NOTIFICATION OF BLOCKADE.

IT is hereby notified, that Earl Russell, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, has received from one of Her Majesty's Secretaries of the Admiralty, a copy of a letter (dated the 29th of February, 1864), addressed by the Rear-Admiral Commanding the French Squadron in the Pacific to Commander Pike, Commanding Her Majesty's ship "Devastation," notifying the effective blockade by the French Naval Forces, of the ports of Acapulco and Manzanilla, on the West Coast of Mexico.

The following is a copy of the letter from the French Admiral, above referred to, and translation :

*Devant Acapulco,
"Pallas," 29th Février, 1864*

DIVISION NAVALE DE L'OCEAN PACIFIQUE.

MONSIEUR LE COMMANDANT,

J'AI l'honneur de vous informer que je viens de notifier et d'établir le blocus effectif d'Acapulco et de Manzanillas, sur la côte occidentale du Mexique.

Ne sachant où se trouve dans ce moment l'Amiral Commandant-en-Chef l'Escadre de Sa Majesté Britannique dans la Pacifique, je vous prie de vouloir bien lui donner connaissance de ce fait.

Désireux d'éviter tout malentendu avec les Commandants des navires de guerre d'une Puissance alliée du Gouvernement Français, je vous prie de faire connaître aux Commandants des bâtiments qu'une nécessité grave appellerait, soit à Acapulco soit à Manzanillas, que tout en conservant en principe le droit que me confèrent les lois internationales de défendre l'accès des ports bloqués, j'autoriserai les croiseurs à admettre les bâtiments de guerre de Sa Majesté Britannique dans les ports sus-mentionnés. Le navire qui se présenterait pour entrer, devrait communiquer préalablement avec le croiseur Français; et dans tous les cas on ne chercherait jamais à entrer de nuit.

J'ai l'honneur de vous prier de communiquer en entier cette dépêche à l'Amiral Kingcome, et lui dire que j'en envoie une copie au Ministre de la Marine.

Dans le cas où je recevrai l'ordre de m'en tenir à l'exécution du droit strict de bloquer d'une manière absolue, je m'empresserai de vous en donner avis.

Recevez, &c.,

Le Contre-Amiral Commandant-en-Chef
la Division Navale de l'Océan Pacifique.

PACIFIC STATION.

MONSIEUR LE COMMANDANT,

I HAVE the honour to inform you that I have just notified and established the effective blockade of Acapulco and Manzanilla, on the western coast of Mexico.

Being ignorant where the Admiral commanding Her Britannic Majesty's squadron in the Pacific is at this moment to be found, I beg you to be so good as to acquaint him with this fact.

Being desirous to avoid any misunderstanding with the Commanders of the ships of war of a Power in alliance with the French Government, I beg of you to inform the Commanders of those vessels which urgent necessity may call either to Acapulco or to Manzanilla, that whilst I shall reserve to myself in principle the right which I acquire by international law of preventing access to the blockaded ports, I shall authorize the cruisers to admit the ships of war of Her Britannic Majesty in the above-named ports. The ship presenting itself for entrance should communicate before hand with the French cruiser; and in any case it must never attempt to enter by night.

I have the honour to request that you will communicate this despatch in full to Admiral Kingcome, and tell him that I am sending a copy of it to the Minister of Marine.

In case I should receive an order to adhere to the execution of the strict right of absolute blockade, I shall hasten to give you notice.

Accept, &c.,

Rear-Admiral Commander-in-Chief of the Pacific Station,

(Signed) BOUËT.

VICTORIA, R.

