And it was also enacted, that where any such Petition as aforesaid as well of the Justices of the county as of any Liberty situate therein, shall be certified as aforesaid to Her Majesty, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, if she shall think fit, with the advice of Her Privy Council, after taking into consideration such Petition, and also any other Petition which may be presented to Her by any person concerning any proposed union of the Liberty with the county, to order the union of such Liberty with the county from such time, upon such terms and conditions, and subject to such restrictions, and generally in such manner as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, shall seem expedient.

And whereas, in pursuance of provisions aforesaid of the statute aforesaid, the Justices of the Peace for the West Riding of the county of York, assembled in General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, at Wakefield, in and for the said riding, on Tuesday, the fifth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, have presented a Petition to Her Majesty, setting forth that there exists within the West Riding of the county of York a Liberty called the Liberty of Cawood, Wistow, and Otley, consisting of fifteen townships or places, namely, Cawood, Wistow, Baildon, Burley, Denton, Esholt, Farnley, Guiseley, Hawkesworth, Lindley, Menston, Newall-with-Clifton, Otley, Poole, and Timble Little, which Liberty, by virtue of the Statute passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter eighty-seven, intituled "An Act for extinguishing the Secular Jurisdiction of the Archbishop of York and the Bishop of Ely in certain Liberties in the Counties of York, Nottingham, and Cambridge," is now vested in Her Majesty, Her heirs, and successors; that such Liberty has a separate Commission of the Peace, but is not an incorporated borough; that it was resolved by the Justices of the Peace for the said riding, assembled at the Quarter Sessions of the Peace, held at Leeds, in and for the said riding, on Tuesday, the twentieth day of October last, that it seemed expedient to the Justices of the Peace of the said riding, that the union of the said Liberty of Cawood, Wistow, and Otley with the said West Riding, in which riding the same liberty is situated, should be effected, under the said Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and five; and it was also further resolved and ordered, that a Petition should be presented to Her Majesty, praying that such union should take place, and that the further consideration of such Petition should be adjourned until this Quarter Sessions, and that in the meantime notice should be given of the intention to take such Petition into consideration by the Justices of the said riding at this Sessions, at Wakefield aforesaid, as required by the said Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and five, section two; that, in pursuance of the said resolution and order, and in conformity with the said Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and five, notice by the Clerk of the Peace of the said West Riding has been duly advertised in the London "Times" newspaper, and also in the "Leeds Mercury," and "Leeds Intelligencer," being respectively newspapers circulating in the said West Riding, for three successive weeks previously to the holding of this Quarter Sessions; and notice has also been duly given by the said Clerk of the Peace of the said West Riding to the Clerk of the Peace of the said liberty, that the said resolution and order would be taken into consideration at this Sessions, being the time and place mentioned in the said resolution and order, and to which the further consideration of the said Petition was adjourned; that the reasons upon which the Petition was founded, and the terms and conditions upon or under which it is desired that the union of the said Liberty with the said West Riding shall take place, are the following:—

1. That there is no gaol or other property of the said Liberty, and no debt charged on the rates of such Liberty to be dealt with;
2. That the said townships or places of Cawood and Wistow, part of the said Liberty, are situated at a distance of about thirty miles from Otley and the other parts of the said Liberty, and have been for some time and are now, in fact and in practice, separated from

