At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 3rd day of February, 1864.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representations, has, under the provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," made representations stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in any of the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and that interments in the same should be discontinued, with the following modifications; viz.:

WEMBLEY.—Forthwith wholly in the church of St. John, and in the churchyard, except so far as may be compatible with the following regulations: That, with the exception of now existing family vaults and graves, the burials be restricted to the bodies of persons dying within the ecclesiastical parish of St. John, Wembley: that burials be conducted in accordance with Nos. 1, 3, 5, 6, 7, and 8, of the official regulations for new burial-grounds, and that no grave or vault be excavated to a greater depth than seven and a half feet.

EAST BARNET.—Forthwith in the church, and, with the exception of now existing family vaults and graves, in all that part of the churchyard which lies to the south of a line drawn along the south side of the church.

BENGWORTH.—Forthwith in the church.

GREETLAND, HALIFAX.—Forthwith in the burial-ground of the Wesleyan chapel, except in as far as burials are conducted in accordance with the seventh and eighth official regulations for new burial-grounds.

RUGBY.—Forthwith in the new churchyard, except in vaults and walled graves in which each coffin shall be embedded in charcoal, and separately enclosed by concrete, or by masonry or brickwork properly cemented; and except in earthen graves not less than four feet deep, which can be opened without disturbance of human remains, and which are to be used for the burial of the widowers, widows, parents, or unmarried children, of those already buried in the churchyard.

HAWARDEN.—In the churchyard of Broughton on the first July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, except in graves not less than five feet deep, which are free from water and remains.

CHIPPING SODBURY.—In the church forthwith, and in the churchyard on the first October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, except in now existing vaults and walled graves, in which each coffin shall be separately enclosed by brickwork and masonry, properly cemented; and except in graves not less than five feet deep, which can be opened without disturbance of entire bones, or exposure of coffins.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representations, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the twenty-second day of March next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of or on some conspicuous places within the parishes affected by such representations one month before the said twenty-second day of March.
