Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, MARCH 18, 1864.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, February 27, 1864.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Royal Highness The Princess of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Drawing Room at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Saturday, the 19th of March next, at two o'clock.

It is the Queen's pleasure that presentations to Her Royal Highness at this Drawing Room shall be considered as equivalent to presentations to Her Majesty.

THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOM.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOM TO BE HELD, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY BY HER ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCESS OF WALES, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Ladies, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Room, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Princess.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that a letter from the Lady who is to make the presentation, stating it to be her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to the Queen, for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command, that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing Room, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Princess.

It is not expected that Gentlemen will present themselves at the Drawing Room, excepting in attendance upon the Ladies of their families.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court until half-past one o'clock.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

Foreign Office, March 17, 1864.

EARL RUSSELL, K.G., Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, has received the following Despatch from His Excellency Lord Bloomfield, G.C.B., Her Majesty's Ambassador at Vienna, forwarding a copy and translation of the regulations issued by the Austrian Government, with regard to the capture and detention of enemy's and suspected ships, in consequence of the hostilities between Denmark and the German Powers.

MY LORD, Vienna, March 10, 1864.

I HAVE the honor to inclose herewith, in copy and translation, an Imperial Decree relative to the stoppage, by Austrian men-of-war, of ships belonging to the enemy or of a suspicious character.

I have, &c.,
BLOOMFIELD.

VERORDNUNG der Ministerien der auswärtigen Angelegenheiten, der Justiz, des Handels, des Krieges und der Marine vom 3. März 1864, betreffend die Aufbringung feindlicher und verdächtiger Schiffe durch österreichische Kriegsschiffe, aus Anlass der von der königlich dänischen Regierung gegen die österreichischen und preussischen Handelsschiffe, so wie gegen die Handelsschiffe der übrigen deutschen Bundesstaaten angeordneten Feindseligkeiten.

§ 1. Die Aufbringung von feindlichen und verdächtigen Schiffen darf in Gemässheit des ersten Absatzes der Declaration dd. Paris, 16. April 1856, welcher die Caperei untersagt (Reichsgesetzblatt vom Jahre 1856, Nr. 69), ausschliesslich nur durch

Schiffe der k. k. Kriegsmarine geschehen und sind deren Schiffscommandanten verpflichtet, nachstehend bezeichnete Fahrzeuge aufzubringen:

- a. Schiffe, welche dem feindlichen Staate oder dessen Unterthanen angehören;
- b. Schiffe, deren Neutralität nicht gehörig legitimirt ist (§ 4) oder welche nach den Bestimmungen dieser Verordnung (§ 5) als verdächtig erscheinen.

§ 2. Schiffe neutraler Mächte oder ihrer Unterthanen, wem immer die Ladung gehöre, dürfen nicht aufgebracht werden, vorausgesetzt, dass

- a. die auf Schiff und Ladung bezüglichen Papiere in Ordnung sind (§ 4),
- b. das Schiff nicht mit Kriegscontrebände, die für den Feind bestimmt ist, beladen, oder
- c. auch sonst nicht nach den Bestimmungen des vorhergehenden Paragraphes der Aufbringung unterworfen ist.

§ 3. Auf neutralem Seeterritorium darf kein Schiff angehalten oder aufgebracht werden.

§ 4. Die Neutralität eines Schiffes wird durch die Papiere dargethan, welche nach den Gesetzen der Heimat des betreffenden Schiffes zur Legitimierung der Nationalität desselben erforderlich sind.

§ 5. Als verdächtig anzuhalten und zur Untersuchung aufzubringen sind:

- a. Schiffe, welche doppelte oder wahrscheinlich falsche Papiere haben;
- b. Schiffe, welche keine Papiere haben, oder von denen in Erfahrung gebracht wurde, dass sie ihre Papiere über Bord geworfen oder sonst vernichtet haben, insbesondere, wenn solches erst geschehen, da der Kreuzer in Sicht war;
- c. Schiffe, welche nach geschehener Aufforderung des Kreuzers nicht beilegen, oder sich der Visitation von Schiffsräumen oder Behältnissen, in denen muthmasslich Kriegscontrebände oder Papiere verborgen sind, widersetzen.

§ 6. Als gute Prisen werden angesehen:

- a. Schiffe, welche dem feindlichen Staate oder feindlichen Unterthanen gehören, so wie das feindliche Gut an Bord solcher Schiffe.

