

regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that a letter from the Lady who is to make the presentation, stating it to be her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to the Queen, for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command, that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing Room, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Princess.

It is not expected that Gentlemen will present themselves at the Drawing Room, excepting in attendance upon the Ladies of their families.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court until half-past one o'clock.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

Marlborough House, April, 1863.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales will receive Addresses of Congratulation upon His Royal Highness's Marriage, on behalf of himself and of Her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales, from corporate and other public bodies, at Marlborough House, on Wednesday, the 29th instant, at two o'clock, p.m.

A Deputation to present an Address must not exceed four persons.

A card, containing the names of the Gentlemen who will form the Deputations, and a statement of the object of the Address and the body from which it originates, must be submitted, on or before Monday, the 27th instant, to Lieutenant-General Knollys, Treasurer and Comptroller to His Royal Highness, at Marlborough House.

At the time of presenting the Address, a similar card must be placed in the hands of the Groom of the Stole to His Royal Highness, who will announce its contents to His Royal Highness.

The Address will be presented to His Royal Highness by the Deputation, who will then pass on.

No other statement is on this occasion to be addressed to His Royal Highness.

Full dress will be worn, viz :—
Court Dress or Uniform, or Robes over Court Dress.

(Signed) W. KNOLLYS,
Lieutenant-General.

Whitehall, April 27, 1863.

THE following Addresses of Congratulation to the Queen, on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir George

Grey, Bart., Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for Presentation, have accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously :

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lieutenant - Governor, Council, Deemsters, and Keys of the Isle of Man, in Tynwald assembled, beg leave to approach your Majesty with the most profound sentiments of duty and respect, to present our heartfelt congratulations on the auspicious occasion of the marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, an event which, in this island, as elsewhere throughout the empire, has excited the loyalty and sincere affection of your Majesty's subjects.

Whilst the cherished memory of that great and virtuous Prince, your Majesty's Royal Consort, whom it has pleased Almighty God to take unto Himself, will ever be revered, we feel also assured that the influence upon his descendants of his great example, and of his wise counsels, will be shown for generations to come, in the continued increasing prosperity and good government of this great and favoured nation.

It is, therefore, with the deepest interest that we participate with your Majesty's subjects at large in the gratification felt in an event which must so largely add to your domestic comfort, and holds forth so bright a promise for the future welfare of your people.

We express a hope that your Majesty will receive favourably the assurance that the ancient and dutiful people, of whom we are the Legislative Representatives, do not yield to any of your subjects in attachment to your person and devotion to your service; and we fervently pray that the Almighty Disposer of events may continue graciously to protect your Majesty, and to grant that you may long reign over a happy and prosperous people.

Castle Rushen 16th April, 1863.