- and independent of the said Liberty; That no business arising within the townships or places of Cawood or Wistow is ever transacted in Petty Session or in Quarter Sessions of Justices of the Peace for the said Liberty;
3. That the said townships or places of Cawood and Wistow form, in fact, a part of the said West Riding, as being parcel of the Lower Division of Barkstonash, in the said riding, and that the inhabitants of the said two townships or places always transact their Petty Sessional business in the said Lower Division of Barkstonash, and their Quarter Sessions business at the Quarter or intermediate Sessions held for the said riding;
4. That the thirteen other townships or places above mentioned are all within and form part of the Petty Sessional Division of Otley, one of the Petty Sessional Divisions of the said riding, which said Petty Sessional Division of Otley consists of twenty-nine townships;
5. That all the fifteen townships or places constituting the said Liberty are rated, and contribute to the rates of the said riding in the nature of county rates;
6. That Sessions of the Peace, for the trial of persons charged with felony or misdemeanour, are held every six weeks for and within the said riding;
7. That the Sessions of the Peace for the said Liberty being only held once in each quarter, (and then on the same day as the Quarter Sessions of the said riding), the persons committed for trial on such charges by the Justices of the Peace of the said Liberty, have frequently to remain in prison before trial for a much longer period than when committed for trial at the sessions of the Peace for the said riding, and on their trial are unable to obtain, without great expense and inconvenience, the assistance of members of the bar, whose duties require their attendance at the riding sessions;
8. That very few appeals can by law be tried at the Liberty Sessions, and, in fact, for a long period none have been tried there, and that the business of the Quarter Sessions for the said Liberty is so small as not to justify the summoning and attendance of jurors and other officers and persons at such Quarter Sessions, or the expenses of holding such Quarter Sessions separate and apart from the Quarter Sessions of the said riding;
9. That at the last seventeen Quarter Sessions for the said Liberty an aggregate of only eleven prisoners has been tried;
10. That all persons remanded for examination by the Justices of the Peace for the said Liberty are confined, during such remand, in the lock-up at Otley, belonging to the said Riding, and that all persons committed for trial by such Justices on charges of felony or misdemeanour are confined until trial in the house of correction at Wakefield, in and for the said Riding;
11. That although there is a separate Commission of the Peace for the said Liberty, the Justices of the Peace for the said West Riding have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction with the Justices of the Peace for the said Liberty, but all Justices of the Riding acting for the Otley Petty Sessional Division not being Liberty Justices when Liberty cases are being heard, they can take no part in the proceedings, and that all or nearly all the acting Justices of the Peace for the said Liberty are also Justices of the Peace for the said Riding;

12. That there is no place belonging to the said Liberty in which Sessions of the Peace can be held, and that a room has to be hired for the purpose of holding such Sessions, the expense of which is paid out of the funds of the said Riding;
13. That there is no rate for the said Liberty in the nature of county rate to defray any of the expenses of summoning juries, or connected with the holding of the Quarter Sessions for the said liberty, or any other charges or expenses connected with the said Liberty;
14. That all such expenses and charges are borne by and paid out of the county rates of the said Riding;
15. That the Custos Rotulorum of the said West Riding is, by virtue of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter eighty-seven, section six, the keeper of the records of the Court of Sessions of the Peace of the said Liberty;

That there is no Hereditary Sheriff, Coroner, or Treasurer for the said Liberty; that the only persons holding or entitled to any permanent franchise or office in or belonging to the said Liberty are Henry Newstead, the Clerk of the Peace of the said Liberty, and James Dawson, the Chief Bailiff thereof; that the compensation to be paid to the said Henry Newstead on the union of the said Liberty with the said county has been fixed at the sum of thirty-two pounds (for life) per annum, and the compensation to be paid to the said James Dawson on the said union has been fixed at the sum of thirteen pounds (for life) per annum, the said respective sums as compensation to be paid by half-yearly payments, and to be raised and paid out of the rates of the said Riding, levied and collected in the nature of county rates; that the administration of justice would be facilitated by the union of the said Liberty with the said Riding, and there no longer exists any valid reason why the peculiar privileges heretofore belonging to the Liberty of Cawood, Wistow, and Otley should not now be extinguished, and that its inhabitants, receiving equally with the other inhabitants of the West Riding the benefit of the organization of police and accommodation for sessional purposes, should have at the expense of the Riding a Quarter Sessions of their own; and praying that Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, would take the Petition into consideration, and order the union of the said Liberty of Cawood, Wistow, and Otley with the said West Riding of the county of York, from such time, upon such terms and conditions, and subject to such restrictions, and generally in such manner as to Her Majesty with the advice aforesaid should seem expedient: which Petition was certified to Her Majesty, under the hand of the Chairman of the Justices at the Sessions when the said Petition was agreed to.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said Petition into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the union of the said Liberty of Cawood, Wistow, and Otley with the said West Riding of the county of York shall take place on the twenty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, upon all and every the terms and conditions set forth in the said Petition, upon and under which it is desired in the said Petition that the said union shall take place.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighteenth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Easington, in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham.

"And whereas certain hereditaments and premises situate within the said parish of Easington have become vested in us under the provisions of and for the purposes of the herein-mentioned Acts.

