Date of Gazette containing notice, December 5, 1863.

Devon Epiphany Sessions, 1864.

WHEREAS on the 4th day of April last, six of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county of Devon did, by writing, under their hands, require the Clerk of the Peace for the said county to add to or send with the notice for holding the then next Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, a notice in the form marked A, in the Schedule to the Act 25 and 26 Victoria, c. 61, or as near thereto as circumstances would admit, that, at the said General Quarter Sessions, a proposal would be made to the Justices to constitute the parishes of Ashbury, Béaworthy, Belstone, Broadwoodkelly, Exbourne, Hatherleigh, Highampton, Honeychurch, Iddesleigh, Inwardleigh, Jacobstow, Meeth, Monkoakhampton, Northlew, Okelhampton, and Hamlet of Kigbeare, within the said parish of Okehampton, Sampford Courtenay, and Sheepwash, a Highway District; and did also require the said Clerk of the Peace to send, by post, in a prepaid letter, notices in the aforesaid form, to the Churchwardens and Overseers of every parish mentioned in the said notice.

And whereas the Clerk of the Peace having complied with the said requisition, the said six Justices (two, at least, of whom were resident within the proposed Highway District) made the said proposal to the Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, held at the Castle of Exeter, on the 20th day of October, 1863, and the same was entertained by the Justices there assembled.

And whereas at the said Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, in pursuance of the powers vested in it in and by the said Act, the said Court did by a Provisional Order, direct that the parishes and places undermentioned should be constituted a Highway District, and that the same shall be known by the name of "The Hatherleigh Highway District."

And the said Court did by the said Provisional Order also order and direct that the number of Waywardens, which each parish should elect, should be the number set against the name of each parish respectively, viz. :—

Parish.	No. of Waywardens.
Ashbury	1
Beaworthy	1
Belstone	1
Broadwoodkelly	1
Exbourne	1
Hatherleigh	1
Highampton	1
Honeychurch	1
Iddesleigh	1
Inwardleigh	1
Jacobstow	1
Meeth	1
Monkoakhampton	1
Northlew	1
Okehampton (including the Hamlet of Kigbeare)	1
Sampford Courtenay	1
Sheepwash	1

And whereas by the said Provisional Order the said Court did further order, that should any parish hereinbefore mentioned, separately maintaining its own poor, be divided into townships, tithings, hamlets, or places, each of which has hitherto separately maintained its own highways, the said townships, tithings, hamlets, or places, shall be combined with the parish wherein the same are respectively situate, and that where the same are situate in more than one parish they shall be combined with the parish in which they shall have the largest boundary line, and no separate Waywardens shall be elected for the same, and that such parish, shall be subject to the same liabilities in respect of all highways within it which were before maintained by such townships, tithings, hamlets, and places separately, as if all their several liabilities had attached to the whole parish, and that a Waywarden or two Waywardens, if two Waywardens shall have been hereinbefore ordered, shall be elected for such parish as a whole.

And whereas by the said Provisional Order the said Court did further order, that, should any of the parishes or places hereinbefore mentioned, or any part or parts thereof be comprehended in the terms of the restrictions imposed with respect to the formation of Highway Districts, by section vii. of the said Act, 25 and 26 Victoria, c. 61, such parishes or places, or part or parts thereof, should not be included in the said Highway District, and the said Order, so far only as regarded the said parishes or places, or part or parts thereof, should be of no effect.

And whereas by the said Provisional Order the said Court also ordered that the confirmation of the said Provisional Order by a Final Order should be taken into consideration by the Justices at the Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county of Devon, to be held at the Castle of Exeter, on the 5th day of January, 1864.

Now, therefore, at this Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, holden at the Castle of Exeter, on the 5th day of January, 1864, the Justices here assembled having considered the premises do, by this Final Order, confirm the said Provisional Order, with the following variation :—

Parish.	No. of Waywardens.
Okehampton (excepting the Borough of Okehampton, but including the Hamlet of Kigbeare)	1
Sampford Courtenay	2

And this Court doth further order that the first meeting of the Highway Board for the said district shall be held at Hatherleigh, on the fifth day after the first election of Waywardens in pursuance of the said Act, at twelve o'clock at noon.

