Whitehall, April 27, 1863.

THE following Addresses of Congratulation to the Queen, on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir George

Grey, Bart., Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for Presentation, have accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously :

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lieutenant - Governor, Council, Deemsters, and Keys of the Isle of Man, in Tynwald assembled, beg leave to approach your Majesty with the most profound sentiments of duty and respect, to present our heartfelt congratulations on the auspicious occasion of the marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, an event which, in this island, as elsewhere throughout the empire, has excited the loyalty and sincere affection of your Majesty's subjects.

Whilst the cherished memory of that great and virtuous Prince, your Majesty's Royal Consort, whom it has pleased Almighty God to take unto Himself, will ever be revered, we feel also assured that the influence upon his descendants of his great example, and of his wise counsels, will be shown for generations to come, in the continued increasing prosperity and good government of this great and favoured nation.

It is, therefore, with the deepest interest that we participate with your Majesty's subjects at large in the gratification felt in an event which must so largely add to your domestic comfort, and holds forth so bright a promise for the future welfare of your people.

We express a hope that your Majesty will receive favourably the assurance that the ancient and dutiful people, of whom we are the Legislative Representatives, do not yield to any of your subjects in attachment to your person and devotion to your service; and we fervently pray that the Almighty Disposer of events may continue graciously to protect your Majesty, and to grant that you may long reign over a happy and prosperous people.

REGULATIONS FOR THE REGISTRATION OF POST LETTERS.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the 3rd and 4th years of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 96, for the regulation of the duties of postage, it was enacted by section 39 (after reciting that it might be expedient that certain post letters should be registered), that in case the Postmaster-General should at any time deem it expedient that all or any post letters should be registered by the Post Office, the Postmaster-General, might, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, forward letters so registered without charging any additional rate for the registration thereof, or he might charge for any letter so registered such rate of postage in addition to any other rates payable under the Post Office Acts as the Postmaster-General, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, should from time to time direct (but such registration should not render the Postmaster-General, or the Post Office Revenue, in any manner liable for the loss of any such post letters or the contents thereof), and that all registered letters should be delivered to the Post Office, and also be delivered by the Post Office, at or between such hours in the day, and under all such regulations in every respect, as the Postmaster-General should from time to time appoint; and that the Postmaster-General might therein require such registration rate to be paid on the letter being put into the Post Office. And by section 60 it was further enacted that in all cases in which the postage of any unstamped letter should not have been paid by the sender it should be paid by the person to whom the letter is addressed, on the delivery thereof to him, but that if the letter should be refused, or the party to whom it is addressed should be dead, or could not be found, the writer or sender should pay the postage; and that the now reciting enactment should apply to every packet, newspaper, and thing whatsoever chargeable with postage, which should be transmitted by the post. And by section 63 it was also enacted that all post letters should be posted, forwarded, conveyed, and delivered under and subject to all such orders, directions, and regulations, and under and subject to all such conditions, limitations, and restrictions as to the form, size, dimensions, enclosures, or otherwise, as the Postmaster-General, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, should from time to time direct.

And whereas by a certain other Act of Parliament, made and passed in the session of Parliament holden in the 10th and 11th years of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 85, for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post-office, after reciting the said hereinbefore recited Act, it was enacted by section 10 that it should be lawful for the Postmaster-General, and any officer of the Post Office, to detain any letters which should be posted or sent by the post contrary to the regulations of the said now recited Act or the said hereinbefore recited Act, or contrary to any regulations made under the authority of the said now reciting Act, or the said hereinbefore recited Act, or contrary to the regulations of any Treasury Warrant which should be issued under or by virtue of the said now recited Act, or which had been or should be issued under or by virtue of the said hereinbefore recited Act, and to forward such letters to the places of their destination, charged with such rates of postage as the Postmaster-General, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, should from time to time direct.

And whereas by the said two hereinbefore recited Acts, respectively, it was provided that whenever the order, consent, authority, or direction of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury was prescribed by the said Acts, such order, consent, authority, or direction (not being by Warrant), might be signified, either under the hands of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any three of them, or under the hand of one of their Secretaries or Assistant Secretaries.

