Whitehall, January 19, 1863.

THE following Addresses of Congratulation to the Queen, on the attainment of his Majority by His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Baronet, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for Presentation, have accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's Loyal and Devoted Servants, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Grantham, pray to be allowed to offer to your Majesty this fervent expression of our grateful joy for the blessing which has been granted to your Majesty and your dominions by the arrival at the age of Manhood of your eldest Son, The Prince of Wales.

Born to the noblest destiny on earth, nurtured by the tenderest and best of Mothers, guided and governed by the wisest and most accomplished of Fathers, he has received an education equal to his birth, and thus we earnestly trust, he has learned to appreciate the arduous but glorious duties of his station, and is prepared to undertake them, with humble, but firm reliance upon Him, by whom Kings reign and Princes decree justice.

Of this we are assured, by the exemplary conduct of his youth, and by the most important act of his life, the making an early choice of a Consort whom your Majesty has been pleased to welcome, as in every way worthy of his heart and throne.

That your Majesty may long live to rejoice in their happiness, and to continue to your subjects the blessings of your benign sway, is our devout and constant prayer.

Thomas Ekin, Mayor.

The Board of Trustees of the Manchester Royal Infirmary, Dispensary, Lunatic Hospital or Asylum, and the Members of the Medical Profession, acting in connection with those Institutions.

Foreign Office, January 12, 1863.

The Queen has been pleased to approve of Mr. M. B. Sampson as Consul-General in England; of Mr. Juan Fairs as Consul in London; and of Mr. Juan Smith, jun., as Consul at Hull; for the Argentine Republic.

Foreign Office, January 17, 1863.

The Queen has been pleased to approve of Mr. James William Musson as Consul at Bermuda for His Majesty the King of Denmark.

The Queen has also been pleased to approve of Mr. Thomas Small as Vice-Consul at Lowestoft for His Royal Highness the Grand Duke of Mecklenburgh-Schwerin.

ORDER REGULATING THE USE OF LOCOMOTIVES WITHIN THE BOROUGH OF BURY ST. EDMUNDS.

WHEREAS it appears to me, the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that the use of Locomotives, unless restricted as hereinafter mentioned, on any highway within the limits of the borough of Bury St. Edmunds is dangerous and inconvenient to the public.

I do hereby, by virtue of the provisions of "The Locomotive Act, 1862," by this Order, under my hand, prohibit the use of any kind of Locomotive whatever propelled by steam, or any other than animal power, on the highways within the limits of the said borough at any time, except between the hours of nine at night and seven in the morning.

Given under my hand, at Whitehall, this 16th day of January, 1863.

G. GREY.