Provided always, that in case such fifth day should fall on a Sunday, then the first meeting of the said Board shall be held on the Monday then next following, at twelve o'clock at noon.

By the Court,

H. Ford, Clerk of the Peace.

Devon Epiphany Sessions, 1864.

WHEREAS, on the 5th day of August last, five of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county of Devon did, by writing, under their hands, require the Clerk of the Peace for the said county to add to or send with the notice for holding the then next Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, a notice in the form marked (A), in the Schedule to the Act 25 and 26 Victoria, c. 61, or as near thereto as circumstances would admit, that, at the said General Quarter Sessions, a proposal would be made to the Justices to constitute the parishes of Ashford, Atherington, Bishopstawton, Braunton, Fremington, Georgeham, Heanton Punchardon, Horwood, Instow, Landkey, Morthoe, Newton Tracey, Swymbridge, Tawstock, and West Down, a Highway District; and did also require the said Clerk of the Peace to send, by post, in a prepaid letter, notices in the aforesaid form, to the Churchwardens and Overseers of every parish mentioned in the said notice.

And whereas, the Clerk of the Peace having complied with the said requisition, the said five Justices (two, at least, of whom were resident within the proposed Highway District) made the said proposal to the Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, held at the Castle of Exeter, on the 20th day of October, 1863, and the same was entertained by the Justices there assembled.

And whereas, at the said Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, in pursuance of the powers vested in it in and by the said Act, the said Court did by a Provisional Order, direct that the parishes and places undermentioned should be constituted a Highway

District, and that the same shall be known by the name of "The Barnstaple Highway District."

And the said Court did by the said Provisional Order also order and direct that the number of Waywardens, which each parish should elect, should be the number set against the name of each parish respectively; viz. :—

Parish.	No. of Waywardens.
Ashford	1
Atherington	1
Bishopstawton	1
Braunton	2
Fremington	1
Georgesham	1
Heanton Punchardon	1
Horwood	1
Instow	1
Landkey	1
Morthoe	1
Newton Tracey	1
Swymbridge	2
Tawstock	2
West Down	1

And whereas, by the said Provisional Order the said Court did further order, that should any parish hereinbefore mentioned, separately maintaining its own poor, be divided into townships, tithings, hamlets, or places, each of which has hitherto separately maintained its own highways, the said townships, tithings, hamlets, or places, shall be combined with the parish wherein the same are respectively situate, and that where the same are situate in more than one parish they shall be combined with the parish in which they shall have the largest boundary line, and no separate Waywardens shall be elected for the same, and that such parish shall be subject to the same liabilities in respect of all highways within it which were before maintained by such townships, tithings, hamlets, and places separately, as if all their several liabilities had attached to the whole parish, and that a Waywarden or two Waywardens, if two Waywardens shall have been hereinbefore ordered, shall be elected for such parish as a whole.

And whereas by the said Provisional Order the said Court did further order, that should any of the parishes or places hereinbefore mentioned, or any part or parts thereof be comprehended in the terms of the restrictions imposed with respect to the formation of Highway Districts, by section 7 of the said Act, 25 and 26 Victoria, c. 61, such parishes, or places, or part or parts thereof, should not be included in the said Highway District, and the said Order so far only as regarded the said parishes or places, or part or parts thereof, should be of no effect.

And whereas by the said Provisional Order the said Court also ordered that the confirmation of the said Provisional Order by a Final Order should be taken into consideration by the Justices at the Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county of Devon, to be held at the Castle of Exeter, on the 5th day of January, 1864.

Now therefore, at this Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, holden at the Castle of Exeter, on the 5th day of January, 1864, the Justices here assembled having considered the premises do by this Final Order confirm the said Provisional Order.