"And whereas by an indenture, bearing date on or about the thirteenth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and made or expressed to be made between Samuel Long, of Bromley-hill, in the county of Kent, Esquire, and Russell Ellice, of Leadenhall-street, in the city of London, Merchant, of the first part; Richard Lawrence Pemberton, of 'The Barnes', in the county of Durham, Esquire, of the second part; and us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the third part (which indenture is intended to be enrolled in your Majesty's High Court of Chancery, at Westminster); the said Samuel Long and Russell Ellice did, at the request of the said Richard Lawrence Pemberton, grant and confirm unto us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and our successors, in aid of the endowment of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, a yearly rent charge of seventy-five pounds, issuing and payable out of and charged upon certain lands, tenements, and hereditaments situate in the township of Hawthorn, in the said parish of Easington.

"And whereas the Reverend James Manisty is the rector or incumbent of the rectory of the said parish of Easington, and the Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham, is in right of his see the patron of the rectory of the said parish of Easington.

"And whereas by an indenture, bearing date on or about the twenty-third day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and made or expressed to be made between the said James Manisty, of the first part; the said

Charles, Bishop of Durham, of the second part; and us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the third part (which last-mentioned indenture is also intended to be enrolled in your Majesty's High Court of Chancery, at Westminster); the said James Manisty, with the privity of the said Charles, Bishop of Durham, granted unto us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and our successors, in further aid of the endowment of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, certain tithe commutation rent-charges or portions of tithe commutation rent-charges, amounting in gross to the sum of twenty-seven pounds nine shillings and eleven pence per annum, issuing, arising, and payable out or in respect of certain lands and hereditaments situate in the township of Hawthorn aforesaid, and being portions of the tithe commutation rent charges belonging to the said rectory of Easington.

"And whereas the said yearly rent charge of seventy-five pounds and the said tithe commutation rent charges, amounting in gross to the sum of twenty-seven pounds nine shillings and eleven pence per annum, were so granted and confirmed to us and our successors, as aforesaid, upon the understanding that the annual sum of fifty pounds should be granted and paid out of our common fund in further augmentation of the endowment herein before provided for the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted.

"And whereas it has been proposed to us by the said Richard Lawrence Pemberton and James Manisty, and it appears to us to be expedient, that in consideration of the grants of the said yearly rent charge of seventy-five pounds and of the said tithe commutation rentcharges respectively, as aforesaid, the whole right of patronage of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister of the same, should be assigned to the said Richard Lawrence Pemberton, his heirs and assigns, in manner hereinafter mentioned.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that all that portion of the said parish of Easington, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portion, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Michael, Hawthorn.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the said yearly rentcharge of seventy-five pounds so granted unto us as aforesaid, and also the said tithe commutation rentcharges or portions of tithe commutation rentcharges amounting in gross to the yearly sum of twenty-seven pounds nine shillings and eleven pence likewise so granted to us as aforesaid, and all our estate and interest therein respectively, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, become transferred to and be absolutely vested in the minister of the district so recommended to be constituted so soon as one shall be appointed and licensed in accordance with the provisions of the herein secondly named Act, and in his successors, ministers of the same district, for ever.

Duties of the Headsman.

1. The Headsman shall have the whole control of the pilotage in the channel, subject to the Merchant Shipping Acts, the Local Act of Parliament, the bye-laws, and the Board of Commissioners.
2. He shall by himself or deputy attend at the Pilot-office at all reasonable hours, and afford every possible facility to owners and captains as to matters of pilotage.
3. He shall keep proper books and entries of pilot earnings, and distribute the same monthly as prescribed.
4. He shall keep a register of all ships arriving at and leaving the port, and a journal in which shall be entered all accidents to vessels (however occurring) while in charge of a pilot, and report the same to the Board of Commissioners at the meeting next after such accident.
5. He shall report to the Commissioners any case of misconduct or insubordination on the part of the pilots.
6. He shall regulate the turns of ships applying for pilots and give orders to the masters as to boarding in the channel, and generally as to the several duties of masters and pilots.
7. He shall personally survey the channel at least once in every month, and at such other times as he may think to be necessary.
8. He shall on the first notice of any vessel or vessels being on shore and in distress within the port (in preference to all other things) send all the assistance in his power, to such vessel or vessels. And all pilots having knowledge of such matters whilst in the channel, shall do their utmost to relieve such vessel or vessels without first coming up to town for the Headsman's orders for that purpose, but no proceedings shall be taken in the Admiralty Court or otherwise by the pilots for recovery of salvage, without the consent of the Commissioners being first had and obtained.

