TUESDAY, JULY 28, 1863.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 27th day of July, 1863.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HER Majesty in Council was this day pleased, on a representation of the Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Council on Education, to appoint Horace Waddington, Esq., M.A., of University College, Oxford, to be one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools.
Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 27th day of July, 1863.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the fourth section of the Act of the sixth year of the reign of King George the Fourth, chapter eighty-seven, intituled "An Act to regulate the payment of salaries and allowances to British Consuls at Foreign Ports, and the disbursements at such ports for certain public purposes," it is amongst other things enacted, "That it shall and may be lawful for all Consuls-General, and Consuls appointed by His Majesty, and resident within the dominions of any Sovereign or any Foreign State or Power in amity with His Majesty, to accept, take, and receive, the several fees particularly mentioned in the Tables to the said Act annexed, for and in respect or on account of the several matters and things, and official acts and deeds particularly mentioned in the said Schedules; and that it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders to be by him made, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, as occasion may require, to increase or diminish, or wholly to abolish, all or any of the Fees aforesaid, and to establish and authorize the payment of any greater or smaller, or new or additional, fees or fee, for or in respect of the several matters and things mentioned in the said Schedules, or any of them, or for or in respect of any other matters or things, or matter or thing, to be by any such Consul-General or Consul done or performed in the execution of such his office."

And whereas by an Order in Council, made on the first of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, it was ordered that certain fees mentioned in the table thereunto annexed should be taken, and whereas one of the fees mentioned in the said table was ten shillings for a bill of health, and whereas it is expedient in certain cases to abolish the said fee so ordered to be taken, and to establish and authorize the payment of other fees in lieu thereof; now, therefore, in pursuance of the said Act, and in execution of the powers in Her Majesty in Council in that behalf vested by the said Act, it is hereby ordered by Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that, in so far as regards British ships in the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, the said fee of ten shillings for a bill of health shall be abolished; and in lieu thereof the fees hereinafter mentioned shall and may be taken in respect of every such ship on each occasion of her entering or clearing at any port in the said dominions; namely, on her entry inwards five shillings, and on her clearance outwards (including a bill of health, if required) five shillings. And the Right Honourable Earl Russell, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 27th day of July, 1863.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the eleventh section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to consolidate and amend the Act relating to the Volunteer Force in Great Britain," it is amongst other things enacted that "Her Majesty in Council may, from time to time declare what is requisite to entitle a volunteer to be deemed an efficient volunteer by an Order in Council, defining, for that purpose, the extent of attendance at drill to be given by the volunteer, and the course of instruction to be gone through by him, and the degree of proficiency in drill and instruction to be attained by him and his corps, such proficiency to be judged of by the Inspecting officer at the annual inspection of the corps, or otherwise, as by Order in Council is from time to time directed;" and that "The draft of any scheme to be from time to time submitted to Her Majesty in Council for approval under the present section, shall have been laid before

"both Houses of Parliament for one lunar month at least, either before or after or partly before and partly after the passing of this Act, during the present or for the like period during any subsequent session of Parliament, before such scheme receives the approval of Her Majesty in Council."

And whereas a draft of the scheme hereinafter mentioned (and a copy whereof is hereunto annexed) was on the 29th day of June last laid before both Houses of Parliament: and whereas one lunar month hath elapsed since that time: and whereas the said scheme hath this day been submitted to Her Majesty in Council for her approval thereof.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having this day taken the said scheme into consideration, doth, in pursuance and exercise of the power in Her Majesty by the said Act of Parliament in that behalf vested, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, hereby declare her royal approval of the said scheme.

Edmund Harrison.

Scheme referred to in the foregoing Order in Council.

1. A volunteer shall be entitled to be deemed an efficient volunteer, if he obtains a certificate certifying that he has fulfilled the requirements and possesses the qualifications stated in or upon such one of the annexed forms of certificate as may be applicable in his case, and not otherwise.

2. Every such certificate shall be granted as soon as may be after the thirtieth day of November in every year, and shall bear date the first day of December, and shall be evidence of the efficiency of the volunteer to whom it is granted during the year ending the thirtieth day of November next following its date.

3. Every volunteer fulfilling the requirements and possessing the qualifications aforesaid, shall be entitled to receive such a certificate of efficiency.

4. In the course of each year ending the thirtieth day of November, the adjutant of each corps, or administrative regiment, shall select from time to time such volunteers as, in his opinion, have fulfilled the requirements and possess the qualifications aforesaid, and submit their names to the commanding officer of their corps, with a view to their obtaining certificates of efficiency.

5. If the adjutant refuses to recommend any volunteer for a certificate, and the volunteer considers himself aggrieved thereby, the volunteer may appeal to the commanding officer of his corps.

6. If the commanding officer concurs in the adjutant's recommendation or refusal to recommend, he shall either sign the certificate or else approve the withholding of it, as the case may be; but if he differs from the opinion of the adjutant, he shall refer the matter to the assistant inspector of volunteers for the district, whose decision shall be final, and who shall sign the certificate if he thinks it ought to be granted, instead of it being signed by the commanding officer and adjutant.

In the case of a corps forming part of an administrative regiment, or attached for administrative purposes to another corps, any such reference shall be made through the officer commanding such regiment or such last-mentioned corps.

7. In the case of a corps forming part of an administrative regiment, or attached for administrative purposes to another corps, the certificate shall be countersigned by the field officer commanding the administrative regiment or such last-mentioned corps, this counter-signature being held to imply merely that the field officer has no knowledge of any reason why the certificate should not be granted.

If the field officer thinks fit to withhold his counter-signature from the certificate of any volunteer, he shall refer the matter to the assistant-inspector of volunteers for the district, whose decision shall be final, and who shall countersign the certificate, if he thinks it ought to be granted.

8. Where the situation and circumstances of an artillery volunteer corps are such as, in the opinion of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to create serious obstacles to the fulfilment by the volunteers belonging to that corps of the requirement of attendance at gun practice the Secretary of State shall have power to dispense with that requirement.

9. Where the situation and circumstances of a rifle volunteer corps are such as, in the opinion of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to create serious obstacles to the fulfilment by the volunteers belonging to the corps of the requirement of attendance at battalion drill such number of times within twelve months as is prescribed upon the next forms of certificate, the Secretary of State shall have power to reduce the number of battalion drills, and to increase proportionately the number of company drills requisite to entitle a volunteer belonging to the corps to a certificate of efficiency.

10. Where the situation and circumstances of a corps which is not of sufficient strength to constitute by itself a regiment, brigade, or battalion, are such as, in the opinion of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to render it impracticable for the corps to be united with or attached for administrative purposes to another corps of the same arm, the Secretary of State shall have power to make from time to time such special provision respecting the granting and signature of certificates of efficiency as he may think fit.

11. Where the officer inspecting a volunteer corps at the annual inspection in any year reports that the corps is not proficient in drill and instruction to his satisfaction, then, notwithstanding anything hereinbefore provided, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State shall have power to direct the withholding of certificates of efficiency at the end of that year from all volunteers belonging to the corps.

12. The officer inspecting a volunteer corps at the annual inspection in any year, shall have power to direct the withholding of a certificate of efficiency at the end of that year, from any individual volunteer belonging to the corps, in any case in which he considers it proper to do so, on account of the want of proficiency in drill or instruction of that volunteer.

13. In case any alteration in the terms of any of the annexed forms of certificate should from time to time appear expedient, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State may make the same by regulation, so as no alteration be thereby made in the amount of the requirements and qualifications stated in or upon the form, and so as none of the provisions of this Order be thereby altered.

14. Terms used in this Order, or in or upon the annexed forms of certificate, have the same meanings as they have when used in the Volunteer Act, 1863.

The term "recruit," used upon the annexed forms of certificate, means a volunteer who has never been returned as efficient in an annual return of his corps. It does not, however, include a volunteer who was at any time returned as effective in the muster roll of his corps rendered to the lieutenant of the county, under the Acts of Parliament in force before the passing of the Volunteer Act, 1863.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight the 27th day of July, 1863.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Summary Procedure on Bills of Exchange Act, 1855," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, from time to time, by an Order in Council, to direct that all or any part of the provisions of the said Act shall apply to all or any Court or Courts of Record in England and Wales, and that within one month after such Order shall have been made and published in the London Gazette, such provisions shall extend and apply in manner directed by such Order, and that any such Order may be, in like manner, from time to time altered and annulled; and that in and by such Order Her Majesty may direct by whom any powers or duties incident to the provisions applied under the said Act, shall and may be exercised with respect to matters in such Court or Courts, and may make any orders or regulations which may be deemed requisite for carrying into operation in such Court or Courts the provisions so applied;

And whereas, on the thirtieth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, an Order was made by Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, ordering that all the provisions of "The Summary Procedure on Bills of Exchange Act, 1855," should apply to the Courts of Record established under the provisions of the Act passed in the session holden in the ninth and tenth years of Her present Majesty, chapter ninety-five, in respect of actions upon bills of exchange and promissory notes, where the plaintiff claims a sum not exceeding fifty pounds; and directing that the powers and duties incident to the provisions of the said "Summary Procedure on Bills of Exchange Act, 1855," with respect to matters in the said Courts of Record, should and might be exercised by the Judges of the said courts respectively, or their respective deputies for the time being, or, in their absence, by the respective clerks of the said courts for the time being; and that the enactments, Secretary of State's Orders, practice, and forms, in force and used in the said Courts of Record, should be adopted with reference to proceedings had under the said last-recited Act, so far as the same were applicable, mutatis mutandis.

And whereas it hath been represented that it is desirable that the provisions of "The Summary Procedure on Bills of Exchange Act, 1855," should not apply in respect of actions brought in the County Courts upon bills of exchange or promissory notes, where the plaintiff claims a sum less than ten pounds.

Her Majesty having taken the premises into consideration, is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Order of the thirtieth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, shall be altered, and that the provisions of "The Summary Procedure on Bills of Exchange Act, 1855," shall not apply to the Courts of Record established under the provisions of the Act passed in the session holden in the ninth and tenth years of Her present Majesty, chapter ninety-five, in respect of actions upon bills of exchange and promissory notes where the plaintiff claims a sum less than ten pounds.

Edmund Harrison:

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 27th day of July, 1863.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the rules and practice observed for the purpose of preventing collisions at sea, which were formerly adopted by maritime nations, have proved insufficient to satisfy the requirements of modern navigation; and whereas various alterations in such rules and practice have from time to time been made by different nations, but the rules so altered have been found to be in some cases inconsistent with each other, and in other cases to have the force of municipal law only; and whereas certain regulations for the purpose aforesaid have been sanctioned by "The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862," and are contained in the table C, in the schedule to that Act. And whereas for the purpose of correcting certain clerical errors the said regulations have, in pursuance of the provisions in the said Act contained, been modified by an Order in Council bearing date the 9th day of January, 1863, and the said regulations so modified, are appended to the said Order, and to this Order. And whereas by virtue of the said Act and of the said Order the said regulations so appended as aforesaid, so far as relates to British and French ships and also so far as relates to other foreign ships when within British Jurisdiction, came into operation on the first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three: And whereas it is provided, by the same Act, that whenever it is made to appear to Her Majesty that the government of any foreign country is willing that the regulations for preventing collision contained in Table C in the schedule to the said Act, or such other regulations for preventing collision as are for the time being in force under the said Act should apply to the ships of such country when beyond the limits of British Jurisdiction, Her Majesty may by Order in Council direct that such regulations shall apply to the ships of the said foreign country, whether within British Jurisdiction or not. And if it is further provided by the said Act than whenever an Order in Council has been issued applying any regulation made by or in pursuance of the said Act to the ships of any foreign country such ships shall in all cases arising in any British Court be deemed to be subject to such regulation, and shall for the purpose of such regulation be treated as if they were British ships: And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that the following governments, that is to say:—

The Government of Her Majesty the Queen of Spain:

The Government of His Majesty the Emperor of Brazil:

The Government of the Free Hanseatic City of Hamburg:

The Government of the Free Hanseatic City of Lubeck:

The Government of the Free Hanseatic City of Bremen:

The Government of His Majesty the Emperor of Morocco:

The Government of the Republic of the Equator:

The Government of the Oriental Republic of the Uruguay:

The Government of the Republic of Peru:

The Government of the Republic of Hayti (erroneously described in the Order in Council of the 28th of April, 1863, as the Kingdom of Hayti):

are willing that the said Regulations appended to the said Order and to this Order should apply to ships belonging to their respective countries when beyond the limits of British jurisdiction; and whereas it has also been made to appear to Her Majesty, that the Government of His Majesty the Emperor of Russia is willing that the said Regulations appended to the said Order and to this Order should, on and after the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, apply to ships belonging to Russia when beyond the limits of British jurisdiction. And whereas it has also been made to appear to Her Majesty, that the Government of His Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway is willing that the said Regulations appended to the said Order and to this Order should, on and after the first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, apply to ships belonging to Sweden when beyond the limits of British jurisdiction.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Her by the said recited Act, and by and with the advice and consent of Her Privy Council, is pleased to direct,

That the said regulations appended to the said Order in Council, bearing date the ninth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and to this Order, shall from the date of this Order apply to ships belonging to the following countries and states, that is to say:—

Spain,

Brazil,

The Free Hanseatic City of Hamburg,

The Free Hanseatic City of Lubeck,

The Free Hanseatic City of Bremen,

Morocco,

The Republic of the Equator,

The Oriental Republic of the Uruguay,

The Republic of Peru,

The Republic of Hayti (erroneously described in the Order in Council of the 28th of April, 1863, as the Kingdom of Hayti), whether within British jurisdiction or not; and shall also, on and after the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, apply to ships belonging to whether within British jurisdiction or not; and shall also, on and after the first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, apply to ships belonging to whether within British jurisdiction or not.

14. Two Ships under steam crossing.
15. Sailing Ship and Ship under steam.
16. Ships under steam to slacken speed.
17. Vessels overtaking other vessels.
18. Construction of Articles 12, 14, 15 and 17.
19. Proviso to save special cases.
20. No Ship under any circumstances to neglect proper precautions.

PRELIMINARY.

Art. 1. In the following Rules every Steam Ship which is under sail and not under steam is to be considered a Sailing Ship; and every Steam Ship which is under steam, whether under sail or not, is to be considered a ship under steam.

RULES CONCERNING LIGHTS.

Lights.

Art. 2. The Lights mentioned in the following Articles, numbered 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9, and no others, shall be carried in all weathers, from sunset to sunrise.

Lights for Steam Ships.

Art. 3. Sea-going Steam-ships when under weigh shall carry:

(a.) At the Foremast Head, a bright White Light, so fixed as to show an uniform and unbroken Light over an arc of the horizon of 20 points of the compass; so fixed as to throw the light 10 points on each side of the ship, viz., from right ahead to 2 points abaft the beam on either side; and of such a character as to be visible on a dark night, with a clear atmosphere, at a distance of at least five miles:

(b.) On the Starboard Side, a Green Light so constructed as to throw an uniform and unbroken Light over an arc of the horizon of 10 points of the compass; so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to 2 points abaft the beam on the starboard side; and of such a character as to be visible on a dark night, with a clear atmosphere, at a distance of at least two miles:

(c.) On the Port Side, a Red Light, so constructed as to show an uniform and unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of 10 points of the compass; so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to 2 points abaft the beam on the port side; and of such a character, as to be visible on a dark night, with a clear atmosphere, at a distance of at least two miles:

(d.) The said Green and Red Side Lights shall be fitted with inboard screens, projecting at least three feet forward from the Light, so as to prevent these lights from being seen across the bow.

Lights for Steam Tugs.

Art. 4. Steam Ships, when towing other ships, shall carry two bright White Mast-head Lights vertically, in addition to their side lights, so as to distinguish them from other Steam Ships. Each of these Mast-head Lights shall be of the same construction and character as the Mast-head Lights which other Steam-Ships are required to carry.

Lights for Sailing Ships.

Art. 5. Sailing Ships under weigh, or being towed, shall carry the same lights as Steam Ships under weigh, with the exception of the White Mast-head Lights, which they shall never carry.

Exceptional Lights for small Sailing Vessels.

Art. 6. Whenever, as in the case of small vessels during bad weather, the Green and Red lights cannot be fixed, these lights shall be kept on deck, on their respective sides of the vessel, ready for instant exhibition; and shall, on the approach of or to other vessels, be exhibited on their respective sides in sufficient time to prevent collision, in such manner as to make them most visible, and so that the Green light shall not be seen on the port side, nor the Red light on the starboard side.

To make the use of these portable lights more certain and easy, the lanterns containing them shall each be painted outside with the colour of the light they respectively contain, and shall be provided with suitable screens.

Lights for Ships at Anchor.

Art. 7. Ships, whether steam ships or sailing ships, when at anchor in roadsteads or fairways, shall exhibit, where it can best be seen, but at a height not exceeding twenty-feet above the hull, a White Light, in a globular lantern of eight inches in diameter, and so constructed as to show a clear uniform and unbroken light visible all round the horizon, and at a distance of at least one mile.

Lights for Pilot Vessels.

Art. 8. Sailing Pilot Vessels shall not carry the lights required for other sailing vessels, but shall carry a White Light at the mast head, visible all round the horizon,—and shall also exhibit a Flare-up Light every fifteen minutes.

Lights for Fishing Vessels and Boats.

Art. 9. Open Fishing Boats and other open boats shall not be required to carry the side lights required for other vessels; but shall, if they do not carry such lights, carry a lantern having a Green Slide on the one side and a Red Slide on the other side; and on the approach of or to other vessels, such lantern shall be exhibited in sufficient time to prevent collision, so that the Green light shall not be seen on the port side, nor the Red light on the starboard side.

Fishing Vessels and open boats when at anchor, or attached to their nets and stationary, shall exhibit a bright White Light.

Fishing Vessels and open boats shall, however, not be prevented from using a Flare-up in addition, if considered expedient.

RULES CONCERNING FOG SIGNALS.

Fog Signals.

Art. 10. Whenever there is fog, whether by day or night, the Fog Signals described below shall be carried and used, and shall be sounded at least every five minutes; viz. :—

(a.) Steam Ships under weigh shall use a Steam Whistle placed before the funnel, not less than eight feet from the deck:

(b.) Sailing ships under weigh shall use a Fog Horn:

(c.) Steam Ships and Sailing Ships when not under weigh shall use a Bell.

STEERING AND SAILING RULES.

Two Sailing Ships meeting.

Art. 11. If Two Sailing Ships are meeting end on or nearly end on so as to involve risk of collision, the helms of both shall be put to port, so that each may pass on the port side of the other.

Two Sailing Ships crossing.

Art. 12. When two sailing ships are crossing so as to involve risk of collision, then, if they have the wind on different sides, the ship with the wind on the port side shall keep out of the way of the ship with the wind on the starboard side; except in the case in which the ship with the wind on the port side is close hauled and the other ship free, in which case the latter ship shall keep out of the way; but if they have the wind on the same side, or if one of them has the wind aft, the ship which is to windward shall keep out of the way of the ship which is to leeward.

Two Ships under Steam Meeting.

Art. 13. If two ships under steam are meeting end on or nearly end on so as to involve risk of collision, the helms of both shall be put to port, so that each may pass on the port side of the other.

Two Ships under Steam Crossing.

Art. 14. If two ships under steam are crossing so as to involve risk of collision, the ship which has the other on her own starboard side shall keep out of the way of the other.

Sailing Ship and Ship under Steam.

Art. 15. If two ships, one of which is a sailing ship, and the other a steam ship, are proceeding in such directions as to involve risk of collision, the steam ship shall keep out of the way of the sailing ship.

Ships under Steam to slacken Speed.

Art. 16. Every steam ship, when approaching another ship so as to involve risk of collision, shall slacken her speed, or, if necessary, stop and reverse; and every steam ship shall, when in a fog, go at a moderate speed.

Vessels overtaking other Vessels.

Art. 17. Every vessel overtaking any other vessel shall keep out of the way of the said last-mentioned vessel.

Construction of Articles, 12, 14, 15, and 17.

Art. 18. Where by the above rules one of two ships is to keep out of the way, the other shall keep her course, subject to the qualifications contained in the following Article.

Proviso to save special cases.

Art. 19. In obeying and construing these rules, due regard must be had to all dangers of navigation; and due regard must also be had to any special circumstances which may exist in any particular case rendering a departure from the above rules necessary in order to avoid immediate danger.

No Ship, under any circumstances, to neglect proper precautions.

Art. 20. Nothing in these Rules shall exonerate any ship, or the owner, or master, or crew thereof, from the consequences of any neglect to carry lights or signals, or of any neglect to keep a proper look-out, or of the neglect of any precaution which may be required by the ordinary practice of seamen, or by the special circumstances of the case.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 27th day of July, 1863.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-third day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Lanchester, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, and out of the parochial chapelry of Medomsley, in the same parish.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said parish of Lanchester and of the said parochial chapelry of Medomsley hereinafter mentioned and described (such portions not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine Worship), should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, in manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas certain hereditaments and premises situate within the said parish of Lanchester have become vested in us under the provisions of and for the purposes of the herein mentioned Acts.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of Durham (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said parish of Lanchester, and of the said parochial chapelry of Medomsley, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that such district shall be named 'The District of Leadgate.'

"And we further recommend and propose that there shall be paid by us in each and every year to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds; and that upon any building within such district being duly licensed (by the bishop of the diocese for the performance of Divine service, according to the provisions of the same Act, there shall be paid by us in like manner to such minister the further sum of fifty pounds, making together the sum of two hundred pounds; and that so soon as a church shall have been erected within such district, and shall have been approved by us, and consecrated as the church of such district and for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and such district shall have thereupon become, according to the provisions of the said lastly-mentioned Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, there shall be paid by us to the perpetual curate for the time being of such new parish the further sum of one hundred pounds, making in the whole the sum of three hundred pounds; and that the said sums of one hundred and fifty pounds, two hundred pounds, or three hundred pounds, as the case may be, shall be paid by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year; and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the license of such minister or of such building, or of the consecration of such church as aforesaid, as the case may be; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or perpetual curacy of such district or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount then next thereafter payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or the perpetual curate making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish: Provided always, that if it shall appear to us to be expedient at any future time that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the minister or perpetual curate of the said district or new parish, or instead of any part of such annual sum, any land, tithe, or other hereditament should be conveyed or secured to such minister or perpetual curate, and his successors, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution.

