

and Thomas Potter Burbury, of Stourbridge, is the Solicitor acting in the bankruptcy.

The first meeting of creditors has been duly held in each of the said bankruptcies, and at the several public sittings above-mentioned, Proofs of Debts of creditors who have not proved will be received, and the said several bankrupts will be respectively required to surrender themselves to the said Court, and to submit themselves to be examined, and to make a full disclosure and discovery of all their estate and effects, and to finish their examinations.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1861.

Notice of Dividend Meetings.

Meetings of the Creditors of the Bankrupts hereinafter named will be held, pursuant to the 174th section of the said Act, at the times and places hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:

At the Court of Bankruptcy, Basinghall-street, in the city of London, before James Rigg Brougham, Esq., Registrar:

William Henry Jones, of No. 214, Piccadilly, in the county of Middlesex, House Decorator and Upholsterer, trading in partnership with Edwin Richard Bremridge, under the style or firm of W. H. Jones and Co., adjudicated bankrupt the 12th day of June, 1863, and Edwin Richard Bremridge, of No. 214, Piccadilly, in the county of Middlesex, Upholsterer, trading in copartnership with William Henry Jones, under the style or firm of Jones and Co., and of Avenue House, Horton Kirby, in the county of Kent, adjudicated bankrupt the 22nd day of June, 1863, which adjudications, and the proceedings thereunder have since been amalgamated. Dividend Meetings of the joint estate and separate estate of William Henry Jones will be held the 2nd day of September next, at one o'clock in the afternoon precisely.

At the County Court of Kent, holden at Tonbridge, before Mr. Sydney Alleyne, Esq., Registrar:

Moses Brooks, of Edenbridge, in the county of Kent, Miller, adjudicated bankrupt the 24th day of March, 1863. A Dividend Meeting will be held the 3rd day of September next, at eleven o'clock in the fore-noon precisely.

At the said Meetings the Assignees will, in pursuance of the 174th section of the said Act, submit statements of the Bankrupts' estates recovered and outstanding, and of all receipts and of all payments made or to be made thereout; and the creditors at the said respective meetings will, in pursuance of the said section, declare whether any and what Dividend shall be made, and whether any and what allowance shall be paid to the said Bankrupts respectively. Proofs of Debts will be received, and Creditors, who have not proved, or do not then prove, will be excluded the benefit of the Dividend. And all claims not proved will be disallowed.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a meeting of the creditors of James Coleman and Frederic Pope, of the town and county of the town of Kingston-upon-Hull, Coal Merchants, and late Copartners in Trade, and recently carrying on business there in copartnership together under the style or firm of Coleman and Pope, who were adjudicated bankrupts on the 13th of March, 1862, will be held before Henry Sedgwick Wilde, Esq., one of the Registrars of the Court, at the Court of Bankruptcy for the Leeds District, at the Townhall, Kingston-upon-Hull, on the 2nd of September next, at twelve of the clock at noon precisely, when the creditors' assignee will submit a statement of the whole of the separate estate of James Coleman, one of the bankrupts, as then ascertained, of the property received, and of the property outstanding, specifying the cause of its being so outstanding, and of all the receipts and all the payments thereout made; and any creditor who has proved, may attend and examine such statement and compare the receipts with the payments; and the meeting will declare by resolution whether any and what part of the said produce of the estate (after making a reasonable deduction for future contingencies) shall be divided amongst the creditors; and at the same time the majority in value of the creditors will determine whether any and what allowance shall be made to the bankrupt out of the estate; and creditors who have not already proved their debts are to come prepared to prove the same, or they will be excluded the benefit of the said dividend; and all claims not then proved will be disallowed.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a meeting of the creditors of James Coleman and Frederic Pope, of the town and county of the town of Kingston-upon-Hull, Coal Merchants and late Copartners in Trade, and recently carrying on business there in copartnership together under the style or firm of Coleman and Pope, who were adjudicated bankrupts on the 13th day of March, 1862, will be held before Henry Sedgwick Wilde, Esq., one of the Registrars of the Court, at the Court of Bankruptcy for the Leeds District, at the Townhall, Kingston-upon-Hull, on the 2nd day of September next, at twelve of the clock at noon precisely, when the Creditors' Assignee will submit a statement of the whole estates of the bankrupts, as then ascertained, of the property received, and of the property outstanding, specifying the cause of its being so outstanding, and of all the receipts and all the payments thereout made; and any creditor who has proved may attend and examine such statement, and compare the receipts with the payments, and the meeting will declare, by resolution, whether any and what part of the said produce of the estate (after making a reasonable deduction for future contingencies) shall be divided amongst the creditors; and at the same time the majority in value of the creditors will determine whether any and what allowance shall be made to the bankrupts out of the estate; and creditors who have not already proved their debts are to come prepared to prove the same, or they will be excluded the benefit of the said dividend; and all claims not then proved will be disallowed.

GEORGE HARRIS, Esq., one of Her Majesty's Registrars authorized to act in the prosecution of a Petition for adjudication of Bankruptcy, filed on the 13th day of June, 1863, by Job Edward Gedhill, of Rochdale, in the county of Lancaster, Plumber, Glazier, and Gasfitter, will sit on the 11th day of September next, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely, at Her Majesty's Court of Bankruptcy, in Manchester, in order to make a Dividend of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt; when and where the creditors who have not already proved their debts are to come prepared to prove the same, or they will be excluded the benefit of the said Dividend. And all claims not then proved will be disallowed.

GEORGE HARRIS, Esquire, one of Her Majesty's Registrars, authorized to act in the prosecution of a Petition for adjudication of Bankruptcy, filed on the 23rd day of March, 1863, against Richard Rostron, of Rose Bank, in the parish of Hury, in the county of Lancaster, and Michael Marshall Rooker, of No. 101, Grove-terrace, Bury New-road, in the city of Manchester, in the said county, lately carrying on business as Merchants in the said city, in copartnership together with Thomas Dutton, under the style or firm of Richard Rostron and Co. Also authorized to act in the prosecution of a Petition for adjudication of Bankruptcy, filed on the 20th day of June, 1863, against Thomas Dutton, of Mount Broughton, in the borough of Salford, in the county of Lancaster, lately carrying on business as a Merchant, in copartnership with Richard Rostron and Michael Marshall Rooker, under the style or firm of Richard Rostron and Co., the separate proceedings under the last-mentioned Petition against the said Thomas Dutton, having by order of the said Court been stayed, and such last-mentioned Petition annexed to, and ordered to form part of the said first-mentioned Petition against the said Richard Rostron and Michael Marshall Rooker, will sit on the 24th day of September next, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely, at Her Majesty's Court of Bankruptcy, in Manchester, in order to make a dividend of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, when and where the creditors who have not already proved their debts, are to come prepared to prove the same, or they will be excluded the benefit of the said dividend and all claims not then proved will be disallowed.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a meeting of the creditors of John Postlethwaite, of Canal Foot, in the parish of Ulverston, in the county of Lancaster, Hooper and Woodmonger, Dealer and Chapman, who was adjudicated bankrupt on the 29th day of November, 1861, will be held before Mr. John Pearson Postlethwaite, Registrar of the County Court of Lancashire, holden at Ulverston, at the Registrar's Office, Ulverston, on the 17th of September next, at twelve at noon precisely, when the creditors' assignee will submit a statement of the whole estate of the bankrupt, as then ascertained, of the property received, and of the property outstanding, specifying the cause of its being so outstanding, and of all the receipts and all the payments
