Whitehall, April 23, 1863.

THE following Addresses of Congratulation to the Queen, on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for Presentation, have accordingly been presented by him to

Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's faithful subjects, the Archbishop, Bishops, and Clergy of the Province of York, in Convocation assembled, desire to express to your Majesty our sincere congratulations upon the recent union of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with a Princess endowed with all the qualities to adorn the high station which she is called, under the providence of God, to occupy.

The universal rejoicing of your people at this auspicious union has been as much an expression of grateful devotion to the Sovereign whose wise rule and pure example have been for many years amongst our greatest national blessings, as of hope for the future happiness of one so dear to your Majesty and so full of promise. And one thing alone detracted from our rejoicing that the shadow of a great sorrow still overhanging your Majesty's Royal House prevented your Majesty from receiving in person from millions of your affectionate people, that expression of loyal affection and sympathy of which your Majesty, though absent, was the chief object.

We humbly pray that all the joys and sorrows with which it has pleased the Almighty to visit you may draw your Majesty more to Him who is the strength of Thrones and the comfort of troubled hearts.

We pray that your Majesty may rule happily for many years over a people blessed with peace and prosperity and growing in the love of God and of His Blessed Son, and that you may see your children's children brought up in the faith and fear of Almighty God.

W., Ebor, President.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Ministers and Elders of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, met in Commission.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Ministers and Elders of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland met, in Special Commission, desire to embrace the earliest opportunity of conveying to Your Majesty our Congratulations on the marriage of the Prince of Wales.

On this auspicious occasion, the past and the present divide with the future, our interest and our sympathy. In the principles and character of His Royal Highness we recognise the happy fruits of the domestic virtues of your Majesty and of your illustrious and lamented Consort; and in the alliance between His Royal Highness and a Princess of kindred race, worthy of his affection, we discern at once the richest reward of your Majesty's anxieties as a mother, and the best earthly consolations of your bereavement as a wife.

Participating as we did in that jubilee of joy which signalled the common festival of Britain and Denmark, and which we feel assured was no where more enthusiastic than in this your Majesty's ancient kingdom of Scotland, we, as becomes the Ministers and Elders of a National Church that has experienced your fostering protection, will not cease to offer up our supplications that the Author of every good and perfect gift may shed his choicest blessings on a union which holds forth the fairest promise of happily influencing the future of your great and advancing empire.

That He, by whom kings reign, even the God and Father of Our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, may long preserve your Majesty to be, as you have hitherto been, the honoured instrument of a Gracious Providence for the benefit, temporal and spiritual, of all classes of a happy, loyal, and grateful people, is the earnest prayer of,

May it please your Majesty, the Ministers and Elders assembled in Commission of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our name, in our presence, and at our appointment, by

THE Secretary of State for India in Council hereby gives notice,—

That, until further notice, sealed Tenders will be received at the Chief Cashier's Office, at the Bank of England, up to two o'clock on the First and Third Wednesdays in each month, commencing with Wednesday, the 6th day of May next, for Bills of Exchange, payable on demand, to be drawn on the several Governments in India, at Calcutta, Madras, or Bombay, for the sum of Rupees 70,00,000 in each month, of which not more than Rupees 28,00,000 will be drawn on the Government of Bombay, and Rupees 4,00,000 on that of Madras.

Tenders will not be accepted for more than Rupees 40,00,000, on the first Wednesday in each month, and power is reserved to issue Bills for any smaller amount than Rupees 70,00,000 in any one month, and to carry over the difference to the succeeding months.

No Tender is to be for a sum less than Rupees 10,000, and one-eighth of a penny per Rupee is to be the smallest fraction tendered.

Each Tender must specify the rate of Exchange at which the applicant is prepared to purchase a Bill, or any number of Bills, and the lowest amount of any one Bill is to be Rupees 5,000.

The Secretary of State will not be bound to accept any Tender, and reserves the right of accepting the whole or any portion of a Tender.

In the event of two or more Tenders being equal, and the amount remaining to be allotted not being sufficient to supply both or all, the Bank will be instructed to allot rateably.

On the day following the receipt of the Tenders at the Bank, the parties will, on application at the Chief Cashier's Office, be informed whether their Tenders have or have not been accepted.

If accepted, the amount of payment must be lodged at the Bank on or before the 15th and 29th days of each month respectively.

Those applicants whose Tenders shall have been accepted, will be furnished with a Form to be filled up with the particulars of the Bills required, and the Bills themselves, drawn in Duplicate, will be delivered on the day following the payment.
