The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the tenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the prebend of Leighton Beaudesert, otherwise Leighton Buzzard, in the cathedral church of Lincoln, and now vested in us.

"Whereas under an Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of another Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and by virtue of an Order of your Majesty in Council, made under the provisions of the same Acts, and bearing date the thirteenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and duly published in the London Gazette on the fourteenth day of the same month; all lands, tithes, and other hereditaments whatsoever, then belonging to the said prebend (except rights of patronage), became absolutely vested in us for the purposes, and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas our estate in the lands, tithes, and hereditaments aforesaid consists of reversions expectant upon the determination of beneficial leases for lives, and such lands, tithes, and hereditaments produce during the subsistence of such leases only small annual revenues, and partly on that account, and partly on account of their character or situation, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable, under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions, or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof, as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorised and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the respective holders (if any), to be testified by their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments theretofore belonging to the said prebend, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration, as shall, upon due calculation and enquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council, now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lincoln.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the tenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for assigning the right of patronage of the new parish of Pendeen, in the county of Cornwall, and in the diocese of Exeter.

"Whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-third day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, and published in the London Gazette on the ninth day of January, in the following year, the district of Pendeen was constituted out of the parish of Saint Just, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and such district has since become a new parish under the provisions of the hereinbefore-mentioned Act.

"And whereas no specific assignment of the whole or any part of the right of patronage and nomination of the minister of the said district, or so soon as the same should become a new parish as aforesaid, of the perpetual curate thereof, was made by the said Order, and such right of patronage and nomination has hitherto continued to be exercised in accordance with the directions in that behalf contained in the said Act.

"And whereas a sum of five hundred pounds sterling has been contributed and paid to us by the Reverend Richard Aitken, the perpetual curate of the said new parish of Pendeen, towards the augmentation of the endowment of the said new parish, and for the benefit of the perpetual curate thereof, and we have in respect of the said sum agreed with the said Richard Aitken, and have undertaken to provide and pay by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May, and the first day of November in each and every year, to the perpetual curate of the said new parish (being duly licensed thereto), the yearly sum of sixteen pounds thirteen shillings and four pence.

"And whereas the said sum of five hundred pounds was so contributed and paid by the said Richard Aitken as aforesaid, upon the understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said new parish, and of the nomination of the perpetual curate thereto, should be assigned to the said Richard Aitken, his heirs, and assigns, in the manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said new parish of Pendeen, and of the nomination of the perpetual curate thereto, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to, and absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Richard Aitken, his heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or either of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Exeter.

"Whereas on the vacancy of the said deanery, which occurred on or about the twenty-eighth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, by the decease of the Very Reverend James Henry Cotton, the then Dean of Bangor, all the lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments theretofore belonging to the said deanery (except any rights of patronage) became, by virtue of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, absolutely vested in us for the purposes, and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.
