Master of the Rolls.—Thursday, the 26th day of February, 1863. Between James Edward Coleman, Official Liquidator of the Risca Coal and Iron Company, plaintiff; Evan Herbert Lloyd, Frederick Woollaston, and Sir Alexander Beaumont Churchill Dixie, Baronet, defendants.

UPON motion this day made unto the Right Honourable the Master of the Rolls, by counsel for the plaintiff, who alleged that the plaintiff hath filed his Bill in this cause against the defendants, and that it appears by the affidavit of George Henry Sawtell, filed this day, that the defendant, Evan Herbert Lloyd, has been within the jurisdiction of this Court, within two years next before the filing of the said Bill, and that all due diligence has been used to serve the said defendant, but without effect, and the said defendant cannot be found so as to be served with process; and from inquiries made at the last known place of abode of the said defendant, and at other places where it was probable that the said defendant might be found, there is just ground to believe that the said defendant hath gone out of the realm or otherwise absconded, to avoid being served with process, and upon reading the said affidavit this Court doth order that the defendant, Evan Herbert Lloyd, do appear to the plaintiff's bill, on or before the 2nd day of April, 1863, and the plaintiff is to cause a copy of this order, with a notice hereof to the effect set forth at the foot of the 10th Consolidated Order, Rule 6, to be inserted in the London Gazette, The Times newspaper, and in Galignani's Messenger, within 14 days from the date hereof.

To the above-named defendant, Evan Herbert Lloyd.

Take Notice, that if you do not appear pursuant to the above order, the plaintiff may enter an appearance for you, and the Court may afterwards grant to the plaintiff such relief as he may be entitled to on his own showing.

FUTROYE, SAWTELL, and LIGHTFOOT, John-street, Bedford-row, Plaintiff's Solicitors.
