TREATY of Commerce and Navigation between Her Majesty and the King of Italy.

Signed at Turin, August 6, 1863.

[Ratifications exchanged at London, October 29, 1863.]

In the Name of the Most Holy and Indivisible Trinity.

HER Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and His Majesty the King of Italy, being desirous of extending and facilitating the relations of commerce between their respective dominions and subjects, have resolved to conclude a Treaty for that purpose, and have named as their respective Plenipotentiaries, that is to say :

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c., Sir James Hudson, a Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Her Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to His Majesty the King of Italy ;

And His Majesty the King of Italy, Giovanni Manna, Senator of the Kingdom, Grand Officer of the Order of Saints Maurice and Lazarus, Minister Secretary of State for Agriculture, Industry, and Commerce ;

Who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon and concluded the following Articles :—

ARTICLE I.

There shall be between all the dominions and possessions of the two High Contracting Parties, reciprocal freedom of commerce and navigation. The subjects of each of the two Contracting Parties, respectively, shall have liberty freely and securely to come, with their ships and cargoes, to all places, ports, and rivers in the dominions and possessions of the other, to which other foreigners are or may be permitted to come, and shall, throughout the whole extent of the dominions and possessions of the other, enjoy the same rights, privileges, liberties, favours, immunities, and exemptions in matters of commerce and navigation, which are or may be enjoyed by native subjects generally.

ARTICLE II.

No other or higher duties shall be imposed on the importation into the dominions and possessions of Her Britannic Majesty, of any article the produce or manufacture of the dominions and

In Nòme della Santissima ed Indivisibile Trinità.

SUA Maestà il Re d'Italia e Sua Maestà la Regina del Regno Unito della Gran Bretagna e d'Irlanda, desiderosi de estendere e facilitare le relazioni di commercio tra i loro rispettivi domini e sudditi, hanno determinato di concludere un Trattato per questo scopo, ed hanno nominato a loro rispettivi Plenipotenziarii, cioè :—

Sua Maestà il Re d'Italia, Giovanni Manna, Senatore del Regno, Grande Ufficiale dell' Ordine dei Santi Maurizio e Lazzaro, Ministro Segretario di Stato per l'Agricoltura, l'Industria, ed il Commercio ;

E Sua Maestà la Regina del Regno Unito della Gran Bretagna e d'Irlanda, Sir James Hudson, Commendatore dell' Onorevolissimo Ordine del Bagno, Suo Inviato Staordinario e Ministro Plenipotenziario presso Sua Maestà il Re d'Italia ;

I quali, dopo essersi reciprocamente comunicati i loro rispettivi pieni poteri, riconosciuti in buona e debita forma, convennero nella stipulazione dei seguenti Articoli :—

ARTICOLO I.

Vi sarà tra tutti gli stati e possessi delle due Alte Parti Contraenti libertà reciproca di commercio e di navigazione. I sudditi di ognuna di esse Parti Contraenti avranno facoltà di entrare liberamente e sicuramente coi loro bastimenti e carichi in tutti i luoghi, porti, e riviere degli stati e possessi dell' altra, la cui entrata è fin d'ora permessa o la sarà nel seguito agli stranieri, e godranno rispettivamente negli stati e possessi dell' altra, degli stessi diritti, privilegi, libertà, favori, immunità, ed esenzioni in materia di commercio e navigazione di cui godono o godranno i nazionali.

ARTICOLO II.

All' importazione negli stati e possedimenti di Sua Maestà Britannica di qualsiasi mercanzia, prodotta o fabbricata negli stati o possessi di Sua Maestà il Re d'Italia, qualunque siane la pro-possessions of His Majesty the King of Italy, from whatever place arriving, and no other or higher duties shall be imposed on the importation into the dominions and possessions of His Majesty the King of Italy, of any article the produce or manufacture of Her Britannic Majesty's dominions and possessions, from whatever place arriving, than are or may be payable on the like article, the produce or manufacture of any other foreign country; nor shall any prohibition be maintained or imposed on the importation of any article the produce or manufacture of the dominions and possessions of either of the Contracting Parties into the dominions and possessions of the other, which shall not equally extend to the importation of the like articles being the produce or manufacture of any other country.

His Majesty the King of Italy further engages that he will not prohibit the importation into his dominions and possessions of any article the produce or manufacture of the dominions and possessions of Her Britannic Majesty, from whatever place arriving.

ARTICLE III.

No other or higher duties or charges shall be imposed in the dominions and possessions of either of the Contracting Parties, on the exportation of any article to the dominions and possessions of the other, than such as are, or may be, payable on the exportation of the like article to any other foreign country; nor shall any prohibition be imposed on the exportation of any article from the dominions and possessions of either of the two Contracting Parties to the dominions and possessions of the other, which shall not equally extend to the exportation of the like article to any other country.

ARTICLE IV.

The subjects of one of the Contracting Parties shall enjoy, in the dominions and possessions of the other, equality of treatment with native subjects in all that relates to the transit trade; and also in regard to warehousing, bounties, facilities, and drawbacks.

ARTICLE V.

All articles which are or may be legally importable into the ports of the dominions and possessions of Her Britannic Majesty in British vessels, may likewise be imported into those ports in Italian vessels, without being liable to any other or higher duties or charges, of whatever denomination, than if such articles were imported in British vessels; and reciprocally, all articles which are or may be legally importable into the ports of the dominions and possessions of His Majesty the King of Italy in Italian vessels, may likewise be imported into those ports in British vessels, without being liable to any other or higher duties or charges, of whatever denomination, than if such articles were imported in Italian vessels. Such reciprocal equality of treatment shall take effect without distinction, whether such articles come directly from the place of origin, or from any other place.

In the same manner there shall be perfect equality of treatment in regard to exportation, so that the same export duties shall be paid, and the same bounties and drawbacks allowed, in the dominions and possessions of either of the Contracting Parties, on the exportation of any article which is or may be legally exportable therefrom, whether such exportation shall take place in Italian venienza, e similmente all' importazione negli stati e possessi di Sua Maestà il Re d'Italia di qualsiasi mercanzia, prodotta o fabbricata negli stati di Sua Maestà la Regina d'Inghilterra, qualunque ne sia la provenienza, non saranno riscossi altri o maggiori dazi d'entrata che quelli che si pagano o potranno pagarsi sui consimili articoli prodotti o fabbricati in qualunque altro paese straniero.

Non potrà conservarsi nè imporsi dall' una delle Alte Parti Contraenti alcun divieto all' importazione ne' proprii stati e possessi di qualsiasi mercanzia prodotta o fabbricata negli stati o possessi dell' altra, senza che tal divieto non sia nell' istessa guisa applicato all' importazione di consimili mercanzie prodotte o fabbricate in qualunque siasi altro paese.

