

to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit ;

And whereas certain Orders in Council have been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter mentioned, from the time specified in such Orders respectively ; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be postponed ;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards be postponed, as follows ; viz. :

In the churchyard of Dalston, Cumberland, from the thirtieth of April to the thirty-first of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three.

In the churchyard of St. John's, Dukinfield, from the first of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, to the first of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, on condition that burials be conducted in accordance with the Order of the twenty-fourth of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, relating to that churchyard.

In the parish churchyard, Arborfield, from the first of May to the first of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three.

And whereas by an Order in Council of the twentieth of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, it was directed that burials should be discontinued, with certain exceptions, in the churchyard of Holy Trinity, Darlington ; and whereas it seems fit that the said Order be varied : Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that a further exception be made to the operation of such Order, and that burials be permitted in the case of persons who may die in the township of Cocker-ton or of Archdeacon Newton before the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parish without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State ; and that interments in the same should be discontinued, with the following modifications ; viz. :

CARSHALTON.—Forthwith beneath the parish church of Carshalton, and from and after the first of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the Churchyard, with the exception of the now existing family vaults, brick graves, and family earthen graves, which are situated in that part of the churchyard which lies to the south of the church ; and which shall be used in accordance with the official regulations for new burial grounds.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the eighth day of June next :

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette ; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of or on some conspicuous places within the parish affected by such representation, one month before the said eighth day of June.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make further provision for the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appear to Her Majesty in Council, upon the petition of the town council of any borough, stating that an Order in Council has been made for closing all or any of the burial grounds of one or more parishes being wholly or partly within such borough, that there is difficulty or inconvenience in providing, under the powers of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," requisite places of burial for the inhabitants of such parish or parishes, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that power shall be vested in the Council of such borough, for providing such places of burial, under the provisions of the said Act ; provided always, that notice of such petition, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and in one of the newspapers usually circulating in such borough, one month at least before such petition is so considered.

And whereas the Town Council of the borough of Newcastle-under-Lyme, in the county of Stafford have presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council, stating that the said borough of Newcastle-under-Lyme includes the whole of the parish of Newcastle-under-Lyme, and that portion
