Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, MAY 24, 1864.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, March 31, 1864.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Royal Highness The Princess of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Drawing Room at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Tuesday, the 14th of June next, at two o'clock.

It is the Queen's pleasure that Presentations to Her Royal Highness at the Drawing Room shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOM TO BE HELD, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY BY HER ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCESS OF WALES, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Ladies, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Room, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Princess.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that a letter from the Lady who is to make the presentation, stating it to be her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen, for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command, that no presentations shall be made at Drawing Rooms, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Princess.

It is not expected that Gentlemen will present themselves at the Drawing Rooms, except in attendance upon the Ladies of their families.

The State apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court until half-past one o'clock.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, March 31, 1864.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold Levees at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Wednesday, the 1st of June next, and on Wednesday, the 22nd of June next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at these Levees shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEES TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levees, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that a letter from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, stating it to be his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at Levees, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half-past one o'clock.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

Whitehall, May 23, 1864.

THE following Address of Congratulation to the Queen, on the occasion of Her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales having given Birth to a Prince, has been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for Presentation, and has accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the QUEEN'S Most Sacred Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your loving subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Andover, in Council assembled, beg to offer our most sincere and hearty congratulations on the auspicious event of the birth of a Son and Heir to their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales, and to renew our expressions of the most devoted attachment to your Majesty's throne and family.

We deeply feel our high privilege in the great advantages we enjoy under your Majesty's reign, and rejoice in an event which must contribute in the highest degree to the happiness of your Majesty, and we pray that your Majesty's life may long be spared to the great joy and delight of all your subjects, and that the succession to the throne of these realms may be perpetuated in the line of your Majesty's illustrious House.

Turner P. Clarke, Mayor.

At the Court at Balmoral, May 24, 1864.

THE Queen, as Sovereign of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, has been graciously pleased by letters patent under Her Royal Sign Manual and the Great Seal of the Order, to dispense with all the Statutes and regulations usually observed in regard to installation, and to give and grant unto George Granville William, Duke of Sutherland, and George William Frederick, Marquess of Ailesbury, Knights of the said Most Noble Order, and invested with the Ensigns thereof, full power and authority to exercise all rights and privileges belonging to a Knight Companion of the said Most Noble Order of the Garter, in as full and ample a manner as if they had been formally installed, any decree, rule, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Whitehall, May 21, 1864.

The Queen has been pleased to order a congé d'elire to pass the Great Seal, empowering the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Peterborough to elect a Bishop of that See, the same being void by the death of Doctor George Davys, late Bishop thereof; and Her Majesty has also been pleased to recommend to the said Dean and Chapter, the Very Reverend Francis Jeune, D.C.L., Dean of the Cathedral Church of Lincoln, to be by them elected Bishop of the said See of Peterborough.

CONTRACT FOR PAINT INGREDIENTS, &c

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-House, May, 23, 1864.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday, the 7th of June next, at two o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying Her Majesty's several Dock Yards with COLOURS, TURPENTINE, AND INGREDIENTS FOR MAKING PAINT.

Patterns of the articles may be seen, and the average annual consumption of each article at each of the yards during the last three years may be ascertained, on application at this Office, where forms of the tender, with schedules of the contract, may be obtained.

No tender will be received after two o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words "Tender for Paint Ingredients," and must also be delivered at Somerset-house, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering in the sum of £,1000 for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACTS FOR BRITISH IRON.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset House, May 11, 1864.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday, the 31st instant, at two o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying Her Majesty's several Dockyards, with

BRITISH IRON;

Consisting of Plate Iron (Class A), Angle Iron (Class B), Merchant Bar, Best Best Bar, Rivet, Moulding, Sash Bar, Fire Bar, Charcoal, Nail Rod, and Hoop Iron, &c. (Class C), and Broad Flat Iron (Class D).

The total quantities of iron under each item ordered at each yard under the late contract may be ascertained on application at this Office, where forms of the tenders, together with schedules of the different classes of iron, may be obtained.

No tender will be received after two o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words "Tender for British Iron," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £1,000 for the due performance of each of the contracts for the iron included in Classes A and B respectively, and in the sum of £500 for the due performance of each of the contracts for the iron included in the Classes C and D respectively.

SALE OF HER MAJESTY'S LATE COAST GUARD WATCH VESSEL "SHAMROCK."

