Whitehall, April 20, 1863.

THE following Addresses of Congratulation to the Queen, on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for Presentation, have accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Body of English Presbyterian Ministers, in and near the cities of London and Westminster, beg to offer to your Majesty our heartfelt congratulations on the occasion of the Marriage of the eldest Son of your Royal House with Her Royal Highness the Princess Alexandra of Denmark.

A union founded, not on the ground of State policy, but on the far higher ground of mutual regard and affection, cannot but be alike grateful to your Majesty's own feelings and congenial with the wishes and hopes of your loyal and devoted people. The abundant testimony borne to the virtues and amiable dispositions of the Princess Alexandra, cannot but inspire the happiest confidence in Her Royal Highness as the Wife of the Prince of Wales, both in his exalted public position and in the sanctities of domestic life; indeed, the love and honour His Royal Highness bears towards his chosen bride, are the best pledge that could be given that she is worthy of the admiration and attachment of this great Country.

We are persuaded that your Majesty's Children can never form a new home, without a deep and abiding feeling of what they owe to that home of their early years, which has been an unspeakable blessing to them and the whole Nation.

Most fervently do we join in the prayer now ascending from all hearts, that Heaven's choicest blessing may rest on your new Daughter and Her Royal Husband, and that your Majesty may have unfailing comfort and happiness in them and all your Children.

Cumberland to Wit.

Provisional Order made by the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace in and for the County of Cumberland for the formation of Highway Districts in the said County.

WHEREAS the Reverend Octavius James, Clerk, Hugh Watson Friend, Esquire, the Reverend John Heysham, Clerk, Thomas Wilson, Esquire, and Henry Dundas Maclean, Esquire, being five of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace acting in and for the county of Cumberland (two of whom, namely, the Reverend Octavius James and Thomas Wilson, Esquire, are respectively resident in the parish of Alston hereinafter mentioned), have, by a writing under their hands, dated the 5th day of March, 1863, required Thomas Houghton Hodgson, Esquire, the Clerk of the Peace for the said county, to add to or send with the notice required by law to be given of the holding of the Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, a notice in the form marked (A), in the schedule to the Act of the 25th and 26th years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter sixty-one, intituled "An Act for the better management of the Highways in England," or as near thereto as circumstances admit, that at such Court of General Quarter Sessions a proposal would be made to the Justices then and there assembled to constitute the parish of Alston and the chapelry of Garrigill within the said parish of Alston, being places separately maintaining their own highways, a Highway District, for the purposes of the "Highway Acts;" and did also require the said Clerk of the Peace to send by post, in a pre-paid letter, notices, in the form aforesaid, to the Churchwardens and Overseers of each and every of the parishes above-mentioned.

And whereas at a Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, held at the Court-house, Carlisle, in the said county, on the 8th day of April, 1863, a proposal was submitted to the said Court by the said Justices, that the parish of Alston and the chapelry of Garrigill, within the said parish of Alston, being places separately maintaining their own highways, should be constituted a Highway District for the purposes of the Highway Acts.

Now, therefore, the said Court, in pursuance of the powers vested in the Court in and by the said Act, do, by this Provisional Order, direct that the parish and chapelry undermentioned, in the said county, shall be formed into a Highway District, for the purposes of the "Highway Acts," namely, the parish of Alston and the chapelry of Garrigill, within the said parish of Alston, into a district, to be called the "Alston Highway District."

And whereas the said Court have heard the said proposal and entertained the same, and have considered the premises, and it has been shown to the said Court, that the notices aforesaid were duly sent to the Churchwardens and Overseers of each of the parishes mentioned.

It is further ordered by the said Court, that the number of Waywardens which each parish, in the said district, shall elect, shall be as follows:—the parish of Alston shall elect three Waywardens, and the chapelry of Garrigill shall elect two Waywardens.

It is further ordered by the said Court, that the first meeting of the Highway Board, for the said district, shall be held at Alston on the fifth day after the first election of Waywardens, in pursuance of the said Act, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon.

Lastly, it is ordered that the confirmation of this Provisional Order by a Final Order shall be taken into consideration by the Justices at a Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, to be held at the Court-house, Carlisle aforesaid, in and for the said county, on the 30th day of June, 1863.
