the proceedings shall be drawn up, and shall be signed by the Judge or Consular Officer before whom the proceedings are taken, and sealed with the seal of the Court, and shall, where Assessors are present, be open for their inspection and for their signature, if concurred in by them.

The minutes, with depositions of witnesses and notes of evidence taken at the trial by the Judge or Consular Officer, shall be preserved in the public office of the Court.

77. In a civil case a Consular Court may order such costs, or costs, charges, and expenses as to the Court seem reasonable, to be paid by any party to the proceeding, or out of any fund to which the proceeding relates.

78. A Consular Court, either of its own motion, or in civil cases, on the application of any party to any suit or proceeding or reference, may summon as a witness any British subject in the Ottoman dominions,—but so that a Provincial Consular Court shall have power so to summon British subjects in its own district only.

Any British subject, duly served with such a summons, and with reasonable notice of the time and place at which his attendance is required, failing to attend accordingly, and not excusing his failure to the satisfaction of the Court, shall, over and above any other liability to which he may be subject, be liable to a fine of not more than one hundred pounds sterling, or to imprisonment for not more than one month, in the discretion of the Court.

79. In civil cases a Consular Court may, where the circumstances appear to justify it, order that the expenses of a witness, on his appearing to give evidence, shall be defrayed by the parties, or any of them.

80. Any person appearing before a Consular Court to give evidence in any case, civil or criminal, may be examined or give evidence on oath in such form or with such ceremony as he may declare to be binding on his conscience.

81. Any British subject wilfully giving false evidence in any suit or proceeding, civil or criminal, or on any reference, shall be liable to the penalties attaching to wilful and corrupt perjury.

82. All costs and all charges and expenses of witnesses, prosecutions, punishments, and deportations, and other charges and expenses, and all fees, fines, forfeitures, and pecuniary penalties payable under this Order, may be levied by distress and seizure and sale of ships, goods, and lands; and no bill of sale, or mortgage, or transfer of property, made with a view to security in regard to crimes or offences committed, or to be committed, shall be of any avail to defeat the provisions of this Order.

83. All fees, fines, forfeitures, and pecuniary penalties levied under this Order shall be carried to the public account, and be applied in diminution of the public expenditure on account of Her Majesty's Consular service in the Ottoman dominions.

84. A copy of this Order shall be exhibited in each Consular Court and Consulate in the Ottoman dominions. Printed copies shall be provided and sold at such reasonable price as the Judge of the Supreme Consular Court shall direct.

85. Any suit or proceeding shall not be commenced in a Consular Court against any person for anything done or omitted under this Order, or any Rule made under it, unless notice in writing is given by the intending plaintiff or prosecutor to the intended defendant one month at least before the commencement of the suit or proceeding, nor unless it is commenced within three months next after the act or omission complained of, or in case of a continuation of damage within three months next after the doing of such damage has ceased.

The plaintiff in any such suit shall not succeed if tender of sufficient amends is made by the defendant before the commencement thereof; and if no tender is made the defendant may by leave of the Court at any time pay into Court such sum of money as he may think fit, whereupon such proceeding and order shall be had and made in and by the Court as may be had and made on the payment of money into Court in an ordinary suit.

XV.—JOINT JURISDICTION.

86. In any case in the decision of which, under the Capitulation, Articles of Peace, and Treaties with the Sublime Ottoman Porte, any of Her Majesty's Consuls may or ought to concur, the Judge of the Supreme Consular Court or a Consular Officer exercising jurisdiction under this Order shall exclusively act on the part and on behalf of Her Majesty.