Neutrales Gut an Bord feindlicher Schiffe, das keine Kriegscontrebände ist, kann nach Absatz 4 der obcitirten Declaration, dd. Paris, 16. April 1856, nicht als gute Prise angesehen werden.

- b. Neutrale Schiffe, deren ganze Ladung aus Kriegscontrebände besteht (vergleiche §§ 2 und 7).

Ist nur ein Theil der Ladung Contrebände, so kann der Schiffsführer selbst der Aufbringung entgegen, wenn er die Contrebände freiwillig auf der Stelle oder im nächsten Hafen löscht. Nach geschehener Entlöschung kann das Schiff mit der übrigen Ladung weitersegeln. Die Kriegscontrebände ist als gute Prise anzusehen.

- c. Schiffe, welche sich der Anhaltung gewaltsam widersetzen.
- d. Vom Feinde genommene und denselben wieder abgenommene österreichische Schiffe, wenn diese nicht als Reprise betrachtet werden können.
- e. Als verdächtig aufgebrauchte Schiffe (§ 5), wofern der gegen sie vorliegende Verdacht nicht behoben wird.

§ 7. Als Kriegscontrebände werden die nachfolgenden Gegenstände erklärt, jedoch nur dann, wenn sie nach feindlichen Häfen bestimmt sind: Kanonen, Mörser, Drehbassen, alle Arten von Waffen, Bomben, Granaten, Kugeln, Zündhütchen, Luntten, Pulver, Salpeter, Schwefel, Kürasse, Armaturgegenstände, Sättel und Zäume, so wie überhaupt alle Gegenstände, welche unmittelbar zum Kriegsgebrauche angewendet werden können, mit Ausnahme eines zur Vertheidigung der Mannschaft und des Schiffes erforderlichen, diesem Zwecke angemessenen Vorrathes.

§ 8. Bei Begegnung eines Handelsschiffes, das nicht unter Convoi segelt, hat der Commandant des Kreuzers dasselbe anzurufen und den Schiffsführer mit den Schiffspapieren zu sich an Bord kommen zu lassen.

Ergiebt sich hiebei kein begründeter Anstand, so soll er das Schiff in seiner Weiterreise nicht behindern. Findet jedoch der Commandant des Kreuzers Anlass zu begründetem Verdacht eines ungesetzlichen Sachverhaltes oder betrügerischen Vorganges, so hat er einen Officier abzuschicken, um die Umstände genauer zu untersuchen. Bei dieser Untersuchung dürfen die Anhaltenden keine geschlossenen Räumlichkeiten, Tonnen, Kisten, Schränke, Verschlüge, Fustagen oder sonstige Behältnisse öffnen oder erbrechen, eben so wenig eigenmächtig durchsuchen, was von der Ladung lose im Schiff liegt. Besteht aber ein Verdacht wegen irgendwo verborgener Kriegscontrebände oder compromittirender Papiere, so soll der untersuchende Officier die verdächtigen Räume oder Verstecke durch den Schiffer öffnen lassen.

§ 9. Neutrale Handelsschiffe, welche unter Convoi von Kriegsschiffen einer neutralen Macht gehen, unterliegen der Untersuchung nicht. Es genügt in diesem Falle die Erklärung des Convoichefs, dass die Papiere der convoirten Schiffe in Ordnung sind und dieselben keine Contrebände an Bord haben.

§ 10. Der Aufbringende darf unter eigener Verantwortung von der Ladung eines aufgebrauchten Schiffes nichts löschen, verkaufen, vertauschen oder auf irgend eine Weise entfernen oder verlorengehen lassen. Er muss vielmehr im Vereine mit dem Schiffer oder Steuermann auf dem aufgebrauchten Schiffe, soweit möglich, die ganze Ladung unter Siegel und Verschluss legen.

Die Papiere des Schiffes sind von dem Aufbringenden in ein Convolut zu legen, welches mit seinem Amtssiegel und dem Siegel des angehaltenen Schiffes versehen wird.

Das Schiff wird hierauf mit ungeöffneter Ladung (sofern nicht der Schiffer mit Rücksicht auf die Conservirung derselben in die Oeffnung willigt) in einen österreichischen Hafen, oder bis zur thunlichen Abstellung in einen solchen, nach dem nächsten Platze gebracht, wo das aufgebrauchte Schiff in militärischen Gewahrsam genommen werden kann. Nach anderen Plätzen darf das Schiff nur dann gebracht werden, wenn Sturm, Wetter, Mangel an Proviant, feindliche Verfolgung oder sonstige Seenoth es nothwendig machen. Auch in diesem Falle muss der Aufbringende, sobald es die Umstände erlauben, das Schiff mit ungebrochener Ladung nach dem nächsten Hafen, wo sich ein competentes Prisengericht befindet, bringen oder senden.

