PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the eleventh day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Andrew, situate at Wilmcote, in the parish of Aston Cantlow, in the county of Warwick, and in the diocese of Worcester.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Aston Cantlow, and of the parish of Stratford-upon-Avon, in the same county and diocese which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Aston Cantlow, and of the said parish of Stratford-upon-Avon, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Andrew, situate at Wilmcote aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend Henry, Bishop of Worcester (the Bishop of the diocese); of the very Reverend Edward Bowles Knottesford Fortescue, Provost of the Cathedral Church of Saint Ninian, at Perth, the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Aston Cantlow; and of the Right Honorable Mary Countess Dowager Amherst, the patroness of the vicarage of the said parish of Stratford-upon-Avon (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation); we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Aston Cantlow, and of the said parish of Stratford-upon-Avon, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Andrew, situate at Wilmcote aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Andrew, Wilmcote.'

"And we further represent that it has been mutually agreed between the said Edward Bowles Knottesford Fortescue, and the said Mary Countess Dowager Amherst (testified as aforesaid), that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry shall belong to, and be exercised by, the said Henry, Bishop of Worcester, and his successors, Bishops of Worcester, for ever.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto, as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet."

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"All that portion of the parish of Aston Cantlow, in the county of Warwick, and in the diocese of Worcester, and also all that portion of the parish of Stratford-upon-Avon, in the same county and diocese, which are comprised within and bounded by an imaginary line, commencing at a boundary stone inscribed 'W. St. A. C. C. 1862, No. 1,' and placed upon the southern side of the road leading from Stratford-upon-Avon, past Gallow's Green, to Aston Cantlow, at or near the point where the boundary which divides the said parish of Aston Cantlow from the said parish of Stratford-upon-Avon, meets the boundary which divides the said parish of Aston Cantlow from the parish of Billesley, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and extending thence first westward, and then north-westward along the last described boundary, as far as a point in the middle of the stream which flows from Gallow's-green aforesaid, towards Aston Cantlow, and extending thence first northward and then north-westward along the middle of such stream as far as a point in the middle of the Aston-road, opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'W. St. A. C. C., 1862, No. 2,' and placed upon the southern side of the last named road, and extending thence in a direct line north-eastward (crossing the Stratford-upon-Avon canal) to a boundary stone inscribed 'W. St. A. C. C., 1862, No. 3,' and placed upon the eastern bank of a certain stream flowing from a source near Gipsy Hall, past the house and premises called Hardwick, to the Silesbourne-brook, at the point where the boundary dividing the said parish of Aston Cantlow from the parish of Bearley, in the county and diocese aforesaid, impinges upon the said stream, and extending thence in a direction generally south-eastward or eastward along the last described boundary, to its junction with the boundary which divides the said parish of Aston Cantlow from the said parish of Stratford-upon-Avon as aforesaid, near Gospel Oak, and extending thence south-westward along the last described boundary, to a boundary stone inscribed 'W. St. A. C. C., 1862, No. 4,' and placed on the western side of the turnpike-road which leads from Henley-in-Arden to Stratford-upon-Avon, at a distance of three hundred and one yards to the south-east of the Pathlow turnpike-gate and extending thence in a direct line south-westward (crossing the line of the Stratford-upon-Avon branch of the Great Western Railway), to a point in the centre of the bridge leading from Green-lane, across the Stratford-upon-Avon canal aforesaid, and extending thence in a direct line south-westward, crossing the road leading from Stratford-upon-Avon, past Gallow's-green, to Aston Cantlow as aforesaid, to the boundary stone placed upon the southern side of the said road where the said imaginary line commenced."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the consolidated chapelry therein mentioned for the consecrated church of Saint Andrew, situate at Wilmcote, in the parish of Aston Cantlow, in the county of Warwick, be accordingly formed; and that the agreement mentioned in the said representation, with respect to the right of presentation and appointment of an Incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and that the said right of presentation and appointment of an Incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church shall belong to, and be exercised by, the said Henry, Bishop of Worcester, and his successors, Bishops of Worcester, for ever.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Worcester.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of March, 1863.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-second day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Acts of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the district parish of Saint Mary, Haggerstone, (heretofore part of the parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch) in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, and out of the particular district of Saint Peter, West Hackney, in the county and diocese aforesaid.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the portions of the said district parish of Saint Mary, Haggerstone, and of the said particular district of Saint Peter, West Hackney, which are hereinafter mentioned and described, such portions not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, should be constituted a separate district, in the manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas certain hereditaments and premises situate within the said parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch, have become vested in us under the provisions of and for the purposes of the herein-mentioned Acts.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said district parish of Saint Mary, Haggerstone, and of the said particular district of Saint Peter, West Hackney, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Andrew, Hoxton.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us in each and every year to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the provisions of the herein secondly-mentioned Act, the sum of two hundred pounds; and that so soon as a church shall have been built within such district, and shall have been duly approved by us, and consecrated as the church of such district, and for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and such district shall have thereupon become, according to the provisions of the same Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, there shall be paid by us in each and every year to the perpetual curate for the time being of such new parish, the further sum of one hundred pounds, making together the annual sum of three hundred pounds; and that the said sums of two hundred pounds and one hundred pounds respectively shall be paid by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year; and that the first of each of such respective payments, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or the first day of November next, after the day of the date of the licence of such minister, or of the approval and consecration of such church as aforesaid, as the case may be; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or incumbency of such district or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount next thereafter payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or perpetual curate making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish: Provided always, that if it shall appear to us to be expedient at any future time, that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the minister or perpetual curate of the said district or new parish, or instead of any part of such annual sum, any land, tithe, or other hereditament should be conveyed or secured to such minister or perpetual curate and his successors, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained, shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The district of Saint Andrew, Hoxton, being:—