9. He shall in all cases where it shall appear to him that keels or barges coming up the channel can get into town the same tide, and do not proceed thither, discharge the pilot or pilots from the said keels or barges unless sufficient cause be assigned to him for making the delay.

Duties of Masters.

10. The master of each sloop shall attend at the Pilot-office for instructions from the superintendent, and shall strictly adhere to such instructions while on board the sloops.

11. He shall be responsible for the orderly conduct of the pilots while on board, and for the proper boarding of vessels, and shall see that the requisite signals are hoisted and a proper watch kept, and generally that the bye-laws are enforced, so far as relates to matters in the channel.

12. He shall report any instance of improper conduct, on the part of any of the pilots, to the Headsman.

13. He shall in no case leave the pilot vessel while down the channel.

Duties of Pilots.

14. The pilots shall strictly conform to the instructions of the Headsman while on shore, and to the masters while on board the sloops.

15. They shall severally report any accident occurring to any vessel in their charge to the Headsman immediately on their arrival at Lynn.

16. They shall always on arriving at Lynn report immediately to the Headsman what ship they have been on board, and where they have left her.

17. The bell affixed on the Pilot-office shall be rung at all times when the Headsman shall think proper a quarter of an hour, for calling the pilots to attend and receive his orders for going down with the sloop, and for other matters. And such pilots as shall neglect or refuse to go to the office at the ringing of the bell, shall be deemed guilty of neglect of duty, and liable to the consequences thereof.

18. They shall take their regular turns in piloting ships or vessels either down or up the channel, as the Headsman or the master or deputed master of the pilot sloops shall direct.

19. They shall attend every day at the Pilot-office, when not employed in piloting, from the beginning of flood until high-water, and at such other times of the day as are necessary, there to receive the orders and directions of their Headsman.

20. The pilot who shall have the charge of any ship or vessel lying in the roads, or at any place between the roads and the town, either inward or outward bound, shall not leave such ship or vessel and go on shore without first obtaining permission from the master of such ship or vessel.

21. Pilots appointed to pilot ships or vessels down the channel, shall on no account whatever, either at the request, or by permission, of the master of such ships or vessels leave or quit them (by allowing themselves to be put ashore) before their arrival in the roads.

22. When any pilot shall by accident or otherwise lay any ship or vessel aground which he shall have in charge, such pilot shall not of his own accord, under any pretence whatever, leave the ship or vessel until she shall be afloat and in safety.

23. The pilots shall at all times board ships and vessels bound to Lynn in preference to boarding vessels (being strangers) which may be in the roads bound to any other port, and they shall, if on board any vessel not bound to Lynn, quit such vessel immediately on the arrival in the roads of any vessel wanting a pilot bound to Lynn.

24. They shall not on any account anchor Humber keels or other vessels so as to obstruct the free navigation of ships or vessels going up and down the channel.

25. Whenever any buoy or beacon shall be lost or out of its place, the pilots shall forthwith acquaint the Headsman with the circumstance, in order that it may be replaced with as little delay as possible.

26. All the pilots, but especially the masters, or deputed masters of the pilot sloops shall observe particularly any alteration which may take place in the channel, and report from time to time such alteration to the Headsman.

27. Each pilot shall be allowed a fortnight's leave of absence in every year, at the discretion of the Headsman as to time, such leave however shall not be granted between the 1st October, and 31st May. Any pilot having leave granted, other than as above, shall pay to the Pilot Fund 3s. 6d. per day during his absence.

28. If any pilot, when in charge of any ship, by wilful breach of duty, or by neglect of duty, or by reason of drunkenness, does any act tending to the immediate loss, destruction, or serious damage of such ship, or tending immediately to endanger the life or limb of any person on board such ship, or if any pilot by wilful breach of duty, or by neglect of duty, or by reason of drunkenness refuses or omits to do any lawful act proper and requisite to be done by him, for preserving such ship from loss, destruction, or serious damage, or for preserving any person belonging to or on board of such ship from danger to life or limb, the pilot so offending, shall for each such offence be liable to suspension or dismissal by the Commissioners.

