

regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that a letter from the Lady who is to make the presentation, stating it to be her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to the Queen, for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command, that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing Room, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Princess.

It is not expected that Gentlemen will present themselves at the Drawing Room, excepting in attendance upon the Ladies of their families.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court until half-past one o'clock.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

Whitehall, May 4, 1863.

THE following Addresses of Congratulation to the Queen, on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for Presentation, have accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To Her Most Gracious Majesty the QUEEN.

THE Dean and Chapter of Westminster humbly beg leave to offer their congratulations to your Majesty on the occasion of the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

As ministers of Almighty God in that ancient Church where sovereigns of England have been crowned during eight hundred years, the Dean and Canons of Westminster have special cause to acknowledge the blessings which He has been pleased to bestow upon this nation by means of those monarchs whom his providence has set over it, and particularly by the bright example of your Majesty's reign which they trust may be long continued in happiness and peace, and they unite in earnest prayer to the King of Kings that He would make the marriage of His Royal Highness to be a source of comfort and joy to your Majesty and of a rich inheritance of blessings to many future generations of the People committed to your care.

Richd. C. Trench, Dean.