"All that portion of the district parish of Saint Mary, Haggerstone (heretofore part of the parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch), in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, wherein the present incumbent of such district parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is situate to the west of the new parish of All Saints, Stonebridge, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and also to the west of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said district parish from the new parish aforesaid at a point in the centre of the bridge which carries Kingsland-road over the Regent's Canal; and extending thence, southward, along the middle of Kingsland-road aforesaid as far as a point opposite to the middle of the north-eastern end of King's-road;—and all which said portion of the district parish of Saint Mary, Haggerstone aforesaid, is also situate to the north of another imaginary line commencing at the last-described point in the middle of Kingsland-road, opposite to the middle of the north-eastern end of King's-road aforesaid; and extending thence, south-westward, to and along the middle of such last-named road to the boundary which divides the said district parish of Saint Mary, Haggerstone, from the district parish of Saint John, Hoxton (also heretofore part of the said parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch).

“And also all that portion of the particular district of Saint Peter, West Hackney, in the county and diocese aforesaid, which is situate to the east of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides such particular district from the district parish of Saint Mary, Haggerstone aforesaid, at a point in the middle of the southern end of De Beauvoir-road; and extending thence, northward, along the middle of the said road as far as the point where it is intersected by Downham-road;—and all which said portion of the particular district of Saint Peter, West Hackney, is also situate to the south of another imaginary line commencing at the last-described point where De Beauvoir-road is intersected by Downham-road as aforesaid; and extending thence, eastward, along the middle of the last-named road to the boundary which divides the said particular district from the parish of West Hackney, in the same county and diocese on the western side of Kingsland-road aforesaid.”

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the said secondly-mentioned Act, been transmitted to the incumbents and to the patrons of the churches of the said district parish of Saint Mary, Haggerstone, and the said particular district of Saint Peter, West Hackney (out of which district parish and particular district the district in such scheme recommended to be constituted is intended to be taken), and certain observations upon and objections to the said scheme which have been offered by the incumbent of the said particular district of Saint Peter, West Hackney, have been laid before Her Majesty in Council, together with such scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has, notwithstanding such observations and objections, been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