§ 11. Es soll jedoch, wenn die Ladung aus leicht verderblichen Waaren besteht, oder das Schiff Havarie halber die Reise nicht fortsetzen kann, dem Aufbringenden gestattet sein, auf eigene Verantwortung oder mit Einwilligung des Schiffers die zweckmässigen Verfügungen zum Besten des Schiffes und der Ladung zu treffen.

§ 12. Sobald der Aufbringende mit dem aufgebrauchten Schiffe einen österreichischen Hafen erreicht, hat er hievon unverweilt die Meldung an das zur Untersuchung und Aburtheilung berufene Prisengericht zur entsprechenden Amtshandlung zu machen. In gleicher Weise ist diese Anzeige zu erstatten, wenn das aufgebrachte Schiff in einen anderen Hafen gebracht wird, wo sich ein competentes Prisengericht befindet.

§ 13. Der Commandant, welcher die obigen zur Sicherheit der neutralen Schifffahrt gegebenen Bestimmungen übertreten oder zu deren Schaden seine Macht missbrauchen sollte, wird zur Verantwortung gezogen und kann ausserdem zur Vergütung des widerrechtlich zugefügten Schadens verhalten werden.

§ 14. Die Mannschaft eines aufgebrachten Schiffes wird auf Kosten des k. k. Aerars unterhalten und gepflegt, bis das schliessliche Urtheil in der Sache gefällt ist. Ergreift jedoch der Schiffer die Berufung gegen das in erster Instanz erflossene Urtheil, so hat er zur Deckung der Kosten, deren Ersatz ihm im Falle der Sachfälligkeit im höheren Rechtszuge anferlegt werden könnte, eine angemessene Caution zu erlegen.

§ 15. Die Mannschaft eines aufgebrachten und verurtheilten Schiffes ist der Localbehörde zu übergeben, und sind die darunter befindlichen feindlichen Unterthanen als Kriegsgefangene zu behandeln. Die Unterthanen befreundeter und neutraler Mächte werden an ihre betreffenden Consuls zur weiteren Veranlassung abgegeben.

§ 16. Ein Exemplar dieser Verordnung soll sich stets auf jedem kreuzenden k. k. Kriegsschiffe befinden.

(Translation.)

ORDER of the Departments of Foreign Affairs, Justice, Commerce, War, and Marine, of the 3rd March, 1864, relative to the capture of hostile and suspected vessels by Austrian ships of war, in consequence of the hostilities ordered by the Danish Government against Austrian and Prussian merchant ships, and against the merchant ships of the other German Federal States.

§ 1. The capture of hostile and suspected vessels, in conformity with the first paragraph of the Declaration dated at Paris, the 16th April, 1856, which prohibits privateering (Reichsgesetzblatt of the year 1856, No. 69), shall be made by ships of the Imperial Navy exclusively, and the commanders of these ships are bound to capture the vessels hereunder designated:—

- a. Ships belonging to the hostile States or to the subjects thereof.
- b. Ships whose neutrality is not properly legalized (§ 4) or which appear to be suspicious, according to the provisions of this Order (§ 5).

§ 2. Ships belonging to neutral powers, or to the subjects thereof, to whomsoever the cargoes may belong, may not be captured, provided that

- a. The papers relative to the ship and cargo be in order;
- b. The ship be not laden with contraband of war intended for the enemy, or
- c. Be not otherwise subject to capture according to the provisions of the foregoing paragraph.

§ 3. No ship shall be detained or captured in neutral waters.

§ 4. The neutrality of a ship is proved by the papers which are prescribed as necessary to legitimize its nationality by the laws of the country of the ship in question.

§ 5. The following are to be stopped as suspicious, and captured for investigation:—

- a. Ships which have two sets of papers, or papers probably false;
- b. Ships which have no papers, or which are ascertained to have thrown them overboard, or otherwise destroyed their papers, especially when this has taken place after the cruiser was in sight;
- c. Ships which do not bring to when summoned by the cruiser, or which resist the search into holds or lockers, in which it may be presumed that contraband of war or papers may be concealed.

