PROCLAMATION.

Don Carlos de Vargas y Cerveto, Governor Captain General of the Spanish part of the Island of Santo Domingo and General-in-Chief of the Army,

SOME doubts have arisen respecting the execution and understanding of the Proclamation of my predecessor, dated the 5th of October last, and, with the view of avoiding every indecision and uncertainty, using the powers which belong to me as Captain General and General-in-Chief of the Army,

I order and command :

ART. I.—The Blockade of the coasts of the Spanish part of the Island of Santo Domingo only extends to the ports, roads, and creeks which are not occupied by the troops of the army, and in consequence the ports of Santo Domingo, Samana, and Porto Plata are free, as well as those other places which the army and the legitimate Spanish authorities shall hereafter occupy. That Her Majesty's Minister Plenipotentiary at the Court of Madrid having, in consequence of directions from Earl Russell, communicated with the Spanish Government on the subject of the above-mentioned notifications, received from Señor Arrazola the Spanish President of the Council of Ministers and Minister for Foreign Affairs, a letter from which the following extract is made :—

(Extract.)

(Translation.) Palace, January 27th, 1864.

“ Sir,—In addition to what I had the honour to state to you in my note of the 23rd instant, I hasten to inform you that, according to information received in this Department from the Minister of the Marine, the most positive orders have lately been given to the Commandant-General of the Havannah Station, and to the Chief of Her Majesty's Naval Forces at Santo Domingo, to cause the blockade of the ports of that island occupied by the rebels, to be of the most effective nature.

“ With reference to the Department of the Marine, I can assure you that the Blockade in question is maintained at the present moment by twenty-three vessels of war, frigates, and schooners, a number which, besides being sufficient for the purpose, could be increased by the squadron anchored at Cuba.

"On the other hand, the insurrection is now limited to the province of Seybo, the coasts of which are so strictly watched that all vessels endeavouring to aid the rebels have been captured."

I have, &c.