And the Right Honourable the Earl Russell and the Most Noble the Duke of Newcastle, two of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 9th day of January, 1863.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the rules and practice observed for preventing collisions at sea, which were formerly adopted by maritime nations, have proved insufficient to satisfy the requirements of modern navigation; and whereas various alterations in such rules and practice, have from time to time been made by different nations, but the rules so altered have been found to be in some cases inconsistent with each other, and in other cases to have the force of municipal law only; and whereas in consequence of communications from the Government of the Emperor of the French inviting Her Majesty's Government to consider the expediency of making the said Rules uniform and international Her Majesty's Government prepared a project of regulations for preventing collisions at sea and submitted it to the Government of the Emperor of the French; and the project so prepared by Her Majesty's Government was approved by the Government of the Emperor of the French with certain modifications, which were assented to by Her Majesty's Government; and whereas the said Regulations so modified have been sanctioned by the "Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862" and are contained in Table C in the schedule to that Act: and whereas by the said Act it is provided that Her Majesty may from time to time on the joint recommendation of the Admiralty and the Board of Trade by Order in Council modify any of the said regulations or make new regulations in substitution therefor: and whereas certain clerical errors have been discovered in the regulations contained in the schedule to the said Act and the Admiralty and the Board of Trade have jointly recommended Her Majesty to modify the said Regulations for the purpose of correcting the said clerical errors; and the Regulations so modified are appended to this Order: and whereas by virtue of the said Act and of this Order the said Regulations appended hereto will, so far as relates to British ships and also so far as relates to Foreign ships when within British jurisdiction, come into operation on the first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three: and whereas it is provided by the same Act that whenever it is made to appear to Her Majesty that the Government of any Foreign country is willing that the Regulations for preventing collision contained in Table C in the schedule to the said Act, or such other regulations for preventing collision as are for the time being in force under the said Act should apply to the ships of such country when beyond the limits of British jurisdiction Her Majesty may by Order in Council direct that such Regulations shall apply to the ships of the said foreign country whether within British jurisdiction or not: and it is further provided by the said Act that whenever an Order in Council has been issued applying any regulation made by or in pursuance of the said Act to the ships of any foreign country such ships shall in all cases arising in any British Court be deemed to be subject to such Regulation, and shall for the purpose of such Regulation be treated as if they were British ships: and whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that the Government of the Emperor of the French is willing that the said Regulations appended to this Order should on and after the first day of June one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three apply to French ships when beyond the limits of British jurisdiction;

Now therefore Her Majesty by virtue of the power vested in Her by the said recited Act, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to direct:—

First,—That the Regulations contained in the schedule to the said Act shall be modified by the substitution for such Regulations of the Regulations appended to this Order.

Secondly,—That the said Regulations appended to this Order shall on and after the said first day of June one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three apply to French ships whether within British jurisdiction or not.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the 410th section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted that upon the completion of any new lighthouse, buoy or beacon, Her Majesty may by Order in Council fix such dues in respect thereof to be paid by the Master or Owner of any ship which passes the same, or derives benefit therefrom, as Her Majesty may deem reasonable, and may from time to time alter the amount thereof, and that such dues shall be paid and collected in the same manner, by the same means, and subject to the same conditions in, by, and subject to which the light dues authorised to be levied by the said Act are paid and collected; and whereas the Corporation of the Trinity House of Deptford Strond, has placed a new light vessel near the west end of the Scarweather Sand in the Bristol Channel, and a light is already exhibited therein. Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers vested in her by the said recited Act, by and with the advice of her Privy Council, is pleased to direct that there shall be paid, in respect of the said light vessel, for every vessel whether British or Foreign, which, pursuant to the consolidated tables of light duties sanctioned by an Order in Council, dated the twenty-sixth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, shall become liable to the charge for the Nash Lights, in the case of an oversea voyage, the toll of four sixteenths of a penny per ton of the burthen of every such vessel, and in the case of a coasting voyage, the toll of one sixteenth of a penny per ton of the burthen of every such vessel; and that the said tolls in respect of the said light vessel shall be levied by the Corporation of the Trinity House of Deptford, Strond, subject to the gross abatement or discount of sixty per cent. mentioned in an Order in Council made under the authority of the said recited Act, and dated the twenty-fifth day of July, one thousand eight-hundred and sixty-one, and subject also to the regulations and exemptions contained in the said consolidated tables of light duties sanctioned by the said Order in Council, dated the twenty-sixth day of June, one thousand eight-hundred and fifty-five, and to the further exemption sanctioned by an Order in Council dated the twelfth day of April, one thousand eight-hundred and fifty-nine.

AT the Court, at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 9th day of January, 1863.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "the Passengers Act, 1855," it is amongst other things enacted, that before any passenger ship shall be cleared out, the emigration officer at the port of clearance shall satisfy himself that there is on board a sufficient quantity of pure water, carried in tanks or casks, to secure throughout the intended voyage the issue of three quarts daily to each statute adult, for the use of the passengers, exclusive of the quantity required for cooking.