§ 6. The following are to be regarded as good prizes:—

- a. Ships belonging to the hostile State or to hostile subjects, as also enemies property on board such ships;

Neutral property on board enemies' ships, which is not contraband of war, according to the fourth paragraph of the above-mentioned declaration, dated at Paris, the 16th April, 1856, cannot be regarded as good prize;

- b. Neutral ships, the whole of whose cargo consists of contraband of war (compare § 2 and 7);

If only part of the cargo be contraband the master of the ship may himself avoid capture if he, of his own accord, discharges the contraband on the spot, or in the nearest port. After the landing has been effected the ship may proceed with the remainder of her cargo. The contraband of war is to be regarded as good prize;

- c. Ships which forcibly resist detention;
- d. Austrian ships which have been taken by the enemy, and retaken from them, unless these can be considered as Reprize;
- e. Ships captured as suspicious (§ 5), when the suspicion to which they are subject is not cleared up.

§ 7. The following articles are declared to be contraband of war, but only when they are intended for enemies' ports:—Cannons, mortars, swivel-guns, all sorts of weapons, bombs, grenades, balls, percussion caps, slow-match, gunpowder, saltpetre, brimstone, cuirasses, articles of armour, saddles and bridles, and in general all articles which can be applied immediately to the uses of war, with the exception of a supply required for the defence of the crew and ship, and adequate for such purpose.

§ 8. On meeting a merchant ship which is not sailing under convoy, the commander of the cruiser shall summon the same, and require the master of the ship to come on board with the ship's papers.

If there be then no reasonable objection he shall not prevent the ship from continuing her voyage. But if the commander of the cruiser finds grounds for reasonable suspicion of any illegal circumstance or fraudulent proceeding, he is to send an officer to examine more closely into the circumstances. In this examination the detaining party is not to open or break any closed rooms, casks, chests, cupboards, closets, cases, or other receptacles, nor shall he arbitrarily examine into the part of the cargo, which lies loose in the ship. But if a suspicion exists as to any concealed contraband of war, or compromising papers, the examining officer shall cause the master to open the suspected rooms or places of concealment.

Any Officer who may offend against these provisions shall incur responsibility for the same.

§ 9. Neutral merchant ships, sailing under the convoy of ships of war of a neutral power, are not liable to search. In these cases it is sufficient that the chief of the convoy should declare the papers of the convoyed ships to be in order, and that they have no contraband on board.

§ 10. The captor on his own responsibility, shall not land, or sell, or exchange, or in any way remove or cause to be lost any part of the cargo of a captured ship. He is on the contrary, in concert with the master or pilot of the captured ship to place the whole cargo, so far as possible, under seal and lock.

The ship's papers are to be put by the captor into an envelope, which shall be sealed with his official seal, and with the seal of the captured ship.

The ship shall then, with her cargo unopened (unless the master of the ship consents to its being opened, with a view to its preservation), be taken to an Austrian port, or until it is possible to remove it to such a port, to the nearest place where the captured ship can be taken into military custody. The ship is not to be taken to other places, unless tempest, weather, want of provision, hostile pursuit, or other maritime exigency shall make it necessary. Even in this case, the captor must, as soon as circumstances permit, take or send the ship, with her cargo unbroken, to the nearest port where there is a competent Prize Court.

§ 11. But when the cargo consists of merchandize easily spoilt, or when the ship cannot continue her voyage owing to damage, the captors shall be allowed, on their own responsibility, or with the assent of the master, to take such steps as may be most advantageous to the ship and cargo.

§ 12. As soon as the captor reaches an Austrian port with the captured ship, he is to report the same without delay to the Prize Court appointed for investigating and adjudicating, in order that it may institute the proper proceedings to exercise its functions. This announcement is to be made in the same way if the captured ship is brought to another port, where there is a competent Prize Court.

§ 13. The commander who shall act in contravention of the above provisions made for the security of neutral shipping, or who shall abuse his power to the injury of the same, shall be made responsible, and may in addition to this, be called upon to make compensation for damage illegally caused.

§ 14. The crew of a captured ship shall be maintained and supported at the expense of the Imperial Treasury, until the final judgment be given in the matter. But if the ship-master lodges an appeal against the sentence pronounced in the first instance, he shall give due security for the amount of the costs which he may be called upon to pay in the event of the loss of his suit in a higher court.

