On arriving at the entrance to the Choir, the Drums and Trumpets filed off as before, and as the Bride entered, Handel's March from "Joseph" was played by the organ, and by Her Majesty's Band.

The Bride was conducted to her seat in the Choir on the left side of the Haut Pas.

The Supporters of The Bride were conducted to their seats on the Haut Pas, near Her Royal Highness, the Bridesmaids stood behind Her Royal Highness, and the Lord Chamberlain and Vice-Chamberlain near.

When the Bride had taken her place, a Chorale was sung, and the Service commenced.

His Grace The Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, The Lord Bishop of London, Dean of Her Majesty's Chapels Royal, The Lord Bishop of Oxford, Chancellor of the Order of the Garter, Lord High Almoner and Bishop of The Diocese, The Lord Bishop of Winchester, Prelate of the Order of the Garter, The Lord Bishop of Chester, Clerk of the Closet, and The Hon. and Very Reverend the Dean of Windsor, Registrar of the Order of the Garter and Resident Chaplain to Her Majesty, with the Canons and Minor Canons of Windsor, stood within the Altar.

The Archbishop of Canterbury proceeded with the Service to the end of the first blessing. The Choir then sung the 67th Psalm to the Grand Chant. The Archbishop continued the Service to the end of the second blessing. The Exhortation was then read, and the ceremony was concluded by the Archbishop of Canterbury with the blessing which terminates the Communion Service.

The Bride was given away by her Father, His Royal Highness The Prince Christian of Denmark.

As the Procession left the Chapel, Beethoven's Hallelujah Chorus from "The Mount of Olives" was sung.

At the conclusion of the Service, guns were fired in the Long Walk, Windsor Park.

The Processions returned to the West Entrance of the Chapel in the following Order:—
