Whitehall, March 26, 1863.

THE following Addresses of Congratulation to the Queen, on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for Presentation, have accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously :

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of the Principal and Professors of the University of Aberdeen.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Principal and Professors of the University of Aberdeen, beg leave to approach the Throne, that we may offer to your Majesty our sincere and respectful congratulations, on the occasion of the marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

Deeply sensible of the blessings which we, in common with all our fellow subjects, enjoy under your Majesty's beneficent and illustrious reign, and devotedly attached to your Majesty's person and Government, we regard every event which contributes to your Majesty's happiness, and to the welfare of your Royal House, as a cause of gratitude to Divine Providence, and of heartfelt joy.

In the promotion by your Majesty of the Union of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, with a Princess so worthy of the esteem and affection with which your Majesty has honoured Her, we recognise a new instance of your Majesty's wisdom, and of your care to secure the honour of that Throne which your Majesty's great public and private virtues have surrounded with such dignity and lustre ; and while in this, as in all things connected with the upbringing of the Royal family, we acknowledge a ground of deep national obligation to your Majesty, it is our earnest desire that a union so auspicious and hopeful may prove a source of rich and lasting comfort to your Majesty's heart.

That Almighty God may bestow his choicest favours on your Majesty, and on all the members of the Royal Family, and that He may continue for many years the blessings of your Majesty's reign to a grateful people, is and ever shall be, our earnest prayer.

In name, by appointment, and under the Seal of the Senatus Academicus of the University, at Aberdeen, this 14th day of March, 1863.

P. C. Campbell, D.D., Principal.
