War Office, January 16, 1864.

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to signify Her intention to confer the decoration of the Victoria Cross on the under-mentioned Officer and Non-Commissioned Officer of Her Majesty's Army, whose claims to the same have been submitted for Her Majesty's approval, on account of Acts of Bravery performed by them in New Zealand, as recorded against their names; viz:

Regiment.	Rank and Name.	Act of Bravery for which recommended.
65th Regiment ...	Colour-Serjeant (now Ensign) Edward MacKenna Date of Act of Bravery, September 7th, 1863	For gallant conduct at the engagement near Cameron-town, New Zealand, on the 7th of September, 1863, after both his officers, Captain Swift and Lieutenant Butler, had been shot, in charging through the position of an enemy heavily outnumbering him, and drawing off his small force, consisting of two serjeants, one bugler, and thirty-five men, through a broken and rugged country, with the loss of but one man killed, and another missing. Lieutenant-General Cameron, C.B., Commanding Her Majesty's Forces in that colony, reports that, in Colour-Serjeant MacKenna, the detachment found a Commander whose coolness, intrepidity, and judgment, justified the confidence placed in him by the soldiers brought so suddenly under his command.
65th Regiment ...	No. 261 Lance-Corporal John Ryan Date of Act of Bravery, September 7th, 1863	For gallant conduct at the engagement near Cameron-town above referred to. This Non-Commissioned Officer, with Privates Bulford and Talbot, of the same Regiment, who have been recommended for the Medal for distinguished conduct in the Field, for their behaviour on the same occasion, removed the body of the late Captain Swift from the Field of Action, after he had been mortally wounded, and remained with it all night in a bush surrounded by the enemy.

It is ordered as follows:—

Whereas at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Sovereign Lady Queen Victoria, holden at the Shirehall, in Gloucester, in and for the county of Gloucester, on Tuesday, the 20th day of October, in the year of our Lord 1863, the Justices then and there assembled being satisfied that the requirements of the Highway Act (25th and 26th Victoria, chapter 61) in such a case had been duly complied with, did, by their Provisional Order, constitute the parishes, tithings, or places of Charfield, Cromhall (including Cromhall Ligon, and Cromhall Abbott), Kingswood, North Nibley, Tortworth, and Wotton-under-Edge (including Sinwell and Bradley, Symondshall and Combe, Wortley, and Huntingford), in the said county, into a district for the more convenient management of highways, and did order that such district should be called the "Wotton-under-Edge Highway District," and that each such parish should elect one Waywarden, except the parish of Wotton-under-Edge, which should elect two:

And where a parish in the said district separately maintaining its own poor is divided into townships, tithings, hamlets, or places, separately maintaining its own highways, the Justices assembled as aforesaid did combine such townships, tithings, hamlets, or places, and did declare that no separate Waywardens should be elected for such townships, tithings, hamlets, or places; and that each such combined parish should be subject to the same liabilities in respect of all the highways within it which had been therefore maintained by such townships, tithings, hamlets, and places separately, as if all their several liabilities had attached to the whole parish; and that Waywardens should be elected for each such combined parish as a whole:

And whereas the Justices assembled at the said last-mentioned Quarter Sessions did appoint these present General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the taking into consideration the confirmation of the above-recited Provisional Order by a Final Order:

And whereas such Provisional Order has been duly published in the London Gazette, and in two newspapers circulating in the county, and a copy of such Order has been sent by post, in a prepaid letter, to the Churchwardens or Overseers of every parish in the proposed highway district, and there was added to the Notice of the said Provisional Order a Notice that the Justices at the said Sessions did thereby appoint these present Sessions for the taking into consideration the confirmation of the said Provisional Order by a Final Order:

And whereas the Clerk of the Peace for the county aforesaid did send with the Notice required by law to be given of the holding of Courts of General Quarter Sessions a Notice in the form marked B. in the Schedule of the said Act, or as near thereto as circumstances admit, of the appointment so made by the Justices in relation to the confirmation of the said Provisional Order:

Now, therefore, after fully considering the premises, it is ordered by this Court (being the Court appointed for the confirmation of the said Provisional Order as aforesaid), that the said Provisional Order be, and the same is hereby confirmed and made final without variation. And it is also further ordered that the first meeting of the Highway Board for the said Wotton-under-Edge District shall be held at the Petty Sessional Room, at the White Lion, in Wotton-under-Edge, in the said district, at two o'clock in the afternoon, on the 1st day of April next.

By the Court,

Geo. Riddiford, Deputy Clerk of the Peace.

TETBURY HIGHWAY DISTRICT.

Final Order.

County of Gloucester to wit.

AT the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Sovereign Lady the Queen, holden at the Shirehall, in Gloucester, for the county aforesaid, on Tuesday, the 5th day of January, in the 27th year of the reign of our Sovereign Lady Victoria, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, and in the year of our Lord 1864, before John Curtis Hayward, Esquire, James Francillon, Esquire (Chairmen), and others their fellows, Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said county,

It is ordered as follows:—

Whereas at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Sovereign Lady Queen Victoria,

holden at the Shirehall, in Gloucester, in and for the county of Gloucester, on Tuesday, the 20th day of October, in the year of our Lord 1863, the Justices then and there assembled being satisfied that the requirements of the Highway Act (25th and 26th Victoria, chapter 61), in such a case had been duly complied with, did by their Provisional Order constitute the parishes or places of Tetbury, Cherrington, Beverstone, Kingscote, Newington Bagpath, Ozleworth, Boxwell-with-Leighterton, Didmarton, Oldbury-on-the-Hill, Shipton Moyne, and Weston Birt and Lasborough, in the said county, into a district for the more convenient management of highways, and did order that such district should be called the "Tetbury Highway District," and that each such parish should elect one Waywarden, except the parish of Tetbury, which should elect two:

And where a parish in the said district separately maintaining its own poor is divided into townships, tithings, hamlets, or places separately maintaining its own highways, the Justices assembled as aforesaid did combine such townships, tithings, hamlets, or places, and did declare that no separate Waywardens should be elected for such townships, tithings, hamlets, or places, and that each such combined parish should be subject to the same liabilities in respect of all the highways within it which had been theretofore maintained by such townships, tithings, hamlets, and places separately, as if all their several liabilities had attached to the whole parish. And that Waywardens should be elected for each such combined parish as a whole.

And whereas the Justices assembled at the said last-mentioned Quarter Sessions did appoint these present General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the taking into consideration the confirmation of the above recited Provisional Order by a Final Order.

And whereas such Provisional Order has been duly published in the London Gazette, and in two newspapers circulating in the county, and a copy of such Order has been sent by post in a prepaid letter to the Churchwardens or Overseers of every parish in the proposed Highway District, and there was added to the notice of the said Provisional Order a notice that the Justices at the said Sessions did thereby appoint these present Sessions for the taking into consideration the confirmation of the said Provisional Order by a Final Order.

And whereas the Clerk of the Peace for the county aforesaid did send with the notice required by law to be given of the holding of Courts of General Quarter Sessions, a notice in the form marked B in the schedule of the said Act, or as near thereto as circumstances admit, of the appointment so made by the Justices in relation to the confirmation of the said Provisional Order.

Now, therefore, after fully considering the premises, it is ordered by this Court (being the Court appointed for the confirmation of the said Provisional Order as aforesaid) that the said Provisional Order be, and the same is hereby confirmed and made final without variation. And it is also further ordered that the first meeting of the Highway Board for the said Tetbury District shall be held at the Petty Sessional Room, at Tetbury, in the said district, at two o'clock in the afternoon, on the 30th day of March next.