And this Court doth further order that the first meeting of the Highway Board for the said district shall be held at Barnstaple, on the fifth day after the first election of Waywardens in pursuance of the said Act, at twelve o'clock at noon.

Provided always, that in case such fifth day should fall on a Sunday, then the first meeting of the said Board shall be held on the Monday then next following, at twelve o'clock at noon.

By the Court,

H. Ford, Clerk of the Peace.

Devon Epiphany Sessions, 1864.

WHEREAS, on the 5th day of August last, six of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county of Devon did, by writing, under their hands, require the Clerk of the Peace for the said county, to add to, or send with the notice for holding the then next Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, a notice in the form marked A, in the schedule to the Act 25 and 26 Victoria, c. 61, or as near thereto as circumstances would admit, that, at the said General Quarter Sessions, a proposal would be made to the Justices to constitute the parishes of Arlington, Berrynarbor, Bittadon, Bratton Fleming, Brendon, Challacombe, Combmartin, Countisbury, East Down, Goodleigh, Highbray, Kentisbury, Lynton, Loxhore, Martinhoe, Marwood, Parracombe, Pilton, Sherwill, Stoke Rivers, and Trentishoe, a highway district; and did also require the said Clerk of the Peace to send, by post, in a prepaid letter, notices in the aforesaid form, to the Churchwardens and Overseers of every parish mentioned in the said notice.

And whereas, the Clerk of the Peace having complied with the said requisition, the said six Justices (two, at least, of whom were resident within the proposed highway district) made the said proposal to the Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, held at the Castle of Exeter, on the 20th day of October, 1863, and the same was entertained by the Justices there assembled.

And whereas, at the said Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, in pursuance of the powers vested in it in and by the said Act, the said Court did, by a Provisional Order, direct that the parishes and places undermentioned should be constituted a highway district, and that the same shall be known by the name of "The Ilfracombe Highway District."

And the said Court did, by the said Provisional Order, also order and direct that the number of Waywardens which each parish should elect, should be the number set against the name of each parish respectively, viz. :—

Parish.	No. of Waywardens.
Arlington	1
Berrynarbor	1
Bittadon	1
Bratton Fleming	1
Brendon	1
Challacombe	1
Combmartin	1
Countisbury	1
East Down	1
Goodleigh	1
Highbray	1
Kentisbury	1
Lynton	1
Loxhore	1
Martinhoe	1
Marwood	1
Parracombe	1
Pilton (such part as is not in the borough of Barnstaple)	1
Sherwill	1
Stoke Rivers	1
Trentishoe	1

And whereas, by the said Provisional Order, the said Court did further order, that should any parish hereinbefore mentioned, separately maintaining its own poor, be divided into townships, tithings, hamlets, or places, each of which has hitherto separately maintained its own highways; the said townships, tithings, hamlets, or places, shall be combined with the parish wherein the same are respectively situate; and that where the same are situate in more than one parish, they shall be combined with the parish in which they shall have the largest boundary line; and no separate Waywardens shall be elected for the same; and that such parish shall be subject to the same liabilities in respect of all highways within it which were before maintained by such townships, tithings, hamlets, and places separately, as if all their several liabilities had attached to the whole parish, and that a Waywarden, or two Waywardens, if two Waywardens shall have been hereinbefore ordered, shall be elected for such parish as a whole.

And whereas, by the said Provisional Order, the said Court did further order, that should any of the parishes or places hereinbefore mentioned, or any part or parts thereof, be comprehended in the terms of the restrictions imposed, with respect to the formation of highway districts, by section 7 of the said Act, 25 and 26 Victoria, c. 61; such parishes or places, or part or parts thereof, shall not be included in the said highway district; and the said Order, so far only as regarded the said parishes or places, or part or parts thereof, should be of no effect.

And whereas, by the said Provisional Order, the said Court also ordered that the confirmation of the said Provisional Order, by a Final Order, should be taken into consideration by the Justices at the Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county of Devon, to be held at the Castle of Exeter, on the 5th day of January, 1864.