Sua Maestà il Re d'Italia s'impegna ancora a non proibire l'importazione ne' suoi domini e possessioni di qualsiasi mercanzia prodotta o fabbricata nei domini e possessi di Sua Maestà Britannica, qualunque siane la provenienza.

ARTICOLO III.

Sull' esportazione di qualsiasi mercanzia dagli stati e possessi d'una delle Parti Contraenti, in destinazione degli stati e possessi dell' altra, non saranno riscossi altri diritti o maggiori di quelli che si riscuoteranno sui simili articoli esportati per qualsivoglia altro paese straniero. Non sarà imposto divieto all' esportazione di qualsiasi mercanzia dagli stati e possessi di una delle Parti Contraenti per gli stati e possessi dell' altra, senza che tal divieto sia applicato, nell' istessa guisa, all' esportazione di consimili articoli per qualsiasi altro paese straniero.

ARTICOLO IV.

I sudditi di una delle due Parti Contraenti godranno, negli stati e possessi dell' altra, eguaglianza di trattamento co' nazionali in tutto quanto ha rapporto al commercio di transito, ed anche in quello che concerne magazzinaggio, diritti di rimportazione, favori, e drawbacks.

ARTICOLO V.

Qualunque prodotto che può o potrà legalmente importarsi ne' porti degli stati e possessi di Sua Maestà Britannica sopra bastimenti Inglesi, potrà egualmente importarsi negli stessi porti sopra bastimenti Italiani, senza essere sottoposti ad altri o maggiori diritti od oneri di quelli cui lo stesso prodotto andrebbe sottoposto se fosse importato con bastimenti Inglesi; e reciprocamente, tutti i prodotti che possono o potranno legalmente importarsi ne' porti degli stati e possessi di Sua Maestà il Re d'Italia sopra bastimenti Italiani, potranno parimente importarsi sopra bastimenti Inglesi, senza essere tenuti ad altri o maggiori diritti ed oneri di quelli cui lo stesso prodotto andrebbe sottoposto, se fosse importato con bastimenti Italiani. Questa eguaglianza di reciproco trattamento sarà sempre dovuta, sia che le mercanzie provengano direttamente dal luogo d'origine, ovvero da qualsiasi altra località.

La stessa perfetta eguaglianza di trattamento sarà dovuta a riguardo della esportazione, in guisa che negli stati e possessi di una e dell' altra delle due Parti Contraenti si pagheranno sull' uscita dei prodotti che possono o potranno legalmente esportarsi, gli stessi diritti di esportazione e si accorderanno gli stessi favori e drawbacks, tanto se s'ano esportati sopra bastimenti Italiani quanto sopra or in British vessels, and whatever may be the place of destination, whether a port of either of the Contracting Parties or of any third power.

ARTICLE VI.

No duties of tonnage, harbour, pilotage, light-house, quarantine, or other similar or corresponding duties, of whatever nature, or under whatever denomination, levied in the name or for the profit of Government, public functionaries, private individuals, corporations, or establishments of any kind, shall be imposed in the ports of the dominions and possessions of either country upon the vessels of the other country; which shall not equally and under the same conditions be imposed in the like cases on national vessels in general. Such equality of treatment shall apply reciprocally to the respective vessels, from whatever port or place they may arrive, and whatever may be their place of destination.

ARTICLE VII.

In all that regards the stationing, loading, and unloading of vessels in the ports, basins, docks, roadsteads, harbours, or rivers of the dominions and possessions of the two countries, no privilege shall be granted to national vessels which shall not be equally granted to vessels of the other country; the intention of the Contracting Parties being that in this respect also the respective vessels shall be treated on the footing of perfect equality.

ARTICLE VIII.

The Contracting Parties agree that, in regard to the coasting trade, the vessels and subjects of each Contracting Party shall enjoy, in the dominions and possessions of the other, the same privileges, and shall be treated in all respects in the same manner, as national vessels and native subjects.

The provisions of this Article shall, however, as respects the Colonial coasting trade, be deemed to extend only to the coasting trade of such of the Colonial Possessions of Her Britannic Majesty as may have petitioned or may hereafter petition Her Majesty, under the provisions of the Act relating thereto, to throw open their coasting trade to foreign vessels.

ARTICLE IX.

All vessels which according to British law are to be deemed British vessels, and all vessels which according to Italian law are to be deemed Italian vessels, shall for the purposes of this Treaty be deemed British and Italian vessels respectively.

ARTICLE X.

The Contracting Parties agree that in all matters relating to commerce and navigation, any privilege, favour, or immunity whatever, which either Contracting Party has actually granted, or may hereafter grant, to the subjects or citizens of any other State, shall be extended immediately and unconditionally to the subjects or citizens of the other Contracting Party; it being their intention that the trade and navigation of each country shall be placed, in all respects, by the other on the footing of the most favoured nation.

ARTICLE XI.

Any import duty levied ad valorem in the territories of His Majesty the King of Italy shall be calculated on the value at the place of production bastimenti Inglesi, e qualunque siasi la loro destinazione, per un porto dell'una o dell'altra delle Parti Contraenti o di una terza Potenza.

ARTICOLO VI.

Nessun diritto di tonnellaggio, di porto, di pilotaggio, di fano, di quarantena, o altro simigliante od equivalente, di qualunque natura o sotto qualsiasi denominazione, potrà essere riscosso a profitto dello Stato, di funzionari pubblici, d'individui privati, di corporazioni o di stabilimenti di qualsivoglia specie, se tali diritti non siano egualmente riscossi sui bastimenti nazionali. Quest'eguaglianza di trattamento si applicherà reciprocamente ai rispettivi bastimenti, da qualsiasi porto o località arrivino, e qualunque sia la loro destinazione

ARTICOLO VII.

Per tutto quanto concerne il collocamento, il carico e il discarico dei bastimenti ne' porti, bacini, docks, darsene, rade e riviere degli stati o possessi ne' due paesi, non potrà accordarsi alcun privilegio ai navigli nazionali, il quale non sia purimente concesso ai navigli dell'altro paese, essendo intenzione delle due Parti Contraenti che a tal riguardo i bastimenti dell'una e dell'altra siano trattati sul piede di perfetta eguaglianza.

ARTICOLO VIII.

In ordine al commercio di costa o cabotaggio, le Parti Contraenti pattuiscono che i bastimenti e sudditi dell'una godranno, negli stati e possessi dell'altra, gli stessi privilegi, e saranno trattati nella stessa guisa dei bastimenti e sudditi nazionali.

Questa disposizione, in quanto concerne il cabotaggio Coloniale, s'intenderà ristretta al commercio sulle coste dei possedimenti di quelle Colonie di Sua Maestà la Regina della Gran Bretagna le quali abbiano fatto domanda a Sua Maestà o la faranno perchè, in virtù dell'Atto relativo alle Colonie, permetta il commercio di cabotaggio sulle loro coste ai bastimenti stranieri.

