War Office, 12th February, 1863.

A DESPATCH has been received by the Secretary of State for War, from Brigadier-General Staveley, C.B., Commanding Her Majesty's Troops in China, of which the following is a copy:

SIR,

*Head-Quarters, Kading,
December 5th, 1862.*

I HAVE the honour to report, for your information, that the country around Shanghai within the circuit of the captured towns, has remained clear of the rebels since my last report.

I am now patrolling the country with a field force, strength as per margin,* under the command of Lieutenant-Colonel Hough, 2nd Belooch Regiment, accompanied by a force of similar strength under Captain Faucon, of the French navy, with two objects; one, I consider that our appearance every now and then in different parts of the country will deter the rebels from entering it; and the other; to enable Captain Gordon, R.E., to get the country mapped in.

On the 30th ult., the force marched from Shanghai to Lukuhong; on the 1st instant, from Lukuhong to Lotien; the 2nd, being wet, the force remained at Lotien until the 3rd, when it marched to Kading, and from thence, on the 4th, to Ludong.

Captain Gordon, R.E., surveyed the road from the last-named place to the mouth of the Leho River, whither a gun-boat had been sent to clear the Town of Leho of rebels, should any be there.

A small party were found there, as also at Ludong, but they withdrew so soon as we appeared.

To-day the force moves back to Kading, and goes round in the direction of Tsoing-poo, back to Shanghai, which latter place it will reach in five days' hence.

The health of the field force is excellent, as is also that of the troops generally.

I have, &c.,

C. STAVELEY, Brigadier-General,
Commanding Her Majesty's Troops in China.

*The Right Honourable the Secretary
&c., &c., &c., War Office.*

Extract from a Despatch addressed to Earl Russell by Admiral the Honourable E. A. J. Harris, Her Majesty's Minister in Switzerland, dated Berne, January 29, 1863, respecting "Cartes de Séjours" and Passports.

"THE Decree of the Swiss Federal Council, dated April 16, 1862, states that it is no longer necessary for foreign travellers to exhibit passports either on the frontier or in the interior; but the Cantonal Governments still retain the power of requiring from those who prolong their residence beyond the period indicated by the laws of each Canton, the exhibition of passports or papers for the purpose of obtaining 'Cartes de Séjour,' for which a fee is to be paid. In the case of British subjects under the Treaty of 1856, the scale of fees is the same as that demanded from Swiss Citizens of other Cantons."

Foreign Office, February 10, 1863.

The Queen has been pleased to approve of Mr. Lewis T. Imossi, as Consul at Gibraltar for the Argentine Republic.

Crown Office, February 13, 1863.

And whereas such requisition having been complied with, we, the Justices

And we the said Justices do combine all the townships, tithings, hamlets, or places separately maintaining its own highways in each of the said parishes and part of parish: and do declare that no separate Waywardens shall be elected for such townships, tithings, hamlets, and places, and that each such parish, and part of parish, shall be subject to the same liabilities in respect of all the highways within it, which have been heretofore maintained by such townships, tithings, hamlets, and places separately, as if all their several liabilities had attached to the whole parish, and that one Waywarden shall be elected for each such combined parish or part of parish as a whole. That the confirmation of the said order will be considered at the next Quarter Sessions for this county.

Notice is hereby given, that the confirmation of the said Provisional Order by a Final Order was respited at the last Quarter Sessions, and will be taken into consideration by the Justices at the Court of Quarter Sessions to be held on the 12th day of March next.