“And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

“The District of Leadgate, being:—

“All that portion of the parish of Lanchester, in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham, and also all those several portions of the parochial chapelry of Medomsley, in the same parish, which are comprised within and bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said parish of Lanchester from the district parish of Collierley, in the same county and diocese, at a point known as ‘The Four Lane Ends,’ near Gorcock Hall; and extending thence, first north-westward, then north-eastward, and then generally north-westward, along the said boundary, to a point in the middle of the stream called Pont Burn; and extending thence, south-westward, along the middle of the said stream, and along the middle of the northern branch of the same stream (which flows past Pont House) as far as a point in the middle of Watling-street; and extending thence, in a direct line, westward, across such street to a point in the middle of the northern end of the line of the Bradley Colliery Railway; and extending thence, south-westward, along the middle of such railway, as far as the boundary which divides the said parish of Lanchester from the parochial chapelry of Medomsley aforesaid, near Leadgate Cottage; and extending thence, westward, along the last-described boundary, to its junction, near New Bell Pitt, with the boundary dividing the said parish of Lanchester from the district of Consett (heretofore part of the new parish of Benfieldside), in the same county and diocese; and extending thence in a direction either south-westward or south-eastward, along the last-described boundary, to its junction, in Delfts Lane, near to the house and premises called Delfts, with the boundary dividing a portion of the said parochial chapelry of Medomsley from the said district of Consett; and continuing thence, first south-eastward, then south-westward, and then again south-eastward along such last-described boundary to its junction on the south-eastern side of Knitsley Lane, near to West Knitsley Grange, with the boundary dividing the aforesaid portion of the parochial chapelry of Medomsley from the said parish of Lanchester; and extending thence, north-eastward, along the boundary last referred to, to a point in the middle of Delfts Lane aforesaid; and extending thence, south-eastward, along the middle of the said lane, as far as a point opposite to the middle of the southern end of Stockerley Lane, near Hurbuck Gates; and extending thence, north-eastward, to and along the middle of the last-named lane, to its junction at Woodside Bank with the turnpike road leading from Shotley Bridge to Durham; and extending thence, first south-eastward along the middle of the last-described road, and then eastward, along the middle of the same road, as far as a point opposite to the middle of the south-western end of Gorcock-lane, near Esp Green; and extending thence, first north-westward, to and along the middle of the last-named lane, and then north-eastward, along the middle of the same lane, to the point on the boundary dividing the parish of Lanchester from the district parish of Collierley as aforesaid, at the Four Lane Ends, where the said imaginary line commenced.”

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly-mentioned Act, been transmitted to the incumbents and to the patrons of the parish and of the parochial chapelry, out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and such incumbents and patrons have respectively signified their assent to such scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Durham.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 27th day of July, 1863.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the eleventh day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Paul, situate at Walkden Moor, in the parish of Eccles, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Eccles, and of the parish of Deane, in the county and diocese aforesaid, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Eccles, and of the said parish of Deane, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all Ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Paul, situate at Walkden Moor aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend James Prince, Bishop of Manchester, as Bishop of the diocese, and of the Right Honourable Richard Baron Westbury, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, acting on behalf of your Majesty, as the patron in the right of the Crown, both of the vicarage of the said parish of Eccles, and of the vicarage of the said parish of Deane (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation) we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Eccles, and of the said parish of Deane, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Paul, situate at Walkden Moor aforesaid, and that the same should be named "The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Paul, Walkden Moor," and that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry should belong to and be exercised by the Right Honourable Francis Charles Granville, Earl of Ellesmere, his heirs and assigns.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet."

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Paul, Walkden Moor, being:—

"All that portion of the parish of Eccles, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, and also all those several portions of the parish of Deane, in the same county and diocese, which are comprised within and bounded by an imaginary line, commencing at the point in the centre of the culvert which carries Hulton-lane over Knocket Wall Brook, where the boundary dividing the said parish of Deane from the particular district of Saint Mark, Worsley (heretofore part of the same parish of Deane), meets the boundary dividing the said particular district from the parish of Eccles before mentioned; and extending thence, first south-westward, along the last-described boundary, then south-eastward, and then generally north-eastward along the same boundary, which is in part coincident with the boundary dividing the hamlet of Higher Worsley from the hamlet of Lower Worsley, as far as the road (forming part of the Pendleton Trust-road) which is called Wardley-lane, and continuing thence (crossing the said road) along the said boundary, dividing the said hamlet of Higher Worsley from the said hamlet of Lower Worsley, and in a direction generally north-eastward to the junction of such last-named boundary, with the boundary dividing the said parish of Eccles from the parish of Deane before mentioned; and extending thence, south-eastward, along the last-described boundary, as far as its junction near Moss Pits Colliery, with the boundary dividing the said parish of Deane from the district parish of Farnworth cum Kearsley, in the same county and diocese; and extending thence, in a direction generally north-westward, along the last-described boundary, as far as a point in the middle of that part of the Worsley Trust-road, called Brook House, or Bolton-lane; and extending thence, southward, along the middle of such last-mentioned road to the point where such road is intersected by the boundary dividing the parish of Eccles from the parish of Deane as aforesaid; and extending thence, in a direction first north-westward, along the last mentioned boundary, and then either south-westward or south-eastward along the same boundary, as far as a point (near Old Wab) in the middle of the footpath leading from Walkden Moor towards Hulton-lane before-mentioned; and extending thence, south-westward, along the middle of the said footpath, to its junction with the northern side of the Little Hulton Trust-road, and continuing thence, south-westward, across the last-named Trust-road, to the middle of the north-eastern end of Hulton-lane, aforesaid, and continuing thence, first south-westward and then south-eastward, along the middle of the said lane, to the boundary dividing the parish of Deane, from the particular district of Saint Mark, Worsley, as aforesaid, and continuing thence, still south-eastward, along the last-described boundary, as far as the point in the centre of the culvert, which carries Hulton-lane, over Knocket Wall Brook, where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law, immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Manchester.

Edmund Harrison.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 27th day of July, 1863.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King

George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the eleventh day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John, situate in the Vale, in the parish of Crosthwaite, in the county of Cumberland, and in the diocese of Carlisle.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint John, situate in the Vale aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Honourable and Right Reverend Samuel, Bishop of Carlisle (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Crosthwaite, described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint John in the Vale.'

"And with the like consent of the said Samuel, Bishop of Carlisle (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always that so long as the Reverend Henry Gipps, the present Vicar or Incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Crosthwaite, shall continue to be such Vicar or Incumbent, the whole of the said fees shall be paid by the Minister of Saint John's Church aforesaid to the said Henry Gipps.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has referencè.

"The District Chapelry of Saint John in the Vale, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Crosthwaite, in the county of Cumberland, and in the diocese of Carlisle, which is comprised within, and is co-extensive with all that portion of the parochial chapelry of Saint John in the Vale, which is not included within the limits of the particular district of Saint John, Keswick, in the county and diocese aforesaid."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a District Chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John, situate in the Vale, in the parish of Crosthwaite, in the county of Cumberland, to be called "The District Chapelry of Saint John in the Vale," be accordingly made; and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners, with reference to the publication of banns of matrimony and the solemnization or performance of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, in the said church; and with reference to the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and the solemnization or performance of the said offices, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts: and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Carlisle.

"We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Middlesmoor, being :—

"All that part of the parish of Kirkby Malzeard, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon, which is comprised within, and is co-extensive with, that portion of the ancient chapelry of Middlesmoor, which is not included within the limits of the new parish of Ramsgill, in the said county and diocese."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law, immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty by and with the like advice is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Ripon.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 27th day of July, 1863.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme, bearing date the eleventh day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words and figures following, that is to say;—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes and districts.

"We humbly recommend and propose that there shall be paid by us, out of the common fund in the said Acts mentioned, in each and every year, to the incumbent for the time being of each of the benefices or churches described in the schedule hereunto annexed, the annual sum set opposite to the name of each such benefice or church in the last column of the same schedule, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year :

"Provided always, that the grant so recommended to be made by us to the benefice or church of Saint James, Curtain-road, London, shall be paid only upon the production to us, on or before the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, of a certificate, under the hand of the bishop of the diocese, that a curate duly licensed by such bishop has been employed within the district during the preceding half-year; and provided also, that with regard to the grant hereinbefore recommended to be made to the benefice or church of Sonning, with the chapel of All Saints annexed, a like certificate be required that a curate has been duly employed at the chapel of All Saints, and that with regard to the payment of a portion, amounting to seventy-seven pounds, of the grant hereinbefore recommended to be made to the benefice or church of Hurst, with the chapel of Twyford annexed, a like certificate be required that a curate has been duly employed at Twyford; and that with regard to the payment of a portion, amounting to seventy pounds, of the grant hereinbefore recommended to be made to the benefice or church of Saint John, Mansfield, with the chapel of Pleasley Hill annexed, a like certificate be required that a curate has been duly employed at Pleasley Hill; and provided furthermore, that the grant hereinbefore recommended by us to be made to the benefice or church of Saint Thomas, Stockport, shall cease and determine upon and from the avoidance of the rectory of Saint Mary, Stockport, in the county of Chester, next ensuing after the date of this scheme, and that the grants which are also hereinbefore recommended by us to be made to the benefices or churches of Holy Trinity, Southwark, and Saint Peter, Walworth, respectively, shall cease and determine upon and from the avoidance of the rectory of Saint Mary, Newington, in the county of Surrey, also next ensuing after the date of this scheme.

"And whereas it appears to us, after duly considering the circumstances of the undermentioned cases, to be expedient that the grants respectively recommended to be made to the benefices or churches of South Milford and Sonning, with the chapel of All Saints annexed, should commence and take effect from the dates hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, in the case of the perpetual curacy of South Milford from the third day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine; and in the case of the vicarage of Sonning, with the chapel of All Saints annexed, from the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that the grants hereinbefore recommended by us to be made to the said last-mentioned benefices or churches, respectively, shall commence and take effect from the said dates hereinbefore in that behalf mentioned respectively.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the eleventh day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church called Trinity Church, situate at Rainow, in the parish of Prestbury, in the county of Chester, and in the diocese of Chester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church, called Trinity Church, situate at Rainow aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of Chester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Prestbury, described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Trinity, Rainow.'

"And with the like consent of the said John, Bishop of Chester (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet."

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Trinity, Rainow, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Prestbury, in the county of Chester, and in the diocese of Chester, which is comprised within and is co-extensive with that portion of the township of Rainow, which constitutes the ancient chapelry of Rainow."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church, called Trinity Church, situate at Rainow, in the parish of Prestbury, in the county of Chester, to be called "The District Chapelry of Trinity, Rainow," be accordingly made, and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners with reference to the publication of banns of matrimony, and the solemnization or performance of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials in the said church, and with reference to the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts. And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Chester.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 27th day of July, 1863.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-nine, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Representation, bearing date the eleventh day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John, situate in the parish of Saint Mary, Battersea, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Winchester.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Saint Mary, Battersea, and of the parish of Saint Anne, Wandsworth, in the county and diocese aforesaid, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Saint Mary, Battersea, and of the said parish of Saint Anne, Wandsworth, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the church of Saint John, at Battersea aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend Charles Richard Bishop of Winchester, as bishop of the diocese; of the Right Honourable John Poyntz Earl Spencer, as patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Saint Mary, Battersea; and of George Rogers Harding, of Lincoln's-inn, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire, Barrister-at-Law, as patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Saint Anne, Wandsworth (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation); we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Saint Mary, Battersea, and of the said parish of Saint Anne, Wandsworth, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint John, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated chapelry of Saint John, Battersea.'

"And we further represent, that it has been mutually agreed between the said John Poyntz Earl Spencer, and the said George Rogers Harding (testified as aforesaid), that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry shall belong to and be exercised by the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the parish of Saint Mary, Battersea aforesaid.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint John, Battersea, being:—

"All that portion of the parish of Saint Mary, Battersea, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Winchester, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is situate to the north and west of an imaginary line, commencing upon the boundary dividing the said parish from the parish of Saint Anne, Wandsworth, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of the Wandsworth-road; and extending thence, north-eastward, along the middle of the said road for a distance of four hundred and fifteen yards, or thereabouts, to a point opposite to the middle of the southern end of the western branch of Plough-lane; and extending thence, north-westward, to and along the middle of the said western branch of Plough-lane, to the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Mary, Battersea, from the new parish of Christ Church, Battersea, in the same county and diocese; and continuing thence, north-westward, along the last described boundary; and then, north-eastward, along the same boundary as far as a point in the middle of the York-road, opposite to the middle of the southern end of Lombard-road, near to the easternmost corner of the premises occupied by Price's Patent Candle Company; and extending thence, northward, to and along the middle of the last-named road as far as a point opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of a certain passage leading from the said road past the northern side of the said premises occupied by Price's Patent Candle Company as aforesaid, to the River Thames; and extending thence, north-westward, to and along the middle of such passage, to its northwestern extremity; and continuing thence in the last mentioned direction, and in a straight line, to the boundary of the said parish of Saint Mary, Battersea, in the middle of the said river.

And also all that portion of the said parish of Saint Anne, Wandsworth, wherein the present Incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is situate to the north of an imaginary line, extending along the northern boundary of the Richmond and Windsor branch line of the London and South Western Railway.

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered that the consolidated chapelry therein mentioned for the said church of Saint John, situate in the parish of Saint Mary, Battersea, in the county of Surrey aforesaid, be accordingly formed, and that the agreement mentioned in the said representation with respect to the right of presentation and appointment to the said church of such consolidated chapelry be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and that such right of presentation and appointment shall belong to and be exercised by the Vicar or Incumbent, for the time being, of the Vicarage of the parish of St. Mary, Battersea aforesaid. And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 27th day of July, 1863.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighteenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property vested in us.

"Whereas, under and by virtue of a certain indenture, bearing date the sixteenth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and made or expressed to be made between Mary Jefferson, of the city of Carlisle, Spinster, and Bessie Jefferson, of the same place, Spinster, of the first part; us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the second part; and the Right Honourable Henry Thomas Earl of Chichester, the first Church Estates Commissioner (duly appointed, pursuant to the provisions contained in the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-four), of the third part; certain lands, tenements, and hereditaments situate in the parish of Sebergham, in the county of Cumberland, and more particularly described in the Schedule hereto annexed, became and are now vested in us, in fee simple, for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands, tenements, and hereditaments aforesaid, are not subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant, but are now in possession, but some portions thereof, on account of their character or situation, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable, under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same, or of the proceeds thereof for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof, as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the eleventh day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John, situate at Chittlehamholt, in the parish of Chittlehampton, in the county of Devon, and in the diocese of Exeter,

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint John, situate at Chittlehamholt aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Henry, Bishop of Exeter (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that detached part of the said parish of Chittlehampton, described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint John, Chittlehamholt.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Henry, Bishop of Exeter (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint John, Chittlehamholt, being:—

"All that detached part of the parish of Chittlehampton, in the county of Devon, and in the diocese of Exeter, which is comprised within, and is co-extensive with, the limits of the hamlet of Chittlehamholt."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof; and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John, situate at Chittlehamholt, in the parish of Chittlehampton, in the county of Devon, to be called "The District Chapelry of Saint John, Chittlehamholt," be accordingly made; and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners with reference to the publication of banns of matrimony, and the solemnization or performance of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials in the said church, and with reference to the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Exeter.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 27th day of July, 1863.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the eleventh day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty three, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of district chapelries to the several consecrated churches or chapels respectively called or known as Camden Chapel, Kentish Town Chapel, and the Parish Chapel, situate within the parish of Saint Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas the said church or chapel, called Camden Chapel, was built in pursuance of two local Acts of Parliament, one of which was passed in the fifty-sixth year of His Majesty King George the Third, and is intituled 'An Act for building a new Parish Church and a Parochial Chapel in the parish of Saint Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, and for other purposes relating thereto;' and the other of the said Local Acts was passed in the first and second years of His Majesty King George the Fourth, and is intituled

'An Act for repealing an Act of the thirty-second year of His late Majesty for providing an additional burial ground for the parish of Saint Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, and for altering and enlarging the powers of an Act of the fifty-sixth year of his late Majesty for building a new Parish Church and Chapel for the said parish.'

"And whereas the said churches or chapels, called Kentish Town Chapel and the Parish Chapel, are likewise subject to the provisions of the same Local Acts which are still in force, and it appears to us that under and by virtue of such Local Acts the said parish of Saint Pancras cannot be brought within the provisions of the statutes known as the 'Church Building Acts,' touching the formation out of the said parish of Saint Pancras, of parishes or districts to be assigned or attached to the said churches or chapels, called Camden Chapel, Kentish Town Chapel, and the Parish Chapel.

"And whereas a representation such as is contemplated by the said Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, has been made to us by the patron and incumbent of the said parish of Saint Pancras, and by the chairman of the church trustees of the same parish (assembled pursuant to requisition as the persons exercising the powers of vestry in ecclesiastical matters within such parish under the said Local Acts), on behalf of and by authority of such trustees, that it will be for the spiritual benefit of the said parish of Saint Pancras that it should be brought, as aforesaid, within the provisions of the Church Building Acts by the assignment of districts for ecclesiastical purposes to Camden Chapel, Kentish Town Chapel, and the Parish Chapel hereinbefore mentioned.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that, in accordance with such representation, we should in manner hereinafter set forth, apply, and put in execution with respect to the said parish of Saint Pancras, the powers and provisions of the Church Building Acts, and in particular of the said Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, relative to the formation of parishes or districts, and that accordingly district chapelries should be assigned to Camden Chapel, Kentish Town Chapel, and the Parish Chapel aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, the Bishop of the Diocese (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Saint Pancras, which is described in the first Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan numbered 1, hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured pink, should be assigned to the said church or chapel, called Camden Chapel, and should be named 'The District Chapelry of Camden Town;' that all that part of the said parish of Saint Pancras, which is described in the second Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan numbered 11., likewise hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured pink, should be assigned to the said church or chapel, called Kentish Town Chapel, and should be named 'The District Chapelry of Kentish Town;' and that all that part of the said parish of Saint Pancras, which is described in the third Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan numbered III., likewise hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured pink, should be assigned to the said church or chapel, called the Parish Chapel, and should be named 'The District Chapelry of the Parish Chapel of Saint Pancras.'

"And with the like consent of the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London (testified as aforesaid) we further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized or performed at Camden Chapel, Kentish Town Chapel, and the Parish Chapel aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect thereof should be paid and belong to the respective ministers of the same chapels for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The First SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Camden Town, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Saint Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, wherein the present Incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is comprised within and bounded by an imaginary line commencing at the point in the middle of the Hampstead Road, near to the north-western end of High Street, where the boundary dividing the new parish of Saint Matthew, Bedford New Town, in the county and diocese aforesaid, from the new parish of Saint Mark, Saint Pancras, heretofore part of the said parish of Saint Pancras, meets the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Pancras from the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Haverstock-hill, in the same county and diocese; and extending thence, north-eastward, along the last-described boundary to its junction at the point where the line of the North London Railway intersects the Kentish Town-road, with the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Pancras from the district of Saint Thomas, Agar Town, also heretofore part of the same parish of Saint Pancras; and extending thence in a direction, first eastward and then generally south-eastward, along the last-described boundary as far as the point in the middle of King's-road, (opposite to the middle of the south-western end of Oxford-row) at which such boundary diverges from the said road to the north-east; and continuing thence, southward, along the middle of King's-road aforesaid, to its junction with the road known as Gloucester-place-road; and extending thence, westward, along the middle of the last-mentioned road to the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Pancras from the new parish of Saint Matthew, Bedford New Town aforesaid, near to the southern end of Camden-street; and extending thence, first south-westward, along the last-described boundary, and then north-westward along the same boundary to the point in the middle of the Hampstead-road, near to the north-western end of High-street, where the boundary dividing the said new parish of Saint Matthew, Bedford New Town, from the said new parish of Saint Mark, Saint Pancras, meets the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Pancras from the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Haverstock-hill as aforesaid, being the point where the said imaginary line commenced.

The Second SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The District Chapelry of Kentish Town, being :—

“All that part of the parish of Saint Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, wherein the present Incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is comprised within and bounded by an imaginary line commencing at the point on the western side of that portion of York-road, known as Talbot-road, at or near to the eastern end of Gloucester-place, where the western boundary of the consolidated chapelry of Saint Luke, West Holloway, in the county and diocese aforesaid, meets the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Pancras from the new parish of Saint Paul, Camden New Town, in the same county and diocese; and extending thence, south-westward, along the last-described boundary to its junction in the middle of Rochester-road with the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Pancras from the district of Saint Thomas, Agar Town, heretofore part of the same parish; and extending thence, north-westward, along the last-mentioned boundary to its junction at a point in the middle of the High-street, Kentish Town-road, opposite to the north-western end of Rochester-road with the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Pancras from the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Haverstock-hill, in the same county and diocese; and extending thence, first northward, along the last-described boundary, and then westward, along the same boundary to its junction at or near to the northern side of the Load of Hay, Public-house, Haverstock-hill, with the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Pancras from the district chapelry of Saint Saviour, South Hampstead, heretofore part of the parish of Hampstead, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence, first north-westward, along the last-mentioned boundary, and then generally northward along the same boundary to its junction at or near to the south-western end of Mansfield-road, with the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Pancras from the parish of Hampstead aforesaid; and extending thence, first north-westward, along the last-described boundary, and then northward along the same boundary to its junction with the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Pancras from the consolidated chapelry of Saint Anne Brookfield, Highgate; and extending thence, first north-eastward, along the last-mentioned boundary, and then, alternately south-eastward and north-eastward, along the same boundary to its junction on the western side of the York-road before mentioned, with the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Pancras from the district parish of Saint John, Upper Holloway, in the same county and diocese; and extending thence, south-eastward, along the last-described boundary to its junction with the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Pancras from the consolidated chapelry of Saint Luke, West Holloway aforesaid, and continuing thence, still south-eastward, along the boundary last referred to, to the point on the western side of that portion of the York-road, known as Talbot-road, at or near to the eastern end of Gloucester-place, where such boundary meets the boundary dividing the parish of Saint Pancras from the new parish of Saint Paul, Camden New Town as aforesaid, being the point where the said imaginary line commenced.