St. P. and St. J. C. C, 1863, No. 2,' and placed on the boundary dividing the said district parish of Saint John the Baptist, Summer Town, from the parish of Wolvercote, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the fence which divides the said Complins Meadow from the Trap Grounds, due west of the first-mentioned boundary stone; and extending thence, in a direction generally southward, along the last-described boundary, to its junction with the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Giles, Oxford, from the parish of Wolvercote aforesaid, at a point in the middle of the lane leading to the Port Meadow, and continuing thence, still southward, along the last-described boundary, to its junction with the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Giles, Oxford, from the consolidated chapelry district of Saint Paul, Oxford, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of a certain pool, formed by the river Isis and near Saint John's road; and extending thence, first north-eastward and then south-eastward, along the last-described boundary, as far as the point where the said boundary diverges from the middle of Saint John's-road aforesaid; and continuing thence, still south-eastward, along the middle of such road to its eastern extremity; and extending thence, eastward, and in a straight line across the turnpike road, leading from Oxford to Woodstock as aforesaid, to the middle of the western end of the Horse and Jockey-road; and continuing thence, still eastward, along the middle of the last named road, to a point in the middle of the turnpike road, leading from Oxford to Banbury as aforesaid; and extending thence, southward, along the middle of the last-described turnpike road, for a distance of twenty yards, to a point opposite to the middle of the western end of the fence, dividing the inclosure numbered 50 upon the said maps, from the inclosures numbered respectively 52 and 51 upon the same maps; and continuing thence, eastward, to and along the middle of the last-described fence, to its junction with the fence dividing the said inclosure numbered 51, from the inclosure numbered 49 upon the aforesaid maps; and extending thence, southward, along the middle of the last-mentioned fence, and along the middle of the fence dividing the last-described inclosure, from a certain occupation road leading thereto, to a point upon the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Giles, Oxford, from the parish of Holywell, in the same county and diocese, at or near the eastern end of the said occupation road; and extending thence, first eastward and then north-eastward, along the last described boundary to its junction with the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Giles, Oxford, from the parish of Marston aforesaid, upon the western bank of the river Cherwell as aforesaid; and extending thence, in a direction generally north-eastward, along the boundary last referred to, to the first-described point where the said imaginary line commenced."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof; and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the consolidated chapelry therein mentioned for the consecrated church of Saint Philip and Saint James, situate in the parish of Saint Giles, Oxford, in the county of Oxford, be accordingly formed agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and that the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church, shall belong to and be exercised by the said President and Scholars for the time being of Saint John Baptist College, in the University of Oxford aforesaid; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Oxford.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of March, 1863.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, section forty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and thirteen, section forty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for fixing the number and emoluments of the minor canons in the Cathedral and Metropolitan Church of Christ, Canterbury.

"Whereas application has been made to us by the Dean and Chapter of the said Church, to fix the number and emoluments of the Minor Canons in the said church, as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas it has been represented to us by the said Dean and Chapter, that the number of minor canons in the said church has until recently been six, but is now reduced to five, and that it is expedient that the number should be further reduced to four, and that thereafter there should continue to be four minor canons only therein; and that the said Dean and Chapter are prepared, out of the revenues of their church, to secure to each of the minor canons appointed subsequently to the passing of the said recited Act, and to every minor canon hereafter to be appointed, an income of two hundred and twenty-seven pounds and ten shillings.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Dean and Chapter of the said Cathedral and Metropolitan Church of Christ, at Canterbury, testified by their having hereunto affixed their capitular seal, that the number of minor canons in the said church shall be reduced to four, in manner following, that is to say:—that such one of the Minor Canonries held by the Reverend Joshua Stratton, Master of Arts, and the Reverend Frederick Rouch, Master of Arts, respectively as shall firstly become vacant shall not be filled up, and that there shall be paid by the said Dean and Chapter out of the corporate revenues of the said church to each of the minor canons appointed subsequently to the passing of the said recited Act, and to each minor canon hereafter appointed, an annual stipend, as such minor canons, of two hundred and twenty-seven pounds and ten shillings.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law, immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Canterbury.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of March, 1863.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twelfth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for assigning certain lands and hereditaments as an endowment for the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Peterborough.

"Whereas, under the provisions of the above-mentioned Act, and of an Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of an Act of the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty, chapter twenty-six, and by virtue of an Order of your Majesty in Council, made under the authority of such provisions, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, and duly published in the London Gazette on the second day of May following, in consideration of an annual money payment of six thousand two hundred and ten pounds, all the manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments theretofore belonging, either in possession or reversion, to the said dean and chapter (except certain portions thereof in the above-mentioned Order particularly excepted), and all the estate and interest therein of the said dean and chapter became vested in us.

"And whereas it was by the above-mentioned Order of your Majesty in Council provided, that none of the moneys or estates received or acquired under the provisions thereof should be applicable to the purposes of our common fund, except only so far as it might be necessary to reimburse such fund any advances made thereout under the provisions of such Order, until or unless, by and under the like authority, the said dean and chapter should have been put into possession, in fee-simple, of real estates sufficient to secure to them an annual income of six thousand pounds, clear of all charges and outgoings, on and from such estates, except costs of management.