Now, therefore, at this Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, holden at the Castle of Exeter, on the 5th day of January, 1864, the Justices here assembled having considered the premises, do, by this Final Order, confirm the said Provisional Order.

And this Court doth further order, that the first meeting of the Highway Board for the said district shall be held at Ilfracombe, on the fifth day after the first election of Waywardens, in pursuance of the said Act, at twelve o'clock at noon.

Provided always, that in case such fifth day should fall on a Sunday, then the first meeting of the said Board shall be held on the Monday then next following, at twelve o'clock at noon.

By the Court,

H. Ford, Clerk of the Peace.

Devon Epiphany Sessions, 1864.

WHEREAS, on the 8th day of September last, five of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county of Devon did, by writing, under their hands, require the Clerk of the Peace for the said county to add to or send with the notice for holding the then next Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county; a notice in the form marked A, in the schedule to the Act, 25 and 26 Victoria, c. 61; or as near thereto as circumstances would admit, that at the said General Quarter Sessions a proposal would be made to the Justices to constitute the parishes of Ashburton, Bickington, Buckland in the Moor, Holne, Ilington, Manaton, Widdicombe in the Moor, Staverton, Woodland, and Broadhempstone, a Highway

District; and did also require the said Clerk of the Peace to send, by post, in a prepaid letter, notices in the aforesaid form, to the Churchwardens and Overseers of every parish mentioned in the said notice.

And whereas, the Clerk of the Peace having complied with the said requisition, the said five Justices (two, at least, of whom were resident within the proposed Highway District) made the said proposal to the Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, held at the Castle of Exeter, on the 20th day of October, 1863, and the same was entertained by the Justices there assembled.

And whereas, at the said Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, in pursuance of the powers vested in it in and by the said Act, the said Court did, by a Provisional Order, direct that the parishes and places undermentioned should be constituted a Highway District, and that the same shall be known by the name of "The Ashburton Highway District."

And the said Court did, by the said Provisional Order, also order and direct that the number of Waywardens, which each parish should elect, should be the number set against the name of each parish respectively, viz. :—

Parish.	No. of Waywardens.
Ashburton 2
Bickington 1
Buckland in the Moor 1
Holne 1
Ilington 2
Manaton 1
Widdicombe in the Moor 2
Staverton 2
Woodland 1
Broadhempstone 1

And whereas, by the said Provisional Order, the said Court did further order, that should any parish hereinbefore mentioned, separately maintaining its own poor, be divided into townships, tithings, hamlets, or places, each of which has hitherto separately maintained its own highways, the said townships, tithings, hamlets, or places, shall be combined with the parish wherein the same are respectively situate; and that where the same are situate in more than one parish they shall be combined with the parish in which they shall have the largest boundary line, and no separate Waywardens shall be elected for the same, and that such parish shall be subject to the same liabilities in respect of all highways within it which were before maintained by such townships, tithings, hamlets, and places separately, as if all their several liabilities had attached to the whole parish, and that a Waywarden or two Waywardens, if two Waywardens shall have been hereinbefore ordered, shall be elected for such parish as a whole.

And whereas, by the said Provisional Order, the said Court did further order, that, should any of the parishes or places hereinbefore mentioned, or any part or parts thereof, be comprehended in the terms of the restrictions imposed with respect to the formation of Highway Districts, by section 7 of the said Act, 25 and 26 Victoria, c. 61, such parishes or places, or part or parts thereof, should not be included in the said Highway District, and the said order, so far only as regarded the said parishes or places, or part or parts thereof, should be of no effect.

And whereas, by the said Provisional Order, the said Court also ordered that the confirmation of the said Provisional Order by a Final Order should be taken into consideration by the Justices at the Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county of Devon, to be held at the Castle of Exeter, on the 5th day of January 1864.

Now therefore, at this Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, holden at the Castle of Exeter, on the 5th day of January, 1864, the Justices here assembled, having considered the premises, do, by this Final Order, confirm the said Provisional Order.

