

that on Monday, the 25th day May, 1863, they will be prepared to receive tenders by parties willing to take on lease for a term of 99 years, from the 29th day of September, 1863:

Certain portions of the premises known as the Naval Yard, at Deal, subject, however, to the termination of lease at any time by their Lordships, after three months' notice in writing, signed by their Lordships' Secretary, to the lessee or lessees and tenant or tenants in possession for the time being for that purpose, and upon payment of a fair and reasonable valuation of the interest of the leaseholder and his under-tenants in the property, such valuation to be made and settled in the usual manner, and subject also to certain other conditions and stipulations to be inserted in the leases.

Parties desiring to submit tenders may inspect a plan of the property to be leased with other particulars, a form of tender and the proposed draft lease, at the above department, between the hours of ten a.m. and four p.m., until the 25th day of May, 1863.

The tenders are to be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, Somerset House, W.C., and must be delivered before two o'clock of the day mentioned, and no tender will be received after that hour, nor will any be noticed unless the party attends or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Their Lordships do not bind themselves to accept the highest or any tender.
