NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 37.)—BALTIC—GULF OF FINLAND.

Fixed Light at Kronstat.

THE Imperial Ministry of Marine at St. Petersburg has given notice, that on and after the 13th day of July, 1863, a light would be exhibited from the lighthouse recently built on the south bastion of the military port of Kronstat, Gulf of Finland; and that the old light hitherto shown from the south bastion would be discontinued.

The light is a fixed white, elevated 38 feet above the level of high water, and visible over the horizon of the Great and Little Roads, or between the bearings from N.N.W. $\frac{3}{4}$ W., round by west and south, to N.E. by E. $\frac{1}{4}$ E. from the lighthouse.

The illuminating apparatus is dioptric, or by lenses of the sixth order. The position of the lighthouse is given as lat. $59^{\circ} 58' 14''$ N., long. $29^{\circ} 48' 30''$ East of Greenwich. Near the lighthouse is a bell, which in foggy weather is rung at short intervals four times in the hour.

NORTH SEA—COAST OF HOLLAND.

The Minister of Marine at the Hague has given notice, that, with a view of avoiding the shoals called the Eijerlandsche Gronden, a new revolving light will be shown in the winter of 1864-65 on the downs north of the island of Texel.

Also, that the following lights will be changed:—The revolving light in Ter Schelling lighthouse to be a fixed red light. That in the lighthouse on Vlieland island will remain as a light of the entrance, red towards the west horizon, from the first buoy of the entrance of the Storte-melk; it will be obscured from this point and will reappear of a white colour, facing and to the east of the channel called Noord-Ostgat.

[All bearings are magnetic. Variation at Kronstat $4^{\circ} 30'$ West in 1863.]

By command of their Lordships:

John Washington, Hydrographer.

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
19th August, 1863.

This Notice will affect the following Admiralty Charts:—Baltic, No. 2262; Kronstat, No. 2215; St. Petersburg, No. 2270; and North Sea, Sheet 3, No. 2248. Also, Baltic Lights List, No. 263; North Sea Lights List, 38, 39; and North Sea Pilot, Part 4, page 153.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 38.)—MEDITERRANEAN.

Fixed Lights on South Coast of France.

THE Minister of Public Works in France has given notice, that on and after the 1st day of July, 1863, the following lights would be exhibited from the light-towers recently erected on the South Coast of France, Mediterranean.

A fixed white light from a light-tower on the east extreme of Ile Château d'If, at the south entrance of Marseille roadstead. The illuminating apparatus is dioptric or by lenses, of the fourth order. The light is elevated 69 feet above the level of high water springs, and is visible in clear weather at 9 miles. The light-tower, 31 feet high, is in lat. $43^{\circ} 16' 48''$ N., long. $5^{\circ} 19' 50''$ East of Greenwich.

A fixed white light from a light-tower on the summit of Ile Grand Rouveau, on the south side of entrance of the Baie de St. Nazaire. The illuminating apparatus is dioptric or by lenses, of the third order. The light is elevated 151 feet, and is visible at 14 miles. The light-tower, 49 feet high, is in lat. $43^{\circ} 4' 45''$ N., long. $5^{\circ} 46' 13''$ E.

A fixed red light from an iron column, 20 feet high, on the battery on Pointe Blanche, on the north side of entrance to the Rade d'Hyères. The illuminating apparatus is dioptric or by lenses, of the fourth order. The light is elevated 171 feet, and visible at 5 miles. The lighthouse is in lat. $43^{\circ} 5' 16''$ N., long. $6^{\circ} 21' 57''$ E.

By command of their Lordships,

John Washington, Hydrographer.

This Notice will affect the following Admiralty Charts:—Mediterranean Sea, Nos. 2158, 2718 a; Port of Marseille, No. 150; France, South Coast, Sheets 4, 5, and 6, Nos. 2606, 2607, 2608.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 39.)—AMERICA.—ENTRANCE TO CHESAPEAKE BAY.

Lighthouse on Smith Island.

THE United States Lighthouse Board has given notice, that the lighthouse on Smith island, near Cape Charles, the north point of the entrance of Chesapeake bay, has been so much injured by lawless and malicious persons as to prevent the exhibition of the light. It is also feared that other lights in that vicinity may not for the present be relied on.

Due notice will be given of the restoration of these lights.

ENTRANCE TO PORTSMOUTH HARBOUR.

Fog Signal at Whales Back Lighthouse.

Also, that a fog bell, acted on by machinery, has been established at Whales Back lighthouse station, at the entrance of Portsmouth harbour, New Hampshire; and would be kept in operation from and after the 1st day of August, 1863. The bell tower is a frame structure, 25 feet high, whitewashed, standing upon the lighthouse pier, and attached to the southern side of the light tower.

The signal is a steel bell, which is struck four times in a minute, at regular intervals, during fogs, snow storms, and thick weather, and should be heard a distance of one-quarter to 4 miles, according to circumstances of surf, weather, wind, &c.

The bell is at an elevation of 55 feet above mean low water.

By command of their Lordships,
John Washington, Hydrographer.

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
24th August, 1863.

This notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—North America, East Coast, No. 26; Chesapeake Bay, No. 355a and No. 2483a; and Plan of Portsmouth Harbour, No. 2487. Also, sailing directions for the principal ports on the East Coast of North America, pp. 4, 51; and United States Lights List, pp. 42 and 190.

CONTRACTS FOR VINEGAR, WINE, COCOA, AND PEPPER.

Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Somerset - House, September 3, 1863.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday, the 17th instant, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Vic-tualling Stores at Deptford, the undermentioned articles; viz.:

Vinegar, 15,000 gallons; half to be delivered in one calendar month, and the remainder in one calendar month afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Wine (Sherry, good sound) 500 gallons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Cocoa, 150 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Pepper (Whole Black), 5 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the articles.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

The wine, cocoa, and pepper to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where they are lying.

Samples of the vinegar (not less than a quart), which the parties tendering may propose to supply, must accompany their tenders, as the delivery will be required to be made in accordance with the samples which may be accepted, and the vinegar tendered to be No. 20, trade denomination.

The vinegar to be delivered in good, sound, strong, and substantial casks, which are to be retained as long as required by the said Commissioners or their officers without payment therefor, but are to be taken back from the said Victualling Stores (when emptied) by and at the expense of the contractor.

Samples of the wine (in pints) from each cask, must be produced by the parties tendering, and not samples only for each Import mark.

Each tender for cocoa must specify the Mark and Landing Number of each package, the ship in which imported, and the country or place of its growth or produce, and an average sample (not less than two pounds for each Import Mark), must be produced by the parties tendering, and not an average of different Marks or several Imports, and any parcel that is found not to be of the same Mark or average quality as the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the Officers.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contracts have been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office, or to the Officer conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

Particular attention is called to the conditions of the contracts, which may be seen at the said office, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and to his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for" and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.

HENRY FENTON JADIS, Comptroller of Corn Returns.

CONTRACTS FOR RUM, SOAP, SPLIT PEAS, OATS, AND WHEAT.

Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Somerset - House, September 3, 1863.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday, the 15th instant, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the undermentioned articles; viz.:

Rum, 50,000 gallons; to be delivered in three weeks from the date of contract.

Soap, 200 tons; half to be delivered in one calendar month, and the remainder in one calendar month afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Split Peas, 300 quarters; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Oats, 300 quarters; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Wheat, 3,000 quarters; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the articles.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

The rum to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where it is lying.

Payment for the rum will be made for the proof gallons to one-tenth of a gallon, the liquid contents being ascertained to the half gallon.

Samples of the rum to be sent in pints for each Import Mark, and the average strength of each Mark Ex to be stated, and not an average of different marks or strengths of several imports; and any parcel of rum that is found not to be of the same quality, mark, or average strength of the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the officers.

Samples of the soap (not less than a bar), and of the outs, split peas, and wheat (not less than two quarts of each), must be produced by the parties tendering.

A proportional part of the price per bushel of wheat will be paid for any weight exceeding 60 lbs. per bushel.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contracts have been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose and which may be obtained on application at the said office, or to the Officer conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

Particular attention is called to the conditions of the contracts, which may be seen at the said office, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and to his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for _____," and must also be delivered at Somerset-house.

CONTRACT FOR SALT PORK.

Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Somerset-House, August 26, 1863.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday, the 29th September next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at the undermentioned Ports, the following quantities of all of the cure of the present season, viz. :—

SALT PORK,

NAVY PORK.

| | Tierces. | Barrels. |
|-------------------|----------|-----------|
| Deptford | 2,400 | ... 2,400 |
| Haulbowline | 2,400 | ... 2,400 |

The Pork to be delivered into the respective Stores as follows; viz. : one-third of each quantity for each place by the 30th day of January, 1864; another third thereof by the 10th day of March, 1864; and the remainder thereof by the 30th day of April, 1864; or any greater portion, or the whole, at any earlier period, if preferred by the party tendering, and to be paid for by bills at three days after date, which will be sent to parties as usual.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any; and also an unlimited power of selection.

Every tender must specify the name of the person by whom the meat is intended to be cured, the brand of the meat, and the place of cure.

Tenders for pork, of the cure of the United States of America, will not be admitted.

Persons tendering for more than one Port must give a separate tender for each Port.

Persons tendering must give a reference to a banker for each surety proposed; and they are desired to take special notice that the use of wooden hoops is abolished, and that iron hoops only will be required for the casks in accordance with the conditions of the contract.

A form of the tender may be obtained, and the conditions of the contract, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at this office, at the Victualling Yards at Gosport and Plymouth, or by applying to the Agent Victualler at Haulbowline, or to the Collectors of Her Majesty's Customs at Bristol, Limerick, Belfast, Waterford, and Newry, or to the Secretary to the Postmaster-General at Dublin, or to the Commander conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool.

No tender will be admitted for a less quantity than 100 tierces, or 100 barrels.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose; but it will not be necessary that the party tendering, or an agent appointed by him, should attend at this Office, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner of the envelope the words "Tender for Salt Pork," and "Comptroller for Victualling," and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.

CONTRACT FOR SALE OF "AMAZON."

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, August 21, 1863.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday, the 8th September next, at two o'clock, they will be ready to receive sealed tenders for the purchase of Her Majesty's Ship "AMAZON," lying at Devonport.

No tender will be received after two o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed unless the party attends, or an Agent for him duly authorized in writing to make a deposit of £25 per cent. on the amount of the tender.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for the Purchase of the 'Amazon,'" and must also be delivered at Somerset-place.

Catalogues and conditions of sale may be had here, or on application to the Superintendent of Her Majesty's Dock Yard at Devonport, who will also give notes of admission to view the vessel.

SALE OF OLD STORES AT DEVONPORT.

Admiralty, Somerset-Place, August 25, 1863.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday, the 9th September next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, the Admiral Superintendent will put up to sale in Her Majesty's Dock Yard at Devonport, several lots of