And this Court doth further order that the first meeting of the Highway Board for the said district shall be held at Ashburton, on the fifth day after the first election of Waywardens in pursuance of the said Act, at twelve o'clock at noon.

Provided always, that in case such fifth day should fall on a Sunday, then the first meeting of the said board shall be held on the Monday then next following at twelve o'clock at noon.

By the Court,

H. Ford, Clerk of the Peace.

Devon Epiphany Sessions, 1864.

WHEREAS, on the 8th day of September last, five of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county of Devon did, by writing, under their hands, require the Clerk of the Peace for the said county to add to or send with the notice for holding the then next Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, a notice in the form marked A, in the Schedule to the Act 25 and 26 Victoria, c. 61, or as near thereto as circumstances would admit, that, at the said General Quarter Sessions, a proposal would be made to the Justices to constitute the parishes of Bovey Tracey, Abbotskerswell, Bishopsteignton, Coffinswell, Coombinteignhead, Dawlish, Denbury, East Ogwell, Haccombe, Ideford, Ipplepen, Kingsteignton, Kingskerswell, St. Nicholas, Stokeinteignhead, Torbryan, West Ogwell, Wolborough, Highweek, Chudleigh, Hennock, Teigngrace, and Trusham, a Highway District; and did also require the said Clerk of the Peace to send, by post, in a prepaid letter, notices in the aforesaid form, to the Churchwardens and Overseers of every parish mentioned in the said notice.

And whereas, the Clerk of the Peace having complied with the said requisition, the said five Justices (two, at least, of whom were resident within the proposed Highway District) made the said proposal to the Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, held at the Castle of Exeter, on the 20th day of October, 1863, and the same was entertained by the Justices there assembled.

And whereas, at the said Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, in pursuance of the powers vested in it in and by the said Act, the said Court did, by a Provisional Order, direct that the parishes and places undermentioned should be constituted a Highway District, and that the same shall be known by the name of "The Newton Abbot Highway District."

And the said Court did, by the said Provisional Order, also order and direct that the number of Waywardens, which each parish should elect, should be the number set against the name of each parish respectively, viz. :-

Parish.	No. of Waywardens.
Bovey Tracey 1
Abbotskerswell 1

Trusham 1

And whereas, by the said Provisional Order, the said Court did further order, that should any parish hereinbefore mentioned, separately maintaining its own poor, be divided into townships, tithings, hamlets, or places, each of which has hitherto separately maintained its own highways, the said townships, tithings, hamlets, or places, shall be combined with the parish wherein the same are respectively situate, and that where the same are situate in more than one parish they shall be combined with the parish in which they shall have the largest boundary line, and no separate Waywardens shall be elected for the same, and that such parish shall be subject to the same liabilities in respect of all highways within it which were before maintained by such townships, tithings, hamlets, and places separately, as if all their several liabilities had attached to the whole parish, and that a Waywarden or two Waywardens, if two Waywardens shall have been hereinbefore ordered, shall be elected for such parish as a whole.

And whereas, by the said Provisional Order, the said Court did further order, that, should any of the parishes or places hereinbefore mentioned, or any part or parts thereof be comprehended in the terms of the restrictions imposed with respect to the formation of Highway Districts, by section 7 of the said Act, 25 and 26 Victoria, c. 61, such parishes or places, or part or parts thereof, should not be included in the said Highway District, and the said Order, so far only as regards the said parishes or places, or part or parts thereof, should be of no effect.

And whereas, by the said Provisional Order, the said Court also ordered that the confirmation of the said Provisional Order by a Final Order should be taken into consideration by the Justices, at the Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county of Devon, to be held at the Castle of Exeter, on the 5th day of January, 1864.

Now, therefore, at this Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, holden at the Castle of Exeter, on the 5th day of January, 1864, the Justices here assembled having considered the premises, do, by this Final Order, confirm the said Provisional Order.

