Lord Chamberlain's Office, May 18, 1863.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Royal Highness The Princess of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Drawing Room at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Saturday, the 20th of June next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that presentations to Her Royal Highness at this Drawing Room shall be considered as equivalent to presentations to Her Majesty.

N.B.—The Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars at the Drawing Room on Saturday, the 20th of June next, that day being the anniversary of Her Majesty's Accession, and a Collar day.

THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOM.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOM TO BE HELD, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY BY HER ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCESS OF WALES, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Ladies, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Room, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Princess.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that a letter from the Lady who is to make the presentation, stating it to be her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to the Queen, for Her Majesty's approbation.

No presentation card for the Drawing Room can be received at the Lord Chamberlain's Office after twelve o'clock on Thursday, the 18th of June next.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Princess.

It is not expected that Gentlemen will present themselves at the Drawing Room, excepting in attendance upon the Ladies of their families.

The state apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

To the Commissioners for the Conservancy of the River Mersey; to the Acting Conservator, for the time being, of the said River; and to the Clerks of the Peace of the Counties Palatine of Lancaster and Chester, and the Borough of Liverpool respectively.

I, JOHN HUTCHINSON, of Appleton Lodge, in Tamworth, in the parish of Prescott, and said county palatine of Lancaster, Manufacturing Chemist, do hereby give notice to you respectively of my intention, and that I do intend and propose to make, construct, and erect excavations, basins, docks, piers, quays, wharves, breastworks and embankments, in and adjoining the River Mersey, running from Warrington to the sea, as herein-after stated or mentioned—that the place where such work is intended to be made is on the Lancashire or northerly side of the said River Mersey, immediately below Runcom Gap; that the line, situation, nature, extent, and object of such work and the materials of which the same are proposed to be constructed are as follows, that is to say:— It is proposed and intended to make an embankment to be constructed of earth, soil, stone, gravel, sand, slag, clinkers, and other refuse, materials, and of a greater elevation throughout than the highwater mark of a tide, uninfluenced by the wind, of the height of twenty-one feet, as measured from the sill of the gates of the old dock, in Liverpool, in the said county of Lancaster, and such embankment will commence at or near the point where the Aston and Ditton branch of the London and North Western Railway intersects Steward's Brook, in Widnes, in the county of Lancaster; and extending from thence within and upon my own land along the easterly, southerly, south-easterly, and south-westerly bank of the said Steward's Brook, to or near to the point where the said Steward's Brook joins Ditton Brook, in the township of Ditton, and county of Lancaster; and from thence along the easterly bank of Ditton's Brook aforesaid, to the foreshore of the River Mersey, and in a southerly direction along such Foreshore to the distance of seventy-seven yards or thereabouts from the grass or marsh land of Ditton Marsh; and from thence in an easterly direction and in a slightly curved line along the foreshore, at a distance from the grass or marshland, varying from sixty-seven to one hundred and thirty-eight yards, to land in Widnes aforesaid, belonging to William Wright, Esq., and Mary his wife, or one of them, or their, or one of their trustees; and from thence in a northerly direction, for a distance of about one hundred and seventy yards, to a point on the easterly boundary of my land.

It is also proposed and intended within, and on the line of the said southerly embankment, and near the easterly end of such embankment, to make large and extensive excavations, and thereby and therein to form docks, basins, locks, and other works, having communication with the River Mersey, with convenient piers, quays, wharves, gates, Cranes, tips, staiths, and other suitable conveniences for facilitating the management, conducting and carrying on of such works, and of the trade thereof, and that such last-mentioned works are proposed to be constructed of stones, bricks, flags, earth, slag, timber, iron, ballast, refuse, and other suitable materials. That the objects of the proposed works are:—

To construct docks and afford largely increased accommodation and facility for the trade of the River Mersey, in connection with other means of transit; and

To improve the scour of the navigable part of the River Mersey, opposite and near to the proposed works.

And that I intend, immediately after the expiration of two calendar months from the sending or delivery of this notice to you respectively, to commence such of the said works respectively as I am not, under or by virtue of any notice heretofore given, or of any sanction heretofore obtained, already authorised or empowered to construct.

For the better understanding of the line and situation of the proposed embankment, I beg to refer you to the ground plan which accompanies this notice, wherein the line of such embankment is shown by a red line.