The Third SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The District Chapelry of the Parish Chapel of Saint Pancras, being :—

“All that part of the parish of Saint Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, wherein the present Incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is comprised within and bounded by an imaginary line commencing at the point in the middle of Wharf-road, where the boundary dividing the said parish from the new parish of Saint Luke, King's-cross, in the same county and diocese, meets the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Pancras from the district of Saint Thomas, Agar Town, heretofore part of the same last-mentioned parish; and extending thence, first north-westward, along the last-described boundary, and then either north-eastward, north-westward, or south-westward along the same boundary as far as a point in the middle of King's-road, opposite to the middle of the south-western end of Oxford-row (at which last-mentioned point such last-described boundary diverges to the north-west); and extending thence, south-ward, along the middle of King's-road aforesaid, to its junction with the road known as Gloucester-place-road; and extending thence, westward, along the middle of the last-mentioned road to the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Pancras from the new parish of Saint Matthew, Bedford New Town, in the county and diocese aforesaid, at or near to the north-eastern end of Oakley-square; and extending thence, south-westward, along the last described boundary to its junction at or near to the south-western end of Werrington-street, with the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Pancras from the district chapelry of Somers Town, heretofore part of the said parish of Saint Pancras; and extending thence, first north-eastward, along the last-described boundary, and then alternately south-eastward, north-eastward, and south-eastward along the same boundary to its junction at or near to the north-eastern end of Chapel-street, with the boundary dividing the parish of Saint Pancras from the new parish of Saint Luke, King's-cross as aforesaid; and continuing thence, first south-eastward, along the last-described boundary, and then either east-ward or north-eastward along the same last described boundary to the point in the middle of Wharf-road, where the boundary last referred to meets the boundary dividing the parish of Saint Pancras from the district of Saint Thomas, Agar Town as aforesaid, being the point where the said imaginary line commenced.”

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the maps or plans (three in number) thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of district chapelries to the several consecrated churches or chapels, respectively called or known as Camden Chapel, Kentish Town Chapel, and the Parish Chapel, situate within the parish of Saint Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, to be respectively called “The District Chapelry of Camden Town,” “The District Chapelry of Kentish Town,” and “The District Chapelry of the Parish Chapel of Saint Pancras,” be accordingly made, and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners with reference to the publication of banns of matrimony, and the solemnization or performance of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials in the said several churches or chapels, and with reference to the fees to be received in respect thereof, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts. And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme, bearing date the eleventh day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Lanchester, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, out of the parochial chapelry of Ebchester in the same parish, out of the parochial chapelry of Medomsley in the same parish, out of the parochial chapelry of Satley in the same parish, and out of the parish of Muggleswick, in the county and diocese aforesaid.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said parish of Lanchester, of the said parochial chapelry of Ebchester, of the said parochial chapelry of Medomsley, of the said parochial chapelry of Satley, and of the said parish of Muggleswick, which are hereinafter mentioned and described (such portions not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship), should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, in manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas certain hereditaments and premises situate within the said parish of Lanchester have become vested in us under the provisions of and for the purposes of the herein mentioned Acts.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of Durham (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Scheme), we humbly recommend and propose that all those several portions of the said parish of Lanchester, of the said parochial chapelry of Ebchester, of the said parochial chapelry of Medomsley, of the said parochial chapelry of Satley, and of the said parish of Muggleswick, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that such district shall be named 'The District of Castleside.'

"And we further recommend and propose that there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds, and that upon any building within such district being duly licensed by the bishop of the diocese for the performance of divine service, according to the provisions of the same Act, there shall be paid by us, in like manner to such minister, the further sum of fifty pounds, making together the sum of two hundred pounds; and that so soon as a church shall have been erected within such district, and shall have been approved by us and consecrated as the church of such district, and for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and such district shall have thereupon become, according to the provisions of the said lastly mentioned Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, there shall be paid by us to the perpetual curate, for the time being of such new parish, the further sum of one hundred pounds, making in the whole the sum of three hundred pounds; and that the said sums of one hundred and fifty pounds, two hundred pounds, or three hundred pounds, as the case may be, shall be paid by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year; and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May, or of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister, or of such building, or of the consecration of such church as aforesaid, as the case may be; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or perpetual curacy of such district, or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount then next thereafter payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or the perpetual curate making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish: provided always, that if it shall appear to us to be expedient at any future time that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the minister or perpetual curate of the said district or new parish, or instead of any part of such annual sum, any land, title, or other hereditament should be conveyed or secured to such minister or perpetual curate and his successors, nothing herein or in any other Scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Castleside, being:—

"All those several portions of the parish of Lanchester, in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham, and also all those several portions of the parochial chapelry of Ebchester, of the parochial chapelry of Medomsley, and of the parochial chapelry of Satley, in the same parish, and also all those several portions of the parish of Muggleswick, in the county and diocese aforesaid, which are comprised within and bounded by an imaginary line commencing at the point in the middle of the River Derwent, where the boundary dividing the said parish of Lanchester from the parish of Shotley, in the county of Northumberland, and in the said diocese of Durham, meets the boundary dividing the said parish of Lanchester from the district of Consett (heretofore part of the new parish of Benfieldside), in the county of Durham and diocese of Durham aforesaid; and extending thence, in a direction generally south-eastward, first along the last-described boundary, then along the boundary dividing the said district of Consett from a portion of the parish of Muggleswick aforesaid, and then again along the boundary dividing the said parish of Lanchester from the said district of Consett, as far as a point in the middle of Knitsley-lane, which leads from Iveston to East Butsfield (near to Knitsley Bridge); and extending thence, first south-eastward, along the middle of such lane and then, south-westward, along the middle of the same lane (crossing Outputs-lane), as far as the point where such first-named lane is intersected by Longedge-lane, which said point of intersection is opposite to the middle of the north-eastern end of Eliza-lane; and continuing thence, still south-westward, to and along the middle of the last-named lane, to its junction with the Corbridge and West Auckland turnpike road; and continuing thence, still south-westward, across the said turnpike road, to a point in the middle of the north-eastern end of the township road leading from such turnpike road to the farm premises called Oxen-law; and continuing thence, still south-westward, along the middle of the said township road to its junction with the southern end of the road leading from Oxen-law aforesaid towards Greenside; and continuing thence, still south-westward and in a direct line, across the last-described road to a point in the middle of a certain footpath leading past the southern side of the before-mentioned premises called Oxen-law towards Round Hill; and extending thence, north-westward, along the middle of such footpath, as far as its intersection by the boundary dividing the said parish of Lanchester from the parish of Muggleswick aforesaid; and extending thence, first generally north-eastward, then northward, then generally westward, and then again northward along the last-described boundary; and also following in part the boundaries dividing the said parish of Muggleswick from certain portions of the parochial chapelry of Ebchester aforesaid, and in part the boundary dividing the said parish of Muggleswick from a portion of the parochial chapelry of Satley aforesaid, to the junction of the said boundary dividing the parish of Lanchester from the parish of Muggleswick as aforesaid, with the first-mentioned boundary, which divides the parish of Shotley from the parish of Lanchester as aforesaid, at a point near the northern end of the Hisehope Burn; and extending thence, in a direction generally north-eastward, along the boundary last referred to, to the point in the middle of the River Derwent where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas a draft of the said Scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the said secondly-mentioned Act, been transmitted to the incumbents and to the patrons of the several parishes and parochial chapelries out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and the said incumbents and patrons have severally consented to the constitution of such district.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Durham.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 27th day of July, 1863.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls, in certain parishes and districts.

"Whereas the several benefactions consisting of cash, or of land, or other hereditaments, which are mentioned in the fourth column of the schedule hereunto annexed, have been paid over to us in favour of, or have been otherwise secured to, the several benefices set forth in the first column of the same schedule respectively, upon condition that certain capital sums hereinafter mentioned should be appropriated by us to the said several benefices respectively.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered to appropriate out of the "Common Fund," created by the herein firstly-mentioned Act, to each of the several benefices specified in the first column of the said Schedule hereunto annexed respectively, the capital sum set against the name of each such benefice in the fifth column of the same schedule, and that such capital sums respectively, or any part or parts thereof, may be paid and applied by us towards the purchase or acquisition for such livings respectively, or any one or more of them, of any land, tithe, or other hereditaments which may appear to us to be suitable for annexation to such benefices respectively, or towards defraying the cost of providing suitable parsonage houses for the same.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

Edmund Harrison.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 27th day of July, 1863.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the twenty-third day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty three, in the words following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Wokingham, in the county of Berks, and in the diocese of Oxford.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion, that the particular part of the said parish of Wokingham, herein-after mentioned and described (such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship), should be constituted a separate district in manner herein-after set forth.

"And whereas certain hereditaments and premises, situate within the said parish of Wokingham, have become vested in us under the provisions of and for the purposes of the herein-mentioned Acts.

"And whereas a sum of two thousand five hundred pounds, three pounds per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities has been contributed and transferred to our account and into our name in the books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, by John Walter, of Bearwood, near Wokingham, in the said county of Berks, Esquire, in aid of the endowment of the district herein-after recommended to be constituted, and of the maintenance of the minister thereof for the time being; and we have, in respect thereof, agreed with the said John Walter, and have undertaken to provide and pay, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, to such minister as aforesaid, when duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the herein secondly-mentioned Act, the yearly sum of seventy-five pounds.

"And whereas it has been proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that, in consideration of the transfer of the said sum of two thousand five hundred pounds, three pounds per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities as aforesaid, the whole right of patronage of the district herein-after recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, should be assigned to the said John Walter, his heirs and assigns, in the manner herein-after recommended and proposed.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Samuel, Bishop of Oxford (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said parish of Wokingham, described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Paul, Wokingham.'

"And we further recommend and propose that, in order to making up the endowment of one hundred and fifty pounds per annum, contemplated by the herein secondly-mentioned Act, and in respect of the local claim upon the hereditaments and premises herein-before mentioned, there shall be paid by us, out of the common fund created by the herein firstly-mentioned Act, in each and every year, by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November, to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed, according to the provisions of the herein secondly-mentioned Act, the yearly sum of seventy-five pounds, and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or the first day of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister, as aforesaid; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry of such district shall happen upon any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount next thereafter payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister making the vacancy, or to his personal representative or representatives, and the minister succeeding to such district: Provided always, that if it shall appear to us to be expedient at any future time, that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the minister of the said district, or instead of any part of such annual sum, any land, tithe, or other hereditament should be conveyed or secured to such minister and his successors in fee, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette, as aforesaid, be assigned to, and become absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said John Walter, his heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or to any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Paul, Wokingham, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Wokingham in the county of Berks and in the diocese of Oxford, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is situate to the west of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing such parish from the parish or parochial chapelry of Hurst, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of the road leading from Twyford, past Bill Hill towards Wokingham; and extending thence, southward, along the middle of the said road (crossing Forest-road, and passing to the west of the messuage and premises called Matthew's-green), to a point in the middle of Milton-road, opposite to the middle of the southern extremity of the road first referred to; and extending thence, south-eastward, along the middle of Milton-road aforesaid, to a point in the middle of Broad-street, in the town of Wokingham, opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of Milton road aforesaid; and continuing thence, still south-eastward, along the middle of Broad-street aforesaid, to a point in the market-place of the said town, equidistant as near as may be from the north-eastern side of the same market-place, and from the north-western corner of the block of buildings occupying the centre of such market-place, and from the south-eastern corner of Broad-street aforesaid; and extending thence, southward, in a direct line across the said market-place (passing to the west of the said block of buildings), to a point in the middle of the northern end of Down-street; and extending thence, still southward, along the middle of the same street, to its southern extremity; and continuing thence, in the same direction, along the middle of the road leading from Wokingham, by way of Down-street aforesaid, to Finchampstead (passing under the line of the South-western railway), as far as a point under the middle of the western side of the bridge which carries the line of the South-eastern railway over the said last-described road; and extending thence, south-eastward, along the western boundary of the last-named line of railway, as far as the boundary which divides the said parish of Wokingham from the parish of Finchampstead, in the same county and diocese."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly-mentioned Act, been transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron of the church of the said parish of Wokingham (out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken), and certain observations and objections which have been offered and taken by the incumbent of the said parish have been laid before Her Majesty in Council, together with the said scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has, notwithstanding such observations and objections, been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Oxford.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 27th day of July, 1863.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls, in certain parishes and districts.

"Whereas the several benefactions consisting of sums of cash, or stock, or of land, tithe, rent, charges or other hereditaments, which are mentioned in the fourth column of the Schedule hereunto annexed, have been paid over to us in favor of, or have been otherwise secured to, the several benefices set forth in the first column of the same Schedule, respectively, upon condition that certain capital sums herein-after mentioned should be appropriated by us to the said several benefices respectively; and upon further condition that, in respect of such of the said benefactions as consist of cash, or of Government stock, or such part or parts thereof as shall, from time to time, remain in our hands, there shall be paid by us to the Incumbents for the time being of the said benefices respectively, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May, and the first day of November, in each year, the yearly sums respectively specified and set forth in the sixth column of the same Schedule, or a proportionate part of each of such annual sums.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered to appropriate out of the 'Common Fund,' created by the herein firstly mentioned Act, to each of the several benefices specified in the first column of the said Schedule hereunto annexed, respectively, the capital sum set against the name of each such benefice, in the fifth column of the same Schedule, and that such capital sums respectively, or any part or parts thereof, may be paid and applied by us towards the purchase or acquisition for such livings respectively, or any one or more of them, of any land, tithe, or other hereditaments which may appear to us to be suitable for annexation to such benefices respectively, or towards defraying the cost of providing suitable parsonage houses for the same, and that, in the meantime, there shall be allowed and paid by us, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May, and the first day of November, in each year, to the Incumbents for the time being of the said several benefices respectively, in respect of such capital sums, or of such part or parts thereof as shall remain, from time to time, unapplied towards such purposes as aforesaid, the several yearly sums specified in the seventh column of the said Schedule, and therein set against the names of the said several benefices respectively, or such parts of the said several yearly sums respectively, as shall bear a proportion to the parts of the said several capital sums last mentioned, so remaining unapplied as aforesaid, corresponding with the proportion or proportions which the amounts of the said several yearly payments respectively bear to the amounts of the said respective capital sums so specified in the fifth column as aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 27th day of July, 1863.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of All Saints, situate at Fleet, in the chapelry district of Crookham-cum-Ewshott, in the county of Southampton, and in the diocese of Winchester.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said chapelry district of Crookham-cum-Ewshott, and of the particular district of Cove, in the same county and diocese, and of the parish of Elvetham, in the same county and diocese, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective chapelry district, particular district, and parish.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said chapelry district of Crookham-cum-Ewshott, and of the said particular district of Cove, and of the said parish of Elvetham, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of All Saints, situate at Fleet aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend Charles Richard, Bishop of Winchester, the bishop of the diocese, and the patron in right of his see of the perpetual curacy of the said particular district of Cove, of the Right Honourable Frederick Gough, Baron Calthorpe, the patron of the rectory of the said parish of Elvetham, and of the Reverend William Dann Harrison, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Crondall, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and as such vicar or incumbent the patron of the perpetual curacy of the said chapelry district of Crookham-cum-Ewshott (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said chapelry district of Crookham-cum-Ewshott, of the said particular district of Cove, and of the said parish of Elvetham, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of All Saints, situate at Fleet aforesaid; and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of All Saints, Fleet.'

"And we further represent that it has been mutually agreed between the said Charles Richard, Bishop of Winchester, the said Frederick Gough, Baron Calthorpe, and the said William Dann Harrison (testified as aforesaid), that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry shall belong to and be exercised by Charles James Maxwell Lefroy, of Itchell, in the said county of Southampton, Esquire, his heirs and assigns.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet."

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of All Saints, Fleet, being:—

"All that portion of the chapelry district of Crookham-cum-Ewshott (heretofore part of the parish of Crondall), in the county of Southampton, and in the diocese of Winchester, and also all that portion of the particular district of Cove (heretofore part of the parish of Yateley) in the same county and diocese, which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said chapelry district of Crookham-cum-Ewshott from the parish of Elvetham, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of the line of the London and South Western Railway; and extending thence, first south-westward and then north-westward, along the said boundary to its junction with the boundary dividing the said chapelry district from the parish of Winchfield, in the same county and diocese; and extending thence, southward, along the last-described boundary as far as a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'F. A. S. C. C., 1863, No. 1,' and placed in the middle of the south-western end of the fence dividing the close numbered 222 upon the Tithe Commutation Map of the said parish of Crondall, and upon the map hereunto annexed from the close numbered 216 upon the same maps; and extending thence, first north-eastward, to such boundary stone; and continuing thence, partly in the same direction and partly south-eastward, along the middle of the said fence to its junction with the fence dividing the close numbered 222 as aforesaid from the close numbered 219, and from the plantation called 'Jack Reed's Coppice,' and numbered 221 upon the said maps, and from a portion of the road leading from Elvetham to Crookham, which said portion is numbered 1913 upon the same maps; and extending thence, southward, along the middle of the last-described fence to its southern extremity ; and extending thence, north-eastward, to and along the middle of the said portion of road numbered 1913 as aforesaid to its junction with the road numbered 1912 upon the said maps ; and continuing thence, partly in the same direction and partly eastward, along the middle of the last-described road to its junction with the road numbered 1911 upon the same maps ; and extending thence, in a direction alternately southward and eastward, along the middle of the last-described road to its junction with the road leading from Crookham to Yateley ; and extending thence, in a straight line, due east, across the last-described road to a boundary stone inscribed ' F. A. S. C. C., 1863, No. 2,' and placed on the eastern side of the same road opposite to the middle of the north-eastern extremity of the road numbered 1911 as aforesaid ; and continuing thence, still due east, across the close numbered 106 upon the aforesaid maps, and across the towing path of the Basingstoke Canal to a point in the middle of the said canal ; and continuing thence, either southward or south-eastward, along the middle of the same canal as far as a point opposite to the middle of the south-western end of the fence dividing the close numbered 175 upon the said maps from the close numbered 107 upon the same maps, and from the more eastern of the two pools of water which are situate within the allotment numbered 176 upon the same maps ; and extending thence, first north-eastward and then north-westward, and then again north-eastward, to and along the middle of such fence and along the middle of the fence dividing the close and premises numbered 174 upon the said maps from the aforesaid pool of water, and from the said allotment numbered 176 as aforesaid to a boundary stone inscribed ' F. A. S. C. C., 1863, No. 3,' and placed at the eastern extremity of the last-described fence ; and extending thence, north-eastward and in a straight line, across the said allotment numbered 176 as aforesaid to a boundary stone inscribed ' F. A. S. C. C., 1863, No. 4,' and placed in the middle of the south-western end of the fence dividing the allotment numbered 142 upon the said maps from the allotment numbered 141 upon the same maps ; and extending thence, still north-eastward, along the middle of the last-described fence to a point in the middle of the road leading from Crookham to Elvetham, opposite to the middle of the north-eastern end of the said fence ; and extending thence, north-westward, for a distance of fifty-two yards or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-described road to a point opposite to the middle of the south-western end of the fence dividing the allotment numbered 130 upon the said maps from the allotment and premises numbered 131 upon the same maps ; and extending thence, north-eastward, to and along the middle of the said last-mentioned fence to its north-eastern extremity ; and continuing thence, still north-eastward, and in a straight line, to a point in the middle of the Basingstoke Canal aforesaid, opposite to a boundary stone inscribed ' F. A. S. C. C., 1863, No. 5,' and placed on the northern bank of such canal, opposite to the middle of the north-eastern extremity of the said last-described fence ; and extending thence, first south-eastward and then north-eastward, along the middle of the said canal as far as a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed ' F. A. S. C. C., 1863, No. 6,' and placed on the northern bank of such canal, at a distance of four hundred and seventy-five yards, or thereabouts, from the boundary stone numbered 5 as aforesaid ; and extending thence, northward, to the said boundary stone numbered 6 ; and continuing thence, northeastward, and in a straight line, crossing the allotment numbered 48 upon the said maps, and also the road leading from Reading-road Bridge to Aldershot, and crossing also the boundary dividing the said Chapelry District of Crookhamcum-Ewshott from the particular district of Cove aforesaid, to a boundary stone, inscribed ' F. A. S. C. C., 1863, No. 7,' and placed at the south-eastern angle of Fleet Pond ; and extending thence, first north-eastward and then north-westward, along the eastern bank of such pond, as far as a point in the middle of the south-western end of the fence dividing the close numbered 1443 upon the Tithe Commutation Map of the said parish of Yateley, and upon the said map hereunto annexed, from the close numbered 1419 upon the same maps ; and extending thence, north-eastward, along the middle of the last described fence, and of the fence dividing the close numbered 1421 upon the last-mentioned maps, from the close numbered 1419 as aforesaid, and from the road numbered 1418 upon the same maps, to a point opposite to the middle of the southern end of the said road ; and extending thence, north-westward, to and along the middle of the last-described road, to a point in the middle of the fence dividing such road at its north-western angle from the line of the London and South-Western Railway aforesaid ; and continuing thence, still north-westward, and in a straight line across the said line of railway to a point in the middle of the road leading from Fleet to Farnborough ; and extending thence, eastward, for a distance of two hundred and twenty-one yards, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-described road, to a point opposite to the middle of the southern end of the private road numbered 876 upon the said last mentioned maps ; and extending thence, first north-westward, to and along the middle of such private road, and then either north-eastward or northward along the middle of the same private road, to a point in the middle of the fence, dividing the said road (at its northern extremity), from the close numbered 887 upon the aforesaid maps ; and extending thence, north-eastward, along the middle of the last-mentioned fence, and of the fence dividing the close numbered 886 upon the said last-mentioned maps, from the close numbered 887 as aforesaid, to the junction of the last-described fence with the fence dividing the close numbered 890 upon the said maps, from the closes numbered respectively 887 as aforesaid, 889 and 819 upon the same maps ; and extending thence, north-westward, along the middle of the last-described fence, to its junction with the fence dividing the close, numbered 890, as aforesaid, from the close numbered 818 upon the same maps ; and extending thence, north-eastward, along the middle of the last-described fence and of the fence dividing the close numbered 893, and the plantation numbered 916, upon the said maps, from the close numbered 817 and from the plantation numbered 815 upon the said maps, to the junction of such last-described fence with the fence dividing the close numbered 917, upon the said last mentioned maps, from the plantation numbered 815, as aforesaid ; and extending thence, north-westward, along the middle of the last-described fence to its junction with the fence dividing the close numbered 917 as aforesaid, from Fleet Farm Road ; and extending thence, north-eastward, along the middle of the last described fence, to a point opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of the said road ; and extending thence, first north-westward, to and along the middle of such road, and then either north-westward or southward along the middle of the same road as far as a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'F. A. S. C. C. 1863, No. 8,' and placed upon the western side of the said road in the middle of the south-eastern end of the fence dividing the plantation, numbered 788 upon the aforesaid maps, from the close numbered 787 upon the same maps; and extending thence, in a direct line north-westward to such boundary stone; and continuing thence, in the same direction, along the middle of the last-described fence, to its north-western extremity; and extending thence, in a direct line westward, across the brook flowing from Fleet Mill, and across the plantation, numbered 789, and across the close numbered 790 upon the said maps, to a point in the middle of the road leading from Crookham to Yateley as aforesaid, and numbered 1659 on the said last-mentioned maps, opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'F. A. S. C. C. 1863, No. 9,' and placed on the eastern side of the last mentioned road at the south-western end of the fence dividing the close, numbered 790 as aforesaid from the plantation, numbered 791 upon the said maps; and extending thence, first north-westward, along the middle of the last-described road, and then northward, along the middle of the same road, as far as a point opposite to the middle of a certain road leading to Elvetham, and numbered 740A upon the said last-mentioned maps; and extending thence, westward, to and along the middle of such last-described road, to the boundary dividing the said particular district of Cove, from the parish of Elvetham aforesaid; and extending thence, first south-westward, and then westward, and then southward, along the last-described boundary, to its junction with the first-mentioned boundary, dividing the said Chapelry District of Crookham-cum-Ewshott, from the said parish of Elvetham; and extending thence in a direction, first westward, and then south-eastward, and then south-westward, along the boundary last referred to, to the first-described point in the middle of the line of the London and South-Western Railway, where the said imaginary line commenced. And also all that detached portion of the said parish of Elvetham, which is locally situate within the herebefore described portion of the Chapelry District of Crookham-cum-Ewshott."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law, immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Winchester.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 27th day of July, 1863.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the twenty third and twenty fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and twenty-four;

duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the ninth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty three, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes and districts.