And this Court, doth further order that the first meeting of the Highway Board for the said district, shall be held at Newton Abbot, on the fifth day after the first election of Waywardens in pursuance of the said Act, at twelve o'clock at noon.

Provided always, that in case such fifth day should fall on a Sunday, then the first meeting of the said Board shall be held on the Monday then next following, at twelve o'clock at noon.

By the Court,
H. Ford, Clerk of the Peace.

Devon Epiphany Sessions, 1864.

WHEREAS on the 28th day of September last, six of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county of Devon did, by writing, under their hands, require the Clerk of the Peace for the said county to add to or send with the notice for holding the then next Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, a notice in the Form marked (A), in the Schedule to the Act 25 and 26 Victoria, c. 61, or as near thereto as circumstances would admit, that, at the said General Quarter Sessions a proposal would be made to the Justices to constitute the parishes of Ashprington, Buckfastleigh, Cornworthy, Dittisham, Dean Prior, Dartington, Halwell, Harberton, Morleigh, North Huish, Rattery, South Brent, Townstall, and Diptford, a Highway District; and did also require the said Clerk of the Peace to send by post, in a prepaid letter, notices in the aforesaid form, to the Churchwardens and Overseers of every parish mentioned in the said notice.

And whereas the Clerk of the Peace having complied with the said requisition, the said six Justices (two, at least, of whom were resident within the proposed Highway District), made the said proposal to the Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, held at the Castle of Exeter, on the 20th day of October, 1863, and the same was entertained by the Justices there assembled.

And whereas at the said Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, in pursuance of the powers vested in it in and by the said Act, the said Court did by a Provisional Order, direct that the parishes and places under-mentioned should be constituted a Highway District, and that the same shall be known by the name of "The Totnes Highway District."

And the said Court did by the said Provisional Order also order and direct that the number of Waywardens which each parish should elect, should be the number set against the name of each parish respectively, viz. :—

Parish.	No. of Waywardens.
Ashprington	1
Buckfastleigh	1
Cornworthy	1
Dittisham	1
Dean Prior	1
Dartington	1
Halwell	1
Harberton	1
Morleigh	1
North Huish	1
Rattery	1
South Brent	2
Townstall	1
Diptford	1

And whereas by the said Provisional Order the said Court did further order, that should any parish hereinbefore mentioned, separately maintaining its own poor, bedivided into townships, tithings, hamlets, or places, each of which has hitherto separately maintained its own highways, the said townships, tithings, hamlets, or places shall be combined with the parish wherein the same are respectively situate, and that where the same are situate in more than one parish they shall be combined with the parish in which they shall have the largest boundary line, and no separate

Waywardens shall be elected for the same, and that such parish shall be subject to the same liabilities in respect of all highways within it which were before maintained by such townships, tithings, hamlets, and places separately, as if all their several liabilities had attached to the whole parish, and that a Waywarden or two Waywardens, if two Waywardens shall have been hereinbefore ordered, shall be elected for such parish as a whole.

And whereas by the said Provisional Order the said Court did further order, that, should any of the parishes or places hereinbefore mentioned, or any part or parts thereof, be comprehended in the terms of the restrictions imposed with respect to the formation of Highway Districts, by section 7 of the said Act, 25 and 26 Victoria, c. 61, such parishes or places, or part or parts thereof, should not be included in the said Highway District, and the said Order so far only as regarded the said parishes or places, or part or parts thereof, should be of no effect.

And whereas by the said Provisional Order the said Court also ordered that the confirmation of the said Provisional Order by a Final Order should be taken into consideration by the Justices, at the Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county of Devon, to be held at the Castle of Exeter, on the 5th day of January, 1864.

Now, therefore, at this Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, holden at the Castle of Exeter, on the 5th day of January, 1864, the Justices here assembled having considered the premises do by this Final Order confirm the said Provisional Order.

And this Court doth further order that the First Meeting of the Highway Board for the said District shall be held at Totnes, on the fifth day after the first election of Waywardens in pursuance of the said Act, at twelve o'clock at noon.