ARTICOLO IX.

I bastimenti che a norma delle leggi Inglesi sono considerati come bastimenti Inglesi, e quelli che secondo le leggi Italiani sono considerati come bastimenti Italiani, saranno rispettivamente considerati Inglesi e Italiani per gli effetti del presente Trattato.

ARTICOLO X.

Le Parti Contraenti pattuiscono che qualunque privilegio, favore, o esenzione in materia di commercio e di navigazione, sia dall'una di esse concessa, o possa concedersi in avvenire, ai sudditi o cittadini di qualsiasi altro Stato, si estenderà immediatamente e senza condizioni ai sudditi e cittadini dell'altra Parte Contraente, essendo intenzione delle due Parti che il commercio e la navigazione di ciascuno dei due paesi sia collocata, per ogni rispetto, sul piede della nazione più favorita.

ARTICOLO XI.

I dazi ad valorem che si riscuotono all'importazione negli stati di Sua Maestà il Re d'Italia saranno calcolati sul valore al luogo della produ-or fabrication of the object imported, with the addition of the cost of transport, insurance, and commission necessary for the importation into Italy, its dominions and possessions, as far as the port of discharge.

For the levying of these duties, the importer shall make a written declaration at the Custom-house, stating the value and description of the goods imported, with the addition aforesaid. If the Custom-house authorities shall be of opinion that the declared value is insufficient, they shall be at liberty to take the goods on paying to the importer the price declared, with an addition of five per cent.

This payment, together with the restitution of any duty which may have been levied upon such goods, shall be made within the fifteen days following the declaration.

ARTICLE XII.

The subjects of each of the Contracting Parties shall have, in the dominions and possessions of the other, the same rights as native subjects in regard to trade-marks and designs of every description applicable to articles of manufacture.

ARTICLE XIII.

It shall be free for each of the Contracting Parties to appoint Consuls-General, Consuls, Vice-Consuls, and Consular Agents, to reside in the towns and ports of the dominions and possessions of the other. Such Consuls-General, Consuls, Vice-Consuls, and Consular Agents, however, shall not enter upon their functions until after they shall have been approved and admitted, in the usual form, by the Government to which they are sent. They shall exercise whatever functions, and enjoy whatever privileges, exemptions, and immunities are or shall be granted there to Consuls of the most favoured nation.

ARTICLE XIV.

The subjects of each of the Contracting Parties, conforming themselves to the laws of the country, —

1. Shall have full liberty, with their families, to enter, travel, or reside in any part of the dominions and possessions of the other Contracting Party.

2. They shall be permitted to hire or possess the houses, manufactories, warehouses, shops, and premises, which may be necessary for them.

3. They may carry on their commerce, either in person or by any agents whom they may think fit to employ.

4. They shall not be subject, in respect of their persons or property, or in respect of passports, licenses for residence or establishment, nor in respect of their commerce or industry, to any taxes, whether general or local, nor to imposts or obligations of any kind whatever, other or greater than those which are or may be imposed upon native subjects.

ARTICLE XV.

The subjects of each of the Contracting Parties in the dominions and possessions of the other shall be exempted from all compulsory military service whatever, whether in the army, navy, or national guard or militia. They shall be equally exempted from all judicial and municipal functions whatzione o fabbricazione dell'oggetto importato, coll'aggiunta delle spese di trasporto, di assicurazione e di provvigione necessarie per l'introduzione in Italia, e ne' suoi porti o possessi, sino al porto di scarico.

Per far luogo al pagamento di questi dazii l'importatore deve fare alla dogana una dichiarazione scritta, nelle quale siano indicati il valore e la natura degli oggetti importati coll'aggiunta di cui sopra. Se le autorità doganali sono di parere che il valore dichiarato è insufficiente, sarà loro facoltativo di appropriarsi la mercanzia mediante il pagamento all'importatore del prezzo dichiarato, con un compenso del cinque per cento.

Tal pagamento, come pure la restituzione di qualsiasi diritto che fosse stato riscosso sulla mercanzia, sarà fatto ne' quindici giorni successivi alla dichiarazione.

ARTICOLO XII.

In ordine alle marche di fabbrica ed ai disegni d'ogni specie concernenti articoli di manifattura, i sudditi di ciascuna delle Parti Contraenti avranno, negli stati e possessi dell'altra, gli stessi diritti dei nazionali.

ARTICOLO XIII.

Sarà in facoltà di ciascuna delle Parti Contraenti di nominare Consoli-Generali, Consoli, Vice-Consoli, e Agenti Consolari, con residenza nelle città e porti degli stati e possessi dell'altra. I Consoli-Generali, Consoli, Vice-Consoli, e Agenti Consolari, non potranno però assumere l'esercizio delle loro funzioni sino a che non sono stati approvati e ammessi, secondo le formalità di uso, dal Governo presso cui sono destinati. Essi eserciteranno tutte le funzioni, e godranno di tutti i privilegi, esenzioni, e immunità, d'ogni specie, che siano accordate ai Consoli della nazione più favorita.

ARTICOLO XIV.

I sudditi di ciascuna delle Parti Contraenti, uniformandosi alle leggi del paese, —

1. Dovranno avere piena libertà, sia per sè che per le loro famiglie, di entrare, viaggiare, o risiedere in qualunque sia luogo degli stati e possessi dell'altra Parte Contraente.

2. Sarà loro facoltativo di affittare o possedere case, manifatture, magazzini, botteghe, e locali, che saranno ad essi necessari.

3. Potranno esercitare il loro commercio, sia personalmente, sia per mezzo di agenti che credano opportuno adoperarvi.

4. Non saranno, in alcun caso, sottoposti per le loro persone o proprietà, o pei passaporti, permessi di soggiorno, o di stabilimento, o per l'esercizio del loro commercio o industria, ad alcuna tassa generale o locale, ne imposta od obbligazione qualsiasi, che siano differenti o superiori a quelle che s'impongono, o possano imporsi, ai sudditi nazionali.

ARTICOLO XV.

I sudditi di ciascuna delle Parti Contraenti saranno esenti, negli stati e possessi dell'altra, dal servizio militare obbligatorio, sia nell'esercito, nella marina, nella guardia nazionale, sia nella milizia. Saranno parimente esenti da ogni ufficio giudiziario e municipale, come pure da ogni specie di contribuzione, in danaro o in natura, imposta ever, as well as from all contributions, whether pecuniary or in kind, imposed as a compensation for personal service; and, finally, from forced loans and military exactions or requisitions.

ARTICLE XVI.