§ 15. The crew of a captured and condemned ship is to be given up to the local authority, and the hostile subjects found among them are to be treated as prisoners of war. The subjects of friendly and neutral powers are to be given over to their respective Consuls for further disposal.

§ 16. A copy of this Order shall always be kept on board every imperial cruiser.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 96, for the regulation of the duties of postage, certain scales of weight and rates of postage were fixed and made chargeable and payable upon, for, or in respect of letters, newspapers, parliamentary proceedings, and printed papers transmitted and forwarded by the post, and various regulations were made for facilitating the transmission of such letters and papers by the post. And by the same Act powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of postage therein-mentioned.

And whereas further powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament, passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 85, for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office.

And whereas it is expedient to authorize the transmission by the post between the United Kingdom and the East Indies of certain packets, and for that purpose to make certain regulations in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us, in and by the said hereinbefore recited Acts of Parliament, and every of them, and of all other powers, enabling us in this behalf, do by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us, the said Commissioners, by the authority of the Statute in that case made and provided, order and direct as follows, that is to say:—

1. All packets consisting of patterns or samples of merchandize of no intrinsic value posted in any part of the United Kingdom, addressed to any part of the East Indies, or posted in any part of the East Indies, addressed to any part of the United Kingdom, may be transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom, and any part of the East Indies, by British packet boat direct or via Egypt, subject to the several rates of postage hereinafter mentioned, (that is to say):

On every such packet, if not exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid an uniform single rate of postage (British and colonial combined) of fourpence;

And on every such packet, if exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid for such transmission thereof, respectively as aforesaid, the several progressive and additional rates of postage hereinafter-mentioned.

2. All packets consisting of patterns or samples of merchandize of no intrinsic value, posted in any part of the United Kingdom, addressed to any part of the East Indies, or posted in any part of the East Indies, addressed to any part of the United Kingdom, may be transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and any part of the East Indies, in closed mails, via France (the sea conveyance being by British or by French packet boat) subject to the several rates of postage hereinafter mentioned (that is to say):

On every such packet, if not exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid an uniform single rate of postage (British, colonial, and foreign combined) of sixpence;

And on every such packet, if exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid for such transmission thereof, respectively as aforesaid, the several progressive and additional rates of postage hereinafter-mentioned.

3. Every packet which shall be transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant, if exceeding four ounces in weight, shall be subject to the several further and additional and progressive rates of postage hereinafter-mentioned (that is to say):

On every such packet, if exceeding four ounces, and not exceeding one half of a pound in weight, there shall be charged taken, and paid two rates of postage;

And on every such packet, if exceeding one half of a pound, and not exceeding one pound in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid four rates of postage;

And on every such packet, if exceeding one pound, and not exceeding one pound and one half of another pound in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, six rates of postage;

And on every such packet, if exceeding one pound and one half of another pound, and not exceeding two pounds in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid eight rates of postage;

And for every additional half of a pound in weight of any such packet above the weight of two pounds, there shall be charged, taken, and paid two additional rates of postage; and every fractional part of such additional half of a pound in weight shall be charged as an additional half of a pound in weight, and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such packet would be charged with under this Warrant, if not exceeding four ounces in weight.

4. Every packet which shall be transmitted by the post, under the authority of this Warrant, shall be so transmitted in conformity with and under and subject to the several orders, directions, regulations, and conditions hereinafter contained, (that is to say):

5. No such packet, which in length, or breadth, or width shall exceed the dimensions of two feet, or which shall exceed the weight of three pounds, shall be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant.

6. No pattern or sample being of any intrinsic value, or being an article or thing of a saleable nature, or having a value of its own, apart from its mere use as a pattern or sample, shall be transmitted by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant.

7. There shall be no enclosure, sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, nor any other enclosure, not authorized by this Warrant, sent in or with any such packet.

8. There shall be no writing or printing in or upon any such packet, or on the cover thereof, except the address of the person for whom it is intended, the address of the sender thereof, a trade mark, and number and price.

9. All such packets shall be sent in covers, open at the ends, so as to be easy of examination. Nevertheless samples of seeds, drugs, and such other articles and things as cannot be sent in open covers, may be enclosed in bags of linen, or of other material; but bags so closed that they cannot be readily opened, even although they be transparent, shall not be used for that purpose.

