*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
May 11, 1863.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul-General at Hamburg, enclosing a copy of a notification issued by the Hamburg Board of Commerce, containing the following regulations respecting the time of discharge for goods imported into that port in sea-going ships, the observance of which is recommended by that Board:—

I.—Cargoes for one Receiver.

1. The time of discharge is regulated by the quantity of goods to be discharged.

2. The "ton" to be taken as the basis is that according to which the freight of the ship is stipulated; if, however, the number of tons laden is not to be ascertained, then the size of the ship is to be taken by the measure of Hamburg commercial lasts, three tons being reckoned to every such last.

3. The customary time of discharge is—

Up to 80 tons (inclusive), 6 days, not reckoning Sundays and holidays.

From above 80 to 300 tons inclusive, 9 days, not reckoning Sundays and holidays.

From above 300 to 600 tons inclusive, 14 days, not reckoning Sundays and holidays.

(Those days on which the discharge shall be hindered by force majeure, or by the fault of the captain, are likewise not to be reckoned.)

For every quantity up to 50 tons more than 600 tons, a further delay of one day shall be granted.

The time of discharge begins after that on the preceding working day, before two o'clock p.m., the captain has given notice, in writing, to the receiver of the cargo that he is ready to discharge.

For goods "to order," on the day after public requisition has taken place.

4. When a ship before her arrival in port shall have discharged a part of her cargo into lighters in the Elbe, then that part is after the arrival of the lighter here to be taken without delay from on board thereof: as concerns the time of discharge for a whole cargo, both in the ship and in lighters, the above-mentioned dispositions are to be applied.

II.—Cargoes for several Receivers.

The discharge of the goods, in so far as they are in hand, is to begin immediately, but at the latest on the day after the necessary notice has been given, and is to be continued until its end with all possible dispatch.

For the discharge of goods "to order," the same disposition is applicable after the public requisition has taken place.

Such deviation will commence from and out of the Railway No. 3, at a point about one mile five-and-a-half furlongs from the commencement of Railway No. 3, as shewn on the plans deposited in respect of the said Bill, in the month of November last, at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Gloucester, in or near a wood, whereof Mary Ann Jane Raymond and others are the owners and occupiers, and will terminate by a junction with Railway No. 3, at or
