

Debts of creditors who have not proved will be received, and the said several bankrupts will be respectively required to surrender themselves to the said Court, and to submit themselves to be examined, and to make a full disclosure and discovery of all their estate and effects, and to finish their examinations.

Notice is hereby given, that Joseph Steinthal, adjudged bankrupt by Her Majesty's Court of Bankruptcy for the Manchester District, on the 3rd day of June, 1863, having passed his Last Examination on the 15th day of October, 1863, the Court has appointed a public sitting to be held at the said Court of Bankruptcy, at Manchester, before William Thomas Jemmett, Esq., the Commissioner of the said Court, on the 18th day of November next, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely, for considering the question of granting to the bankrupt an Order of Discharge, when the assignee or any creditor who has proved, may be heard against such Discharge.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1861.

Notice of a Dividend Meeting.

A Meeting of the Creditors of the Bankrupt hereinafter named will be held, pursuant to the 174th section of the said Act, at the time and place hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:

At the County Court of Norfolk, holden at Harleston, before William Leedes Fox, Esq., Registrar:

Robert Rayner the younger, of Redenhall-with-Harleston in the county of Norfolk, Innkeeper and Joiner, adjudicated bankrupt on the 25th day of February, 1863. A Dividend Meeting will be held the 3rd day of November next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely.

At the said Meeting the Assignees will, in pursuance of the 174th section of the said Act, submit a statement of the bankrupt's estate recovered and outstanding, and of all receipts and of all payments made or to be made thereout; and the creditors at the said meeting will, in pursuance of the said section, declare whether any and what Dividend shall be made, and whether any and what allowance shall be paid to the said Bankrupt. Proofs of Debts will be received, and Creditors, who have not proved, or do not then prove, will be excluded the benefit of the Dividend. And all claims not then proved will be disallowed.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a meeting of the creditors of Joseph Jones, of Stafford, in the county of Stafford, Licensed Victualler and Farmer, who was adjudicated bankrupt on the 12th day of February, 1863, will be held before a Registrar of the Court of Bankruptcy, at the Court of Bankruptcy for the Birmingham District, at Birmingham, on the 5th of November next, at twelve at noon precisely, when the Creditors' Assignee will submit a statement of the whole of the estate of the bankrupt, as then ascertained, of the property received and of the property outstanding, specifying the cause of its being so outstanding, and of all the receipts and all the payments thereout made, and such account will be audited by the Judge; and any creditor who has proved may attend and examine such statement and compare the receipts with the payments, and the meeting will declare, by resolution, whether any and what of the said produce of the estate (after making a reasonable deduction for future contingencies) shall be divided amongst the creditors; and at the same time the majority in value of the creditors will determine whether any and what allowance shall be made to the bankrupt out of the estate; and creditors who have not already proved their debts are to come prepared to prove the same, or they will be excluded the benefit of the said dividend. And all claims not then proved will be disallowed.