10. If any packet sent or tendered or delivered, in order to be sent by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, shall in length, or breadth, or width exceed the dimensions of two feet, or shall exceed the weight of three pounds, or shall consist wholly of patterns or samples of any intrinsic value as in the sixth clause of this Warrant mentioned, or if there shall be any writing or printing in or upon any such packet, or on the cover thereof, except the address of the person for whom it is intended, the address of the sender thereof, a trade mark, and number and price, or if any such packets shall not be sent in covers open at the ends, so as to be easy of examination (except samples of seeds, drugs, and such other articles and things as cannot be sent in open covers, and which may be enclosed in bags of linen, or of other material), or in case of bags being used, if such bags shall be so closed that they cannot be readily opened, every such packet shall be chargeable, and shall be treated in all respects as a letter.

11. If any packet sent or tendered or delivered, in order to be sent by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, shall contain any enclosure, sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, or any other enclosure not authorized by this Warrant, every such enclosure may be taken out by any Officer of the Post Office, and either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or be forwarded to the address on the packet, charged not only with the full rates of postage as an unpaid letter, but also with a further and additional rate of postage, equal in amount to the single rate of postage, chargeable under the provisions of this Warrant, on a packet not exceeding four ounces in weight, and the remainder of the packet, if duly prepaid by stamps, may be forwarded to the place of its address without any extra charge.

12. The postage of all such packets as aforesaid posted in the United Kingdom shall in every case be paid at the time of the same being posted, not in money, but by being duly stamped with the proper postage stamp or stamps affixed thereto, which stamp or stamps shall in every case be affixed, or appear on the outside of every such packet, near the address or direction, and shall be of the value or amount of the postage duty payable thereon under or by virtue of this Warrant.

13. The postage of all such packets as aforesaid posted in the East Indies shall in every case be paid at the time of the same being posted, either in money or by the proper colonial postage stamp or stamps being affixed thereto.

14. If any packet sent or tendered or delivered in order to be sent by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be posted in the United Kingdom or in the East Indies, and the postage paid thereon or postage stamp or stamps affixed thereto shall represent a less amount than the rate of postage to which such packet would be liable under and by virtue of this Warrant, every such last-mentioned packet shall be forwarded, charged with the amount of the difference between the postage so paid thereon, or postage stamp or stamps so being thereon or affixed thereto, and the postage to which such packet would be liable as aforesaid, together with a further and additional rate of postage equal in amount to the single rate of postage chargeable under this Warrant, on a packet not exceeding four ounces in weight; but if any such packet shall be posted in the United Kingdom or in the East Indies without any postage having been paid thereon, or without having thereon or affixed thereto any postage stamp, every such respective packet shall be forwarded, charged with a postage of double the amount of postage to which it would have been liable under and by virtue of this Warrant, if the postage had been paid when posted.

15. In order to prevent any obstacles to the due and regular transmission of letters by the post, any Officer of the Post Office may delay the transmission of any packet posted or forwarded by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, either for the space of twenty-four hours after the time at which the same ought to be dispatched in due course of the post, or (at his option) until the dispatch of the mail next after that by which the same ought in due course of the post to be forwarded by him.

16. The several packets transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant shall be subject to the several orders, directions, regulations, and rates of postage respectively, contained in a certain Warrant of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, bearing date the 19th day of February, 1855, relating to redirected rates of postage upon letters and packets, which shall be redirected and again forwarded by the post, so far as the same are applicable to such packets.

17. In all cases in which any question shall hereafter arise whether any packet or any pattern or sample contained therein, transmitted under or by virtue of this Warrant is entitled to the privileges of this Warrant, and to be so transmitted within the intent and meaning thereof, such question shall be referred to the determination of the Postmaster-General, whose decision thereupon shall be final and conclusive upon all parties.

18. The term "East Indies," used in this Warrant, shall be construed to mean every port or place in Her Majesty's dominions in Asia (Hong Kong, Ceylon, Mauritius, Labuan, and Australia excepted), and the several other terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, cap. 96.

19. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may by Warrant under their hands, duly made at any time hereafter alter, repeal, revoke, or modify any of the rates of postage hereby fixed, or any of the regulations hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time may appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid.

20. This Warrant shall come into operation on the 1st day of April, 1864.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

QUORNDON AND RUSKINGTON.