The subjects of each of the Contracting Parties in the dominions and possessions of the other shall be at full liberty to acquire, possess, and dispose of every description of property which the laws of the country may permit any foreigners, of whatsoever nation, to acquire and possess. They may acquire and dispose of the same, whether by purchase, sale, donation, exchange, marriage, testament, succession ab intestato, or in any other manner, under the same conditions as are established by the laws of the country for all foreigners. Their heirs and representatives may succeed to and take possession of such property, either in person or by agents acting on their behalf, in the same manner and in the same legal forms as subjects of the country. In the absence of heirs and representatives the property shall be treated in the same manner as the like property belonging to a subject of the country under similar circumstances.

In none of these respects shall they pay upon the value of such property any other or higher impost, duty, or charge, than is payable by subjects of the country. In every case the subjects of the Contracting Parties shall be permitted to export their property, or the proceeds thereof if sold, freely, and without being subjected on such exportation to pay any duty as foreigners, or any other or higher duties than those to which subjects of the country are liable under similar circumstances.

ARTICLE XVII.

The dwellings, manufactories, warehouses, and shops of the subjects of each of the Contracting Parties in the dominions and possessions of the other, and all premises appertaining thereto, destined for purposes of residence or commerce, shall be respected. If there should be occasion to make a search of, or a domiciliary visit to such dwellings and premises, or to examine or inspect books, papers, or accounts, such measure shall be executed only in conformity with the legal warrant or order in writing of a tribunal, or of the competent authority.

The subjects of each of the two Contracting Parties in the dominions and possessions of the other shall have free access to the Courts of Justice for the prosecution and defence of their rights. They shall enjoy in this respect the same rights and privileges as subjects of the country, and shall, like them, be at liberty to employ, in all causes, their advocates, attorneys, or agents from among the persons admitted to the exercise of those professions according to the laws of the country.

ARTICLE XVIII.

Any ship of war or merchant-vessel of either of the Contracting Parties which may be compelled by stress of weather, or by accident, to take shelter in a port of the other, shall be at liberty to refit therein, to procure all necessary stores, and to put to sea again, without paying any dues other than such as would be payable in a similar case by a national vessel. In case, however, the master of a merchant-vessel should be under the necessity of disposing of a part of his merchandize in order to defray his expenses, he shall be bound to conform to the regulations and tariffs of the place to which he may have come.

ARTICOLO XVI.

I sudditi di ciascuna delle Parti Contraenti avranno piena libertà, negli stati e possessi dell'altra, di acquistare, possedere, e disporre di ogni sorta di proprietà che le leggi del paese permettono agli stranieri, di qualsiasi nazione, di acquistare e di possederli. Essi potranno acquistare e disporre delle loro proprietà per compra, vendita, donazione, permuta, matrimonio, testamento, successione ab intestato, o in qualsiasi altra maniera, alle stesse condizioni che sono stabilite dalle leggi locali per tutti gli stranieri. I loro eredi o rappresentanti potranno succedere in queste proprietà e prenderne possesso, sia in persona, sia per mezzo di agenti per loro conto, nella stessa guisa e nelle stesse forme legali richieste pei nazionali. In mancanza di eredi o di rappresentanti, le loro proprietà saranno trattate nell'istessa maniera come se appartenessero ad un suddito del paese posto in eguali condizioni.

In tutti questi casi essi non pagheranno sul valore delle loro proprietà altré o maggiori tasse, diritti, e carichi, di quelli che sarebbero dovuti dai sudditi nazionali. I sudditi di ciascuna delle Parti Contraenti potranno, in ogni caso, esportare le loro proprietà, od il ricavo della loro vendita, con tutta libertà, e senza essere sottoposti per tale esportazione al pagamento di alcun diritto come stranieri, o di alcun diritto che sia differente da quelli cui andrebbero soggetti in simili casi i sudditi del paese.

ARTICOLO XVII.

Le abitazioni, gli stabilimenti industriali, i magazzini, e le botteghe tenute dai sudditi di ciascuna delle Parti Contraenti negli stati e possessi dell'altra, come pure i locali che loro appartengono, destinati al commercio, saranno rispettati. Nel caso di perquisizione, o di visita domiciliare, in tali abitazioni o locali, e nel caso di ricognizione di libere, carte, e conti, non vi si potrà procedere che dietro autorizzazione legale od ordine scritto di un tribunale, o altra autorità competente.

I sudditi di ciascuna della due Parti Contraenti potranno, negli stati e possessi dell'altra, far valere i loro diritti e difenderli avanti i tribunali. Essi in tal caso godranno dei diritti e privilegi de' nazionali, e potranno, al pari di questi, affidare la trattazione delle loro cause ad avvocati, procuratori, e agenti i quali abbiano diritto, secondo le leggi del paese, di esercitare tali professioni.

ARTICOLO XVIII.

I vascelli da guerra o bastimenti mercantili di una delle Parti Contraenti, i quali per necessità o per accidente trovinsi costretti a rifugiarsi nei porti dell'altra, vi potranno essere riparati, e avranno facoltà di approvvigionarsi e riprendere il mare, e in tutti questi casi non saranno tenuti a pagare altri o maggiori diritti di quelli che sarebbero dovuti da navi nazionali. Però se il capitano di un bastimento mercantile si trovi nella necessità di disporre di una parte del carico pel pagamento delle sue spese, dovrà uniformarsi in tal caso ai regolamenti e alle tariffe locali.

If any ship of war or merchant-vessel of one of the Contracting Parties should run aground or be wrecked upon the coasts of the other, such ship or vessel, and all parts thereof, and all furniture and appurtenances belonging thereunto, and all goods and merchandize saved therefrom, including any which may have been cast into the sea, or the proceeds thereof if sold, as well as all papers found on board such stranded or wrecked ship or vessel, shall be given up to the owners or their agents when claimed by them. If there are no such owners or agents on the spot, then the same shall be delivered to the British or Italian Consul-General, Consul, or Vice-Consul, in whose district the wreck or stranding may have taken place, upon being claimed by him within the period fixed by the laws of the country; and such Consuls, owners, or agents, shall pay only the expenses incurred in the preservation of the property, together with the salvage or other expenses which would have been payable in the like case of a wreck of a national vessel.

The goods and merchandize saved from the wreck shall be exempt from all duties of Customs, unless cleared for consumption, in which case they shall pay the same rate of duty as if they had been imported in a national vessel.

In the case either of a vessel being driven in by stress of weather, run aground, or wrecked, the respective Consuls-General, Consuls, Vice-Consuls, and Consular Agents shall, if the owner or master or other agent of the vessel is not present, or is present and requires it, be authorized to interpose in order to afford the necessary assistance to their fellow-countrymen.

ARTICLE XIX.

The Consuls-General, Consuls, Vice-Consuls, and Consular Agents of each of the Contracting Parties, residing in the dominions and possessions of the other, shall receive from the local authorities such assistance as can by law be given to them for the recovery of deserters from the vessels of their respective countries.