"And whereas the said dean and chapter have signified to us their willingness to accept as their permanent endowment the lands, tenements, and hereditaments particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, which are now vested in us in fee-simple in possession, and the same are in our opinion convenient to be held as the permanent endowment of the said dean and chapter, and are calculated to produce as nearly as may be the above-mentioned net annual income of six thousand pounds.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church at Peterborough, testified by their having hereunto affixed their corporate seal, we humbly recommend and propose that, upon the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly published Order, the lands, tenements, and hereditaments particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, with their appurtenances, and all our right, title, estate, and interest therein, and in any tithes, or rent-charges in lieu of tithes, arising thereout or charged thereupon, and in the benefit of the perpetual laud-tax charged upon the same premises which has been redeemed shall be assigned as the endowment of the Dean and Chapter of Peterborough, and shall become and be absolutely vested in the said dean and chapter in as full and ample a manner as if the same had formed part of the ancient possessions of the said dean and chapter; and that they shall become and be absolutely entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds of such lands, tenements, and hereditaments, as from the first day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the money payment heretofore payable by us, under the provisions of the hereinbefore recited Order of your Majesty in Council, of the twenty-ninth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, shall, as from the said first day of November, cease and determine.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twelfth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words following, that is to say :

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorising the sale and disposal of certain property now vested in us.

"Whereas under and by virtue of a certain Indenture, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and made or expressed to be made between James Cropley, of Ely, in the Isle of Ely, and county of Cambridge, Esquire, (surviving trustee of the settlement made on the marriage of James Colborne, the father, and Mary his wife, both deceased) of the first part; the said James Cropley of the second part; Charles Finch Foster, Esquire, and George Ebenezer Foster, Esquire, both of Cambridge, in the county of Cambridge, of the third part; and us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the fourth part; the tithe commutation rent-charge, or annual sum of six hundred and thirty-three pounds, arising within the parish of Witcham, in the Isle of Ely, and in the county of Cambridge, which, on the commutation of tithes within such parish, was assigned and awarded in lieu of the rectorial tithes arising therein, became and is now vested in us for the residue of a term of a lease thereof granted on the first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, by the Dean and Chapter of Ely, for twenty-one years, from the twenty-ninth day of September, then last past, subject to the annual rents and to the covenants reserved and contained in the said lease.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said tithe rent-charge or of the proceeds thereof for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the same or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such tithe rent-charge, or in any part or parts thereof in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorised and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said tithe commutation rent-charge, or annual sum so vested in us as aforesaid, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Ely.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of March, 1863.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation bearing date the twelfth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words following; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Saviour, situate in the township of Harum, otherwise Harome, in the parish of Helmsley, in the county of York, and in the diocese of York.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Saviour, situate in the township of Harum, otherwise Harome aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William, Archbishop of York (the Bishop of the diocese), testified by his having signed and sealed this representation we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Helmsley, described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Saviour, Harome.'

"And with the like consent of the said William, Archbishop of York, testified as aforesaid, we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect thereof should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Saviour, Harome, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Helmsley, in the county of York, and in the diocese of York, which is comprised within the limits of the township of Harum, otherwise Harome."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof; and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Saviour, situate in the township of Harum, otherwise Harome, in the parish of Helmsley, in the county of York, to be called "The District Chapelry of Saint Saviour, Harome," be accordingly made; and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners with reference to the publication of banns of matrimony, and the solemnization or performance of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials in the said church, and with reference to the fees to be paid in respect of those offices, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of York:

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the nineteenth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words following; that is to say:

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the Prebend of Withington Parva, in the Cathedral Church of Hereford, and now vested in us.

"Whereas on the vacancy of the said Prebend, which occurred on or about the twenty-third day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty, by the decease of the Reverend Arthur Matthews, Clerk, the then Prebendary, all the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, theretofore belonging to the said prebend (except rights of patronage), became, by virtue of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, absolutely vested in us, for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas our estate in the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments aforesaid, consists of a reversion expectant upon a beneficial lease, and produces, during the subsistence of such lease only a small annual revenue; and partly on that account, and partly on account of the character or situation of the property, is unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied, for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by an act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions, or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or such parts thereof as we shall at any time, and from time to time, think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the holder or holders thereof, to be testified by his, her, or their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, heretofore belonging to the said Prebend of Withington Parva, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same; and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing hererein contained, shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures, relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law, immediately from and after the time when this order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Hereford.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Hereford.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or such parts thereof as we shall at any time, and from time to time, think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorised and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the holder or holders thereof (if any) to be testified by his, her, or their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, theretofore belonging to the said Prebend of Yatesbury, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Salisbury.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis;" it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-ground or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require), that after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time, as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation, shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish;

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representations, has made representations stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground shall be opened in the undermentioned parishes, without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials shall be discontinued therein;

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the ninth day of January last, to give notice of such representations, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the twenty-fifth day of February last, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any of the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and that burials in the said parishes shall be discontinued (except as is herein otherwise directed), as follows; viz.:
