FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 1863.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, February 4, 1863.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Wednesday, the 25th instant, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at this Levee shall be considered as equivalent to presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command,

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that a letter from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, stating it to be his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command, that no presentations shall be made at the Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards, to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half-past one o'clock.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, February 4, 1863.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Royal Highness The Crown Princess of Prussia (Princess Royal of Great Britain and Ireland) will, by command of The Queen, hold a Drawing Room at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Saturday the 28th instant, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that presentations to Her Royal Highness at this Drawing Room shall be considered as equivalent to presentations to Her Majesty.

THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOM.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOM TO BE HELD, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, BY HER ROYAL HIGHNESS THE CROWN PRINCESS OF PRUSSIA (PRINCESS ROYAL OF GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND), AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command,

The Ladies, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Room, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to Her Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that a letter from the Lady who is to make the presentation, stating it to be her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to the Queen, for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command, that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing Room, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to Her Royal Highness.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court until half-past one o'clock.

Corn Department, Board of Trade.

Published by Authority of Parliament.

HENRY FENTON JADIS, Comptroller of Corn Returns.

Received in the office of the Comptroller of Corn Returns, February 14, 1863.

In the Matter of certain letters patent granted to John Ruthven, of the city of Edinburgh, bearing date the 10th day of August, 1849, for an invention of "improvements in propelling and navigating ships, vessels, or boats, by steam or other power."

NOTICE is hereby given, that it is the intention of Morris West Ruthven, of Greenock, in the county of Renfrew, North Britain, Engineer, in whom the above-mentioned letters patent are vested, to present a petition to Her Majesty in Council, praying Her Majesty to grant a prolongation of the term of the above-mentioned letters patent. And notice is hereby further given, on the 23rd day of March next, or on such subsequent day as the Judicial Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council shall appoint for that purpose, an application will be made to the said Committee for a time to be fixed for hearing the matter of the said petition, and any person desirous of being heard in opposition to the prayer of the said petition must enter a caveat to that effect in the Privy Council Office, on or before the said 23rd day of March next.—Dated this 10th day of February, 1863.

J. Henry Johnson, No. 47, Lincoln's Inn-fields, London, W.C., Solicitor for the Petitioner.

Patent Law Amendment Act, 1852.

Office of the Commissioners of Patents for 414. Inventions.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the petition of Magnus Ohren, of Sydenham, in the county of Kent, Associate of the Institution of Civil Engineers, praying for letters patent for the invention of "improvements in the construction of gasholders, and in the mode of rendering gasholders self-acting," was deposited and recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 16th day of February, 1863, and a complete specification accompanying such petition was at the same time filed in the said office.

Patent Law Amendment Act, 1852.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, February 19, 1863.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday, the 5th March next, between the hours of twelve and one o'clock, they will be ready to receive sealed tenders for the purchase of Her Majesty's Steam Sloop PROMETHEUS, with part of machinery on board, 796 tons, 200 horse-power, lying at Chatham; and engines, boilers, and spare gear, lying in Her Majesty's Dock Yard at Woolwich.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed unless the party attends, or an Agent for him duly authorized in writing to make a deposit of £25 per cent. on the amount of the tender.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for the Purchase of the Prometheus," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place.

Persons wishing to view the vessel or machinery must apply to the Superintendent of Her Majesty's Dockyards at Woolwich and Chatham respectively, for notes of admission for that purpose.

Catalogues and conditions of sale may be had here, and at Woolwich and Chatham Dock Yards.