ARTICLE XX.

The present Treaty of Commerce and Navigation, when ratified, shall be substituted for the Treaties in force between the High Contracting Parties, namely, those concluded on the 5th April, 1847, and 30th December, 1854, between Great Britain and Tuscany; and on the 29th April, 1845, between Great Britain and the Two Sicilies; and on the 27th February, 1851, and 9th August, 1854, between Great Britain and Sardinia; and shall remain in force for ten years from the date of the exchange of the ratifications, and further until the expiration of twelve months after either of the Contracting Parties shall have given notice to the other of its intention to terminate the same; each of the Contracting Parties being at liberty to give such notice to the other at the expiration of the first nine years, or at any time afterwards.

ARTICLE XXI.

The present Treaty shall be ratified, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at London, in six weeks, or sooner if possible.

In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the same, and have affixed thereto the seal of their arms.

Turin, 6 August, 1863.

(L.S.) GIOVANNI MANNA.

Se avvenga che un vascello da guerra o bastimento mercantile dell' una delle Parti Contraenti s'arreni o faccia naufragio sulle coste degli stati o possessi dell' altra, queste navi, le loro parti o rottami, l'alberatura o ogni altro oggetto che vi appartengano, come pure tutte le mercanzie che saranno state salvate, comprese quelle gettate in mare, o il ricavo della loro vendita, e le carte tutte rinvenute a bordo della nave arrenata o naufragata, saranno restituite al proprietario o chi per esso, appena siano reclamate. Nel caso manchi il proprietario o chi per esso, ogni cosa sarà consegnata al Console-Generale, Console, o Vice-Console Britannico o Italiano del distretto ov' ebbe luogo il naufragio o l'arrenamento, dietro domanda che l'interessato dovrà fare nel termine fissato dalle legge locali. I Consoli, i proprietari, o loro rappresentanti, non saranno tenuti che al pagamento delle spese occorse per la conservazione della proprietà, comprese quelle di salvataggio e simili, che in casi analoghi sarebbéro dovute dalle navi nazionali.

Le mercanzie e oggetti salvati dal naufragio non saranno sottoposti ai diritti di dogana, se non in quanto vengano dichiarati per la consumazione, ed in questi casi pagheranno solamente gli stessi diritti che sarebbéro dovuti se fossero importati sopra nave nazionale.

Occorrendo che una nave debba per necessità entrare in un porto, sia arrenata o faccia naufragio, i Consoli-Generali, Consoli, e Vice-Consoli, sono autorizzati ad interporre perchè sia data la necessaria assistenza ai loro connazionali, occorrendo però la richiesta del capitano, padrone, o loro rappresentante, quando trovinsi presenti.

ARTICOLO XIX.

I Consoli-Generali, Consoli, Vice-Consoli, e Agenti Consolari di ciascuna delle Parti Contraenti, residenti negli stati e possessi dell' altra, riceveranno dalle autorità locali la maggiore assistenza che possa darsi secondo le legge del paese, per l'arresto dei disertori dalle navi della loro nazione.

ARTICOLO XX.

Il presente Trattato di Commercio e di Navigazione, allorquando sarà ratificato, surrognerà i Trattati vigenti tra le Parti Contraenti, conclusi il 5 Aprile, 1847, e 30 Dicembre, 1854, fra il Governo della Gran Bretagna e quello della Toscana; il 29 Aprile, 1845, fra il Governo della Gran Bretagna e quello delle Due Sicilie; il 27 febbrajo, 1851, e il 9 Agosto, 1854, tra il Governo della Gran Bretagna e quello della Sardegna; e sarà in vigore per dieci anni dalla data dello scambio delle ratifiche del presente Trattato, e anche oltre il detto termine sino a che non siano decorsi dodici mesi dall' annunzio che l'una delle Parti Contraenti fosse per dare all'altra della sua intenzione di farlo cessare; ognuna di esse riservandosi la facoltà di fare all'altra simile dichiarazione allo spirare dei primi nove anni, e in ogni tempo ulteriore.

ARTICOLO XXI.

Il presente Trattato sarà ratificato dalle due Parti Contraenti, e le ratifiche saranno cambiate in Londra nel termine de sei settimane, o prima se far si può.

In fede del che i rispettivi Plenipotenziarii sottoscrissero per doppio il presente Trattato, e vi apposero il sigillo delle loro armi.

NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset-House, October 27, 1863.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested therein, that preparations are now being made for the intended distribution of the tonnage bounty of a slave barque, name unknown, captured on the 18th April, 1862, by Her Majesty's ship "Flying Fish."

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the said proceeds, are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, in order that the same may be examined, taxed, and allowed by that Officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Agents and all other persons holding powers of attorney, prize orders, assignments, or other instruments, by virtue of which they may be legally entitled to claim the share belonging to any captor, are requested, with as little delay as possible, to transmit the same, accompanied by the usual documents, to the Prize Branch of the Department of the "Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset-House."

Due notice will be given, by future advertisements in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution; and, at the same time, the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced.

NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset-House, October 30, 1863.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested therein, that preparations are now being made for the intended distribution of the naval portion of the booty, captured in Pegu in 1852 and 1853, and that the officers and crews of Her Majesty's ships stated below, are entitled to participate therein:—"Bittern," "Cleopatra," "Contest," "Fox," "Hastings," "Hermes," "Rattler," "Salamander," "Spartan," "Sphinx," "Styx," "Serpent," and "Winchester."

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the said proceeds, are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, in order that the same may be examined, taxed, and allowed by that Officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Agents and all other persons holding powers of attorney, prize orders, assignments, or other instruments, by virtue of which they may be legally entitled to claim the share belonging to any captor, are requested, with as little delay as possible, to transmit the same, accompanied by the usual documents, to the Prize Branch of the Department of the "Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset-House."

Due notice will be given, by future advertisements in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution; and, at the same time, the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named the Primitive Methodist Chapel, situated at Ingleton, in the parish of Stanidrop, in the county of Durham, in the district of Teesdale, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 19th day of October, 1863, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of 6th and 7th Wm. IV., cap. 85.

Witness my hand this 29th day of October, 1863.

Geo. Brown, Superintendent Registrar.
No. 22785. B

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named Ebenezer Chapel, situated at Hill-lane, within Briercliffe-with-Extwistle, in the parish of Whalley, in the county of Lancaster, in the district of Burnley Union, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 28th day of October, 1863, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of 6th and 7th Wm. IV., cap. 85.

Witness my hand this 30th day of October, 1863.

Jno. Tattersall, Superintendent Registrar.

New Forest.—Extraparochial Lands.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session for an Act to empower or require the Poor Law Commissioners for England and Wales, to ascertain and determine, and to set out and define, in such manner, and by such means as they shall think fit, the extent and boundaries of the extraparochial lands situate within the New Forest, in the county of Southampton, and of other extraparochial lands, called "Noman's Land," adjoining to or abutting upon the said forest, and situate, or reputed to be situate in the county of Wilts, and by any order or orders under their hands and seal, with the consent of the Commissioner of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues for the time being, in charge of the said forest, to constitute all, or any part or parts of, such extraparochial lands into one or more distinct township or townships, for the relief and maintenance of the poor, the county police or borough rate, the burial of the dead, the removal of nuisances, the registration of Parliamentary and municipal voters, and the registration of births, deaths, and marriages, and into one or more highway parish, or parishes, for the maintenance of the highways, and by such Act to declare that such township and townships, highway parish, and parishes, when so set out and defined, shall, by such name and names as the Poor Law Commissioners may by their order designate, be and become a township and townships, highway parish and parishes for the purposes aforesaid respectively; also with such consent as aforesaid, to annex any portion or portions of such extraparochial lands to any adjoining parish or place, separately maintaining its own poor or highways, for the purposes aforesaid respectively, anything in the Act of the 20th Vict., cap. 19, the Act of the 25th and 26th Vict., cap. 61, or in any other Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Also to empower the Poor Law Commissioners to ascertain and determine, set out and define, the boundaries of any existing parish or parishes which may adjoin or abut upon any of the said intended townships or township.

And the said intended Act will also make provision for the levying and recovery of rates for all or any of the purposes aforesaid, in respect of the said extraparochial lands, or any of them, whether the same shall be constituted into separate districts as aforesaid, or shall be annexed to any adjoining township or highway parish.

Dated 2nd of November, 1863.

By order of the Commissioner in charge of the said Forest.

John Gardiner, 5, Whitehall-place, London.

Helston Roads.

(Continuation of Term; Alterations of Tolls. Arrangements as to Debts, Repeal or Amendment of Act)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge the powers and provisions, or some of the powers and provisions of the local and personal Act 3 and 4, William 4, chapter 14, entitled "An Act for making, repairing, and improving certain roads, leading to and from Helston, in the county of Cornwall," and to continue and extend the term granted by that Act, or to repeal or re-enact that Act, either wholly or in part, and to create a further term and make further and other provisions with reference to the said roads.

And power will be taken in the said Bill to continue or alter the tolls, rates, and duties, by the said Act authorized to be taken on the said roads, to levy new and additional or reduced tolls, rates, and duties thereon, or on some part thereof, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of such tolls, rates, or duties, to alter and regulate the application and expenditure of the money arising from such tolls, to pay off, compound, reduce, vary, or extinguish, or make other arrangements with reference to the mortgages, debts, and other charges on the said roads and tolls, and the interest thereof, or any parts of the same, to vary and extinguish the rights, privileges, and remedies of the mortgagees and other creditors thereon, and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights and privileges.

And notice is hereby also given, that printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, on or before the 23rd day of December next.

Dated this 29th of October, 1863.

Arundel Rogers, and Grylls, Hill, and Hill,
Solicitors for the Bill.

Simson and Co., No. 1, Great College-street, Westminster, Parliamentary Agents.

In the Matter of the Companies Act, 1862; and of the London and Westminster Wine Company (Limited).

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition for the winding up of the above-named Company, by the Court of Chancery, was, on Friday, the 30th day of October, 1863, presented to the Right Honourable the Master of the Rolls, by Benjamin Standring, John Standring, and Charles Willis Turner, of No. 152, Minorities, in the county of Middlesex, creditors of the said Company, and Sir William Smith, of Eardiston, in the county of Worcester, Baronet, a Shareholder of the said Company; and that the said petition is directed to be heard before the Master of the Rolls, on Saturday, the 14th day of November, 1863; and any creditor or contributory of the said Company desirous to oppose the making of an order for the winding up of the said Company, under the above Act, should appear at the time of hearing by himself or his counsel for that purpose; and a copy of the petition will be furnished to any creditor or contributory of the said Company, requiring the same, by the undersigned, on payment of the regulated charges for the same.—Dated this 30th day of October, 1863.

Charles Mossop, of No. 1, Ironmonger-lane, Cheapside, in the city of London, Solicitor for the Petitioners.

In Chancery.

Barnard v. Bagshaw, and in the Matter of the Joint Stock Companies Winding-up Acts, 1848 and 1849, and of the Lake Bathurst Australasian Gold Mining Company.

HEREBY give notice, that in pursuance of an Order of his Honour the Vice-Chancellor Sir William Page Wood, made in this cause and these matters, and dated the 29th day of July, 1862, and of a certificate of his Honor's Chief Clerk, dated the 4th day of August, 1863, all persons settled on the list of contributories of the said Company, as present holders of Original Shares in the said Company, and all persons being bona fide holders of part of the Vendors' forty thousand shares, who have established a claim to be entitled to participate in the funds of the said Company, may receive a dividend of nine pence and two-thirds of a penny per share, being their apportioned share of the cash which has been paid to me, as the Official Manager of the said Company, pursuant to the said Order, upon application at my office, No. 16, Tokenhouse-yard, in the city of London, on any day between the hours of eleven and three o'clock. No dividend will be paid without the production of the Scrip Certificates, which will be retained by me. Executors and administrators will be required to produce the probate of the Will or the Letters of Administration under which they claim.—Dated this 24th day of October, 1863.

Nottinghamshire.

AT the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Lady the Queen, holden at the Shire-hall, in Nottingham, in and for the county of Nottingham, on Monday, the 19th day of October, in the year of our Lord 1863, and adjourned from time to time, and holden in pursuance of such adjournments at the Shire-hall, in Nottingham aforesaid, on Wednesday, the 21st day of the same month of October, before the Right Honourable Edward Lord Belper, the Right Honourable Eyda y William Herbert Earl Manvers, the Honourable Edmund Gambier Monckton, Sir Edward Samuel Walker, Knight, William Fletcher Norton Norton, John Sherwin Gregory, Henry Sherbrooke, William Hodgson Barrow, Henry Frederick Walker, Robert Holden, James Sulmond, Thomas Broughton Charlton, Henry Hawkes, Thomas Bigsby Chamberlin, Richard Milward, Richard Birkin, Walter Need, Samuel Bagnall Wild, John Bagshaw Taylor, Robert Kelham, Frederick Chatfield Smith, Henry Bevor, William Frederick Webb, Esquires; the Reverend John Drake Becher, John Chancourt Girardot, George Francis Holcombe, John Lawrence Prior, and Henry Augustus Marsh, Clerks:—Justices of our said Lady the Queen, assigned to keep the Peace in the said county.

Whereas at a Court of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace holden by adjournment at the Shirehall, in Nottingham, in and for the said county of Nottingham, on Wednesday, the 1st day of July, in the year of our Lord 1863, a Provisional Order was made in the words and figures following (that is to say):

Whereas the Right Honourable Edward Lord Belper, the Right Honourable Sydney William Herbert Earl Manvers, Sir Edward Samuel Walker, Knight, Henry Sherbrooke, Thomas Broughton Charlton, Richard Milward, and Henry Bevor, Esquires, being seven of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace, acting in and for the county of Nottingham, have, by writing under their hands, dated the 30th day of May, 1863, required Thomas Fowke Andrew Burnaby, Esq., Clerk of the Peace for the said county, to add to, or send with, the notice required by law to be given of the holding of the Court of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, a notice in the form marked (A) in the Schedule to the Act of the 25th and 26th years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter 61, intituled "An Act for the better management of the Highways in England," that at the then ensuing and now present General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, a proposal would be made to the Justices then and there assembled to divide the said county into eight Highway Districts. And whereas such requisition has been duly complied with. And whereas at this present General Quarter Sessions of the Peace a proposal was submitted to the said Court by the said seven Justices that the said county of Nottingham be divided into eight Highway Districts.

And whereas the said Court has heard the said proposal and entertained the same, and has duly considered the premises. Now, therefore, this Court in pursuance of the powers vested in the Court in and by the said Act, doth by this Provisional Order direct that the said county shall be formed into eight Highway Districts for the purposes of the "Highway Acts," and that so many of the following parishes, townships, hamlets, or places as are liable under the provisions of the said Act to be formed into a Highway District,

It is further ordered by the said Court that each of the several parishes, townships, hamlets, or places, before mentioned, is to elect one Waywarden only.

And this Court doth further make provision and order that in any place comprised in any of the before named proposed Highway Districts, where no Surveyor or Surveyors of Highways have previously been elected, one Waywarden for such place shall be elected at the meeting and time, and in the manner and subject to the same qualification and the same power of appointment in the Justices in the event of no election taking place, or in the event of a vacancy at, in, or subject to which a person or persons to serve the office of Surveyor of Highways would have been chosen and appointed if a Surveyor or Surveyors of the Highways of such place had been previously elected and appointed.

Lastly, it is ordered, that the confirmation of the said Provisional Order, by a Final Order, shall be taken into consideration by the Justices at a Court of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, to be held by adjournment at the Shire Hall, in Nottingham aforesaid, in and for the said county, on Wednesday, the 21st day of October, 1863."

And whereas, notice of the said Provisional Order was, immediately after the making thereof, given by the Clerk of the Peace of the said county of Nottingham, by publishing a copy thereof in the London Gazette, and also in the Nottingham Journal, a newspaper circulating in the said county, and also by sending a copy by post, in a prepaid letter, to the Overseers of every parish or place within the said proposed Highway Districts. And whereas, at the time of giving notice of the holding of these present Sessions, notice was also duly given by the Clerk of the Peace of the said county, that the confirmation of the said Provisional Order by a Final Order would be taken into consideration by the Justices at these present General Quarter Sessions of the Peace.

Now, after due consideration of the said Provisional Order and the notices thereof so given as aforesaid, this Court doth order that the said Provisional Order shall be, and the same is hereby confirmed.

And it is further ordered, that the first meeting of the Highway Board for each of the said Districts mentioned in the said Provisional Order shall be held at the several places and times hereinafter mentioned (that is to say):

For the Nottingham District, at the Admiral Rodney Inn, in Wollaton, on Friday, the 8th day of April next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon.

For the Retford District, at the Board Room of the Retford Poor Law Union, in Claborough, on Friday, the 8th day of April next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon; and

For the Ollerton District, at the Hop Pole Inn, in Ollerton, on Friday, the 8th day of April next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon.

By the Court,

T. F. A. Burnaby, Clerk of the Peace.

AT a Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, holden at Huntingdon, in the county of Huntingdon, on the 19th day of October, 1863:—

Whereas at a Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, held at Huntingdon, in and for the county of Huntingdon, on Monday the 6th day of April, in the year of our Lord 1863.

It was resolved, that a Provisional Order be made for dividing the county of Huntingdon into Highway Districts, for the more convenient management of Highways, pursuant to the provisions of the 25th and 26th Victoria, chapter 61.

That the parishes of Bluntisham with Earith, Broughton, Colne, Fenstanton, Hemingford Abbots, Hemingford Grey, Hilton, Holywell with Needingworth, Houghton, Old Hurst, Pidley with Fenton, Abbot's Ripton, King's Ripton, Saint Ives, Sapley, Somersham, Woodhurst and Wyton, should be united in the Highway District of Hurstingstone, by the name of the Hurstingstone District.

That the parishes of Abbotsley, Buckden, Diddington, Rynesbury, Great Gransden, Hail Weston, Kimbolton, Midloe, Offord Cluny, Offord Darcy, Great Paxton, Little Paxton, Papworth St. Agnes, Saint Neots, Great Staughton, Southoe, Swineshead, Tetworth, Toseland, Waresley and Yelling, should be united in the Highway District of Toseland, by the name of the Toseland District.

That the parishes of Alconbury, Alconbury Weston, Brampton, Barham, Brington, Buckworth, Bythorn, Great Catworth, Little Catworth, Coppingford, Covington, Ellington, Easton, Graffham, Godmanchester, Great Gidding, Little Gidding, Steeple Gidding, Hamerton, Hartford, Huntingdon All Saints, Huntingdon Saint Mary, Huntingdon Saint John, Huntingdon Saint Benedict, Keyston, Leighton, Lymage, Luddington, Molesworth, Old Weston, Spaldwick, Stow with Catworth, Great Stukeley, Little Stukeley, Thurning, Upton, Winwick and Woolley, should be united in the Highway District of Leightonstone, by the name of the Leightonstone District.

That the parishes of Alwalton, Caldecote, Chesterton, Connington, Denton, Elton, Farcet, Fletton, Folkesworth, Glatton, Haddon, Holme, Luton, Morborne, Orton Longville, Orton Waterville, Sawtry All Saints, Sawtry Saint Judith, Sawtry Saint Andrew, Sibson with Stibbington, Standground, Stilton, Washingly, Water Newton, Woodstone, Woodwalton and Yaxley, should be united in the Highway District of Norman Cross, by the name of the Norman Cross District.

That the parishes of Bury, Ramsey, Great Raveley, Little Raveley Upwood, Warboys and Wistow, should be united in the Highway District of Ramsey, by the name of the Ramsey District.

That the parish of Saint Ives should elect three Waywardens.

That the several parishes of Bluntisham with Earith, Fenstanton, Somersham, Warboys, Buckden, Eynesbury, Kimbolton, Saint Neots, Great Staughton, Godmanchester and Ramsey, should elect two Waywardens each.