"We humbly recommend and propose that there shall be paid by us out of the common fund in the said Acts mentioned in each and every year to the Incumbent for the time being of each of the benefices or churches described in the Schedule hereunto annexed, the annual sum set opposite to the name of each such benefice or church in the last column of the same Schedule by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May, and the first day of November in each year. Provided always, that the grant so recommended to be made by us to the benefice or church of Christ Church, Hoxton, shall be paid only upon the production to us on or before the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, of a certificate under the hand of the Bishop of the diocese, that a Curate, duly licensed by such Bishop, has been employed within the district during the preceding half year; and provided also, that with regard to the payment of a portion, amounting to one hundred pounds, of the grant so recommended to be made by us to the benefice or church of Ferring, with the vicarages of the parishes of Kingston and East Preston annexed, a like certificate be required that a Curate has been employed within such parishes; and provided furthermore, that with the consent of the Reverend Frederick John Taverner, Clerk, the perpetual Curate, or Incumbent, of the perpetual curacy of the parish of Skegby, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, the annual sum or stipend of ten pounds heretofore payable by us to the perpetual Curate, or Incumbent, for the time being of the said perpetual curacy of Skegby, under the provisions of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, shall, in consideration of the grant so recommended to be made by us to the benefice or church of Skegby, cease and determine upon and from the date of the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme.

"And whereas it appears to us, after duly considering the circumstances of the case, to be expedient that the grant hereinbefore recommended to be made to the benefice or church of Holy Trinity, Bedford, should commence and take effect from the thirtieth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that the grant so recommended to be made to the said benefice or church of Holy Trinity, Bedford, shall commence and take effect from such last-mentioned date.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained, shall prevent us from recommending and proposing, any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

Edmund Harrison

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 27th day of July, 1863.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of another

Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-third day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of another Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine; have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for substituting certain money payments to the present Bishop of Winchester, for certain property belonging to his see.

"Whereas the Right Reverend Charles Richard Bishop of Winchester is seized in right of his see of certain lands, tenements, and hereditaments, situate in the parish of Saint Saviour, Southwark, and called 'The Southwark Park Estate,' otherwise 'The Winchester Park Estate.'

"And whereas the said estate is subject to the five several leases hereinafter mentioned or referred to, namely:

"1. A lease of part of the said estate, known as Lease Number-1, dated the sixth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and twenty, granted by The Right Reverend Brownlow, late Bishop of Winchester, to Robert Pott and Arthur Pott, Esquires, for the lives of Arthur Pott the younger (second son of the said Robert Pott), then aged twenty-seven years; William Pott the younger (third son of the said Robert Pott), then aged twenty-five years; and John Allnutt the younger (only son of John Allnutt, Esquire), then aged sixteen years and eleven months; which lease is now vested in us.

"2. A lease of other part of the said estate, known as Lease Number 65, dated the thirteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and twenty, granted by the said Brownlow, late Bishop of Winchester, to the said Robert Pott, Esquire, for the lives of Charles Pott (eldest son of the said Robert Pott), then aged thirty-three years; the said Arthur Pott the younger, and William Pott the younger; which lease is also now vested in us.

"3. A lease of other part of the said estate, known as Lease Number 60, dated the fourteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, granted by the said Charles Richard, Bishop of Winchester, to William Paynter, Esquire, for the lives of Thomas Puckle, then aged sixty years; Richard Puckle, then aged fifty-four years; and William Cambourne Paynter (second son of the said William Paynter), then aged seventeen years.

"4. A lease of other part of the said estate, known as Lease Number 63, dated the sixteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, granted by the said Charles Richard, Bishop of Winchester, to the Reverend Samuel Paynter, for the lives of the said Thomas Puckle, Richard Puckle, and William Cambourne Paynter.

"5. A lease of the remaining part of the said Estate, known as Lease Number 64, dated the twenty-seventh day of March, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-two, granted by the said Brownlow, late Bishop of Winchester, to Benjamin Currey, Esquire, for the lives of Edward Puckle and George Puckle, being twins, and then aged twenty-two years; and John Puckle, then aged nine years.

"And whereas the said Bishop is now entitled to grant a renewal of two of the said leases by the insertion in each of such leases of one best life.

"And whereas, after full inquiry and calculation, we have estimated the value of the fines which ought to be paid for such renewals at the aggregate sum of thirteen thousand two hundred and seventy pounds, and the sums which, after full stating such two leases, the said Bishop might have expected to have derived from future fines upon renewals as an equivalent to an annuity of three thousand and two hundred pounds, and the sums which he would have derived from the reserved rents as equivalent to an annuity of four hundred and thirty-four pounds, nineteen shillings, and seven pence; and the said Bishop has signified to us his intention to devote and apply the said capital sum of thirteen thousand two hundred and seventy pounds now receivable by him (after deducting thereout the expenses incurred by him in respect of the arrangement hereinafter recommended and proposed), together with the said annuity of three thousand and two hundred pounds when the same shall have been paid to him, as hereinafter recommended and proposed to the augmentation of ill-endowed benefices within the diocese of Winchester, and especially those situate within the rural deanery of Southwark.

"And whereas by and under the provisions of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, all the lands, hereditaments, and emoluments of or belonging to the said see (except as therein excepted), will upon the next avoidance of the said see, become absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the chief of such purposes is ultimately to provide a fund for making better provision for the cure of souls, and we are of opinion that it would conduce to the carrying out of such purpose that the arrangement hereinafter specified should be carried into effect.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles Richard, Bishop of Winchester, testified by his having hereunto affixed his hand and episcopal seal, that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, all the estate, right, title, and interest of the said Charles Richard, Bishop of Winchester, in and to the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, situate in the parish of Saint Saviour, Southwark, in the county of Surrey, commonly known as 'The Southwark Park Estate,' otherwise 'The Winchester Park Estate,' and particularly described in the said five several leases and the plans thereto annexed, and also in a map or plan sealed by us, and signed by the said Charles Richard, Bishop of Winchester, and recently deposited in the Registry of the Diocese of Winchester (except such portions of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, as have been sold and disposed of, the particulars whereof are specified in the schedule hereunto annexed, and the same are shown on the said map or plan so deposited as aforesaid, and also except such portions thereof as have been converted into public streets, roads, or ways), shall be conveyed and transferred from the said Bishop, and shall become and be vested in us and our successors for the purposes of the said Acts, and that we and they shall become absolutely seized of the same in fee, subject nevertheless to the said several leases, and shall be entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds thereof, as from the twenty-ninth day of September next, and that as part consideration of, and for the transfer to us of such lands, tenements, and hereditaments as aforesaid, there shall be paid by us to the said Bishop immediately upon the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying this scheme, the sum of thirteen thousand two hundred and seventy pounds aforesaid, and that there shall as a further consideration for such transfer as aforesaid be paid by us to the said Bishop, so long as he shall continue in the said see, the annual sums of three thousand and two hundred pounds, and four hundred and thirty-four pounds nineteen shillings and seven pence aforesaid, by equal half-yearly payments, the first of such half-yearly payments to be made on the twenty-fifth day of March next ensuing.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Winchester.

Edmund Harrison,

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 27th day of July, 1863.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the ninth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting an exchange of the patronage of the Perpetual Curacy of The Holy Trinity, Cambridge, in the county of Cambridge and diocese of Ely, for the patronage of the rectory of Girton, in the same county and diocese.

"Whereas the Right Reverend Thomas, Bishop of Ely, is seized in fee in right of his See of the patronage of, or perpetual right of nomination to, the said Perpetual Curacy of The Holy Trinity, Cambridge.

"And whereas the Reverend Alfred Peache, of Downend, in the county of Gloucester, Clerk, is seized in fee of the patronage of or perpetual right of nomination to the said rectory of Girton.

"And whereas the said Thomas Bishop of Ely, and the said Alfred Peache, have signified to us their desire that the patronage of the said benefices may be exchanged as hereinafter recommended and proposed.

And whereas we have made due inquiry and calculation as to the circumstances and relative values of the said benefices and patronage, and we do hereby certify to your Majesty, that after making all proper deductions and allowances, the circumstances and values of the said benefices respectively are as set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Thomas, Bishop of Ely, and of the said Alfred Peache, in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose, that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the patronage of, or perpetual right of nomination to the said Perpetual Curacy of The Holy Trinity, Cambridge, shall be assigned and transferred from the said Thomas, Bishop of Ely, and his successors in the See, and shall become and be vested in, and shall and may be exercised by the said Alfred Peache, his heirs and assigns for ever, and that in exchange for the same the patronage of, or perpetual right of nomination to the said rectory of Girton, shall in like manner be assigned and transferred from the said Alfred Peache and his heirs, and shall become and be vested in, and shall and may be exercised by the said Thomas, Bishop of Ely, and his successors, in the said See, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Ely.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 27th day of July, 1863.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the eleventh day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Michael, situate in the parish of Louth, in the county of Lincoln, and in the diocese of Lincoln.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Michael, situate in the parish of Louth aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of Lincoln (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Louth, described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Michael, Louth.'

"And, with the like consent of the said John, Bishop of Lincoln (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet."

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Michael, Louth, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Louth, in the county of Lincoln, and in the diocese of Lincoln, which is situate to the east and south of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing such parish from the parish of Raithby, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of the high road leading from London to Louth, and extending thence, northward, along the middle of the said high road as far as a point opposite to the middle of the western end of the fence which forms the northern boundary of the plantation called Julian Bower; and extending thence, eastward, to and along the middle of such boundary fence, and continuing in the same direction along the middle of the fence forming the northern boundary of the cemetery belonging to the said parish of Louth, to a point in the middle of Bull Piece-lane, opposite to the middle of the eastern extremity of the said last mentioned boundary fence; and extending thence, northward, along the middle of the said lane to its junction with the road or street called New-market; and extending thence, north-westward, along the middle of the said road or street called New-market, as far as a point opposite to the middle of the southern end of Aswell-lane; and extending thence, northward, to and along the middle of the last named lane to its junction with the street called Walkergate; and extending thence, first eastward and then south-eastward, along the middle of the last named street to its junction with the street called Maiden-row; and extending thence, southward, along the middle of the last named street to its southern extremity and continuing thence, still southward, and in a straight line to a point in the centre of the bridge which spans the stream called Monk's Dyke; and extending thence, in a direction generally south-eastward, to and along the middle of the said stream called Monk's Dyke, passing under the line of the East Lincolnshire Railway as far as the boundary which divides the said parish of Louth from the extra-parochial pace called or known as Louth Park, in the county and diocese aforesaid."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Michael, situate in the parish of Louth, in the county of Lincoln, to be called "The District Chapelry of Saint Michael, Louth," be accordingly made, and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners with reference to the publication of banns of matrimony, and the solemnization or performance of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials in the said church, and with reference to the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lincoln.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 27th day of July, 1863.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioner for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven; and of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty, chapter twenty-six; duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the ninth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven; and of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty, chapter twenty-six; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for altering and improving the archiepiscopal house of residence at Bishopthorpe, in the county of York, belonging to the Archbishop of York.

"Whereas it has been represented to us, by the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William Archbishop of York, that the archiepiscopal house of residence, at Bishopthorpe aforesaid, requires certain alterations and improvements to be made therein, in order to render it suitable and convenient; and it has been proposed to us, by the said archbishop, and it appears to us to be expedient, that, towards defraying the cost of effecting such alterations and improvements, a sum of two thousand pounds, being a sum not exceeding two years income of the see should be provided, by borrowing the same by way of mortgage upon the security of all or any part of the lands, tenements, and hereditaments of or belonging to the archbishoprick.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said William, Archbishop of York, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that the said archbishop be authorized to borrow from the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and that the said governors, be empowered to lend, under the provisions of the above-mentioned Acts, the sum of two thousand pounds: and, as a security for the same, that the said archbishop do mortgage all or any part of the lands, tenements, and hereditaments of and belonging to his said see to the said governors, by deed, for the term of thirty-five years, or until the said sum of two thousand pounds, with the interest for the same, and all costs and charges which may attend the recovery thereof shall be fully paid and satisfied, and that such principal sum shall be repaid with interest in manner following, that is to say: from and after the expiration of the first year of the said term, computed from the day of the date of the mortgage—in which year no part of the said principal sum shall be repayable—the said archbishop, or his successors, shall yearly and every year pay to the said governors, their successors, or assigns, one thirtieth part of the said principal sum until the whole thereof shall be repaid, and shall at the end of the first and each succeeding year pay interest at the rate of four pounds per cent. per annum on the said principal sum, or on so much thereof as shall from time to time remain unpaid; and if and when it shall happen that the principal and interest directed to be paid as hereinbefore mentioned shall be in arrear and unpaid for the space of forty days after the same shall become due, it shall and may be lawful for the said governors, their successors and assigns, to recover the same and the costs and charges attending the recovery thereof by distress and sale, in such manner as rents may be recovered by landlords or lessors from their tenants by the laws in force at the time of such distress and sale; and that such mortgage deed shall be in the form and to the effect to be approved by us, and shall bind as well the said William, Archbishop of York, as every succeeding archbishop of the said see until the principal-money and interest, costs, and charges shall be paid off and discharged.

“And we further recommend and propose, that the said sum of two thousand pounds shall be paid to us, and that the receipt of our joint treasurers for the time being endorsed on the said mortgage deed shall be a good and sufficient discharge to the said governors and their successors for the same, who shall not be bound or required to see to the application thereof; and that upon the receipt of the said sum of two thousand pounds the whole, or any part or parts thereof, shall be applied by us at such times and in such manner as shall appear to us to be expedient towards effecting the said alterations and improvements in the archiepiscopal house of residence aforesaid.

“And we further recommend and propose, that, so soon as such alterations and improvements shall have been completed, the Archbishop of York for the time being shall, at his personal charge and expense, insure and keep insured the said archiepiscopal house of residence from loss or damage by fire, in one of the public offices of assurance in London or Westminster, to be approved by us, in a sum of not less than ten thousand pounds, and that such archbishop shall within fourteen days after any premium for such insurance shall have become due and payable deliver to us the receipt for the same, and that in case of any loss or damage by fire to the said house any and every sum of money receivable under such insurance shall become and be payable and be paid to and deposited with us, in trust, to be applied and the same, together with any interest and accumulations thereof, shall be applied by us towards the rebuilding or repairing and reinstating of the said house, or of any part thereof which may have so suffered loss or damage, in such manner as shall be determined on by us, with the concurrence of the Archbishop of York for the time being.

No. 22757.

“And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the herein-mentioned Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in Law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of York.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 27th day of July, 1863.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parochial chapelry of Witton Gilbert and of the parish of Kimblesworth thereto annexed, in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham, and out of the parish of Chester-le-Street, in the same county and diocese.

“Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said parochial chapelry of Witton Gilbert and of the parish of Kimblesworth thereto annexed, and of the said parish of Chester-le-Street, hereinafter mentioned and described (such portions not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship), should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes in manner hereinafter set forth:

“And whereas certain hereditaments and premises, situate within the said parish of Chester-le-Street, have become vested in us under the provisions of and for the purposes of the herein-mentioned Acts.

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of Durham (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said parochial chapelry of Witton Gilbert and of the parish of Kimblesworth thereto annexed, and of the said parish of Chester-le-Street which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that such district shall be named 'The District of Saint Peter, Sacriston.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us in each and every year to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds, and that upon any building within such district being duly licensed by the bishop of the diocese for the performance of divine service, according to the provisions of the same Act, there shall be paid by us in like manner to such minister the further sum of fifty pounds, making together the sum of two hundred pounds; and that so soon as a church or chapel shall have been erected within such district, and shall have been approved by us and consecrated as the church or chapel of such district, and for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and such district shall have thereupon become, according to the provisions of the same Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, there shall be paid by us to the perpetual curate for the time being of such new parish the further sum of one hundred pounds, making in the whole the sum of three hundred pounds; and that the said sums of one hundred and fifty pounds, two hundred pounds, or three hundred pounds, as the case may be, shall be paid by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister or of such building, or of the consecration of such church or chapel as aforesaid, as the case may be; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or perpetual curacy of such district or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount then next thereafter payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or the perpetual curate making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish: Provided always, that if it shall appear to us to be expedient at any future time that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the minister or perpetual curate of the said district or new parish, or instead of any part of such annual sum, any land, tithe, or other hereditament should be conveyed or secured to such minister or perpetual curate and his successors, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Peter, Sacriston, being:—

"All those portions of the parochial chapelry of Witton Gilbert and of the parish of Kimblesworth, thereto annexed, in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham, and also all that portion of the parish of Chester-le-Street, in the same county and diocese, which are comprised within and bounded by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said parish of Chester-le-Street from the parish of Lanchester, in the said county and diocese, joins the boundary dividing the said parochial chapelry of Witton Gilbert from the parish of Chester-le-Street aforesaid, in the middle of Wardle's Burn; and extending thence, in a direction generally eastward, along the last-described boundary for a distance of nine hundred and sixty-four yards, or thereabouts, to a boundary stone inscribed 'S. St. P. D. 1863, No. 1,' and placed at the middle of the northern end of the fence forming the north-eastern boundary of Charlaw Moor; and extending thence, first southward and then south-eastward, along the middle of the said fence to a point in the middle of the road leading from Sacriston Hough to Acorn Close-lane; and extending thence, southward, along the middle of such road to its junction with Acorn Close-lane aforesaid; and extending thence, south-eastward, to and along the middle of a certain other road leading from the said lane, past Acorn Close, to Charlaw Colliery, to the junction of such last-described road with the waggon-way leading to the new shaft of such colliery; and extending thence, south-westward, along the middle of the said waggon-way to a point in the middle of the northern end of Fulforth Dene; and extending thence, southward, along the middle of Fulforth Dene aforesaid for a distance of two hundred and seventy yards, or thereabouts, to a point in the middle of a certain bridle road leading from Fulforth through Fulforth Wood; and extending thence, in a direction alternately south-eastward and north-eastward, along the middle of such bridle road to a point in the middle of Back-lane; and extending thence, north-eastward, along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of two hundred and twenty-eight yards, or thereabouts, to a point opposite to the middle of the north-western end of the fence dividing the close numbered 123 upon the title commutation map of the said parochial chapelry of Witton Gilbert, and upon the map hereunto annexed from the close called 'Poor's Land,' and numbered 122 upon the same maps; and extending thence, south-eastward, to and along the middle of such fence and along the middle of the fence dividing the western portion of the close numbered 120 upon the said maps from the eastern portion of the same close to the junction of the last-described fence, with the fence dividing the close numbered 118 upon the said maps from the eastern portion of the close numbered 120 as aforesaid; and extending thence, north-eastward, along the middle of such last-described fence, and along the middle of the fence dividing the close, numbered 119 upon the said maps, from the eastern portion of the close, numbered 120 as aforesaid, to a point in the middle of the road leading from Sacriston to Durham, opposite to the middle of the north-eastern extremity of the last-described fence; and extending thence, south-eastward, along the middle of the last-mentioned road for a distance of two hundred and thirty yards, or thereabouts, to a point opposite to the middle of the south-western end of the fence forming the southern boundary of the close numbered 105 upon the said maps; and extending thence, north-eastward, to and along the middle of the last-described fence to a boundary stone inscribed 'S. St. P. D. 1863, No. 2,' and placed at the north-eastern extremity of the same fence on the boundary originally dividing the said parish of Kimblesworth from the parochial chapelry of Witton Gilbert aforesaid; and extending thence, in a direction either north-westward or north-eastward, along the last-described boundary for a distance of six hundred and ten yards, or thereabouts, to a point opposite to the south-western extremity of the boundary dividing that portion of the said parish of Chester-le-Street which is called or known as 'Barras Hill Wood' from the parish of Kimblesworth aforesaid; and extending thence, in a straight line north-eastward to the last-described boundary; and continuing thence, in a direction generally eastward, along the said boundary dividing the said parish of Chester-le-Street from the parish of Kimblesworth, as aforesaid, to its junction with the boundary dividing the said parish of Chester-le-Street from the district of Saint Cuthbert, Durham, in the same county and diocese, on the western side of the Great North-road, leading from Durham to Newcastle-upon-Tyne; and extending thence, eastward, along the last-described boundary to the middle of the said road; and extending thence, northward, along the middle of the same road as far as a point opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of Beanfield-lane; and extending thence, north-westward, to and along the middle of such lane, crossing the boundary which divides the township of Plawsworth, in the said parish of Chester-le-Street, from the township of Chester-le-Street, in the same parish, to the boundary dividing the said township of Chester-le-Street from the township of Waldrige, in the same parish, upon the eastern bank of the South Burn; and extending thence, south-westward, along such township boundary, to the boundary dividing the said township of Waldrige from the township of Plawsworth before mentioned; and extending thence, first north-westward and then south-westward, along the last-described boundary to a point near to Edmondsley Gate, on the southern side of a certain bridle road leading from Lambton Training Ground to Edmondsley, opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of the fence dividing Waldrige Common, numbered 32 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Chester-le-Street, and upon the map hereunto annexed, from the close numbered 27 upon the same maps; and extending thence, north-westward, across the said bridle road to and along the middle of such fence, and along the middle of the fence dividing Waldrige Common, numbered 32 as aforesaid, from the closes numbered respectively 25, 23, and 21, upon the same maps, to the junction of the last-mentioned fence with the embankment of the Sacriston waggon-way; and extending thence, still in the same direction and in a straight line, across the said waggon-way for a distance of sixty-seven yards, or thereabouts, to a boundary stone inscribed 'S. St. P. D. 1863, No. 3,' and placed upon the boundary dividing a detached portion of the township of Chester-le-Street from the township of Waldrige as aforesaid, at the south-eastern angle of the said detached portion of the township of Chester-le-Street; and extending thence, still north-westward, along the last-described boundary to a point in the middle of the Cong Burn; and extending thence, in a direction generally south-westward, along the middle of such burn (crossing under the road leading from Edmondsley to Pelton) to the first-described boundary dividing the parish of Chester-le-Street from the parish of Lanchester, as aforesaid, in the middle of Wardle's Burn; and extending thence, south-westward, along the boundary last referred to to the point where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly-mentioned Act, been transmitted to the several incumbents and patrons of the parochial chapelry and of the parishes out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken; and the said incumbents and patrons have respectively signified their assent to such scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Durham.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 27th day of July, 1863.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy-seven; and of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the ninth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter seventy-seven; and of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-two; have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for augmenting the endowment of the College of Saint David, at Lampeter, in the county of Cardigan.