And whereas it is also enacted, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by any Order in Council, to prescribe such rules and regulations as to Her Majesty may seem fit, for permitting the use on board passenger ships of an apparatus for distilling water, and for defining, in such case, the quantity of fresh water to be carried in tanks or casks for the passengers, and such Order in Council from time to time to alter, amend, and revoke, as occasion may require.

And whereas Her Majesty, by Orders in Council, dated, respectively, the sixth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and the thirteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, prescribed certain rules for permitting the use on board passenger ships propelled by steam engines of a certain power, and on board passenger ships propelled by sails, of a certain apparatus for distilling fresh water from salt water.

And whereas it is expedient to repeal the said Order in Council that relates to passenger ships propelled by sails, and to issue in lieu thereof the Order hereinafter contained.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty doth, by, and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and in pursuance and in exercise of the authority vested in Her by the said "Passengers Act, 1855," hereby repeal the said Order in Council of the thirteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, and order as follows:—

Any passenger ship propelled by sails only, or by steam engines of less power than is sufficient, without the aid of sails, to propel the ship at the rate of five statute miles an hour may be cleared out and proceed on her voyage, having on board, in tanks or casks, only half the quantity of pure water required by the said Act to be carried for the use of the passengers, provided the following conditions be observed; that is to say:

1. That there be on board such ship an efficient apparatus for distilling fresh water from salt water, of the description commonly known either as Normandy's Patent or Winchester and Graveley's Patent.

2. That the owners, charterers, or master of such ship, before clearance, lodge with such emigration officer a certificate from the engineer or surveyor of the Board of Trade, or from some other competent person to be named by such emigration officer, declaring that within seven days immediately preceding the date of such certificate, the apparatus has been examined by him and is then in good working condition, and stating the number of imperial gallons of pure fresh water which it is capable of producing in every twenty-four hours, and further, declaring that the apparatus on board is either Normandy's or Winchester and Graveley's Patent, as the case may be.

3. That in every case such emigration officer shall be satisfied that the number of gallons of pure water which the apparatus is so certified to be capable of producing, is not less than the whole number of persons about to proceed on the intended voyage of such ship,—that is to say, the whole number of cabin-passengers, passengers, and crew.

4. That there is rated on the ship's articles, and that there is on board the ship, some person or persons who, to the satisfaction of the said emigration officer, shall be competent for the proper management and repair of such distilling apparatus.

And, to prevent all doubts on the construction of this Order in Council, it is hereby further ordered, that the terms "passenger ship," "emigration officer," "statute adult," and "master," shall herein have the same significations as are assigned to them respectively in the said "Passengers Act, 1855."

And the Most Noble the Duke of Newcastle, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the seventh day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Matthew, situate at Leavenheath, in the parish of Stoke by Nayland, in the county of Suffolk, and in the diocese of Ely.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Stoke by Nayland; of the parish of Assington, in the same county and diocese; of the parish of Nayland, in the same county and diocese; of the parish of Polstead, in the same county and

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend Thomas, Bishop of Ely (the Bishop of the diocese); of the Right Honourable Richard, Baron Westbury, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, acting on behalf of your Majesty, as the Patron in right of the Crown, of the vicarage of the said parish of Wiston; of Sir Charles Rowley, of Tendring Hall, in the said county of Suffolk, Baronet, the Patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Stoke by Nayland, and also of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Nayland; and of John Gurdon, of Tunbridge Wells, in the county of Kent, Esquire, the Patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Assington (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation); and also with the consent of the President and Scholars of the College of Saint John Baptist, in the University of Oxford, the Patrons of the rectory of the said parish of Polstead (in testimony whereof the said President and Scholars have affixed their common or corporate seal to this representation), we humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parishes of Stoke by Nayland, Assington, Nayland, Polstead, and Wiston, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Matthew, situate at Leavenheath aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Matthew, Leavenheath.'

"And we further represent that it has been mutually agreed between the said Richard Baron Westbury (acting on behalf of your Majesty as aforesaid), Sir Charles Rowley, John Gurdon, and the said President and Scholars of the said College of Saint John Baptist, in the University of Oxford, (testified as aforesaid), that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Matthew, Leavenheath, shall belong to, and be exercised by, the Vicar or Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of the parish of Stoke by Nayland aforesaid.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet."

