TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 1863.

Foreign Office, September 8, 1863.

THE following Despatch has been received from Her Majesty's Minister at Lisbon, dated the 18th of August, 1863.

MY LORD, August 18, 1863.

I HAVE the honour to acknowledge the receipt, by private ship, on the 7th instant, of your Lordship's despatch of the 29th ultimo, enclosing an extract from the City article of the "Times" regarding Mr. Lindsay's claims against the Portuguese Government; and, in obedience to your instructions, I proceed to report on the several statements contained in this letter.

It is correct, as stated in the letter signed "A Portuguese," that the Government of this country did not invite English capitalists to take part in the projected "União Mercantil," by the guarantee of 7 per cent. interest; the company was formed without any guarantee, though the Government, at a subsequent period, as stated, guaranteed 6, and afterwards 7 per cent. on the whole capital. The Government did, however, invite, and in a very pressing manner, Mr. Lindsay to take part in the enterprise, as can be clearly established by letters which I have seen addressed to him by Mr. Carlos Bento, then Minister of Public Works. In fact, without Mr. Lindsay's participation as an owner of steam ships, it is doubtful, and I believe the Minister said so in his letters, whether the company could have been formed when it was.

That gentleman sold to the company three steamers, namely, first the "Lindsay," now "D. Estephania," and subsequently, the "Clarendon," now "Africa," and the "Ireland," now "D. Pedro,"
the price of the former was	£19,000 and for the two others respectively	£25,000
and	£30,000
	£74,000
and he was paid for the "Lindsay"
in cash	£9,500
and for the two others	£11,400
	£20,900
together	£20,900
and took shares for the first to the amount of	£9,500
and for the two last	£27,500
	£37,000

with debentures for the latter to the amount of £16,100, making the total of £74,000. This varies from the statement in the letter that the "total consideration amounted to £77,691 9s. 2d.;" and I have been informed by one of the Directors that the company "knew nothing of this sum, or to what it refers."

With regard to the statement that "his vessels proved to be entirely unfit for the service, and far below the standard agreed upon in the purchase," I must observe that the Company, before purchasing, had them examined in England by competent Surveyors of their own selection, who declared they fulfilled the stipulated conditions; and I have seen a regular receipt respecting the two latter steamers which he had sold; about the first there is no dispute, signed by all the Directors to that effect, which Mr. Lindsay produced in my presence to Mr. Medlicott (one of that body), who did not, and could not, deny his own signature.

I must further observe that these three vessels had, as I am informed by a Director of the Company, performed six voyages each to Loanda, before Mr. Lindsay, brought his action against the Company, against which the latter made a claim of 28,442,572 reis, about £6,300, for repairs.

It is of course impossible for me to say whether the steamers in question were, or were not, in an effective and serviceable state; both parties in the suit maintain their own opinion, but there is the patent fact that the Company, after due examination of the vessels in question before purchase, declared the contrary of what they now maintain. Mr. Lindsay has, moreover, frequently declared to the company, and also to the Duke de Loulé, the Minister of Public Works, in my presence, that notwithstanding the discharge in full which he had, if it could be shewn that there were repairs which he was bound in equity, though not legally, to make, that, as a man of honour, and as a British Merchant, he was willing to make them. In short, as far as I am aware, nothing could be fairer or more straightforward than that gentleman's conduct; and far from wishing to break up the company, he has always declared his willingness to leave his money in it, if reformed and carried on on sound commercial principles, believing that, if that were effected, the enterprise would prove remunerative.

It is not for me to enter into the merits of the decisions of the Portuguese Courts of Law, in this case, widely as they differ from the ordinarily received ideas of justice in our own country.

It is perfectly true, as the letter states, that the Government has never repudiated the guaranteed interest, though, I believe, the payment of it is in arrears. Before Mr. Lindsay's departure from Lisbon in January last, the Government paid an instalment of interest; but, as that gentleman, by the advice of his legal adviser here, maintained that the Government was responsible to the English shareholders for the repayment of the whole of their capital and interest, he refused to accept from the company this proposed interest, though he was willing to accept it from the Government on account, which, of course, the latter declined.