"Whereas His Majesty King George the Fourth, by His Royal Charter, bearing date the sixth day of February, in the ninth year of his reign, after reciting that His Majesty, being informed that the majority of persons intended for Holy Orders, in South Wales, were unable, by reason of their poverty, to pursue their studies in the English Universities; and being willing that there should be founded and established at Lampeter, in the county of Cardigan, a perpetual College for the reception and education of persons destined for Holy Orders, which should be called Saint David's College, and should consist of one principal, two or more tutors, and two or more professors, did appoint the Bishop of Saint David's, for the time being, visitor of the College, and declared that the principal tutors and professors and their successors should be a body corporate by the name of "The Principal Tutors and Professors of Saint David's College, in the county of Cardigan, in the principality of Wales"; and His Majesty granted to the said corporation certain advowsons with cure of souls and sinecure rectories or parsonages mentioned in the said Charter.

"And whereas, by the said Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, it was enacted that, if it were deemed fit, any part of the lands, tithes, or hereditaments which should vest in or accrue to us the said

Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, from or in respect of the cathedral church of Saint David's, or the collegiate church of Brecon might, by the authority therein provided, be transferred to the said College of Saint David in exchange for benefices with cure of souls then connected with the said college; and the said College was empowered, upon the completion of any such arrangement, to convey any such benefices to such person or body corporate, and in such manner as should be directed by the like authority.

"And whereas, by an Act passed in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter seventy-seven, it was enacted that so much of the last-mentioned Act as related to the said College of Saint David should be repealed, and that arrangements might be made by the authority mentioned in the said Act (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us and an Order of your Majesty in Council confirming the same) for effecting the sale of the advowsons of the several benefices, with cure of souls then annexed, to the said College, investing the proceeds of such sale for the benefit of the said College; and that if it should be made to appear to us that the said College should afterwards not be competently endowed, it should be lawful, by the like authority, to transfer to the said College, in augmentation of the endowment thereof, any of the lands, tithes, tenements, or hereditaments in the principality of Wales, vested or to be vested in us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, by or under the provisions of the said last-mentioned Act, or of the Acts therein recited, or of the proceeds thereof.

"And whereas, by the said Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-two, after giving certain specific portions of certain of the prebends of the said College of Christ, at Brecknock, for the endowment of that college, it was enacted that it should be lawful, by the authority mentioned in the said Act (that is to say by a scheme prepared by us and an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same) at any time after the passing of the said Act, but without prejudice to any act, deed, matter, or thing before done, executed, or performed under the provisions of the same Act, to transfer to and vest in the said principal, tutors, and professors of the said College of Saint David and their successors any of the prebends or any specific portions of the prebends of the said College of Christ, at Brecknock, vested in us by the now reciting Act or otherwise, or any lands, tithes, or hereditaments belonging to or constituting the corps of such prebends, and charged in such manner and subject to such conditions as might be imposed by any such scheme, whereby such augmentation might be made, and that either in exchange for any of the said benefices, with cure of souls annexed, to the said college or otherwise.

"And whereas in exercise of the power for such purpose given to us by the said recited Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter seventy-seven, we have effected the sale to persons capable of holding the same, of the advowsons of the several benefices with cure of souls which were annexed to the said College of Saint David, and have realized by such sales certain sums, which, together with the interest accrued thereon, amount to the sum of one thousand four hundred and two pounds and eight shillings, which is now in our hands to the credit of the said College.

"And whereas the present permanent endowment of the said College of Saint David, consists of the Sinecure Rectories of Angle Llangeler and Llanddewi, the average aggregate annual proceeds of which amount to the sum of four hundred and fifty pounds, and of the hereinbefore-mentioned sum of one thousand four hundred and two pounds and eight shillings.

"And whereas a Professorship in Chemistry, Botany, and Zoology, in the said College, was founded in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, by the late Thomas Phillips, Esquire, who endowed the same with a sum of seven thousand four hundred and eighty-seven pounds and five pence, consolidated bank annuities, the annual interest upon which amounts to two hundred and twenty-four pounds and twelve shillings.

"And whereas, in addition to such permanent endowment, an annual sum of four hundred pounds granted by the Lords of your Majesty's Treasury, on condition that only so much of such sum should be paid as would suffice to make up the total annual endowment of the said College to the sum of nine hundred and sixty pounds, and which will accordingly determine as soon as the annual endowment of the said College, exceeds that last-mentioned annual amount.

"And whereas we have made enquiries into the estate and condition of the said College, and the course of education there, the number, duties, and emoluments of the Principal, Vice-Principal, Tutors, and Professors, the number, nature, and emoluments of the scholarships and exhibitions attached to the said College, and it hath been made to appear to us:—

First. That the course of education at the said College should be extended so as to be equivalent to the ordinary course of education for a Bachelor's Degree at the Universities of Oxford or Cambridge, and that it should include, as at present, teaching in Divinity, Hebrew, and Welsh.

"Second. That to carry on effectively this course of education, there should be five Professorships, besides the Phillips' Professorship hereinbefore-mentioned, and that the following branches of knowledge should be distributed amongst such five Professors (that is to say) Greek, Latin, Mathematics (pure and mixed), Divinity, Hebrew, Moral and Mental Philosophy, English, (that is to say) the English Language, History and Literature, and Welsh. And that one of the said Professorships should be held as at present by the Principal of the said college, and another of the said Professorships should be held by the Vice-Principal of the said college.

"Third. That in order to continue and obtain the services of competent persons as Principal, Vice-Principal, and Professors of the said College, their scale of emoluments should be as follows (that is to say): The Principal, seven hundred pounds per annum with a house; the Vice-Principal, six hundred pounds per annum, with a house; as regards the four other Professors, three hundred and fifty pounds, three hundred pounds, two hundred and fifty pounds, and two hundred and fifty pounds per annum respectively, and that, if possible, houses or apartments should be provided for two of the said other Professors.

"Fourth. That in order that the emoluments of the said several officers of the College should in part depend upon the number of the pupils, a part of the emoluments should consist of a fixed salary, and a part should be derived from the surplus of the matriculation and tuition fees of the pupils, after payment thereof of such outgoings as have ordinarily been paid therefrom.

"Fifth. That as respects the emoluments of the said officers, except the said Phillips' Professor, two third parts thereof should be provided from the permanent endowment of the College, and one third from the said surplus of the said fees, and that as respects the said Phillips' Professor, his emoluments should consist of the dividends of the said stock, provided by the said Thomas Phillips, and of such further sum from the said surplus of the said fees as shall make up the amount to three hundred pounds per annum, provided, that if the surplus of the said fees shall be insufficient to provide for such portions of the said emoluments of the said Professors as are to be paid thereout, such portions shall abate proportionally.

"Sixth. That, having regard to the class of life to which those who seek education at the said College ordinarily belong, it is expedient that in order further to aid the most meritorious of them in the prosecution of their studies at the College, and to encourage and reward their industry, the scholarships and exhibitions, of the College should be augmented in number and value.

"Seventh. That the hereinbefore mentioned permanent endowment of the said College is not more than sufficient to provide for the repair and sustentation of the College buildings and premises, and for the various contingent and incidental expenses of the College which cannot justly be charged to the students, and for a moderate increase of the scholarships and emoluments as aforesaid, and that accordingly it is expedient to provide under the authority of the said recited Acts, such further endowment as will be sufficient to pay the fixed portions of the salaries hereinbefore mentioned of the Principal, Vice Principal, and the Professors (except the Phillips' Professor) which fixed portions of the said salaries amount in the whole to one thousand and five hundred pounds.

"And whereas there are now vested in us under the provisions of the herein firstly-recited Act, certain lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, situate and being or arising within the Principality of Wales as aforesaid, the annual proceeds whereof exceed the said amount of one thousand and five hundred pounds, but the same or the greater part thereof are at present subject to divers outstanding leases or liabilities, by reason whereof, it would in our opinion be inexpedient that any of such lands, tithes, tenements, or hereditaments should now be actually transferred to and vested in the said College of Saint David's or its representatives.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that immediately upon your Majesty being pleased by a new or supplemental charter to authorize the said principal tutors and professors of Saint David's College, in the principality of Wales, to accept the endowment hereby recommended, subject to its being applied to the purposes and in manner aforesaid, and to such further provisions and regulations as your Majesty may think fit to establish by such charter; and upon the said charter being duly accepted then and until lands, tithes, tenements, or other hereditaments, the annual income of which, after making due allowance for the expenses of collecting and management, amounts to the sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds, shall become and be transferred to and absolutely vested in the said Principal, Tutors, and Professors of the said College of Saint David, at Lampeter, and their successors, according to the provisions of the said herein firstly recited Act, there shall be paid by us out of our common fund in respect of the proceeds of the lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments so vested in us as aforesaid, by equal half yearly payments, on the first day of November and the first day of May in every year, the yearly sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds, to be received, possessed, and administered by them in manner aforesaid, in trust for the benefit of the said College, and the promotion of the objects thereof, under and subject to such statutes, ordinances, rules, and regulations of and concerning the constitution and management of the same College as shall from time to time remain or be passed or enacted with the approval of the visitor thereof.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measure relating to the endowment of the said College of Saint David, Lampeter, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or any other Act of Parliament, and particularly the substitution of any real estate for such yearly payment by us as aforesaid."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law, immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of St. David's.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 27th day of July, 1863.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Luke, situate in the parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Nottingham, in the county of the town of Nottingham, and in the diocese of Lincoln.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Luke, situate in the parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Nottingham aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of Lincoln (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Nottingham, described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Luke, Nottingham.'

"And, with the like consent of the said John, Bishop of Lincoln (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings, should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Luke, Nottingham, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Nottingham, in the county of the town of Nottingham, and in the diocese of Lincoln, which is comprised within and is bounded by an imaginary line, commencing upon the boundary dividing such parish from the particular district of Saint Mark, Nottingham, in the same county and diocese, at the point in the middle of Great Alfred-street where such street is intersected by Saint Ann's Well-road, and extending thence, south-westward, along such boundary (following the middle of the said road) as far as a point opposite to the middle of the western end of the fence forming the northern boundary of Saint Mary's Cemetery; and extending thence, eastward, to and along the middle of the said boundary fence to its junction with the fence forming the eastern boundary of the said cemetery; and extending thence, southward, along the middle of the last-mentioned boundary fence to its southern extremity; and extending thence, south-westward, and in a straight line, across Bath-street, to a point on the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Nottingham, from the district parish of Saint Paul, Nottingham, in the same county and diocese, which said point is in the middle of the northern end of the street called 'Independent-hill'; and extending thence, in a direction alternately south-eastward and south-westward, along the last-described boundary, as far as a point in the middle of the street or place called 'Hockley,' opposite to the middle of the north-western end of Sneinton-street; and continuing thence, south-eastward, to and along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Water-street; and continuing thence, in the same direction, along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with that portion of the street called Fishergate, which is known as 'Willoughby-row'; and extending thence, westward, along the middle of the last-described street, as far as a point opposite to the middle of the northern end of New-street; and extending thence, southward, to and along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Butcher-street; and extending thence, first westward and then north-westward, along the middle of the last-named street to a point on the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Nottingham, from the new parish of Saint John Baptist, Nottingham, in the same county and diocese, which said point is in the centre of Plumtre-square; and extending thence, southward, along the last-described boundary (following the middle of the London-road), as far as a point in the centre of the bridge which carries such road over the Nottingham Canal; and extending thence, northeastward, to and along the middle of the said canal, and continuing in the same direction along the middle of the branch canal which passes to the south of the place or territory heretofore known as the 'Island,' as far as a point on the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Nottingham, from the parish of Sneinton, in the county of Nottingham, and in the said diocese of Lincoln; and extending thence, in a direction alternately north-westward and north-eastward along the last described boundary, as far as a point in the middle of the south-eastern end of Great Alfred-street aforesaid; and extending thence, north-westward, along the middle of the street last referred to, as far as the first-described point upon the boundary which divides the parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Nottingham, from the particular district of Saint Mark, Nottingham, as aforesaid, where the said imaginary line commenced."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Luke, situate in the parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Nottingham, in the county of the town of Nottingham, to be called "The District Chapelry of Saint Luke, Nottingham," be accordingly made, and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners, with reference to the publication of banns of matrimony and the solemnization or performance of marriages, baptisms, and churchings, in the said church, and with reference to the fees to be paid in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts. And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lincoln.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation bearing date the twenty-fifth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church, situate at Holbrooke, in the parish of Duffield, in the county of Derby, and in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church, situate at Holbrooke aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of Lichfield (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Duffield, described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Holbrooke.'

"And with the like consent of the said John, Bishop of Lichfield (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend Francis Wellington Moore, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Duffield, shall continue to be such vicar or incumbent, all the fees to be received in respect of the publication of banns of matrimony and the solemnization or performance of marriages in the said church at Holbrooke shall be paid by the minister thereof to the said Francis Wellington Moore.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Holbrooke, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Duffield, in the county of Derby, and in the diocese of Lichfield, which is comprised within, and is co-extensive with, the limits of the township or liberty and chapelry of Holbrooke."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof; and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church situate at Holbrooke, in the parish of Duffield, in the county of Derby, to be called "The District Chapelry of Holbrooke," be accordingly made; and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners with reference to the publication of banns of matrimony, and the solemnization or performance of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials in the said church, and with reference to the fees to be received in respect of such publication of banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts. And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield:

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the ninth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property, formerly belonging to the Prebend of Laughton, in the cathedral and metropolitan church of York, annexed to the Chancellorship of the said church, and now vested in us.

"Whereas on the vacancy of the said Chancellorship and Prebend, which occurred on or about the twenty-sixth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, by the decease of the Reverend Leveson Vernon Harcourt, Clerk, the then Chancellor and Prebendary, all the lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments theretofore belonging to the said Prebend (except rights of patronage), became by virtue of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, absolutely vested in us, for the purposes, and subject to the provisions, applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas some portions of the lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments aforesaid, are subject to a beneficial lease and produce during the subsistence of such lease, only a small annual revenue, and partly on that account and partly on account of their character or situation, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied, for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions, or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time, and from time to time, think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the holder or holders thereof (if any), to be testified by his, her, or their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tithes, tēnements, hereditaments, and endowments heretofore belonging to the said prebend of Laughton, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her; or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

“And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of York.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 27th day of July, 1863.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of another Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the ninth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of an Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of another Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, chapter thirty nine, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme respecting the mode of appointing Honorary Canons in the Cathedral and Metropolitan Church of Christ, Canterbury.

“Whereas it was by the firstly above mentioned Act enacted that Honorary Canonries should be thereby founded in every cathedral church in England in which there were not already founded any non-residentiary prebends, dignities, or offices; and that the holders of such canonries should be styled Honorary Canons, and should be entitled to stalls and to take rank in the Cathedral Church next after the canons, and should be subject to such regulations respecting the mode of their appointment and otherwise, as should be determined on by the authority thereafter provided, with the consent of the Chapters of the said cathedral churches respectively; and that the number of such Honorary Canonries thereby founded in each cathedral church should be twenty-four; and that it should be lawful for the Archbishops and Bishops respectively, if they should think fit, from time to time to appoint spiritual persons to such Honorary Canonries provided that not more than eight of such Honorary Canons should be appointed in any diocese within the year next after the passing of the said Act, nor more than two in any subsequent year, except in the case of the vacancy of any honorary canonry, by death, resignation, or otherwise; and it was provided, that no emolument whatever, nor any place in the chapter of any cathedral church, should be taken or held by any Honorary Canon in virtue of his appointment as such Canon; and it was by the secondly recited Act declared and enacted that such Honorary Canonries were and should be founded forthwith in the said cathedral church of Canterbury, and that the provisions of the first hereinbefore recited Act should apply to the Honorary Canonries so founded.

“And whereas the Dean and Chapter of the said Cathedral Church of Canterbury have signified to us their consent to the following regulations, in accordance with the provisions of the said first recited Act: We therefore humbly recommend and propose;

“1. That it shall be lawful for the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, by instrument under his hand and Archiepiscopal seal, to collate any spiritual person, not holding any canonry, honorary canonry, or prebend in any cathedral, or collegiate church to any Honorary Canonry in the said Cathedral and Metropolitan Church of Christ, Canterbury; provided that not more than two such Honorary Canons shall be appointed before the eleventh day of August next, nor more than two in any future year, calculated from that day, except in the case of vacancy of any such honorary canonry by death, resignation, or otherwise, and that the total number of such Honorary Canons in the said cathedral church shall never exceed twenty-four.

“2. That every Honorary Canon so collated shall be admitted into the Cathedral with the same formalities, so far as may be found practicable, as have been heretofore by the practice of the said church, observed in the admission of a Canon thereof, and shall in all processions of the Dean and Chapter, from or to the Cathedral Church or elsewhere, walk in the order of his seniority determined by the date of his collation, the senior Honorary Canon taking rank next to the junior canon; provided that every Honorary Canon who shall also hold one of the six preacherships founded in the said church shall take precedence of all other honorary canons therein.

“3. That no fee whatever shall be paid by any such Honorary Canon, except a fee of ten shillings to the Bishop's Secretary upon collation, a like fee to the Chapter Clerk, and a like fee to the Precentor upon the first admission to such Honorary Canon to the cathedral.

“4. That every such Honorary Canon shall, when present in the Cathedral Church, wear the same habit as a canon, and that any such honorary canon, may from time to time, with his own consent, be deputed by, or on behalf of the dean, or any canon who may be disabled or prevented by illness or otherwise from performing such duty in person to attend Divine service, or to preach, or to perform any other clerical duty, in the Cathedral; and that when neither the dean, vice dean, nor any canon, nor any honorary canon, thereto specially deputed shall be present, during the performance of Divine service, the senior honorary canon who shall be present shall have the same authority as would be vested in the dean or vice dean, if present.

"5. That if any plan for the preaching of the Honorary Canons in the said church shall be agreed upon by the Dean and Chapter, and approved by their visitor, every such Honorary Canon shall conform to such plan, provided that he shall not be thereby required to preach more than once in any year.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law, immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Canterbury.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the sinecure rectory of Orpington, in the county of Kent, and now vested in us.

"Whereas on the vacancy of the said sinecure rectory, which occurred on or about the twenty-fourth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, by the decease of the Reverend Francis Dawson, the then sinecure rector, all the lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments and endowments theretofore belonging to the said sinecure rectory (except rights of patronage), became by virtue of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments and endowments aforesaid, are subject to a beneficial lease and produce during the subsistence of such lease only a small annual revenue, and partly on that account and partly on account of their character or situation are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly, that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest in such lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the holder or holders thereof (if any), to be testified by his, her, or their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, heretofore belonging to the said Sinecure Rectory of Orpington, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the Diocese of Canterbury.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the Session of Parliament, held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Burial Acts," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to order such acts to be done by or under the directions of the churchwardens or such other persons as may have the care of any vaults or places of burial, for preventing them from becoming or continuing dangerous or injurious to the public health; and that every such Order in Council shall be published in the London Gazette, and that such churchwardens or other persons shall do or cause to be done all acts ordered as aforesaid, and the expenses incurred in and about the doing thereof shall be paid out of the poor rates of the parish: provided always, that no such representation shall be made until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the churchwardens or other persons, or one of the churchwardens, or other persons having the care of the vaults or places of burial to which the representation relates;

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation having been duly given to the churchwardens or other persons having the care of the vaults or crypts beneath the Station-house in High-street, Lambeth, has made a representation, stating that he is of opinion that, for the purpose of preventing the said vaults or crypts from becoming or continuing dangerous to the public health, an Order should be made for the adoption of the measures which are hereinafter set forth;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the churchwardens or such other persons as may have the care of the said vaults or crypts, do adopt, or cause to be adopted, the following measures, viz. :—

That the vaults or crypts beneath the Station-house in High-street, Lambeth, in which coffins are deposited, be filled up with earth and the entrance to them be closed with brickwork properly cemented.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 27th day of July, 1863.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit;

And whereas certain Orders in Council have been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards and burial-ground hereinafter mentioned, from the time specified in such Orders respectively; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards and burial-ground be postponed;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards and burial-ground be postponed, as follows; viz. :

In the churchyard, Blaby, from the first of July to the first of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three.