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 9th day of January, 1863.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Over in the county of Chester and in the diocese of Chester, and out of the parish of Whitegate in the same county and diocese.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the portions of the said parishes of Over and Whitegate which are hereinafter mentioned, such portions not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship; should be constituted a separate district in the manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas by a deed bearing date the fourteenth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and being under the hand and seal of the Right Honourable Hugh Baron Delamere and under the common seal of us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England (which deed is intended to be enrolled in Your Majesty's High Court of Chancery), a yearly rentcharge or annual sum of one hundred and seventeen pounds issuing and payable out of and charged upon certain lands, tenements, and hereditaments situate in the township of Moulton in the parish of Davenham in the said county of Chester has been duly secured by the said Hugh Baron Delamere to the minister for the time being of the said district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the herein secondly named Act, upon the understanding that in consideration of the grant of the said yearly rentcharge or annual sum we should appropriate out of the common fund created by the firstly herein named Act the capital sum hereinafter mentioned for the benefit of the minister of the said district when duly licensed as before mentioned, and upon the further understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said district and of the nomination of the minister thereto should be assigned to the said Hugh Baron Delamere, his heirs and assigns, in the manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John Bishop of Chester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said parishes of Over and Whitegate which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint John the Evangelist Over.'

"And we further recommend and propose that we may be authorised and empowered to appropriate out of the common fund created by the firstly herein named Act as aforesaid a capital sum of one thousand pounds for the benefit of the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the provisions of the herein secondly named Act, and that such capital sum or any part thereof may be paid or applied by us towards the purchase or acquisition for such district of any land, tithe, or other hereditament which may appear to us to be suitable for annexation thereto, and that in the meantime there shall be allowed and paid by us by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year, to the minister for the time being of the said district, in respect of such capital sum or such part thereof as shall remain, from time to time, unapplied towards such purposes as aforesaid, the annual sum of thirty-three pounds or such a part thereof as shall bear a proportion to the part of the said capital sum so remaining unapplied as aforesaid corresponding with the proportion which the amount of the said yearly payment bears to the amount of such capital sum.

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted and of the nomination of the minister thereof shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and become absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Hugh Baron Delamere, his heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"And we further represent that it has been mutually agreed between the said Henry William Bertie and the said Warden and Fellows of All Souls College, in the University of Oxford (testified as aforesaid), that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Peter, Aldborough Hatch, shall belong to, and be exercised by, your Majesty and your successors, in right of the Crown.

"We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet."

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Peter, Aldborough Hatch, being:—

"All that portion of the new parish of Trinity, Barkingside, in the county of Essex, and in the diocese of London, and also all that portion of the parish of Great Ilford, in the same county and diocese, which are comprised within and bounded by an imaginary line, commencing upon the boundary dividing the said new parish of Trinity, Barkingside, from the parish of Great Ilford aforesaid, at a point in the middle of Oaks-lane, opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of a certain lane leading to Lover's-walk, and extending thence north-westward to and along the middle of the last described lane to the north-eastern end of Lover's-walk aforesaid; and extending thence, in a direction alternately south-westward and north-westward, along the middle of the said walk as far as the centre of the bridge which carries such walk over the Craw brook; and extending thence, northward, along the middle of the said brook to a point in the middle of the bridge which carries the footpath leading from Aldborough Hatch Gate to Maypole Gate over the said brook; and extending thence, first westward and then north-westward, along the middle of the said footpath to a point in the middle of the new road leading from Maypole Gate aforesaid, to Hoghill; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said new road, past the house and premises belonging to the Forest Farm, and crossing the boundary which divides the new parish of Trinity, Barkingside, from the parish of Great Ilford, as aforesaid, as far as the boundary dividing the said parish of Great Ilford from the parish of Dagenham, in the said county of Essex, and in the diocese of Rochester; and extending thence, first south-eastward, along the last-described boundary, and then, south-westward, along the same boundary as far as a point in the middle of the fence which divides the close numbered 1116 upon the tithe commutation map of the parish of Barking (out of which last-named parish the said parish of Great Ilford was taken), and upon the map hereunto annexed from the close numbered 1108 upon the same maps, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said fence to its junction with the fence, dividing the close numbered 1115, upon the said maps from the close numbered 1108, as aforesaid, and extending thence, south-westward, along the middle of the last described fence and of the fence dividing the close numbered 1114, upon the said maps from the closes numbered respectively, 1108 as aforesaid, and 1110 upon the same maps, to the western extremity of the last described fence; and extending thence, westward, and in a straight line across the close numbered 1112 upon the said maps to a boundary stone inscribed 'A.H. St. P. C.C., 1862, No. 2,' and placed on the western side of the same road at the eastern end of the footpath leading therefrom to Aldborough Hatch Lane; and extending thence, in a direction generally westward, to and along the middle of the last described footpath, crossing the road leading from Barking to Little Heath, to a point in the middle of Aldborough Hatch-lane aforesaid, near Newbury Farm; and extending thence, north-westward, along the middle of such lane as far as the boundary which divides the new parish of Trinity, Barkingside, from the parish of Great Ilford, as aforesaid, at a point opposite to the middle of the north-eastern end of Oaks-lane aforesaid; and extending thence, south-westward, along the boundary last referred to, as far as the point in the middle of the said lane, where the said imaginary line commenced."