The subsidy hitherto granted to the company was 79,000,000 reis, or upwards of £16,000 per annum, thus divided:—

	Rs.
African Fine	58,000,000
Azores do.	11,400,000
Algarve do.	9,600,000

But in the last Session, the Government was authorized to grant an annual subsidy of 160 contos or upwards of £35,000 to any company capable of undertaking the lines in question; and though the Mercantile Union Company was not mentioned specifically, yet there is no doubt that company regards the Act in question as increasing their former subsidy to the highest amount.

In conclusion I may observe that I cannot and do not suppose that the Portuguese Government ever contemplated inflicting any injury on the shareholders, all their interests lay in the prosperity and maintenance of the Company; but, by their very negligent supervision, they allowed the directors to proceed in a manner which Mr. Lindsay declares has seriously injured the British shareholders, while the Company is indebted to the Government in considerably more than £100,000.

I have, &c.,

ARTHUR MAGENIS.

The Right Honourable
Earl Russell, K.G.,

[The following Notice is substituted for that which appeared in the Gazette of the 14th of July last.]

St. James's Palace, June 23, 1863.

The Queen has been pleased to appoint Lieutenant-Colonel William McCall, Unattached, to be Clerk of the Cheque and Adjutant of Her Majesty's Honourable Corps of Gentlemen-at-Arms, vice Cargill, retired.

This appointment to date from 11th June, 1863.

Board of Trade, Whitehall,
September 7, 1863.

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Venice, enclosing the subjoined Notice to Mariners, respecting the regulations to be observed by Merchant Vessels on passing within a certain distance of the coast fortifications on Austrian Territory.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(Translation.)

It having frequently occurred that Merchant Vessels, both National and Foreign, passing within the Austrian seas before an Imperial Royal Fortress have omitted to hoist their colours, even after having been summoned to do so by the firing of a blank shot, the Imperial Royal Ministry of Marine, with the concurrence of Imperial Royal Ministry of Foreign Affairs and of War, has ordered, by Despatch of the 21st July last, No. 529, that both Austrian and Foreign mariners should be reminded of the obligations to which they are subject according to the principles of Maritime International Law, and founded on territorial sovereignty, to hoist their national flags whenever bringing to, or passing by within the distance of three nautical miles in the limits of, an Imperial Royal Fortress, or other fortified places within Austrian maritime coasts, which signalize themselves by the display of the Austrian National flag.

In bringing this Superior Ordinance to the knowledge of National and Foreign mariners as their unfailing rule of conduct, the Central Maritime Government thinks it necessary to add that mariners would have to attribute to themselves those prejudicial consequences which might arise from the casual non-observance of the present Notice.

From the Imperial Royal Central Maritime Government.

Tolls to Let.

Rochester, September 2, 1863.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the tolls payable at the toll gates in Strood, and on the new road from Rochester to Chatham Hill, in the county of Kent, will separately be let to farm to the best bidders for the term of one year from the 30th day of November, 1863, at the Bull Inn, Rochester, on Tuesday, the 13th day of October next, at twelve o'clock at noon.

No person will be permitted to advance less than five pounds at each bidding, and whoever happens to be the approved bidder, must at the same time give security with sufficient sureties to the satisfaction of the Commissioners of the said Toll Gates for payment of the rents by quarterly payments in advance.

The approved bidder will be required to pay at the time of the letting one half of the first quarter of a year's rent, and the remainder before the said 30th day of November.

The present yearly rent of the tolls at Strood Gate is eight hundred pounds and at the New Road Gate sixteen pounds ten shillings.

For further information enquire at the Office of Mr. Hayward, Solicitor, Rochester.

By order of the Commissioners.

W. W. M. Hayward, Clerk.

CONTRACT FOR SALT PORK.

Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Somerset-House, August 26, 1863.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday, the 29th September next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at the undermentioned Ports, the following quantities of all of the cure of the present season, viz.:

NAVY PORK.

	Tierces.	Barrels.
Deptford	2,400	2,400
Haulbowline	2,400	2,400

The Pork to be delivered into the respective Stores as follows; viz.: one-third of each quantity for each place by the 30th day of January, 1864; another third thereof by the 10th day of March, 1864; and the remainder thereof by the 30th day of April, 1864; or any greater portion, or the whole, at any earlier period, if preferred by the party tendering, and to be paid for by bills at three days after date, which will be sent to parties as usual.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any; and also an unlimited power of selection.