In Christ Church Burial-ground, Every-street, Ancoats, in Manchester, from the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, to the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, provided that the same regulations as those now in force are observed therein.

In family vaults and graves in the churchyard of All Saints, Chorlton, in Manchester, from the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, to the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, provided that every such vault or grave be reopened only for the burial of widowers, widows, parents, children, brothers, or sisters of those previously buried therein, and provided that each coffin be embedded in charcoal and entombed in an airtight manner.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 27th day of July, 1863.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and the Vestry Clerk of the parish hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, burials should be forthwith discontinued in the churchyard of Saint Matthew, Brixton, in the parish of Lambeth, with the exception of now existing vaults, brick graves, and family and earthen graves, which shall be used in accordance with the Official Regulations for New Burial-grounds.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the tenth day of September next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of the said parish, or on some conspicuous places within the part or parts of the metropolis affected by such representation, one calendar month, at the least, before the said tenth day of September.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 27th day of July, 1863.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representations, has, under the provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," made representations stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and that interments in the same should be discontinued, with the following modifications; viz.:

KINGSBRIDGE, DEVON.—In the Wesleyan burial ground no grave to be opened within three yards of any dwelling nor unless it can be opened without the disturbance of any coffin, and no coffin to be buried at a less depth than five feet.

BROCKENHURST, HAMPSHIRE.—Forthwith beneath the parish church, and from and after the 30th June, 1864, in the churchyard, with the exception of now existing family vaults and brick graves which can be opened without exposing human remains, and in which each coffin shall be separately entombed in brickwork, properly cemented, also with the exception of the now existing and reserved deep earthen graves, in which, when required, the coffin last buried shall be covered with not less than four feet of earth.

KINGSTONE, KENT.—Forthwith beneath the parish church and also in all those portions of the churchyard which lie on the north and west sides of the church.

LITTLE STANMORE.—Forthwith beneath the parish church, the coffins deposited in these vaults to be properly covered with a layer of fresh earth, 18 inches thick, and a layer of concrete, 6 inches thick, and to be closed up with brickwork well cemented.

ENDEBY, LEICESTERSHIRE.—Forthwith beneath the parish church, and from and after the thirty-first of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the churchyard, with the exception of now existing family vaults and brick graves, which can be opened without exposing human remains, and in which each coffin shall be separately entombed in brick or stone work properly cemented.

LONGFORD, SAINT MARY, GLOUCESTER.—

Forthwith in the cemetery at Wotton (extra-parochial), near Gloucester, except for the burial of husbands, wives, parents, children, brothers, or sisters of those buried therein, before the first of July, 1863, and that the regulations for new burial grounds be observed therein; also that no new burial ground be opened within two miles of the city of Gloucester, without the previous consent of the Secretary of State.

MINSTER, NEAR RAMSGATE, KENT.—Forthwith beneath the parish church.

CREDITON.—Forthwith in the church, and in the churchyard, except in vaults and walled graves, in which each coffin shall be embedded in charcoal, and separately enclosed by concrete, brickwork, or masonry properly cemented, and except in earthen graves, not less than five feet deep, which are free from water, and can be opened without exposure of coffins, or the disturbance of remains.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representations, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the tenth day of September next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of or on some conspicuous places within the parishes affected by such representations, one month before the said tenth day of September.

Edmund Harrison.

Downing Street, July 27, 1863.

The Queen has been pleased to appoint Wilberforce Wilson, Esq., to be Assistant Surveyor-General for the Colony of Hong Kong.

(905).

Board of Trade, Whitehall,
July 25, 1863.

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs a translation of a Royal Portuguese Decree forwarded by Her Majesty's Minister at Lisbon, establishing the regulations to be adopted in order to obtain Portuguese nationality for merchant vessels, and of which the following are the most important provisions:

TITLE THE FIRST.—Of the nationality of ships and its conditions.

ARTICLE 1ST.—The conditions of the nationality of Portuguese merchant vessels have in view:

- Firstly. The construction, or origin of a vessel.
- Secondly. The owners, or fitters.
- Thirdly. The captain and officers in command.
- Fourthly. The crew or ship's company.

CHAPTER THE FIRST.—Of the Origin of a vessel.

ARTICLE 2ND.—In order that a merchant vessel should be considered Portuguese, its construction must have been Portuguese.

ARTICLE 3RD.—But foreign vessels, or of foreign construction, are considered as national unto all effects.

Firstly. When bought by Portuguese subjects, provided the tonnage duty laid down in the decree of the 11th of August, 1852, shall have been paid, and the registration thereof shall have been made according to the terms, and in the cases laid down in article the 4th of the same decree.

Secondly. When lawfully captured and adjudged to be good prizes.

Thirdly. When adjudged as confiscated on account of any infringement of the laws.

Fourthly. When they belong either to navigation or towing companies established in Portugal and legally authorized.

CHAPTER THE SECOND.—Of the ownership of vessels.

ARTICLE 4TH.—No vessel shall be considered Portuguese, even when of Portuguese construction, the ownership of which does not wholly belong to Portuguese, or to naturalized foreigners.

1st Paragraph.—A Portuguese vessel transferred to a foreigner by a national owner, ceases to be Portuguese.

2nd Paragraph. A foreigner not naturalized, acquiring either by inheritance, or under any other gratuitous title, any Portuguese vessel, must transfer it over to another person, within 30 days, under pain of its being assigned to the denouncer.

ARTICLE 5TH. A foreign vessel acquired by a Portuguese, should the contract contain any fraudulent reserve in favour of a non-naturalized foreigner shall be sold at public auction, as soon as the fraud is discovered, and the proceeds of the same shall be applied to the Naval Hospital.

ARTICLE 6TH. Vessels belonging either to Navigation or to towing Companies established in Portugal, and legally authorized, are to be considered as Portuguese, and as owned by Portuguese for the effects of Article 4th.

ARTICLE 7TH. The mere possession of a vessel without any title respecting the acquisition of the same, does not confer upon the possessor the right of ownership.

CHAPTER THE THIRD.—Of the Captain, Officers, and Crew.

ARTICLE 8TH. The Captain or Master and the Super-cargo must be either Portuguese or naturalized foreigners.

ARTICLE 9TH. Two-thirds at least of the individuals forming the crew must likewise be either Portuguese or naturalized foreigners; Treaty stipulations excepted.

TITLE SECOND.—Of the means of proving the Nationality.

ARTICLE 10TH. The means of proving the Portuguese nationality of vessels, not only in foreign countries, in order to enjoy the privileges and immunities to which they are entitled by Treaty, but also at sea, in order that they may be duly respected, are the flag and the ships' papers.

Single Paragraph. The nationality of the vessel does not imply that of the cargo, should the latter not be duly proved.

CHAPTER THE FOURTH.—Of the Flag.

ARTICLE 11TH. The Portuguese flag is vertically divided into two parts, white and blue, with the Royal Arms placed in the centre.

Single Paragraph.—In addition to the ensign or flag vessels shall have on board Marryat's Code of Signals.

CHAPTER FIFTH.—Ships' Papers.

ARTICLE 12TH. The documents or ship's papers to be used as means of proving, not only the nationality of the ship and cargo, but also the place to which it is bound, and the regularity of the voyage, are as follows :

1stly. The registered title-deed of the ownership of the vessel.

2ndly. The Royal Passport.

3rdly. The Muster Roll of the crew.

4thly. The Bills of Lading and Charter Parties.

5thly. The Manifesto of the Cargo and the Customs'-house Despatch. (Clearance.)

6thly. The receipts for the payments of Port Expenses, Pilotage, and any others.

7thly. The Cargo Book.

8thly. The Ledger.

9thly. The Navigation Journal (Log Book).

10thly. The Bill of Health.

11thly. The List of Passengers.

12thly. A copy of the Commercial Code.

Single Paragraph. Of all these documents, those that are essential and indispensable, in order to prove the nationality of a vessel, are the title-deed of the ownership or registration of the vessel, the Royal Passport, and the Muster Roll, or the matriculation of the Crew.

Through the want of these the vessel may be considered a good prize, according to the terms of the law of nations.

SECTION FIRST.—Of the Title Deed of Ownership of a Vessel.

ARTICLE 13TH.—The title-deed of the ownership of a vessel must be registered at the captaincy of the port to which the vessel belongs; but in those ports where there are no captains of ports or their delegates, the registration is made by the chief officers of the proper custom houses, according to the terms of the legislation in force.

Single Paragraph. The case of a ship being bought abroad or captured is excepted, because if so, the registration can only be effected at the port of Lisbon.

ARTICLE 14TH. The Register must state,—

Firstly. The name of the vessel.

Secondly. The tonnage of the same proved by the certificate of the measurement, showing the date of the same.

Thirdly. The name, surname, and place of residence of the owner or owners.

Fourthly. The time of the acquisition of the vessel, and also the nature and date of the title-deed of that acquisition; and should it belong to more than one person, a specific mention of the share belonging to each partner.

Whenever there is a transfer of the title-deeds, or of part of the ship, the register shall be altered so as to show those changes, and the same thing shall be done if any remarkable change were to take place in the construction.

Single Paragraph. An authentic certificate will be issued by the Marine Department, to any vessel that may apply for it, in parchment, to be signed by the minister, by the clerk, who may have written it out, and sealed with a pendent Royal Seal, and any alterations that may in future appear in the register are to be mentioned therein in due time.

SECTION SECOND.—Of the Royal Passport.

ARTICLE 15TH. The Royal Passport is issued by the Marine Department, in parchment, signed by the minister, and stamped with the seal of the Royal Arms, and with the Public Seal, and will not be granted unless a certificate of the registration and measurement of the vessel be presented.

1st Paragraph. Passports to pilot vessels in the Ultramarine Provinces, will be issued by the Governors of the same.

2nd Paragraph. The passport is permanent, and must be renewed in the following cases:—

Firstly. Of a change in the name of the vessel.
Secondly. Of a change in the quality of its rig.

Thirdly. Of a transfer of the whole or part of the ownership of the same.

ARTICLE 16TH. On a voyage, the passport must be presented to any ships registering a vessel, and also within the first legally computable 24 hours, after entering any ports in the kingdom or in the Ultramarine Provinces, to the proper authorities, and at foreign ports, to the Consuls or Vice-Consuls.

SECTION THIRD.—Of the Muster-roll, or Matriculation of the Crew.

ARTICLE 17TH.—The muster-roll or matriculation of the crew must state:—

Firstly.—The name of the vessel.

Secondly.—The point of departure, the one to which the vessel is bound, and also that of the return voyage.

Thirdly.—The names, surnames, places of birth, residence, profession and characteristic signs of the captain, officers, and of all those serving in the vessel.

Fourthly.—The wages agreed upon.

Fifthly.—The sums which have been promised or those received in advance.

Sixthly.—The engagement made by each individual of the crew to go on board with his personal effects at the time appointed by the captain.

ARTICLE 18TH.—The matriculation shall be made up by the naval captains of ports or by their delegates; and at those ports where there are none, by the chiefs of the Custom Houses, who are for this purpose subordinated to the Marine Department.

ARTICLE 19TH.—What is laid down in the preceding Articles shall not be derogatory to:

Firstly.—What is prescribed with respect to the matriculation of fishing-boats in the Decree of the 26th and in the Regulations of the 28th of November, 1842, and in the "Portaria" Ministerial Order of the 31st of January, 1850, with respect to fishing-boats in the sea of Larache,* or beyond the coasts of the kingdom.

Secondly.—What has been laid down in the special rules with respect to the matriculation of steam tugs.

TITLE THIRD.—Final Rule.

ARTICLE 20TH.—A printed copy of this Decree shall always be kept on board all ships of war and merchant vessels.

Given at the Palace, on the 8th of July, 1863.

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs a copy of a Despatch from the British Commissioner of the European Commission of the Danube, transmitting the following revised translation of the Notice which appeared in the London Gazette of the 8th May last, relative to the Navigation Dues levied at the Sulina mouth of the Danube:

PROVISIONAL TARIFF OF NAVIGATION.

DUES TO BE LEVIED AT THE MOUTH OF THE DANUBE.

THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION OF THE DANUBE.

WHEREAS Article XVI of the Treaty of Paris of 30th of March, 1856, stipulates that the expenses of the works performed for the purpose of clearing the mouths of the Danube and the portions of sea adjoining, of the obstacles which obstructed them, and those of the establishments for securing and facilitating navigation, shall be covered by means of levying the fixed dues determined by the Commission.

And whereas a provisional Tariff was in consequence enacted under date of the 25th July, 1860.

And whereas since the enforcement of the Tariff, the works undertaken at the mouth of the Sulina have been completely finished, and in consequence of the increase of depth which has resulted therefrom, the obstacles which vessels used to encounter at this point have been removed.

And whereas the works of correction and deepening undertaken in the course of the river, and which approach completion, and the improvements introduced into the establishments referred to in the Treaty, as well as the creation of a Seaman's Hospital at Sulina, into which sick or shipwrecked sailors will be in future admitted free of charge assure to the navigation considerable advantages.

And whereas an increase of five centimes per ton to the dues at present levied upon vessels, an increase of which the produce will be devoted to covering the expenses of the Seaman's Hospital, appears thereby justified, and is moreover but a slight addition to the charges supported by the navigation.

And whereas it is necessary in view of distributing these charges more equitably, to impose a toll on rafts of timber, at present quite free from toll, although they profit equally by the improvement realized in the river and at the mouth.

And whereas experience has shown that there is an advantage to the navigation in merging in one single shipping due, the tolls levied for the improvements and the pilotage and light dues.

The Commission enacts the following provisional Tariff:—

ART. I.

Every sailing vessel of more than 30 tons register quitting the port of Sulina to go to sea, and which has according to her manifest more than a third of her full lading, shall pay a fixed shipping-due by ton register, the amount of which shall be hereinafter determined according to the total tonnage of the vessel and the depth on the bar at the Sulina mouth.

Vessels which shall have ascended the River to ship their cargoes at one of the interior ports, shall pay the Tolls as regulated by the following Table:—

VESSELS.	Amount of Dues to pay per Ton with a depth at the mouth
	Of less than 10 feet.	Of 10 feet at least and 11 feet at most.	Of more than 11 feet to 12 feet.	Of more than 12 feet to 13 feet.	Of more than 13 feet to 14 feet.	Of more than 14 feet to 15 feet.	Of more than 15 feet.

Vessels which shall receive their cargoes in the port of Sulina without ascending the River above the said port, shall only pay the Tolls regulated in the following Table:

VESSELS.	Amount of Dues to pay per Ton with a depth at the mouth
	Of less than 10 feet.	Of 10 feet at least and 11 feet at most.	Of more than 11 feet to 12 feet.	Of more than 12 feet to 13 feet.	Of more than 13 feet to 14 feet.	Of more than 14 feet to 15 feet.	Of more than 15 feet.

ART. II.

Steam vessels belonging to a public Company specially appropriated to the transport of passengers, and making periodical voyages according to a time bill published beforehand shall pay each time on leaving the river a fixed toll of fifty centimes per ton register, whether the lading is full or partial.

This due shall be calculated on the total tonnage of the vessel, after making a deduction for the space occupied by engines and coal bunkers.

The deduction shall amount to 37 per cent. for paddle-wheel steamers and 32 per cent. for screw steamers.

It shall be effected only after the conversion of the vessel's tonnage into English register tons, as prescribed in Article XIII following.

These vessels will be free from all dues on entering the river.

ART. III.

All merchant steam vessels others than those mentioned in the preceding Article, shall be subjected to the same dues as sailing vessels, with the exception of the deduction on account of engines and coals, which shall be equally effected upon their total tonnage in accordance with the bases established in the preceding Article.

The amount of the fixed dues per ton register which these vessels will have to pay shall be regulated according as they ascend the river above Sulina or not, in conformity with the above Tables, after the deduction guaranteed therein by the first paragraph of the present Article.

ART. IV.

Merchant vessels propelled either by sail or steam, other than those mentioned in Article II., which shall enter the port of Sulina from the sea, and which shall have according to their manifest more than a third of their lading, shall pay for entering the river, the fourth part of the due imposed on them for the outward passage, according to the above Articles I and III.

This entrance due shall not be paid by them until they leave the river.

Should, however, the said vessels leave the river with less than a third of their lading, they will in this case have to pay for their entrance the full amount of the dues fixed by Articles I and III.

ART. V.

Lighters chartered for the passage of the Sulina bar by vessels which shall have paid the dues fixed by the preceding Articles, shall pay for each passage made with a full or partial lading only the following tolls, namely:—

Lighters of 10 to 50 tons burden, six francs;

Those of more than 50 tons burden, and not exceeding 100 tons, eight francs;

And those of more than 100 tons burden, twelve francs.

ART. VI.

Vessels remaining at anchor in the Sulina roads to load or unload the whole or part of their cargo, shall not be subjected to the dues established by the preceding Articles. They shall only pay a uniform due of one hundred francs each vessel, towards covering the expenses of the establishments from which they derive actual benefit.

Lighters chartered to transport across the mouth the cargo of the said vessels, shall pay for every passage across the bar with whole or partial lading, a fixed due of one franc per ton on their total tonnage.

Steam lighters shall be allowed the deduction on their tonnage mentioned in Article II preceding, in calculating the dues they will have to pay.

ART. VII.

Rafts and floats of timber not exceeding 100 feet English in length, by 40 feet English in breadth, shall pay, on leaving the river, if towed, a fixed due of 100 francs per raft.

This due shall be increased to 300 francs for every raft or float of timber not towed, of whatever dimensions it may be. And also for such rafts or floats as exceed 100 feet in length by 40 in breadth.

ART. VIII.

Vessels of war are free of all dues, both on entering and on leaving the port of Sulina.

ART. IX.

Vessels of more than 60 tons register, which shall enter the port of Sulina and leave the same with less than a third of their full lading, and which are freed in consequence from the dues established by Articles I, III, and IV preceding, will have to pay on leaving the river a toll of 50 centimes per ton for light and pilotage dues.

Sea going vessels engaged temporarily in the lighter service will have to pay this same toll, independently of the due of one franc per ton mentioned in the second clause of Art. IV.

Sea going vessels, or lighters, seeking shelter in the port of Sulina, from bad weather, or putting in to repair damages, and those which shall be obliged, in consequence of any accident whatever, to take refuge in the port, and shall be unable to continue their voyage, shall be free from all dues, provided that they put to sea again, without engaging in any mercantile transactions.

ART. X.

The dues fixed by the preceding Articles shall comprise the tax imposed on vessels to cover the expenses of works and other improvements carried out by the European Commission.

The dues actually in force for the maintenance of the light-houses composing the system of lights for the Danube mouths;

And the dues intended to cover the expenses of the pilot service for the Sulina entrance and of the other establishments instituted with a view to facilitate the navigation.

In addition to these dues, vessels shall not be subject to any other tax or charge whatever, except for the hire of the river pilots for the down voyage, which they will have to pay in conformity with the following Article:

ART. XI.

Sailing vessels of more than 60 tons register which shall have ascended the river above the Sulina port, shall pay, on leaving the river for the compulsory pilotage of the down voyage, a fixed due regulated as follows:

For the voyage from Galatz, or any other port higher up, to Sulina, 120 francs.

For the voyage from Reni or Ismail to Sulina, 100 francs.

And for the voyage from Toultscha to Sulina 72 francs—these dues shall be reduced by one-half for steamers.

The steamers mentioned in Art. 2 preceding, shall be free of this tax, provided that their pilots have been licensed as pilots of the 2nd class.

As regards pilotage for ascending the river, which is purely optional, the amount to be paid to the pilot is to be a matter of arrangement between him and the captain of the vessel, from whom he is to receive the amount himself.

ART. XII.

The due shall be paid over to the cashier of the Navigation Cash Office at Sulina, who will give a receipt for the same.

A table showing the conversion into francs of the monies in use on the Lower Danube shall be always posted up in the cash office. This table shall be revised periodically.

ART. XIII.

By the term "ton register" shall be understood the English registered ton.

The tonnage of vessels shall be ascertained from the ship's papers.

The reduction of the tons of different nations into English measurement, shall be made in accordance with the table annexed to the present tariff.

ART. XIV.

Vessels entering the Danube without papers showing their tonnage, shall be submitted, with the sole view of fixing the navigation dues which they will be bound to pay in accordance with the present tariff, to an approximate assessment made under the direction of the Captain of the port, and with the assistance of the proper consular authorities, by two skilled persons.

The Cashier of the navigation chest shall have the option of assisting at the operation, either personally or by a delegate.

A like proceeding shall take place if the ship's papers are notoriously incorrect, or if there is a dispute concerning the proportion of a vessel's lading, in the cases provided by the above Arts. I and IV.

The assessment of tonnage in default of ship's papers shall be made at the expense of the vessel that gives rise to it. The same rule shall hold good if an assessment proves an excess of more than 50 tons above the capacity indicated by the ship's papers; or if it is proved contrary to the declaration of the captain or owner that the vessel has more than the third part of her full cargo. If the contrary be the case, the said expenses shall be charged to the navigation chest.

In any case these assessments shall be final, and can give rise to no appeal whatever.

ART. XV.

The depths, according to which the dues fixed by the present tariff shall be determined, shall be taken on the bar of Sulina, in English feet.

The soundings shall be taken under the direction and responsibility of the engineer charged with the works of improvement at the river's mouth

The result of these soundings shall be posted up at the Navigation Cash Office, and at the office of the Captain of the port.

If the state of the sea does not allow soundings to be taken, the amount of the dues to be levied shall be based on the last depth ascertained.

ART. XVI.

Every vessel, float of timber, or raft, which shall attempt by any means whatever to evade payment (either wholly or partially) of the dues fixed by the present tariff, shall be liable besides the dues which it will have to pay in accordance with the preceding provisions, to a fine equal to four times the amount of the dues.