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, and of another Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, sections two, three, and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, and of another Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, sections two, three, and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property, formerly belonging to the Archbishopric of Canterbury, and now vested in us.

"Whereas on the vacancy of the said Archbishopric, which occurred on or about the sixth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, by the decease of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend John Bird, the late Archbishop of Canterbury, all the lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments formerly belonging to the said Archbishopric (except rights of patronage and the archiepiscopal houses of residence situate at Lambeth and Addington, both in the county of Surrey), became absolutely vested in us for the purposes, and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments aforesaid, consist to a considerable extent of reversions expectant upon grants and leases for lives and years, and produce during the subsistence of such grants and leases only small annual revenues, and on that account, and in some instances on account of the character or situation of the property, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be assigned as an endowment for the said Archbishopric, or to be held or applied for the other purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable, under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by the last-mentioned Act, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions, or for the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas it is expedient that such of the aforesaid lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments lately belonging to the See of Canterbury (either with or without other property vested in us, as the case may require), as, in the judgement of our estates committee, and subject to the approbation of the Archbishop for the time being, shall be deemed convenient, to be held as an endowment for the said See, and as will secure a net annual income of fifteen thousand pounds, being the income named for the Archbishop of Canterbury and his successors, by an Act of the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, being the Act now in force, should be assigned as the endowment of the said See, and that for that purpose, as well as with a view to the more advantageous appropriation of the remainder of the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, and in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the respective holders (if any), to be testified by their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, heretofore belonging to the said Archbishopric of Canterbury, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and enquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law, immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Canterbury.

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property now vested in us.

“Whereas under and by virtue of a certain indenture, bearing date the twelfth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and made, or expressed to be made, between Thomas Webb Gilbert, formerly of Philpot-lane, in the city of London, but now of the Close, Salisbury, Esquire, of the first part; the Reverend John Innes, of Down, in the county of Kent, Clerk, of the second part; and us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the third part; certain lands, tenements, and hereditaments situate in the parish of Figheldean, in the county of Wilts, and particularly described in the Schedule hereto annexed, became, and are now, vested in us, in fee simple, for the purposes, and subject to the provisions, applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands, tenements, and hereditaments aforesaid, are not subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant, but are now in possession, but some portions thereof, on account of their character or situation are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same, or of the proceeds

“ Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements, and hereditments, so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, or otherwise as he, she, or they, shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and enquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 9th day of January, 1863.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme, bearing date the thirteenth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for authorising the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the Archdeaconry of Worcester, in the diocese of Worcester, and now vested in us.

"Whereas under an Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy seven, and an Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and another Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-four, and by virtue of an Order of your Majesty in Council, made under the provisions of the same Acts, and bearing date the third day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, and duly published in the London Gazette on the eighteenth day of the same month, all lands, tenements, and other hereditaments then belonging to the said Archdeaconry of Worcester became absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands, tenements, and hereditaments aforesaid are subject to a beneficial lease for lives and produce during the subsistence of such lease only a small annual revenue, and on that account, and partly on account of the character or situation of the property, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas, by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions, or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time, and from time to time, think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorised and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the respective holders (if any), to be testified by their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments heretofore belonging to the said Archdeaconry of Worcester, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and enquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Worcester.

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of All Saints, situate at King's Heath, in the new parish of Moseley, in the county of Worcester, and in the diocese of Worcester.

"Whereas, at certain extremities of the said new parish of Moseley, and of the parish of King's Norton, in the county and diocese aforesaid, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective parish and new parish.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twentieth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorising the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the Dean and Chapter of Canterbury, and now vested in us.