WHEREAS Resolutions for the adoption of the Local Government Act, 1858, have been passed by the township of Quorndon, in the county of Leicester, and by the parish of Ruskington, in the county of Lincoln, each being a place with a population of less than 3,000 by the last census. And whereas it has appeared to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that by reason of special circumstances, it is expedient that the said township of Quorndon and parish of Ruskington shall be allowed to adopt the said Act, I do hereby approve of such adoption by the township and parish aforesaid; and I do hereby further order that the Local Government Act, 1858, do come into force within such township and parish, from and after the 21st day of March, 1864.

Given under my hand this 16th day of March, 1864.

(Signed) G. Grey.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

NOTICE OF ADOPTION OF ACT BY BLANDFORD FORUM AND RAMSBOTTOM.

WHEREAS the Local Government Act, 1858, was adopted by the district of Blandford Forum, in the county of Dorset, as settled for the purposes of such Act, on the 25th day of January, 1864, and by the parish of Ramsbottom, in the county of Lancaster, on the 25th day of February, 1864; and notice of such adoption has in each case been duly given, and the other requirements of the Act have been complied with.

Now, therefore, I, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, do hereby give notice, that the Local Government Act, 1858, has been adopted in the hereinbefore-named district of Blandford Forum and parish of Ramsbottom; and that the said Act will have the force of law within such district from and after the expiration of two months from the date of the resolution adopting the said Act therein; and within the said parish of Ramsbottom at the expiration of twenty-one days from the date of the resolution adopting such Act therein.

Given under my hand this 16th day of March, 1864.

Home Office, Whitehall.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 11.)—EAST INDIES—EAST COAST OF CEYLON.

Flashing Light on Foul Point.

THE Colonial Government of Ceylon has given notice, that on and after the 1st day of February, 1864, a light would be exhibited from a light-house recently erected on Foul point, the south-eastern point of approach to the great bay of Trincomalie.

The light is a white light, showing a flash every half-minute, and should be seen in clear weather from a distance of 17 miles. Beyond the distance of 7 miles the eclipses are total between the flashes, but within that distance there is a faint continuous light.

The illuminating apparatus is dioptric or by lenses, of the second order.

The tower stands in lat. 8° 32' 10" N., long. 81° 18' 50" East of Greenwich.

Fixed Light on Round Island.

Also, that on and after the 1st day of February, 1864, a light would be exhibited from a light-house recently erected on Round Island, at the entrance to Trincomalie harbour.

The light is a fixed white light, visible in clear weather from a distance of 10 miles. When bearing between W. by S.  $\frac{1}{2}$  S., and S.W.  $\frac{1}{2}$  S.; and within a distance of 7 miles, it shows red. Approaching between these bearings the white light is not seen.

The illuminating apparatus is dioptric or by lenses, of the fourth order.

Directions.—In approaching Trincomalie harbour from the southward, bring Foul point light to bear west, distant 2 miles; and then steer N.W. until Round Island light bears W.S.W.; then steer for this latter light until Chapel-hill, the high bluff eastern extreme of land on the north side of entrance, and easily seen in the darkest night, bears north, distant about  $1\frac{1}{2}$  miles; then steer W. by N., until Round Island light bears S. by E.  $\frac{1}{4}$  E.; then steer N. by W.  $\frac{1}{4}$  W., passing midway between Ostenberg point and Sober Island, and anchor with the light bearing S. by E.  $\frac{1}{4}$  E. in 12 fathoms water. After passing Ostenberg point the water shoals rapidly from 25 to 12 fathoms.

Approaching from the northward, when Foul point light is seen, bring it to bear S. by E.  $\frac{1}{4}$  E., and steer for it until Round Island light bears S.W.  $\frac{1}{2}$  W.; then steer for Round Island light until the extreme point of Chapel-hill bears N. by E.  $\frac{1}{2}$  E.; then proceed as before.

The red light is intended to direct vessels clear of the dangers off Foul point; and the Chapel rock, off the headland of the same name; and in working in or out should be kept in sight to avoid these dangers.

[All Bearings are Magnetic. Variation 1° 0' East in 1864.]

By command of their Lordships.

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the said proceeds, are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, in order that the same may be examined, taxed, and allowed by that Officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Agents and all other persons holding powers of attorney, prize orders, assignments, or other instruments, by virtue of which they may be legally entitled to claim the share belonging to any captor, are requested, with as little delay as possible, to transmit the same, accompanied by the usual documents, to the Prize Branch of the Department of the "Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset-House."

Due notice will be given, by future advertisements in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution; and, at the same time, the amount of an individual's share, in the respective classes, will be announced.

Newton Abbot Union.—Parish of Bovey Tracey.