29. Any case of misconduct in regard to any of the pilots will be dealt with by the Board of Commissioners, and where necessary fines, suspension, or dismissal will be adjudged at the discretion of the Board.

The Pilot Sloops.

30. The pilot sloops shall be always at the disposal of the Headsman for the purposes of surveying, buoying, conveying pilots, and the general work in the channel, subject to the contract with the owners, and the special orders of the Commissioners.

31. One pilot sloop shall be always down the channel, and when at anchor in the roads shall ride by slip moorings, and from sunset to sunrise display a white light at the mast-head.

32. She shall be distinguished by the characteristics and signals prescribed by the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, that is to say:—

(a) A black colour, painted or tarred outside, with the exception of such names and numbers as are hereinafter mentioned.

(b) On her stern the name of the owner thereof, and the port to which she belongs, painted in white letters, at least one inch broad and three inches long, and on each bow the number of the license of such boat or ship.

- (c) When afloat a flag at the mast-head or on a sprit, or staff, or in some other equally conspicuous situation, such flag to be of large dimensions compared with the size of the vessel carrying the same, and to be of two colours, the upper horizontal half white, and the lower horizontal half red.

33. When all the pilots have been boarded, a black ball shall be hoisted (in the day time) at the mast-head in the place of the ordinary signal.

34. The pilot sloops shall at all times when in town lay afloat, if possible, on the west side of the channel.

The Superannuated Fund.

35. The above fund shall be sustained as follows :

- (a) Every pilot shall contribute to it ten shillings monthly from his earnings.
- (b) All fines levied upon pilots shall be paid to the account of the fund.
- (c) Ten per cent. shall be deducted from all amounts received from salvages and be paid to the account of the fund.

36. Each pilot, when superannuated, shall receive twenty pounds per annum from the Superannuated Fund.

37. The above amount of receipts and payments, in respect of the Superannuated Fund, may hereafter be varied according to circumstances by the Commissioners.

38. No pilot hereafter licensed shall be eligible to the Superannuated Fund until he shall have served at least twenty-five years as a working pilot.

General Regulations.

39. No person shall be accepted as a pilot, whether as an apprentice or otherwise, whose age shall exceed thirty years.

40. The Headsman shall not excuse any pilot from the exercise of his duty, on account of, or under any pretence of illness, unless such illness shall be certified in writing under the hand of some known physician, surgeon, or apothecary.

41. Any pilot being excused as above shall produce a similar certificate monthly, and, at the end of three months from the date of the first certificate he shall, if still unable to discharge his ordinary duty, be put upon half-pay, and at the end of six months he shall, if eligible, be put on Superannuated allowance.

42. If the pilot be not eligible to the Superannuated allowance he shall remain on half-pay for twelve months, after which his pay shall cease, and if he shall be unable to resume his duties within two years after the date of his first certificate his name shall then be erased, and he shall cease to be a pilot of the port.

43. Not more than one pilot shall be put on board any foreign or other ship or vessel, unless such ship or vessel shall have a signal of distress flying.

44. All masters of ships and vessels wanting pilots shall apply to the Headsman at the Pilot office, and there pay what shall be due for their pilotage both inward and outward, and for tides-work previous to a pilot being appointed to such ship or vessel.

45. Every master of a ship or vessel wanting a pilot shall produce to the Headsman the meter's or other officers certificate of clearance or discharge of the ship or vessel for which he applies for a pilot, and unless such certificate be produced to the Headsman, or he is otherwise satisfied that the ship or vessel has discharged her cargo he is not to appoint a pilot to such ship or vessel.

46. The pilots shall (unless impracticable) board inward bound vessels at the Bell Buoy. The first ship or vessel arriving at the Bell Buoy (such buoy bearing north-west) shall be entitled to the first pilot and every ship or vessel so arriving, and which cannot from her large burden proceed up the channel immediately, shall be boarded in her turn, and the pilot shall remain on board till the vessel can proceed to town.

47. All vessels bound to Lynn shall be free from the payment of pilotage in the event of such vessels not being able to obtain the services of a pilot, and in every case of inward or outward navigation, where a pilot has refused to go on board a vessel in any part of the channel, the pilotage shall be remitted.

