

notices in the like form were also duly sent by him to the Overseers of each of the aforesaid parishes and hamlets, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act of Parliament.

Now, therefore, the said Court, in pursuance of the powers vested in the Court, in and by the said Act, do, by this Provisional Order, direct that the parishes and hamlets under mentioned, in the said county of Warwick, shall be constituted a Highway District, for the purposes of the "Highway Acts," namely—Bushwood, Beaudesert, Bearley, Claverdon, Langley, Lapworth, Packwood, Preston, Bagot, Pinley, Rowington, Tanworth, and Wootton Wawen, including the hamlets and places therein respectively, to be called "The Henley-in-Arden Highway District."

It is further ordered by the said Court, that the number of Waywardens which each parish and hamlet in the said district shall elect, shall be one, for each of the said parishes and hamlets heretofore separately maintaining its own highways.

Lastly, it is ordered that the confirmation of this Provisional Order, by a Final Order, shall be taken into consideration by the Justices at a Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, to be held at Warwick aforesaid, in and for the said county, on Tuesday, the 30th day of June, 1863.

By the Court,
W. O. Hunt, Clerk of the Peace.

STRATFORD-UPON-AVON HIGHWAY DISTRICT.

Provisional Order—25 and 26 Vict., c. 61, s. 6.
County of Warwick.

WHEREAS William Judd Harding, Esquire, Gustavus Thomas Smith, Esquire, James Cove Jones, Esquire, Henry William Allfrey, Esquire, Sir Robert North Collie Hamilton, Baronet, and William Henry Child, Esquire, being six of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace acting in and for the county of Warwick, two of whom at least are resident in the proposed Highway District hereinafter mentioned, have, by writing, under their hands, dated the 23rd day of January, 1863, required the Clerk of the Peace of the said county, to add to or send with the notice required by law to be given of the holding of the Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, a notice in the Form marked (A) in the schedule to the Act of the 25th and 26th years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter 61, intituled "An Act for the better Management of the Highways in England," or as near thereto as circumstances admit, that at such Court of General Quarter Sessions, a proposal would be made to the Justices then and there assembled, to constitute the following parishes and hamlets, that is to say:—Alveston, Fulbrook, Hampton Lucy, Loxley, Snitterfield, Wolverton, Aston Cantlow, Atherstone-on-Stour, Bickmarsh, Billesley, Binton, Eatington and Fulready, Grafton, Luddington, Drayton, Whitchurch with Bruton, Crimscote and Wimpstone, in the county of Warwick, and Aldermarston, in the county of Worcester, a Highway District for the purposes of the said Act. And the said Justices did also require the said Clerk of the Peace to send by post, in a prepaid letter, notices in the form aforesaid, to the Churchwardens or Overseers of each and every of the parishes and hamlets above mentioned.

And whereas at the Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, held at Warwick, in and for the said county of Warwick, on the 7th day of April, 1863, a proposal was submitted to the said Court by the Justices, that a Highway District be constituted to consist of the parishes and hamlets before mentioned:

And whereas the said Court have heard the

said proposal and entertained the same, and have considered the premises, and it has been shewn to the said Court that the notices aforesaid were duly sent by the Clerk of the Peace, with the notice required by law to be given of the holding of the present Court of General Quarter Sessions, and that notices in the like form were also duly sent by him to the Overseers of each of the aforesaid parishes and hamlets, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act of Parliament:

Now, therefore, the said Court, in pursuance of the powers vested in the Court in and by the said Act, do by this Provisional Order, direct that the parishes and hamlets under mentioned shall be constituted a Highway District, for the purposes of the "Highway Acts," namely—Alveston, Fulbrook, Hampton Lucy, Loxley, Snitterfield, Wolverton, Aston Cantlow, Atherstone-on-Stour, Bickmarsh, Billesley, Binton, Eatington and Fulready, Grafton, Luddington, Drayton, Whitchurch with Bruton, Crimscote and Wimpstone, in the said county of Warwick, and Aldermarston, otherwise Alderminster, in the said county of Worcester, to be called "The Stratford-upon-Avon Highway District."

It is further ordered by the said Court, that the number of Waywardens which each parish and hamlet in the said district shall elect, shall be one, for each of the said parishes and hamlets heretofore separately maintaining its own highways.

Lastly, it is ordered that the confirmation of this Provisional Order, by a Final Order, shall be taken into consideration by the Justices at a Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, to be held at Warwick aforesaid, in and for the said county, on Tuesday, the 30th day of June, 1863.

By the Court,
W. O. Hunt, Clerk of the Peace.