"Whereas under an Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and another Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and another Act of the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty, chapter twenty-six, and by virtue of an Order of your Majesty in Council, made under the provisions of the said Acts, bearing date the sixth day of August last past, and duly published in the London Gazette on the eighth day of the same month, all the manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments then belonging to the said Dean and Chapter of Canterbury (excepting certain portions thereof in such Order particularly excepted, and excepting also any rights of Ecclesiastical patronage) became absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments aforesaid, consist, to a considerable extent, of reversions expectant upon grants and leases for lives and years, and produce during the subsistence of such grants and leases only small annual revenues, and on that account, and in some instances on account of the character or situation of the property, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be assigned as an endowment for the said Dean and Chapter, or to be held or applied for the other purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions, or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas, with a view to the appropriation of such portions of the aforesaid manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments lately belonging to the said Dean and Chapter of Canterbury (either with or without other property vested in us, as the case may require), as in the judgment of our Estates Committee, and subject to the approbation of the said Dean and Chapter, shall be deemed convenient to be held as an endowment for the said Dean and Chapter, and as will secure a net annual income of five thousand and seven hundred pounds (being the income contemplated by the above-mentioned Order of your Majesty in Council of the sixth day of August last) and for that purpose, as well as with a view to the more advantageous appropriation of the remainder of the said manors, lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time, and from time to time, think fit should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorised and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed, according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the respective holders (if any) to be testified by their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments heretofore belonging to the said Dean and Chapter of Canterbury, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Canterbury.

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorising the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the Dean and Chapter of Exeter, and now vested in us.

"Whereas under an Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and another Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine; and another Act of the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty, chapter twenty-six; and by virtue of an Order of your Majesty in Council, made under the provisions of the said Acts, bearing date the thirtieth day of August last past, and duly published in the London Gazette on the fifth day of September following, all the manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, then belonging to the said Dean and Chapter of Exeter (excepting certain portions thereof in such Order particularly excepted, and excepting also any rights of Ecclesiastical patronage), became absolutely vested in us, for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments aforesaid, consist to a considerable extent of reversions expectant upon grants and leases for lives and years, and produce during the subsistence of such grants and leases only small annual revenues, and on that account, and in some instances on account of the character or situation of the property, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be assigned as an endowment for the said Dean and Chapter, or to be held or applied for the other purposes, for which estates vested in us are applicable, under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions, or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas with a view to the appropriation of such portions of the aforesaid manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments lately belonging to the said Dean and Chapter of Exeter (either with or without other property vested in us, as the case may require), as in the judgment of our Estates Committee, and subject to the approbation of the said Dean and Chapter shall be deemed convenient to be held as an endowment for the said Dean and Chapter, and as will secure a net annual income of eleven thousand and five hundred pounds (being the income contemplated by the above-mentioned Order of your Majesty in Council, of the thirtieth day of August last), and for that purpose, as well as with a view to the more advantageous appropriation of the remainder of the said manors, lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our Common Fund, it is expedient that the said manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time, and from time to time, think fit should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorised and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the respective holders (if any) to be testified by their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments heretofore belonging to the said Dean and Chapter of Exeter, and so vested in us as aforesaid with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Exeter.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 9th day of January, 1863,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighteenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorising the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the Bishoprick of Oxford, and now vested in us.

"Whereas under an Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven; and another Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and another Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine; and by virtue of an Order of your Majesty in Council, made under the provisions of the said Acts, bearing date the fourth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, and duly published in the London Gazette, on the eleventh day of the same month, the hereditaments and premises situate and arising within the parishes of Stanton Harcourt, and South Leigh, in the county of Oxford, particularly described in the Schedule annexed to the said Order, which theretofore belonged to the Bishoprick of Oxford, became vested in us.

"And whereas the hereditaments and premises aforesaid are subject to a beneficial lease and produce during the subsistence of such lease, only a small annual revenue; and partly on that account, and partly on account of the character or situation of the property, some portions thereof are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable, under the Acts, by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees, holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions, or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said hereditaments and premises, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said hereditaments and premises, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time, and from time to time, think fit should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorised and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the holder or holders thereof (if any), to be testified by his, her, or their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said hereditaments and premises theretofore belonging to the said Bishoprick of Oxford, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Oxford.