48. The shipowners of this port are requested to give strict charge to their several masters of ships or vessels to make a true report to the pilots, when boarded, of the time of their arrival at the Bell Buoy, such buoy bearing north-west, in order that the proper turns of their several vessels may be attended to.

49. When any ships or vessels are coming up the channel into town, and there are others in the harbour outward bound, wanting pilots, the first ship or vessel in turn shall claim the first pilot coming into town, and so on in turn, as pilots may afterwards come in with ships and vessels.

50. Every ship or vessel shall be piloted so far down as the Bell Buoy.

51. All letters required to be delivered on board ships in the Roads shall be sent to the Pilot-office, and the Headsman shall provide a proper bag for the same, which shall be kept under lock and key. The Headsman shall be answerable for the custody of the said bag and for such steps being taken as shall secure the correct delivery of all letters placed in his charge. A register shall be kept at the Pilot-office of all letters received by the Headsman, the date of such receipts, and the date and mode of delivery. In case of the non-delivery of any such letters, within a reasonable time, the cause shall be stated in the register, and the Headsman shall not communicate to any person (other than the pilots) the address of any letter received by him.

52. A proper map of the channel showing all the buoys with a reference describing the size of each buoy shall be prepared, and a copy thereof kept at the Pilot-office, and also at the Town Hall, for the service of the Corporation and Commissioners.

53. Every pilot shall be furnished with a copy of the bye-laws, and a copy shall always be kept on board each sloop and at the Pilot-office, and shall be given on application to the shipowners.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the Session of Parliament, held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled

“An Act to amend the Burial Acts,” it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to order such acts to be done by or under the directions of the churchwardens or such other persons as may have the care of any vaults or places of burial, for preventing them from becoming or continuing dangerous or injurious to the public health ; and that every such Order in Council shall be published in the London Gazette, and that such churchwardens or other persons shall do or cause to be done all acts ordered as aforesaid, and the expenses incurred in and about the doing thereof shall be paid out of the poor rates of the parish : Provided always, that no such representation shall be made until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the churchwardens or other persons, or one of the churchwardens or other persons having the care of the vaults or places of burial to which the representation relates :

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation having been duly given to the churchwardens or other persons having the care of the undermentioned place of burial has made a representation, stating that he is of opinion that, for the purpose of preventing the said place of burial from becoming injurious to the public health, an Order should be made for the adoption of the measures which are hereinafter set forth ;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the churchwardens or such other persons as may have the care of the undermentioned place of burial do adopt, or cause to be adopted, the following measures, viz. :—

That all those parts of the Whitfield burial-ground, in Tottenham-court-road, Middlesex, in which the earth has been excavated should be covered with a layer of earth of the thickness of eighteen inches ; that on the whole of the surface of that burial-ground, not occupied by walks, flagstones, or monuments, a growing vegetation should be maintained ; that no soil which has been buried in should be disturbed ; and that the above works should be executed under the superintendence of the Medical Officer of Health of the parish of Saint Pancras.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
March 4, 1864.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs the following copy of a despatch from Her Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires at Hamburgh:—

*Hamburgh,
March 1, 1864.*

MY LORD,

THE following additional information respecting the lights on the east coast of Sleswig and Holstein has reached me this morning from a reliable quarter in Kiel.

The light at Bülick, the principal night-signal for navigation on the headland at the north-east entrance of the bay, still burns regularly. The light on the sandbank, close to Friedrichsort, has ceased, on account of the beacon in which it was fixed having been destroyed by ice.

The light in the fortress of Friederichsort, which usually burned when the beacon-fire could not be lighted, is not now burning, but this is not considered of much importance to the navigation.
The light inside the harbour of Kiel, near the baths, is, I understand, not usually lighted in the winter season.

In Holstein there is only one other light-house on the east coast, namely, St. Mary's Light, on the Island of Fehmarn, which continues to burn.

On the east coast of Sleswig the principal light-house is at Kekeniskoi, in the Island of Alsen, and is still in possession of the Danes.

It thus appears that the only light which has ceased to burn—since the Prussians have occupied Sleswig, is that at Friedrichsort.

The blockade of the east coast, although officially published at Copenhagen, has not yet been notified to the Foreign Consuls resident at Kiel.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) JOHN WARD.
