Master of the Rolls.—Thursday, the 7th day of May, 1863. Between Joseph Turner, Plaintiff, Charles Sutcliff, Defendant.

UPON motion this day made unto this Court, by Counsel for the plaintiff, who alleged that plaintiff filed his bill in this Court against the defendant, having an indorsement thereon in the form prescribed by the Act of Parliament in that behalf requiring the defendant to appear thereto, and that it appears by the affidavit of Richard Butterworth, and others, filed in this cause the 6th day of May, 1863, that the defendant, Charles Sutcliff, did, within the space of two years before the filing of the said bill and during the latter part of the year 1861, reside within the borough of Leeds, in the county of York, that is to say, at or in a place called Leathley-lane, in or near to the Hunslet-road, within the said borough of Leeds, and that all due diligence has been used to serve the said defendant with a printed copy of the said bill, but without effect, and the said defendant cannot be found, so as to serve with process; and from enquiries at the last known place of abode of the said defendant, and at other places where it was probable the said defendant might be found, there is just ground to believe that the said defendant has absconded, gone out of the realm, or otherwise absconded to avoid being served with process, and upon reading the said affidavit his Honor doth order that the defendant, Charles Sutcliff, do appear to the plaintiff's bill on or before the 8th day of June, 1863, and that the plaintiff is to cause a copy of this order, together with a notice thereof to the effect set off at the foot of the 10th of the Consolidated Orders, rule 6, to be inserted in the London Gazette, within fourteen days from the date hereof, and in two newspapers published in the county of York, on or before the 21st day of May instant.

Notice.—Charles Sutcliff, take notice that if you do not appear pursuant to the above order, the plaintiff may enter an appearance for you, and the Court may afterwards grant to the plaintiff such relief as he may appear to be entitled to on his own shewing.