Every tender must specify the name of the person by whom the meat is intended to be cured, the brand of the meat, and the place of cure.

Tenders for pork, of the cure of the United States of America, will not be admitted.

Persons tendering for more than one Port must give a separate tender for each Port.

Persons tendering must give a reference to a banker for each surety proposed; and they are desired to take special notice that the use of wooden hoops is abolished, and that iron hoops only will be required for the casks in accordance with the conditions of the contract.

A form of the tender may be obtained, and the conditions of the contract, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at this office, at the Victualling Yards at Gosport and Plymouth, or by applying to the Agent Victualler at Haulbowline, or to the Collectors of Her Majesty's Customs at Bristol, Limerick, Belfast, Waterford, and Newry, or to the Secretary to the Postmaster-General at Dublin, or to the Commander conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool.

No tender will be admitted for a less quantity than 100 tierces, or 100 barrels.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose; but it will not be necessary that the party tendering, or an agent appointed by him, should attend at this Office, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner of the envelope the words "Tender for Salt Pork," and "Comptroller for Victualling," and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.

CONTRACTS FOR RUM, SOAP, SPLIT PEAS, OATS, AND WHEAT.

Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Somerset-House, September 3, 1863.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday, the 15th instant, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the undermentioned articles; viz.:

Rum, 50,000 gallons; to be delivered in three weeks from the date of contract.

Soap, 200 tons; half to be delivered in one calendar month, and the remainder in one calendar month afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Split Peas, 300 quarters; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Oats, 300 quarters; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Wheat, 3,000 quarters; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the articles.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

The rum to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where it is lying.

Payment for the rum will be made for the proof gallons to one-tenth of a gallon, the liquid contents being ascertained to the half gallon.

Samples of the rum to be sent in pints for each Import Mark, and the average strength of each Mark Ex to be stated, and not an average of different marks or strengths of several imports; and any parcel of rum that is found not to be of the same quality, mark, or average strength of the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the officers.

Samples of the soap (not less than a bar), and of the oats, split peas, and wheat (not less than two quarts of each), must be produced by the parties tendering.

A proportional part of the price per bushel of wheat will be paid for any weight exceeding 60 lbs. per bushel.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contracts have been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose and which may be obtained on application at the said office, or to the Officer conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

Particular attention is called to the conditions of the contracts, which may be seen at the said office, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half-past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and to his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for" and must also be delivered at Somerset-house.

CONTRACTS FOR VINEGAR, WINE, COCOA, AND PEPPER.

Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Somerset - House, September 3, 1863.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday, the 17th instant, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the undermentioned articles; viz.:

Vinegar, 15,000 gallons; half to be delivered in one calendar month, and the remainder in one calendar month afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Wine (Sherry, good sound) 500 gallons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Cocoa, 150 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Pepper (Whole Black), 5 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the articles.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

The wine, cocoa, and pepper to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where they are lying.

Samples of the vinegar (not less than a quart), which the parties tendering may propose to supply, must accompany their tenders, as the delivery will be required to be made in accordance with the samples which may be accepted, and the vinegar tendered to be No. 20, trade denomination.

The vinegar to be delivered in good, sound, strong, and substantial casks, which are to be retained as long as required by the said Commissioners or their officers without payment therefor, but are to be taken back from the said Victualling Stores (when emptied) by and at the expense of the contractor.

Samples of the wine (in pints) from each cask, must be produced by the parties tendering, and not samples only for each Import mark.

Each tender for cocoa must specify the Mark and Landing Number of each package, the ship in which imported, and the country or place of its growth or produce, and an average sample (not less than two pounds for each Import Mark), must be produced by the parties tendering, and not an average of different Marks or several Imports, and any parcel that is found not to be of the same Mark or average quality as the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the Officers.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contracts have been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office, or to the Officer conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

Particular attention is called to the conditions of the contracts, which may be seen at the said office, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and to his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for" and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.