Provided always, that in case such fifth day should fall on a Sunday then the first meeting of the said Board shall be held on the Monday then next following, at twelve o'clock at noon.

By the Court,
H. Ford, Clerk of the Peace.

Southampton to wit.

AT the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Sovereign Lady the Queen, holden at the Castle of Winchester, in and for the said county of Southampton, on Monday, the 4th day of January, in the 27th year of the reign of Our Sovereign Lady Victoria, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, and in the year of our Lord 1864, before the Right Honourable Charles, Viscount Eversley, Chairman, the Right Honourable Henry Howard Molyneux, Earl of Carnarvon, and others, their Fellows, Justices of our said Lady the Queen, assigned to keep the Peace of our said Lady the Queen, in the county aforesaid.

Whereas at the last General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Sovereign Lady the Queen, holden at the Castle of Winchester, in and for the said county of Southampton, on the 19th day of October now last past, the Justices then and there assembled did, in pursuance and by virtue of the powers vested in them by the Act of Parliament of the 25th and 26th Vict., cap. 61, intituled "An Act for the better Management of Highways in England," provisionally order, that the parish of St. Mary Extra, minus the tithings of Weston and Bitterne, in the said county, should be added to and form part of the South Stoneham Highway District, and that one Waywarden should be elected for the said parish.

And the said Justices making the said Provisional Order did thereby further order that the confirmation thereof by a Final Order should be taken into consideration at the present General Quarter Sessions. And whereas proof hath been made to this Court, that the notices required by the said Act of Parliament as to the making of the said Provisional Order, and as to the considering the confirmation thereof by a Final Order at the present General Quarter Sessions, have been duly published and given by the Clerk of the Peace of the said county.

Now, therefore, the Justices assembled at the present General Quarter Sessions having considered the premises, do, by this Final Order, confirm the said Provisional Order in the following form, viz:—

“That the parish of St. Mary Extra, in this county, minus the tithings of Weston and Bitterne, which have already been included in the South Stoneham Highway District, be added to the said district, and that one Waywarden be elected for the said parish, minus the tithings aforesaid.”

By the Court,

Thos. B. Woodham, Deputy Clerk of the Peace.

In the Matter of the Companies' Act, 1862, and of the Metropolitan Cab and Carriage Company (Limited).

By an order made by the Vice-Chancellor Sir William Page Wood, in the above Matter, dated the 16th day of January, 1864, on the petition of Henry Aste and John Aste, of Old Barge House, Upper Ground-street, in the county of Surrey, Corn Merchants and Copartners, and on the petition of David Blanch, Coach Builder, of No. 35, Church-street, Chelsea, and Ham's-yard, Great Windmill-street, Haymarket, Thos. Josh. Smith, of No. 7, St. Mary at Hill, Eastcheap, in the city of London, and Alfred Apps, of No. 22, Caroline-street, Eaton-square, Gentleman, it was ordered that the said Company be wound up by the High Court of Chancery, under the provisions of the Companies' Act, 1862.

Willoughby, Cox, and Lord, No. 13, Clifford's-inn, London, Solicitors for Henry Aste and John Aste, the above-mentioned Petitioners.

Horace Earle, No. 38, Walbrook, Solicitor for David Blanch, Thos. Joseph Smith, and Alfred Apps, the above-named Petitioners.

Statutory Notice of Judgment.—Debtor Summons.

To William Henry Hamlyn, formerly of No. 9, Elizabeth-street, Cheetham, Manchester, in the county of Lancaster.