And that the remaining parishes named in the several districts should elect one Waywarden each only.

And it was at the said Court resolved, that the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden in and for the said county on Monday, the 29th day of June then next, be appointed for taking into consideration the confirmation of the said Provisional Order by a Final Order.

And whereas at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, holden in and for the said county, on Monday, the 29th day of June,—

It was resolved and ordered that the parishes of Saint Neots and Papworth St. Agnes be omitted from the Toseland District; and the several parishes of Godmanchester; St. Mary, Huntingdon; St. John, Huntingdon; All Saints, Huntingdon; and Saint Benedict, Huntingdon; be omitted from the Leightonstone District.

And it was also ordered that the further consideration of the Provisional Order, as to the several highway districts, (except so far as is above-mentioned) should be respited until the General Sessions of the Peace, to be holden in and for the said county, on Monday, the 19th day of October next; and the same was thereby appointed for taking into consideration the confirmation of the said Provisional Order, as then amended by a Final Order.

It is at this Court of General Quarter Sessions ordered, that the said Provisional Order, as respited at the last General Quarter Sessions, so far as it relates to the Hurstingstone District, be, and the same is now, confirmed by a Final Order, excepting therefrom such parts of the parish of Saint Ives in which the highways are maintained under a certain local Act, intituled "The Saint Ives (Hunts) Improvement Act, 1847."

And it is further ordered that the first meeting of the Highway Board for the said district shall be held on Tuesday, the 29th day of March next, at the Rose and Crown Inn, Needingworth, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon.

That the Provisional Order, as amended and respited at the last General Quarter Sessions, so far as it relates to the Toseland District, be, and the same is now, confirmed by a Final Order.

And it is further ordered that the first meeting of the Highway Board for the said district shall be held on Tuesday, the 29th day of March next, at the George Inn, Buckden, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon.

That the Provisional Order, as amended and respited at the last General Quarter Sessions, as far as it relates to the Leightonstone District, be, and the same is now, confirmed by a Final Order.

And it is further ordered that the first meeting of the Highway Board for the said district shall be held on Tuesday, the 29th day of March next, at the George Inn, Spaldwick, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon.

That the Provisional Order, as respited at the last General Quarter Sessions, so far as it relates to the Norman Cross district, be, and the same is now, confirmed by a Final Order.

And it is further ordered that the first meeting of the Highway Board for the said district shall be held on Tuesday, the 29th day of March next, at the New Inn, Norman Cross, in the parish of Yaxley, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon.

That the Provisional Order, as respited at the last General Quarter Sessions, so far as it relates to the Ramsey District, be, and the same is now, confirmed by a Final Order.

And it is further ordered that the first meeting of the Highway Board for the said district shall be held on Tuesday, the 29th day of March next, at the George Inn, Ramsey, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon.

By the Court,

Maule, Huntingdon, Clerk of the Peace.

C 2

Patent Law Amendment Act, 1852.
Office of the Commissioners of Patents for Inventions.

NOTICE is hereby given, that—

1550. Charles Peterson, of Newport, Isle of Wight, has given notice at the Office of the Commissioners, of his intention to proceed with his application for letters patent for the invention of "a new material or compound applicable to the manufacture of pipes or tubes, to caulking or covering ships' bottoms, and to other useful purposes."

As set forth in his petition, recorded in the said office on the 20th day of June, 1863.

1562. And Edwin Wilks, Portmanteau Maker, Cheltenham, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in making portmanteaus and trunks of various shapes and sizes, light, strong, air tight, and water tight, capable of bearing immersion in water without injuring the contents."

As set forth in his petition, recorded in the said office on the 22nd day of June, 1863.

1576. And Alexander Richmond Stocker, of Wolverhampton, in the county of Stafford, Manufacturer, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in preparing and fashioning iron, applicable to the manufacture of boot heels, tips, and horse shoes, and in part of the machinery or apparatus to be employed therein."

1580. And Thomas Fullham Parsons, Chemist, of Maidon, in the parish of Christchurch, in the county of Monmouth, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "certain improvements in the mode or modes of preparing plates, bars, or other objects of iron for being coated with metals or alloys."

As set forth in their respective petitions, both recorded in the said office on the 23rd day of June, 1863.

1590. And Theophilus Redwood, of Summerfield Works, Lower Homerton, in the county of Middlesex, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improved apparatus for straining or for mixing and straining liquid and solid substances."

1591. And Paul Rapsey Hodge, of No. 25, Cannon-street, E.C., in the city of London, Civil Engineer, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improved fleeting hydrostatic machinery adapted to presses, dry docks, slips, or the moving or lifting of heavy masses, parts of which are applicable to the expressing of oil or other fluids."

1592. And Edward Myers, of No. 2, Millbank-row, county of Middlesex, Civil Engineer, and William Richard Williams, Meter Maker, of 35, Lamb's Conduit-street, county of Middlesex, have given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in wet gas meters."

CONTRACTS FOR VINEGAR, SUGAR, PEPPER, RAISINS, AND TOBACCO.

Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Somerset - House, November 2, 1863.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday, the 12th instant, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the undermentioned articles; viz.:

Vinegar, 20,000 gallons; half to be delivered in one calendar month, and the remainder in one calendar month afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering,

Sugar, 250 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Pepper (Whole Black), 5 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Raisins, 25 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tobacco, 50 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the articles.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

The sugar, pepper, raisins, and tobacco to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where they are lying.

Samples of the vinegar (not less than a quart), which the parties tendering may propose to supply, must accompany their tenders, as the delivery will be required to be made in accordance with the samples which may be accepted, and the vinegar tendered to be No. 20, trade denomination.

The vinegar to be delivered in good, sound, strong, and substantial casks, which are to be retained as long as required by the said Commissioners or their officers without payment thereof, but are to be taken back from the said Victualling Stores (when emptied) by and at the expense of the contractor.

Each tender for sugar must specify the mark and landing number of each cask or package, the ship in which imported, and the country or place of its growth or produce, and an average sample (not less than 2 lbs. for each import mark) must be produced by the parties tendering, and not an average of different marks or several imports, and any parcel that is found not to be of the same mark or average quality as the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the officers.

Each tender for tobacco must specify the several trade marks and numbers, and the countries or places of its growth or produce, and a fresh drawn dock sample of each cask or package must be produced by the parties tendering, and any cask or package that is found not to be of the same mark, number or quality as the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the Officers.

Samples of the pepper (not less than 2 lbs.), and of the raisins (not less than 3 lbs.), must be produced by the parties tendering.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contracts have been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office, or to the Officer conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

Particular attention is called to the conditions of the contracts, which may be seen at the said office, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and to his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for" and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.