To the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the Parish of Bovey Tracey, in the county of Devon;—

To the Clerk or Clerks to the Justices of the Petty Sessions held for the division or divisions in which the said parish is situate;—

And to all others whom it may concern;—

WHEREAS the population of the parish of Bovey Tracey, in the county of Devon, according to the last census exceeds two thousand persons.

And whereas, at a meeting of the Vestry of the said parish, held at the room in the said parish, pursuant to public notice in that behalf, on Thursday, the 14th day of January last, it was resolved—

"That it is desirable and resolved and determined on, and subject to the approval of the Commissioners for administering the laws for the relief of the poor in England, that a fit and proper room, place, and building within the said parish of Bovey Tracey, shall be provided for the holding of all vestry and other meetings heretofore holden in the said church, or in the said vestry room of such church, in pursuance and according to provisions of a certain Act of Parliament, passed on or about the 5th of August, 1850, 13 and 14 Vict., chap. 57, entitled 'An Act to prevent the holding of Vestry or other Meetings in Churches, and for regulating the appointment of Vestry Clerks.'

"That it is desirable, resolved, and determined, with the like approval and sanction of the said Commissioners, that a piece of land be purchased by the Churchwardens and Overseers for the time being, on which to erect and build fit, proper, and suitable buildings for the purpose of holding Vestry

"and other Meetings for the transaction of any business of or relating to the said parish of Bovey Tracey, and that the said land, which shall be so purchased, be conveyed to such churchwardens and overseers and their successors, in trust for the purposes of the said Act, and be accepted, taken, and held by them as a Body Corporate under the provisions of the said Act.

"That it is resolved and determined, with the like approbation and sanction of the said Commissioners, to erect and build on the said land so to be purchased as aforesaid, such fit, proper, and suitable buildings for the purposes aforesaid, and that the purchase money for the said land so to be purchased as aforesaid, for the erection and completion of the said building so purposed to be erected and built as aforesaid, shall not exceed the sum of eight hundred pounds, and that the sum of eight hundred pounds so as aforesaid stated to be for the purchase and for the erection and completion, &c. as aforesaid of the said buildings, with the like approbation and sanction of the said Commissioners, be raised and borrowed by the Churchwardens and Overseers for the time being of the said parish, for the purposes of the purchase of the said land, and for erecting and building such fit, proper, and suitable buildings for the purposes aforesaid under the provisions of the said Act, and that the Poor Rates of the parish be charged with the repayment of the sum so to be raised and borrowed, and the interest thereof, and that the said sum so raised and borrowed be repaid by ten equal annual instalments."

And whereas the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the said parish have made their application, in writing, to the Poor Law Board, pursuant to the above Resolutions,

Now, therefore, we, the Poor Law Board under the authority of the several Statutes in that behalf made and provided, hereby order and direct as follows, that is to say;

ARTICLE I.—That so much of the said Act, passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, as relates to the providing of a room or suitable buildings for the purpose of holding vestry or other meetings for the transaction of any business of, or relating to, the said parish of Bovey Tracey, shall forthwith be applied to, and be put in force within the said parish.

And we hereby authorize the said Churchwardens and Overseers to borrow a sum not exceeding eight hundred pounds, and to charge the Poor Rates of the said parish with the repayment of the sum so borrowed, by ten equal annual instalments, together with the interest which shall from time to time accrue on the respective balances; and we order and direct the said Churchwardens and Overseers to apply such sum, when so borrowed, to defray the cost of purchasing a Site for, and erecting thereon a Vestry Room for the said parish as aforesaid,

ARTICLE II.—That a copy of this Order shall be published in the London Gazette.

Given under our hand and seal of office, this second day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

C. P. Villiers, President.

C. Gilpin, Secretary.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named the Primitive Methodist Chapel, situated in Saint John-street, at Bridlington, in the East Riding of the county of York, in the district of Bridlington, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 8th day of March, 1864, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of 6th and 7th Wm. IV., cap. 85.

Witness my hand this 10th day of March, 1864.
Reuben Millner, Superintendent Registrar.

NOTICE is hereby given, that an agreement authorized by 18 and 19 Vict., c. 63, s. 13, for the dissolution of a Friendly Society, called the Longhope Friendly Society, held at the Yew Tree Inn, Longhope, in the county of Gloucester, was transmitted to the Registrar of Friendly Societies in England, on the 11th day of March, 1864.