TAKE notice, that a Judgment Debtor Summons, dated the 13th day of January, 1864, was issued by Henry Atkinson, of No. 3, Norfolk-street, in the city of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Attorney, on behalf of the plaintiffs hereinafter named, and is under the Seal of Her Majesty's Court of Bankruptcy for the Manchester District, requiring you personally to be and appear before William Thomas Jemmett, Esq., the Commissioner of the said Court of Bankruptcy, on the 22nd day of January instant, at twelve o'clock, to be examined respecting your ability to satisfy a debt of £392 11s. 4d., claimed of you by John Nixon Harman and William Anderson Bryden, of Banbury, in the county of Oxford, Common Brewers and copartners in trade, trading together under the style or firm of Harman and Bryden, upon and by virtue, first of a Judgment of the Court of Exchequer of Pleas for the sum of £341 9s. 0d., recovered by the said John Nixon Harman and William Anderson Bryden against you on the 1st day of December last; and, secondly, upon and by virtue of a Judgment of the Court of Common Pleas for the sum of £51 2s. 4d., also recovered by the said John Nixon Harman and William Anderson Bryden against you on the 1st day of December last; the two last-mentioned sums making together the said sum of £392 11s. 4d., and of which said sum of £392 11s. 4d. the sum of £260, exclusive of costs, is sworn to be due from you to the said John Nixon Harman and William Anderson Bryden, and the sum of £132 11s. 4d. for taxed costs, making together the said sum of £392 11s. 4d. and for the discovery of property applicable in that behalf. And whereas it has been proved to the satisfaction of the said Court of Bankruptcy, that you have been keeping out of the way to avoid service of the said summons, and that service thereof cannot be effected. This notice is given by order of the same Court, and in pursuance of "The Bankruptcy Act, 1861," and you are hereby required personally to be and appear before the Commissioner, at the same Court, at Manchester aforesaid, on the 15th day of February next, at twelve o'clock at noon, to be examined respecting your ability to satisfy the said debt, and for discovery of property applicable in that behalf; and you are hereby informed, that if, after service of the said summons or notice thereof by this advertisement, you do not pay the said debt and costs or secure or compound for the same to the satisfaction of the creditors, then, on your appearance to this notice, or if you shall not appear, having no lawful impediment allowed by the Court, and in either case without the presentation of a Petition for adjudication or other proceeding, the Court may adjudge you bankrupt.

ATKINSON, SAUNDERS, and Co., No. 3, Norfolk-street, Manchester, Solicitors on behalf of the said John Nixon Harman, and William Anderson Bryden.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a meeting of the creditors of Godfrey Taylor, of the Bull Hotel, Rochester, in the county of Kent, Hotel Keeper, Dealer, and Chapman, a Bankrupt, will be held before Thomas Ewing Winslow, Esquire, one of the Registrars of the Court, at the Court of Bankruptcy, Basinghall-street, London, on Tuesday, the 9th day of February, 1864, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely, for the purpose of determining whether the estate of the said Godfrey Taylor should be wound up, under a deed of assignment, composition, or otherwise, and whether an application shall be made to the Court to stay proceedings in the bankruptcy, under the 185th section of "The Bankruptcy Act, 1861."—Dated this 29th day of January, 1864.

In the Matter of William Joshua Grazebrook, a Bankrupt, filed 17th June, 1863.

I HEREBY give notice, that the creditors who have proved their debts under the above estate, may receive a First Dividend of 3s. in the pound, upon application at my office, as under, on Wednesday, the 3rd day of February next, or any subsequent Wednesday, between the hours of eleven and two. No Dividend will be paid without the production of the securities exhibited at the time of proving the debt. Executors and administrators will be required to produce the probate of the will or the letters of administration under which they claim.

GEORGE MORGAN, Official Assignee,
No. 12, Cook-street, Liverpool.

WHEREAS a Petition for adjudication of Bankruptcy was, on the 6th day of November, 1863, filed in Her Majesty's Court of Bankruptcy for the Leeds District, against William Pilkington, of Morley, in the county of York, Woollen Manufacturer, under which the said William Pilkington was, on the 7th day of November, 1863, adjudicated a bankrupt. Notice is hereby given, that by an Order of the said Court, bearing date the 30th day of November, 1863, the said adjudication of Bankruptcy was annulled.