And whereas, in pursuance of the said recited Acts, a system of registration has been established, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, whereby the public have been and are entitled to forward letters by the post at a certain charge or registration rate of postage, in addition to the other rates payable thereon, and it is expedient that such system of registration should be extended, and such registration rate altered, in manner and according to the regulations hereinafter mentioned and contained, and that certain orders, directions, and regulations for that purpose heretofore made, should be rescinded, revoked, repealed, and annulled.

Now I, Edward John, Lord Stanley of Alderley, Her Majesty's Postmaster-General, by and with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, signified under the hand of one of their Secretaries, whose name is hereunto set, do hereby rescind, revoke, repeal, and annul certain orders, directions, and regulations heretofore by me made, and bearing date the 20th day of December, 1862, except so far as the same shall have rescinded, revoked, repealed, or annulled any other orders, directions, or regulations heretofore made, and except as to all matters and things which shall have been made or done previous to the coming into operation of these orders, directions, and regulations as to which the said orders, directions, and regulations, bearing date the 20th day of December, 1862, shall be and remain in full force and effect, notwithstanding the repeal thereof, which is only to operate as from the day on which these orders, directions, and regulations shall come into operation; and I do hereby, by and with such consent as aforesaid, order, direct, and declare as follows:—

1. The registration rate of postage, payable at any Post Office in the United Kingdom on inland letters registered during the ordinary hours appointed for the registration thereof at such Post Office, shall be four pence, and such registration rate shall be payable in stamps, but this regulation shall not extend to the registration rates chargeable and payable on colonial or foreign letters.

2. All letters, whether inland, colonial, or foreign, may be registered at the metropolitan chief Post Offices or at the London District Post Offices (including the Lombard-street and Charing Cross Branch Post Offices), or at any Provincial Head Post Office in the United Kingdom, after the ordinary hours appointed for the registration thereof, at any such Post Office, until the closing of the letter-box for each dispatch, or until such Post Office is closed for the night, upon payment of a late registration rate of postage of four pence, which shall be payable in stamps in addition to the ordinary registration rate, and to any other rates chargeable or payable thereon.

3. All letters containing coin, posted in any town or place in the United Kingdom, addressed to any person, town, or place in the United Kingdom, and all letters which shall have written or put thereon the word "registered," or any other word or words of the like meaning or to the like effect when posted, whether the same shall have or contain therein coin or not, shall be delivered to the Post Office for registration, and shall be registered by the Post Office at the time of the same being posted, and a rate of postage of four pence for every letter so registered shall be charged for the registration thereof, in addition to any other rates of postage payable thereon, or which may become chargeable thereon under the regulations hereinbefore, in the 2nd clause mentioned, and every such registration rate shall be paid in stamps at the time of such letters being posted.

4. If any such letters shall be put into the Post Office without being registered by the Post Office, and without the registration rate or rates chargeable thereon, being paid in stamps, as hereinbefore in the third clause is mentioned and directed, such letters shall be registered by any Post Office through which they may pass in course of transmission thereof by the post, and shall be forwarded so registered to their destination, and shall be charged with double the ordinary registration rate of postage of four pence, in addition to any other rates of postage chargeable or payable thereon, with a deduction nevertheless equal to the amount of any stamps which may have been affixed to such letters in payment or part payment of the registration rate chargeable thereon.

5. Any such letters as are hereinbefore in the 4th clause mentioned, may be detained for the purpose of being registered by any Post Office through which they may pass in course of transmission thereof by the post, until the next ordinary dispatch to that by which they would have been forwarded, conveyed, and delivered, if they had been registered by the Post Office according to the directions hereinbefore in the 3rd clause mentioned.

6. The 3rd and 4th clauses hereinbefore contained shall not extend to any letters sent to or from any of Her Majesty's colonies or any foreign country.

7. These regulations shall come into operation on and from the 1st day of May next.

Given under my hand this 2nd day of April, 1863.

Stanley of Alderley,
Her Majesty's Postmaster-General.

I hereby signify the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to the foregoing regulations.
