

And whereas by the said Provisional Order the said Court ordered, that the number of Waywardens which each parish in the said district shall elect, shall be one for each of the said parishes and hamlets heretofore separately maintaining their own highways.

And whereas by the said Provisional Order the said Court lastly ordered, that the confirmation of the said Provisional Order by a Final Order shall be taken into consideration by the Justices at a Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held at Warwick aforesaid, in and for the said county of Warwick, on the 7th day of April, 1863.

Now, therefore, at a Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county of Warwick, held at Warwick aforesaid, in the said county of Warwick, on the 7th day of April, 1863, as aforesaid, the Justices assembled thereat, having considered the premises, do, by this Final Order, confirm the said Provisional Order without variation, and do further order, that the first meeting of the Highway Board for the said district, shall be held at Shipston-on-Stour, on the Saturday next after the first election of Waywardens, at three o'clock in the afternoon.

By the Court,

W. O. Hunt, Clerk of the Peace.

MORETON-IN-MARSH HIGHWAY DISTRICT.

Final Order—25 and 26 Vict., c. 61, s. 6.

County of Warwick.

WHEREAS Sir George Richard Philips, Baronet, William Dickens, Frederick Colville, and John Branston Freer, Esquires, and George Domville Wheeler, Clerk, being five of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace acting in and for the county of Warwick, (two of whom, namely, Frederick Colville and George Domville Wheeler are respectively resident in the parishes of Barton-on-the-Heath, and Great Wolford hereinafter mentioned), did, by a writing under their hands, dated the 12th day of December, 1862, require William Oakes Hunt, Esquire, the Clerk of the Peace for the said county, to add to or send with the notice required by law to be given of the holding of the Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, a notice in the Form marked (A) in the schedule, to the Act of the 25th and 26th years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter sixty-one, intituled "An Act for the better Management of the Highways in England," or as near thereto as circumstances admit, that at such Court of General or Quarter Sessions, a proposal would be made to the Justices then and there assembled to constitute a highway district, to be united with and form part of a highway district, to be called "The Moreton-in-Marsh Highway District, in the county of Gloucester, to consist of the following parishes in the county of Warwick, namely, Little Compton, Barton-on-the-Heath, and Great Wolford, for the purposes of the "Highway Acts;" and did also require the said Clerk of the Peace to send by post, in a prepaid letter, notices, in the form aforesaid, to the Churchwardens and Overseers of each and every of the parishes above mentioned.

And whereas at a Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, held at Warwick, in and for the said county of Warwick, on the 6th day of January, 1863, a proposal was submitted to the said Court by the said Justices, that a Highway District be constituted, to be united with and form part of a Highway District, to be called "The Moreton-in-Marsh Highway District," in the county of Gloucester, to consist of the before-mentioned parishes in the county of Warwick.

And whereas at the said Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county of Warwick, the said Court, in pursuance of the powers vested in the Court in and by the said Act, did, by a Provisional Order, direct that the parishes under mentioned in the said county of Warwick, be constituted a Highway District for the purposes of the "Highway Acts," namely, the parishes of Little Compton, Barton-on-the-Heath, and Great Wolford, to be called "The Moreton-in-Marsh Highway District."

And whereas by the said Provisional Order the said Court ordered, that the number of Waywardens which each parish in the said district shall elect be one.

And whereas by the said Provisional Order the said Court lastly ordered, that the confirmation of the said Provisional Order by a Final Order shall be taken into consideration by the Justices at a Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held at Warwick aforesaid, in and for the said county of Warwick, on the 7th day of April, 1863.

Now, therefore, at a Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county of Warwick, held at Warwick aforesaid, in the said county of Warwick, on the 7th day of April, 1863, as aforesaid, the Justices assembled thereat, having considered the premises, do, by this Final Order, confirm the said Provisional Order without variation, and do further order that the first meeting of the Highway Board for the said district, shall be held at Moreton-in-Marsh, on the Tuesday next after the first election of Waywardens, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the Unicorn Inn, at Moreton aforesaid.

By the Court,

W. O. Hunt, Clerk of the Peace

Worcestershire, to Wit.

AT the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, holden at the County-hall, Worcester, in and for the said county, in the first week after the 31st day of March, that is to say, on Monday, the 6th day of April, in the 26th year of the reign of our Sovereign Lady Victoria, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, and in the year of our Lord, 1863, before the Right Hon. the Earl of Dudley, Chairman, Thomas Gale Cutler, Esq., John Pearson, Clerk, and others their associates, Justices of our said Lady the Queen, assigned to keep the Peace of our said Lady the Queen, in and for the said county, and also to hear and determine divers felonies, trespasses, and other misdemeanors and offences, in the said county committed.

Whereas at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our said Sovereign Lady the Queen, holden at the County-hall aforesaid, on Monday, the 5th day of January, 1863, the Justices then and there assembled did (the several requirements of the Statute made and passed in the 25th and 26th years of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, c. 61, intituled "An Act for the better management of the Highways in England," in such case, having been duly complied with), by their Provisional Order, direct that "The Blockley Highway District," in the said county of Worcester, should be united to "The Moreton-in-Marsh Highway District," in the county of Gloucester, for the more convenient management of Highways, and did appoint these present General Quarter Sessions for taking into consideration the con-