If the tonnage indicated on the ship's papers appears to be fraudulent, a verification of the capacity of the vessel can be made, as prescribed by the above Article XIV.

The infliction of the fine will be pronounced by the Captain of the Port of Sulina.

Appeals against these judgments must be brought before the European Commission of the Danube, or before the International Authority, that will take its place.

The delay within which such appeals must be made, and the form of proceeding shall be determined hereafter by special provisions.

The judgments pronounced by the Captain of the Port shall take effect, notwithstanding an appeal; in which case the amount of fine shall be paid as a deposit into the navigation chest.

The amount of fines adjudged to be legal, shall accrue to the said chest, to be devoted to the maintenance of the Seaman's Hospital.

ART. XVII.

The Commanders of vessels of war stationed at the mouth of the Danube, agreeably to Article XIX of the Treaty of Paris, will be called upon to insist upon the payment of the dues fixed by the present tariff, and of the fines accruing under its stipulations, by vessels of their nations, and of those whose flag they shall be authorized to protect, either in virtue of treaties or usages, or of a general or special delegation.

The assistance of the vessels of war shall be demanded, as a rule, through the intervention of the Captain of the Port of Sulina, on the requisition of the Cashier of the navigation chest.

In default of a vessel of war authorized to exercise a coercive action over an offending vessel, the Captain of the Port shall have recourse to the intervention of the Turkish ships of war stationed at Sulina.

ART. XVIII.

The provisional tariff of 25th July, 1860, is hereby abrogated, and the present tariff, which may be revised, if necessary, shall come into force as soon as publication of the same has been made at the ports of Braïla, Galatz, Reni, Toultscha, Ismail, and Sulina.

Given at Galatz, the 7th day of March, 1863.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the Regulation of the Duties of Postage," certain scales of weight and rates of postage, were fixed and made, chargeable and payable, upon, for, or in respect of letters, newspapers, parliamentary proceedings, and printed papers transmitted and forwarded by the post, and various regulations were made for facilitating the transmission of such letters and papers by the post.

And whereas by the said Act powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury from time to time, and at any time thereafter by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage or inland postage payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in the said Warrant, and from time to time by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any of such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and from time to time by Warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid, and the power thereby given to alter and fix rates of postage, is extended to any increase or reduction or remission of postage.

And whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the post-office," the provision fixing the maximum weight of letters to be sent by the post in the first-mentioned Act is repealed; and in order to prevent packets of an unwieldy bulk or an inconvenient size being transmitted by the post, power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, at any time or times thereafter, by Warrant under their hands, to fix the maximum weight of letters to be sent by post, and from time to time to repeal or revoke such maximum weight wholly or in part, and declare any other maximum of weight in lieu thereof. And it is provided, that all letters shall be forwarded, conveyed and delivered by the post in conformity with any such Warrant, and also in conformity with and under and subject to all such orders, conditions, limitations, regulations and restrictions, as to the form, size or dimensions thereof, whether in proportion to the weight or otherwise, as the Postmaster-General, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, shall from time to time direct. And by the said Act power is also given to the Postmaster-General to collect and receive the foreign and colonial postage charged or chargeable on any letters sent by the post, and also with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to require the postage, British, colonial or foreign, of any letters sent by the post to be prepaid, either in money or in stamps as he may think fit on the same, being put into the post office. And also with such consent to abolish or restrict the prepayment in money, of postage on letters sent by the post either altogether or on certain letters, and to require the prepayment thereof to be in stamps, and also to refuse to receive or send by the post any letters tendered contrary to any regulations thereby made. And it is also declared and enacted, that in all cases in which the British postage chargeable on any letters sent by the post, shall exceed the sum of one penny, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may by Warrant under their hands reduce such postage to any other rate of postage they may from time to time think fit. And also that the Postmaster-General may, if he shall think fit (with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury) allow any printed words, writing or marks (in addition to the direction) to be put on any printed newspapers or other printed papers sent by the post, or on the covers thereof; and that any such newspapers or other printed papers, shall from thenceforth be forwarded either free of postage, or subject to such rates of postage as the Postmaster-General, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, shall from time to time direct; and it is also declared and enacted, that the Postmaster-General, and any officer of the Post Office, may detain any letters which shall be posted or sent by the post, contrary to the regulations of that Act, or the first-mentioned Act, or contrary to any regulations made under the authority of that Act, or of the first-mentioned Act, or contrary to the regulations of any Treasury Warrant to be issued under or by virtue of that Act, or which had been or should be issued under or by virtue of the first-mentioned Act, and open such letters, and either return them to the senders thereof, or forward them to the places of their destination charged in either case with such rates of postage as the Postmaster-General, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall from time to time direct.

And whereas certain powers are also given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament, passed in the eighteenth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Stamp Duties on newspapers, and to provide for the transmission by post, of printed periodical publications."

And whereas it is expedient that printed newspapers and packets consisting of books, publications or works of literature or art, whether British, colonial or foreign, and packets consisting of printed votes and proceedings of the Imperial Parliament or the Colonial Legislatures, should be transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and the several places hereinafter-mentioned, viâ France and by French packet-boat, at a combined British and foreign rate of postage, and that certain regulations should be made for that purpose, in the manner hereinafter-mentioned.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers or authority in us for that purpose vested, in and by the said hereinbefore recited Acts of Parliament, or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners (by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided) order, direct, and declare as follows:—

1. On every packet consisting of a printed newspaper, whether British, colonial, or foreign, not exceeding four ounces in weight, transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and any port in the East Indies, Pondicherry, Ceylon, Mauritius, Reunion, Cochin China, or China, viâ France (the sea conveyance being by French packet-boat) there shall be charged, taken, and paid, a combined British, colonial, and foreign rate of postage of three pence.

2. On every packet consisting of a printed newspaper, whether British, colonial, or foreign, not exceeding four ounces in weight, transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and any port in the British West Indies viâ France (the sea conveyance being by French packet boat) there shall be charged, taken, and paid a combined British, colonial, and foreign rate of postage of one penny.

3. On every packet consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, whether British, colonial, or foreign, or consisting of printed votes and proceedings of the Imperial Parliament, or the colonial legislatures, not exceeding four ounces in weight, transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and any port in the East Indies, Ceylon, Mauritius, or Hong Kong, viâ France (the sea conveyance being by French packet boat) there shall be charged, taken, and paid, a combined British, colonial, and foreign rate of postage of sixpence.

4. On every packet consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, whether British, colonial, or foreign, or consisting of printed votes and proceedings of the Imperial Parliament, or the colonial legislatures, not exceeding four ounces in weight, transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and any port in the British West Indies, viâ France (the sea conveyance being by French packet boat) there shall be charged, taken, and paid, a combined British, colonial, and foreign rate of postage of three pence.

5. All such respective packets as hereinbefore, in the first, second, third, and fourth clauses of this Warrant mentioned, if exceeding four ounces in weight, shall be subject to the several progressive and additional rates of postage hereinafter mentioned and set forth (that is to say):—

On every such packet, if exceeding four ounces and not exceeding one-half of a pound in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, two rates of postage.

And on every such packet, if exceeding one-half of a pound, and not exceeding one pound in weight, four rates of postage.

And on every such packet, if exceeding one pound and not exceeding one pound and one-half of another pound in weight, six rates of postage.

And on every such packet, if exceeding one pound and one-half of another pound and not exceeding two pounds in weight, eight rates of postage.

And for every additional half of a pound in weight of any such packet above the weight of two pounds, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, two additional rates of postage, and every fractional part of such additional half of a pound in weight, shall be charged as an additional half of a pound in weight; and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause, shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such packet would be charged with under this Warrant, if not exceeding four ounces in weight.

6. For the purposes of this Warrant, every printed newspaper transmitted by the post under the first and second clauses of this Warrant, shall be deemed and considered a packet, and shall be charged and chargeable with a separate and distinct single rate, or separate and distinct progressive and additional rates of postage, according to the weight thereof, as hereinbefore mentioned, notwithstanding two or more newspapers shall be enclosed and transmitted in one, and the same cover, wrapper, envelope, or bundle, and form only one parcel or bundle of newspapers, and every printed supplement or additional sheet to any newspaper, shall, for the purpose of charging the postage under this Warrant, be deemed a distinct newspaper, unless sent in the same cover or together with the newspaper to which it is a supplement or addition.

7. Every packet transmitted by the post under the first and second clauses of this Warrant, shall be subject to the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions hereinafter contained, that is to say:—

Every British newspaper which shall be posted in the United Kingdom under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be printed and published at intervals not exceeding thirty-one days between any two consecutive numbers or parts of such publications, and the same shall be registered by the proprietor or printer thereof at the General Post-Office in London, and shall be posted within fifteen days from the date of its publication, and the title and date of the newspaper shall be printed at the top of every page thereof.

8. Every packet transmitted by the post under the first, second, third, and fourth clauses of this Warrant, shall be subject to the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions hereinafter contained (that is to say):—

No such packet which in length, or breadth, or width, shall exceed the dimensions of two feet, shall be forwarded by the post under the provisions aforesaid.

No such packet posted in the United Kingdom addressed to the East Indies, or posted in the East Indies addressed to the United Kingdom, exceeding the weight of three pounds, shall be forwarded by the post under the provisions aforesaid.

The terms "books, publications, or works of literature or art" in this Warrant used, shall, for the purposes of this Warrant, mean and comprise all such articles as in their general character are either literary, or consist of printed, written, engraved, or lithographed matter (although not strictly literary), including books (whether printed, written, or plain), publications or compilations (whether in print or in manuscript), almanacks, printed or lithographed letters, and such artistic productions as prints, maps (whether on paper, or canvas or cloth, and whether printed or written), and photographs, when not on glass or in frames containing glass, and any description of paper, parchment, or vellum (whether printed, lithographed, written upon, or plain, or any mixture of the four), together with any binding, mounting, or covering of or upon or belonging to any such article or production, or any portion thereof, or of or belonging to any paper, parchment, or vellum, and including also any cases or rollers of prints or maps, bookmarkers (whether of paper or otherwise), pencils, pens, or other thing usually appertaining to any such article or production, paper parchment, or vellum, or necessary for its safe transmission, which shall be sent in the same packet with any such article or production to which they or it shall belong, and all letters, notices, and other communications (whether upon paper, parchment, or vellum), partly printed or partly lithographed and partly written, which, if wholly written, would not be considered letters or communications in the nature of letters. Provided, nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall extend to authorize the sending by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, of any patterns or books of patterns, or papers of patterns, of any article or thing whatsoever, nor of any letter, notice, or other communication (whether upon paper, parchment, or vellum), partly printed, or partly lithographed and partly written, which if wholly written would be considered a letter, or communication in the nature of a letter, nor of any packet consisting of or containing any photographs, drawings, prints, or other contents which may be obviously of an obscene character, nor of any packet comprising prints or printed matter, unless such prints or printed matter shall consist only of prints or printed matter on paper, parchment, or vellum.

Every packet transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant shall be sent open at the ends or sides, and either without a cover, or in a cover or envelope, open at the ends or sides, and there shall be no written letter, either closed or open, nor any written communication in the nature of a letter, either closed or open (whether such letter or communication be addressed to or intended for the person to whom the packet shall be directed, or any other person), nor any enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, nor any other enclosure not authorized by this Warrant sent in or with any such packet, nor shall there be any writing, figures, or manual marks whatsoever, of any description upon any such packet, or on the cover or envelope thereof not authorized by this Warrant, except the name and address of the person to whom the same is sent, but the name or title of any newspaper, and the name and address of the publisher, newsvender, or agent by whom the same is sent may be printed on the cover thereof, and any other packet not being a newspaper, may have any matter or thing printed on the cover thereof.

9. Upon every packet transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant, the postage thereof shall be paid at the time of the same being posted, either in money or by being duly stamped with the proper postage stamp or stamps affixed thereto, which stamp or stamps shall in every case be affixed or appear on the outside of every such packet, near the address or direction, and shall be of the value or amount of the postage duty payable thereon under or by virtue of this Warrant, unless any such packet be sent from any department or office in or connected with the public service of Her Majesty, which shall keep a postage account with the General Post Office in London, in which case the same shall be forwarded post paid, and the postage thereof shall be charged in such postage account.

10. In order to prevent any obstacles to the due and regular transmission of letters by the post, any officer of the Post Office may delay the transmission of any packet posted or forwarded by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, either for the space of twenty-four hours after the time at which the same ought to be despatched in due course of the post, or (at his option) until the despatch of the mail next after that by which the same ought in due course of the post to be forwarded by him.

11. If any packet sent, or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be sent otherwise than in conformity with the several regulations, orders, directions and conditions hereinbefore in the 7th and 8th clauses of this Warrant contained, every such packet shall and may be detained and opened, and at the option of the Postmaster-General, be either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or be given up to the person to whom it shall be addressed, or be forwarded to the place of its destination, and every such packet, on being so returned, given up, or forwarded, shall, at the option of the Postmaster-General, be either free of postage, or be charged with any rate of postage he may think fit, not exceeding the postage to which it would have been liable as a letter, and such postage may be either paid by the sender, or be charged by the person to whom the packet shall be forwarded.

12. If any packet sent or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall contain any written letter or any written communication in the nature of a letter, whether closed or open, or any enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, or any other enclosure not authorized by this Warrant, every such letter, or communication, or enclosure may be taken out by any officer of the Post Office, and either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or forwarded to the address on the packet charged, in either case not only with the full rates of postage, as an unpaid letter, but also with a further and additional rate of postage, equal in amount to the single rate of postage chargeable under the provisions of this Warrant on a packet not exceeding four ounces in weight, and the remainder of the packet, if the postage be duly paid when posted, may be forwarded to the place of its address, without any extra charge.

13. If any packet sent, or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent by the post, under the 3rd and 4th clauses of this Warrant (any such packet sent from any department or office in, or connected with, the public service of Her Majesty, which shall keep a postage account with the General Post Office in London, and the postage thereof being charged in such account only excepted) shall be posted in the United Kingdom, having thereon or affixed thereto a stamp or stamps, the value of which shall be less in amount than the rate of postage to which such packet would be liable, under and by virtue of the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions hereinbefore contained, but equal in amount to the single rate of postage which would be chargeable under this Warrant; if such packet did not exceed four ounces in weight, every such last-mentioned packet shall be forwarded charged with the amount of the difference between the value of such stamp or stamps so being thereon or affixed thereto; and the postage to which such packet would be liable, as aforesaid, together with a further and additional rate of postage, equal in amount to the single rate of postage chargeable under this Warrant on a packet not exceeding four ounces in weight; but if any such packet shall be posted in the United Kingdom, having thereon or affixed thereto a postage stamp or stamps, the value of which shall be less in amount than the single rate of postage chargeable under this Warrant, or if any packet sent or tendered, or delivered, in order to be sent by the post under the provisions of this Warrant (any such packet sent from any department or office in, or connected with, the public service of Her Majesty, which shall keep a postage account with the General Post Office in London, and the postage thereof being charged in such account only excepted) shall be posted in the United Kingdom, without having thereon or affixed thereto any postage stamp; every such respective packet shall and may be detained and opened at any place in the United Kingdom, and, at the option of the Postmaster-General, shall be dealt with and chargeable in like manner as is hereinbefore directed, with respect to any packet not open at the ends or sides, or exceeding in length, or breadth, or width the dimensions of two feet.

14. If any packet, sent or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent by the post, under the 3rd and 4th clauses of this Warrant, shall be posted in the East Indies, Ceylon, Mauritius, Hong Kong, or the British West Indies, and the postage paid thereon at the time of the same being posted, shall be less in amount than the rate of postage to which such packet would be liable under and by virtue of the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions hereinbefore contained, but equal in amount to the single rate of postage which would be chargeable under this Warrant, if such packet did not exceed four ounces in weight, every such packet shall be forwarded, charged with the amount of the difference between the postage so paid thereon, and the postage to which such packet would be liable as aforesaid, together with a further and additional rate of postage, equal in amount to the single rate of postage chargeable under this Warrant, on a packet not exceeding four ounces in weight: but if any such packet shall be posted without any postage having been paid thereon, or with a postage paid thereon less in amount than the single rate of postage chargeable under this Warrant, every such last-mentioned packet shall and may be detained and opened, and, at the option of the Postmaster-General, shall be either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or be given up to the person to whom it shall be addressed, or be forwarded to the place of its destination. And every such last-mentioned packet on being so returned, given up, or forwarded, shall be chargeable with the like amount of postage to which it would have been liable as a letter if the postage had been paid when posted, and such postage may be either paid by the sender or may be charged to the person to whom such packet shall be forwarded.

15. The respective packets transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be subject to the several orders, directions, regulations, and rates of postage respectively contained in a certain Warrant of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, under the hands of two of the said Commissioners, bearing date the 19th day of February, 1855, relating to re-directed rates of postage upon letters and packets, which shall be redirected and again forwarded by the post.

16. The term "East Indies," used in this Warrant, shall be construed to mean every port or place in Her Majesty's dominions in Asia (China, Hong Kong, Cochin China, Ceylon, Mauritius, Java, Borneo, and Australia excepted); and the term "British West Indies," used in this Warrant, shall be construed to mean and include the following colonies and places and their respective dependencies, that is to say: Antigua, Bahamas, Barbadoes, Bermuda, Berbice, Carriacou, Demerara, Dominica, Grenada, Honduras, Jamaica, Montserrat, Nevis, St. Kitts, St. Lucia, St. Vincent, Tobago, Tortola, Trinidad, and Turks Islands, and the several other terms and expressions used in this Warrant, shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

17. In all cases in which any questions shall hereafter arise, whether any article, matter or thing, transmitted by the post under this Warrant is entitled to the book post privilege, and to be so transmitted within the intent and meaning of this Warrant, such question shall be referred to the determination of the Postmaster-General, whose decision thereupon shall be final.

18. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands or the hands of any two of them, at any time hereafter alter, repeal, or revoke any of the rates of postage hereby fixed or altered, or any of the orders, directions, regulations, and conditions hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates, orders, directions, regulations, and conditions in lieu thereof, and from time to time appoint at what time the rates, which may be payable, are to be paid.

19. This Warrant shall come into operation on the 1st day of August next.

Whitehall, Treasury Chambers, the twenty-fifth day of July, 1863.

HIGHWAY ACT.

Cornwall to Wit.

WHEREAS, at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Lady the Queen, held at Bodmin, in aid for the said county, on Tuesday, the 30th day of June last, a Provisional Order was made in the words following (that is to say):

"Whereas the Right Honourable Charles Crespigny Baron Vivian, the Honourable George Matthew Fortescue and Richard Foster, Nevil Norway and Robert Gould Lakes, Esquires, five Justices of the Peace for the county of Cornwall, did by writing under their hands, dated the 29th day of May, 1863, require the Clerk of the Peace for the said county to add to or send with the notice required by law to be given for holding this Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, a notice in the form marked A in the schedule to the Act 25 and 26 Victoria, c. 61, intituled "An Act for the better management of "Highways in England," or as near thereto as circumstances would admit, that at these Sessions a proposal would be made to the Justices then and there assembled, to divide the said county of Cornwall into Highway Districts for the purposes of the Highway Acts:

"And whereas the said Clerk of the Peace having complied with the said requisition, the said five Justices now make the said proposal to this Court, and the same having been entertained by the Justices here assembled,

"This Court doth order (subject to the same being confirmed at the next Quarter Sessions to be held for this county on the 20th day of October next) that the county of Cornwall shall be divided into seventeen Highway Districts hereinafter mentioned (that is to say):

- The Stratton District.
- The Camelford District.

tioned, or any part or parts thereof respectively, be comprehended in the terms of the restrictions imposed with respect to the formation of Highway Districts, by section 7 of the said Act, 25th and 26th Vic., c. 61, such parishes, townships, tithings, hamlets, and places, or any part or parts thereof respectively, shall not be included in the said Highway District, and this Order (so far only as regards the said parishes, townships, tithings, hamlets, and places, or part or parts thereof, comprehended in the terms of the said restrictions) shall be of no effect.

"And this Court doth further order, that the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace shall be appointed for taking into consideration the confirmation by a Final Order of the Provisional order hereby made."

Notice is therefore hereby given, that the confirmation of the said Provisional Order by a Final Order, will be taken into consideration by the Justices, at the Court of General Quarter Sessions for the said county, to be held at the County Hall, in the borough of Bodmin, on Tuesday, the 20th day of October next.

By the Court,

William Shilson, Deputy Clerk of the Peace.

Devon Midsummer Sessions, 1863.

WHEREAS on the 27th day of February last, five of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county of Devon did, by writing, under their hands, require the Clerk of the Peace for the said county to add to or send with the notice for holding the then next Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, a notice in the form marked A in the schedule to the Act 25 and 26 Victoria, c. 61, or as near thereto as circumstances would admit, that, at the said General Quarter Sessions, a proposal would be made to the Justices to constitute the parishes and places of Ashton, Ashcombe, Alphington, Broadclist, Brampford Speke, Christow, Clythydon, Clyst St. Lawrence, Dunchideock, Doddiscombsleigh, Exminster, Heavitree, Holcombe Burnell, Huxham, Ide, Kenn, Kenton, Mamhead, Magdalen Extra Parochial, Netherexe, Powderham, Pinhoe, Poltimore, Rewe, Shillingford, St. Leonard, Stoke Canon, Topsham, Upton Pyne, Upexe Tything, and Whitstone, a Highway District; and did also require the said Clerk of the Peace to send, by post, in a prepaid letter, notices, in the aforesaid form, to the Churchwardens and Overseers of every parish mentioned in the said notice.

And whereas, the Clerk of the Peace having complied with the said requisition, the said five Justices (two, at least, of whom were resident within the proposed Highway District) made the said proposal to the Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, held at the Castle of Exeter, on the 7th day of April, 1863, and the same was entertained by the Justices there assembled.

And whereas, at the said Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, in pursuance of the powers vested in it in and by the said Act, the said Court did by a Provisional Order, direct that the parishes and places undermentioned should be constituted a Highway District, and that the same shall be known by the name of the "Wonford Highway District."

