

Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that a letter from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, stating it to be his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at Levees, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half-past one o'clock.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

Whitehall, April 18, 1864.

THE following Addresses of Congratulation to the Queen, on the occasion of Her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales having given Birth to a Prince, have been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for Presentation, and have accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To Her Majesty The QUEEN.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Justices of the Peace for the Liberty of the Tower of London, humbly approach your Majesty with the sincere expression of our joy upon the occasion of the birth of a Prince.

Many indeed have been the occasions upon which the loyal subjects of your Majesty have testified the interest they felt in all that concerns the domestic happiness of your Majesty, but we feel now, that no event has occurred in the history of the distinguished rule of your Majesty fraught with so much importance as that which perpetuates the line to a Throne which your Majesty has adorned in so glorious a way.

We trust that your Majesty may long be spared to your Majesty's most loyal and loving people.

By order,

Chas. Salisbury Butler, Chairman of the Court of Quarter Sessions.

And the following on the same subject: from

The Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Weymouth and Melcombe Regis.