WHEREAS by a statute made at the Parliament, holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of Our late Royal Uncle, King William the Fourth, entitled "An Act for the appointment of convenient places for the holding of assizes in England and Wales," it was declared and enacted that His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council, should have power from time to time to order and direct at what place or places, in any county in England or Wales, the assizes and sessions under the Commissions of Gaol Delivery, and other commissions for the dispatch of civil and criminal business, should be holden, and to order and direct such assizes and sessions for the dispatch of criminal and civil business to be holden at more than one place in the same county on the same circuit, and to order and direct the assizes and sessions under such commissions for the dispatch of criminal business, to be holden for the whole county at one place, and for the dispatch of civil business at one or more place or places in such county on the same circuit. And further to order and direct any special commissions of oyer and terminer and gaol delivery to be holden at any one or more places in any such county. And it was further enacted that in case His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council, should think fit to order and direct that the assizes, or any such special commissions should be holden at more than one place in any one county it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, to divide any such county for the purposes of the said Act, and to make rules and regulations touching the venue in all cases civil and criminal then pending or thereafter to be pending and to be tried within any division of such county so to be made as aforesaid, and touching the liability and attendance of jurors, whether grand jurors, special jurors, or common jurors, at the assizes and sessions as aforesaid, or at any sessions under any special commissions to be holden within any such division; and touching the use of any house of correction or prison as a common gaol, and the government and keeping thereof; and touching the alterations of any commissions, writs, precepts, or other proceedings whatsoever for carrying into effect the purposes of the said Act; and touching any other matters that might be requisite for carrying into effect the purposes of the said Act; and all such rules and regulations should be of the like force and effect as if the same had been made by the authority of Parliament, and should be notified in the London Gazette, or in such other manner as His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council, should think fit to direct. And it was further enacted that His Majesty should have power from time to time, for the purpose of carrying the said Act into effect, to order and direct, that the Court of Common Pleas, at Lancaster, should be holden at any one or more places in the county palatine of Lancaster as His Majesty should think fit, and to divide the said county palatine for the purpose of the trial of civil causes and the transaction of other civil business in the said Court, and to make the like rules and regulations touching the venue in civil cases to be tried within any division of the said county, and the liability and attendance of jurors, whether special or common, at the Court to be held within any such division; and touching the alterations of commissions, writs, precepts, or other proceedings for carrying into effect the purposes of the said Act; and touching any other matter that might be requisite for carrying into effect the purposes of the said Act; and all such rules and regulations should be of the like force and effect as if the same had been made by the authority of Parliament, and should be notified in the London Gazette, or in such other manner as His Majesty should think fit. And whereas we have been graciously pleased, by and with the advice of Our Most Honourable Privy Council, by an Order in Council bearing date on the seventh day of April instant, to order and direct that the assizes and sessions held under commissions of gaol delivery and other commissions for the dispatch of civil and criminal business for the county palatine of Lancaster, heretofore holden at Lancaster and at Liverpool, shall hereafter be holden on the same circuit at Lancaster, at Liverpool, and at Manchester, respectively, in the said county palatine: and have also ordered the said county to be divided for the purpose of carrying the said recited Act and that Order into effect, into three divisions, which are respectively to be called the "Northern Division," the "West Derby Division" and the "Salford Division"; and that such Northern Division shall be and remain the same as was constituted by an Order in Council, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, made in pursuance of the said Act, that is to say, the same shall include and consist of the whole of the several hundreds of Lonsdale, Amounderness, Leyland, and Blackburn, and that such West Derby Division shall include and consist of the whole of the hundred of West Derby, and that such Salford Division shall include and consist of the whole of the hundred of Salford. And whereas divers other regulations are made by the said Order, but it is expedient, in order to carry the same into complete effect, and to accomplish the purposes of the said Act, so far as relates to the civil business to be transacted at the assizes to be so held at Lancaster, at Liverpool, and at Manchester, as aforesaid, to make further regulations touching the Court of Common Pleas for the said county palatine of Lancaster, We do therefore order and direct that the Court of Common Pleas for the said county, heretofore held at Lancaster and at Liverpool, shall be holden at Lancaster, at Liverpool, and at Manchester, respectively, at the respective times fixed for the holding of the said assizes and sessions; and that the said county palatine be divided for the purpose of the trial of civil actions and the transaction of other civil business in the said Court into the three divisions aforesaid. And we do further order and direct that every declaration hereafter to be filed or delivered in any action in the said Court of Common Pleas shall have in the margin, besides the ordinary venue, the words "Northern Division," or "West Derby Division," or "Salford Division," but no other alteration from the ordinary form shall be necessary; and issues arising in such actions, if tried at the assizes, shall accordingly be tried at the assizes held at Lancaster, at Liverpool, and at Manchester respectively: Provided nevertheless, and we do further order and direct, that in all cases of civil actions in the said Court of Common Pleas in which the venue is by law local, the issue therein shall be tried at Lancaster in cases where the cause of action shall have arisen in the Northern Division, and at Liverpool where the cause of action shall have arisen in the West Derby Division, and at Manchester in cases where the cause of action shall have arisen in the Salford Division, in like manner as if the three divisions were three separate counties, and the declarations in such actions shall have in the margin, in addition to the ordinary venue, the words "Northern Division," or "West Derby Division," or "Salford Division," as the case may require, but no other alteration from the ordinary form shall be necessary; nevertheless it shall be lawful for the said Court of Common Pleas, or any Judge thereof, to order such issues to be tried at the assizes held in the division in which the cause of action did not arise, if they or he shall think fit, and also to order the words in the margin to be amended in all other cases in actions in the said Court of Common Pleas, so as to cause the trial to take place at the assizes held in another division. And we do further order and direct, that in all cases of issues already joined or hereafter joined in the said Court of Common Pleas in which the venue is laid in the county of Lancaster without any words in the margin specifying the division of the county such issues shall be tried at Lancaster, unless the said Court, or a Judge thereof, shall otherwise order by directing the proper words to be inserted in the margin, or otherwise, as he shall think fit. And we do further order and direct that the prothonotary or his deputy shall attend at the assizes at Lancaster, at Liverpool, and at Manchester, respectively. And we do further order and direct that no alteration shall be necessary in the commission or commissions appointing the Chief Justice or other Justices of the Court of Common Pleas, and of all manner of pleas within the said county, and that the jury process or issues joined in the said Court of Common Pleas and subpoenas do name the assizes either at Lancaster, or at Liverpool, or at Manchester, as the case may be, at which attendance is to be given; and writs of subpoena to be hereafter issued for the next assizes, may be tested on any day after the date hereof; and for any subsequent assizes may be tested in manner heretofore used and accustomed. And we do further order and direct that all and every other the said regulations already made by us, by and with the advice of our Privy Council, so far as they relate to or affect the said Court of Common Pleas, or the jurisdiction of the Judges thereof, or the trial of issues therein, or the Court of Pleas of the Crown for the said county, be carried into effect.

Given at Our Palace of Windsor Castle, the eighth day of April, in the twenty-seventh year of Our reign, and in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

By Her Majesty's Command,

CLARENDON.