And the said Court did by the said Provisional Order also order and direct that the number of Waywardens, which each parish shall elect, should be the number set against the name of each parish respectively, viz. :

Parish.	No. of Waywardens.
Ashton	1
Ashcombe	1

And whereas, by the said Provisional Order the said Court did further order that should any parish hereinbefore mentioned, separately maintaining its own poor, be divided into townships, tithings, hamlets, or places, each of which has hitherto separately maintained its own highways, the said townships, tithings, hamlets, or places shall be combined with the parish wherein the same are respectively situate, and that where the same are situate in more than one parish they shall be combined with the parish in which they shall have the largest boundary line, and no separate Waywardens shall be elected for the same, and that such parish shall be subject to the same liabilities in respect of all highways within it, which were before maintained by such townships, tithings, hamlets, and places separately, as if all their several liabilities had attached to the whole parish; and that a Waywarden or two Waywardens, if two Waywardens shall have been hereinbefore ordered, shall be elected for such parish as a whole.

And whereas by the said Provisional Order the said Court did further order, that, should any of the parishes or places hereinbefore mentioned, or any part or parts thereof be comprehended in the terms of the restrictions imposed with respect to the formation of Highway Districts, by section 7 of the said Act, 25 and 26 Victoria, c. 61, such parishes or places, or part or parts thereof, should not be included in the said Highway District, and the said Order so far only as regarded the said parishes or places, or part or parts thereof, should be of no effect.

And whereas by the said Provisional Order the said Court also ordered that the confirmation of the said Provisional Order by a Final Order should be taken into consideration by the Justices at the Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county of Devon, to be held at the Castle of Exeter, on the 30th day of June, 1863.

Now, therefore, at this Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, holden at the Castle of Exeter, on the 30th day of June, 1863, the Justices here assembled having considered the premises do, by this Final Order, confirm the said Provisional Order.

And this Court doth further order that the first meeting of the Highway Board for the said District shall be held at the Castle of Exeter on the 5th day after the first election of Waywardens in pursuance of the said Act, at twelve o'clock at noon.

Provided always, that in case such 5th day should fall on a Sunday, then the first meeting of the said Board shall be held on the Monday then next following, at twelve o'clock at noon.

By the Court,

H. Ford, Clerk of the Peace.

Devon Midsummer Sessions, 1863.

WHEREAS, on the 4th day of March last, five of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county of Devon did, by writing, under their hands, require the Clerk of the Peace for the said county to add to or send with the notice for holding the then next Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, a notice in the Form, marked A, in the schedule to the Act 25 and 26 Victoria, c. 61, or as near thereto as circumstances would admit that, at the said General Quarter Sessions, a proposal would be made to the Justices to constitute the parishes of Abbotsham, Alwington, Bulkworthy, Buckland Brewer, Clovelly, East Putford, Hartland, Landcross, Littleham, Monkleigh, Northam, Newton St. Petrock, Parkham, Wellcombe, Westleigh, and Woolfardisworthy, a Highway District; and did also require the said Clerk of the Peace to send, by post, in a prepaid letter, notices in the aforesaid form, to the Churchwardens and Overseers of every parish mentioned in the said notice.

And whereas the Clerk of the Peace having complied with the said requisition, the said five Justices (two at least of whom were resident within the proposed Highway District) made the said proposal to the Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, held at the Castle of Exeter, on the 7th day of April, 1863, and the same was entertained by the Justices there assembled.

And Whereas, at the said Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, in pursuance of the powers vested in it in and by the said Act, the said Court did by a Provisional Order, direct that the parishes and places undermentioned should be constituted a Highway District, and that the same should be known by the name of the "Bideford Highway District."

And the said Court did by the said Provisional Order also order and direct that the number of Waywardens which each parish should elect, should be the number set against the name of each parish respectively, viz. :

Parish.	No. of Waywardens.
Abbotsham	1
Alwington	1

And whereas, by the said Provisional Order the said Court did further order that, should any parish hereinbefore mentioned, separately maintaining its own poor, be divided into townships, tithings, hamlets, or places, each of which has hitherto separately maintained its own highways, the said townships, tithings, hamlets, or places shall be combined with the parish wherein the same are respectively situate, and that where the same are situate in more than one parish they shall be combined with the parish in which they shall have the largest boundary line, and no separate Waywardens shall be elected for the same, and that such parish shall be subject to the same liabilities in respect of all highways within it, which were before maintained by such townships, tithings, hamlets, and places separately, as if all their several liabilities had attached to the whole parish, and that a Waywarden or two Waywardens, if two Waywardens shall have been hereinbefore ordered, shall be elected for such parish as a whole.

And whereas by the said Provisional Order the said Court did further order, that, should any of the parishes or places hereinbefore-mentioned, or any part or parts thereof, be comprehended in the terms of the restrictions imposed with respect to the formation of Highway Districts, by section 7, of the said Act, 25 and 26 Victoria, c. 61, such parishes or places, or part or parts thereof, should not be included in the said Highway District, and the said Order, so far only as regarded the said parishes or places, or part or parts thereof, should be of no effect.

And whereas by the said Provisional Order the said Court also ordered that the confirmation of the said Provisional Order by a Final Order should be taken into consideration by the Justices at the Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county of Devon, to be held at the Castle of Exeter, on the 30th day of June, 1863.

Now, therefore, at this Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, holden at the Castle of Exeter, on the 30th day of June, 1863, the Justices here assembled having considered the premises do by this Final Order confirm the said Provisional Order.

And this Court doth further order that the first meeting of the Highway Board for the said district shall be held at Bideford on the 5th day after the first election of Waywardens in pursuance of the said Act, at twelve o'clock at noon.

Provided always, that in case such fifth day should fall on a Sunday, then the first meeting of the said Board shall be held on the Monday then next following, at twelve o'clock at noon.

By the Court,

H. Ford, Clerk of the Peace.

Devon Midsummer Sessions, 1863.

WHEREAS, on the 12th day of March last, five of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county of Devon did, by writing, under their hands, require the Clerk of the Peace for the said county to add to or send with the notice for holding the then next Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, a notice in the form marked A, in the schedule to the Act 25 and 26 Victoria, c. 61, or as near thereto as circumstances would admit, that, at the said General Quarter Sessions, a proposal would be made to the Justices to constitute the parishes of Aylesbeare, including the Tything of Newton Poppleford, Dotton, Salcombe Regis, Talaton, Whimble, including the Tything of Strete Raleigh, Harpford, Sidbury, Ven Ottery, Rockbeare, Sidmouth, and so much of the parish of Ottery St. Mary, as is not within the district of the Ottery St. Mary Local Board of Health, a Highway District; and did also require the said Clerk of the Peace to send, by post, in a prepaid letter, notices in the aforesaid form, to the Churchwardens and Overseers of every parish mentioned in the said notice.

And whereas the Clerk of the Peace having complied with the said requisition, the said five Justices (two at least of whom are resident within the proposed Highway District) made the said proposal to the Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, held at the Castle of Exeter, on the 7th day of April, 1863, and the same was entertained by the Justices there assembled.

And whereas at the said Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, in pursuance of the powers vested in it in and by the said Act, the said Court did by a Provisional Order, direct that the parishes and places under-mentioned should be constituted a Highway District, and that the same should be known by the name of the "Ottery Highway District."

And the said Court did by the said Provisional Order also order and direct that the number of Waywardens, which each parish should elect, should be the number set against the name of each parish respectively, viz.:

Parish.	No. of Waywardens.
Aylesbeare, including Newton Poppleford Tything	1
Dotton	1
Salcombe Regis	1
Talaton	1
Whimble, including Strete Raleigh Tything	1
Harpford	1
Sidbury	1
Ven Ottery	1
Rockbeare	1
Ottery St. Mary (so much as is not within the District of the Local Board of Health)	2

And whereas, by the said Provisional Order the said Court did further order, that should any parish hereinbefore mentioned, separately maintaining its own poor, be divided into townships, tithings, hamlets, or places, each of which has hitherto separately maintained its own highways, the said townships, tithings, hamlets, or places, shall be combined with the parish wherein the same are respectively situate, and that where the same are situate in more than one parish, they shall be combined with the parish in which they shall have the largest boundary line, and no separate Waywardens shall be elected for the same, and that such parish shall be subject to the same liabilities in respect of all highways within it, which were before maintained by such townships, tithings, hamlets, and places separately, as if all their several liabilities had attached to the whole parish, and that a Waywarden or two Waywardens, if two Waywardens shall have been hereinbefore ordered, shall be elected for such parish as a whole.

And whereas by the said Provisional Order the said Court did further order, that should any of the parishes or places hereinbefore mentioned, or any part or parts thereof be comprehended in the terms of the restrictions imposed with respect to the formation of Highway Districts, by section 7 of the said Act, 25 and 26 Victoria, c. 61, such parishes or places, or part or parts thereof, should not be included in the said Highway District, and the said Order so far only as regarded the said parishes or places, or part or parts thereof, should be of no effect.

And whereas by the said Provisional Order the said Court also ordered that the confirmation of the said Provisional Order by a Final Order should be taken into consideration by the Justices at the Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county of Devon, to be held at the Castle of Exeter, on the 30th day of June, 1863.

Now, therefore, at this Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, holden at the Castle of Exeter, on the 30th day of June, 1863, the Justices here assembled having considered the premises do by this Final Order confirm the said Provisional Order.

And this Court doth further order that the first meeting of the Highway Board for the said District shall be held at Ottery St. Mary on the fifth day after the first election of Waywardens in pursuance of the said Act, at twelve o'clock at noon.

Provided always that in case such fifth day should fall on a Sunday, then the first meeting of the said Board shall be held on the Monday then next following, at twelve o'clock at noon.

By the Court,
H. Ford, Clerk of the Peace.

Devon Midsummer Sessions, 1863.

WHEREAS, on the 14th day of March last, seven of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county of Devon did, by writing under their hands, require the Clerk of the Peace for the said county to add to or send with the Notice for holding the then next Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, a notice in the form marked A in the schedule to the Act 25 and 26 Victoria, c. 61, or as near thereto as circumstances would admit, that at the said General Quarter Sessions, a proposal would be made to the Justices to constitute the parishes of Cullompton, Clayhidon, Holcombe Rogus, Hemyock, Burlescombe, Culmstock, Payhembury, Broadhembury, Silverton, Sampford Peverell, Uffculme, Plymtree, Butterleigh, Kentisbearé, Blackborough, and Willand, a Highway District; and did also require the said Clerk of the Peace to send, by post, in a prepaid letter, notices, in the aforesaid form, to the Churchwardens and Overseers of every parish mentioned in the said notice.

And whereas, the Clerk of the Peace having complied with the said requisition, the said seven Justices (two at least of whom were resident within the proposed Highway District) made the said proposal to the Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, held at the Castle of Exeter, on the 7th day of April, 1863, and the same was entertained by the Justices there assembled.

And whereas, at the said Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, in pursuance of the powers vested in it in and by the said Act, the said Court did by a Provisional Order, direct that the parishes and places under-mentioned should be constituted a Highway District, and that the same should be known by the name of the "Cullompton Highway District."

And the said Court did by the said Provisional Order also order and direct that the number of Waywardens which each parish should elect, should be the number set against the name of each parish respectively, viz. :—

Parish.	No. of Waywardens.
Cullompton	2
Clayhidon	1
Holcombe Rogus	1
Hemyock	2
Burlescombe	1
Culmstock	1
Payhembury	1
Broadhembury... ..	1
Silverton	1
Sampford Peverell	1
Uffculme	2
Plymtree	1
Butterleigh	1
Kentisbearé	1
Blackborough	1

And whereas, by the said Provisional Order the said Court did further order, that should any parish hereinbefore mentioned, separately maintaining its own poor, be divided into townships, tithings, hamlets, or places, each of which has hitherto separately maintained its own highways, the said townships, tithings, hamlets, or places shall be combined with the parish wherein the same are respectively situate, and that where the same are situate in more than one parish they shall be combined with the parish in which they shall have the largest boundary line and no separate Waywardens shall be elected for the same, and that such parish shall be subject to the same liabilities in respect of all highways within it, which were before maintained by such townships, tithings, hamlets, and places, separately, as if all their several liabilities had attached to the whole parish, and that a Waywarden or two Waywardens, if two Waywardens shall have been hereinbefore ordered, shall be elected for such parish as a whole.

And whereas, by the said Provisional Order the said Court did further order, that, should any of the parishes or places hereinbefore mentioned, or any part or parts thereof be comprehended in the terms of the restrictions imposed with respect to the formation of Highway Districts, by section 7 of the said Act, 25 and 26 Victoria, c. 61, such parishes or places, or part or parts thereof, should not be included in the said Highway District, and the said Order so far only as regarded the said parishes or places, or part or parts thereof, should be of no effect.

And whereas, by the said Provisional Order the said Court also ordered that the confirmation of the said Provisional Order by a Final Order should be taken into consideration by the Justices at the Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county of Devon, to be held at the Castle of Exeter, on the 30th day of June, 1863.

Now, therefore, at this Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, holden at the Castle of Exeter, on the 30th day of June, 1863, the Justices here assembled having considered the premises do by this Final Order confirm the said Provisional Order.

And this Court doth further order that the first meeting of the Highway Board for the said district shall be held at Cullompton on the fifth day after the first election of Waywardens in pursuance of the said Act, at twelve o'clock at noon.

Provided always, that in case such fifth day should fall on a Sunday, then the first meeting of the said Board shall be held on the Monday then next following, at twelve o'clock at noon.

By the Court,

H. Ford, Clerk of the Peace.

Devon Midsummer Sessions, 1863.

WHEREAS, on the 31st day of January last, five of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county of Devon did, by writing, under their hands, require the Clerk of the Peace for the said county to add to or send with the notice for holding the then next Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, a notice in the form marked A, in the schedule to the Act 25 and 26 Victoria, c. 61, or as near thereto as circumstances would admit, that at the said General Quarter Sessions, a proposal would be made to the Justices to constitute the parishes of Alverdiscott, Huntshaw, Roborough, St. Giles in the Wood, Beaford, Buckland Filleigh, Frithelstock, Huish, Langtree, Little Torrington, Merton, Peters Marland, Petrockstow, Shebbear, Wear Gifford, Yarnscombe, Dolton, Dowland, and High Bickington, a Highway District; and did also require the said Clerk of the Peace to send, by post, in a prepaid letter, notices, in the aforesaid form, to the Churchwardens and Overseers of every parish mentioned in the said notice.

And whereas, the Clerk of the Peace having complied with the said requisition, the said five Justices (two, at least, of whom are resident within the proposed Highway District) made the said proposal to the Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, held at the Castle of Exeter, on the 7th day of April, 1863, and the same was entertained by the Justices there assembled.

And whereas at the said Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, in pursuance of the powers vested in it, and by the said Act, the said Court did, by a Provisional Order, direct that the parishes and places undermentioned should be constituted a Highway District, and that the same should be known by the name of "The Great Torrington Highway District."

And the said Court did, by the said Provisional Order, also order and direct that the number of Waywardens, which each parish should elect, should be the number set against the name of each parish respectively, viz. :—

Parish.	No. of Waywardens.
Alverdiscott	1

Little Torrington	1
Merton	1
Peters Marland	1
Petrockstow	1
Shebbear	1
Wear Gifford	1
Yarnscombe	1
Dolton	1
Dowland	1
High Bickington	1

And whereas by the said Provisional Order, the said Court did further order, that should any parish hereinbefore mentioned, separately maintaining its own poor, be divided into townships, tithings, hamlets, or places, each of which has hitherto separately maintained its own highways, the said townships, tithings, hamlets, or places, shall be combined with the parish wherein the same are respectively situate, and that where the same are situate in more than one parish they shall be combined with the parish in which they shall have the largest boundary line and no separate Waywardens shall be elected for the same, and that such parish shall be subject to the same liabilities in respect of all highways within it, which were before maintained by such townships, tithings, hamlets, and places separately, as if all their several liabilities had attached to the whole parish, and that a Waywarden or two Waywardens, if two Waywardens shall have been hereinbefore ordered, shall be elected for such parish as a whole.

And whereas by the said Provisional Order the said Court did further order, that should any of the parishes or places hereinbefore mentioned, or any part or parts thereof be comprehended in the terms of the restrictions imposed with respect to the formation of Highway Districts, by section 7 of the said Act, 25 and 26 Victoria, c. 61, such parishes or places, or part or parts thereof, should not be included in the said Highway District, and the said Order so far only as regarded the said parishes or places, or part or parts thereof, should be of no effect.

And whereas by the said Provisional Order the said Court also ordered, that the confirmation of the said Provisional Order by a Final Order should be taken into consideration by the Justices at the Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county of Devon, to be held at the Castle of Exeter, on the 30th day of June, 1863.

Now, therefore, at this Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, holden at the Castle of Exeter, on the 30th day of June, 1863, the Justices here assembled, having considered the premises, do by this Final Order confirm the said Provisional Order.

And this Court doth further order that the first meeting of the Highway Board for the said District, shall be held at Great Torrington, on the fifth day after the first election of Waywardens, in pursuance of the said Act, at twelve o'clock at noon.

Provided always, that in case such fifth day should fall on a Sunday, then the first meeting of the said Board shall be held on the Monday then next following, at twelve o'clock at noon.

By the Court,

H. Ford, Clerk of the Peace.

Devon Midsummer Sessions, 1863.

WHEREAS, on the 29th day of January last, five of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county of Devon, did, by writing, under their hands, require the Clerk of the Peace for the said county to add to or send with the notice for holding the then next Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, a notice in the form marked A, in the Schedule to the Act 25 and 26 Victoria, c. 61, or as near thereto as circumstances would admit, that, at the said General Quarter Sessions, a proposal would be made to the Justices to constitute the parishes of Bridestowe, Bradstone, Bratton Clovelly, Broadwoodwidge, Coryton, Dunterton, Germansweek, Lewtrenchard, Lifton, Kelly, Maristowe, North Petherwin, St. Giles-in-the-Heath, Sourton, Stowford, Thrushelton, Virginstowe, and Werrington (except such parts of any of the said parishes whereof the highways are maintained under the provisions of any local Act of Parliament), a Highway District; and did also require the said Clerk of the Peace to send, by post, in a prepaid letter, notices in the aforesaid form, to the Churchwardens and Overseers of every parish mentioned in the said notice.

And, whereas, the Clerk of the Peace having complied with the said requisition, the said five Justices (two, at least, of whom were resident within the proposed Highway District), made the said proposal to the Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, held at the Castle of Exeter, on the 7th day of April, 1863, and the same was entertained by the Justices there assembled.

And whereas, at the said Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, in pursuance of the powers vested in it in and by the said Act, the said Court did, by a Provisional Order, direct that the parishes and places under-mentioned should be constituted a Highway District, and that the same should be known by the name of the "Lifton Highway District."

And the said Court did by the said Provisional Order also order and direct that the number of Waywardens, which each parish should elect, should be the number set against the name of each parish respectively, viz.:

Parish.	No. of Waywardens.
Bridestowe	1

Werrington	1

And whereas, by the said Provisional Order the said Court did further order that should any parish hereinbefore mentioned, separately maintaining its own poor, be divided into townships, tithings, hamlets, or places, each of which has hitherto separately maintained its own highways, the said townships, tithings, hamlets, or places, shall be combined with the parish wherein the same are respectively situate, and that where the same are situate in more than one parish they shall be combined with the parish in which they shall have the largest boundary line, and no separate Waywardens shall be elected for the same, and that such parish shall be subject to the same liabilities in respect of all highways within it which were before maintained by such townships, tithings, hamlets, and places separately, as if all their several liabilities had attached to the whole parish, and that a Waywarden or two Waywardens, if two Waywardens shall have been hereinbefore ordered, shall be elected for such parish as a whole.

And whereas, by the said Provisional Order the said Court did further order, that should any of the parishes or places hereinbefore mentioned, or any part or parts thereof, be comprehended in the terms of the restrictions imposed with respect to the formation of Highway Districts, by section 7 of the said Act, 25 and 26 Victoria, c. 61, such parishes or places, or part or parts thereof, shall not be included in the said Highway District, and the said Order so far only as regarded the said parishes or places, or part or parts thereof, should be of no effect.

And whereas, by the said Provisional Order the said Court also ordered that the confirmation of the said Provisional Order by a Final Order should be taken into consideration by the Justices at the Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county of Devon, to be held at the Castle of Exeter, on the 30th day of June, 1863.

Now, therefore, at this Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, holden at the Castle of Exeter, on the 30th day of June, 1863, the Justices here assembled having considered the premises do by this Final Order confirm the said Provisional Order.

And this Court doth further order that the first meeting of the Highway Board for the said district shall be held at Lifton on the fifth day after the first election of Waywardens in pursuance of the said Act, at twelve o'clock at noon.

Provided always, that in case such fifth day should fall on a Sunday, then the first meeting of the said Board shall be held on the Monday then next following, at twelve o'clock at noon.

By the Court,
H. Ford, Clerk of the Peace.

Devon Midsummer Sessions, 1863.

WHEREAS, on the 14th day of March last, seven of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county of Devon did, by writing, under their hands, require the Clerk of the Peace for the said county to add to or send with the notice for holding the then next Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, a notice in the form marked A, in the schedule to the Act 25 and 26 Victoria, c. 61, or as near thereto, as circumstances would admit, that, at the said General Quarter Sessions, a proposal would be made to the Justices to constitute the parishes of Morebath, Oakford, Highley St. Mary, Hockworthy, Thorverton, Clayhanger, Bampton, Huntsham, Cadbury, Stoodleigh, Cruwys Morchard, Templeton, Cadleigh, Uplowman, Bickleigh, Halberton, Loxbeer, Washfield, and Calverleigh, a Highway District; and did also require the said Clerk of the Peace to send, by post, in a prepaid letter, notices, in the aforesaid form, to the Churchwardens and Overseers of every parish mentioned in the said notice.

And whereas, the Clerk of the Peace having complied with the said requisition, the said seven Justices (two, at least, of whom were resident within the proposed Highway District) made the said proposal to the Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, held at the Castle of Exeter, on the 7th day of April, 1863, and the same was entertained by the Justices there assembled.

And whereas, at the said Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, in pursuance of the powers vested in it in and by the said Act, the said Court did by a Provisional Order, direct that the parishes and places under-mentioned should be constituted a Highway District, and that the same should be known by the name of the "Tiverton Highway District."

And the said Court did by the said Provisional Order also order and direct that the number of Waywardens which each parish should elect, should be the number set against the name of each parish respectively, viz. :

Parish.	No. of Waywardens
Morebath	1
Oakford	1