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset House, May 20, 1864.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday, the 7th of June next, at two o'clock, they will be ready to receive sealed tenders for the purchase of

Her Majesty's late Coast Guard Watch Vessel "SHAMROCK," 250 tons; lying at Rochester, Sheerness Division.

No tender will be received after two o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing, to make a deposit of £25 per cent. upon the amount of the tender.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for H.M. Ship 'Shamrock,'" and must also be delivered at Somerset House.

Catalogues and conditions of sale may be had here, or on application to the Inspecting Commander of the Coast Guard at Sheerness, who will also give notes of admission to view the vessel.

CONTRACT FOR IVORY COMBS.

Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Somerset House, May 20, 1864.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday, the 2nd June next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, all such as shall from time to time be demanded, under a contract for twelve calendar months certain, and further until the expiration of three calendar months' warning.

A pattern comb may be seen at Her Majesty's Royal Victoria Yard at Deptford.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said Office.

Particular attention is called to the conditions of the contract which may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty; and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an Agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and to his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Combs," and must also be delivered at Somerset House, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £100 for the due performance of the contract.

NOTICE is hereby given, that all creditors and other persons having any claim or demand upon the estate of William Beadon, late of Otterhead, in the parish of Churchstanton, in the county of Devon, Esq., who died on the 20th day of February, 1864, and whose will was proved in the District Registry at Exeter of Her Majesty's Court of Probate, on the 30th day of April, 1864, are, on or before the 24th day of June, 1864, to send in the particulars of such claim or demand to Francis Henry Woodforde, Esq., M.D., Henry Hulme, Esq., and the Rev. Henry Edwards, the executors of the said will, at the office of Messrs. Beadons and Sweet, in Taunton, in the county of Somerset, on which day the said executors will proceed to distribute the assets of the said deceased among the parties entitled thereto, having regard to the claims of which the said executors shall have had notice, and they will not be liable for such assets, or any part thereof, so distributed to any person of whose claim or demand they shall not have had notice at the time of such distribution.—Dated this 12th day of May, 1864.

BEADONS and SWEET, Solicitors for the Executors of the said William Beadon.

Mr. JOHN WESLEY MALLINSON, Deceased.
Miss ANN ELIZABETH MALLINSON, Deceased.
And Mrs. ANN RILY, Deceased.

Pursuant to the Act of Parliament made and passed in the 22nd and 23rd years of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to further amend the Law of Property, and to relieve Trustees."

NOTICE is hereby given, that all persons having any claims or demands upon or against the estates of John Wesley Mallinson, late of the borough of Kingston-upon-Hull, deceased; of Ann Elizabeth Mallinson, late of Kingston-upon-Hull aforesaid, Spinster, who died on the 19th day of January, 1861, and whose will was proved in the York Registry of Her Majesty's Court of Probate on the 2nd day of April, 1864; and of Ann Rily, late of Kingston-upon-Hull aforesaid, Widow, who died on the 15th day of March, 1864, and whose will was proved in the York Registry of Her Majesty's Court of Probate on the 30th day of March, 1864, are hereby required to send in the particulars of their claims to me, the undersigned, the Solicitor of the executors, on or before the 1st day of August, 1864, after which day the said executors will proceed to distribute the assets of the said deceased, according to the provisions of the said wills, having regard to the claims only of which they shall then have had notice; and that the said executors will not be liable for the assets, or any part thereof, so distributed to any person of whose debt or claim they shall not then have had notice; and all persons indebted to the said estates are hereby required to pay their debts forthwith to me.—Dated this 17th day of May, 1864.

ANTHONY OWST ATKINSON, Solicitor,
No. 3, Parliament-street, Hull.

[Extract from the Dublin Gazette of April 15, 1864.]

WHEREAS, by Indenture of Lease, bearing date the 14th day of August, 1715, Thomas Bligh, Esquire, demised unto John Sheils and James Wright all that part of Lisnagroggh, being part of the 16 poles, of Ballynatinuff, then in the possession of the said John Sheils and James Wright, containing about 80 Acres, be the same more or less, situate in the Barony of Lower Kells, and county of Meath, for the term of the Three Lives therein named, with a Covenant for Perpetual Renewal. And whereas several Renewals of said Lease have been executed, the last of which bears date the 16th day of June, 1791, and was made by Thos. Cherburgh Bligh, in whom the Lessor's interest was then vested, to James Dyas, Arthur Irwin, and William Sheils; and whereas all the lives named in the said Renewal have long since died. And whereas the said Thomas Cherburgh Bligh died in the year 1836, having by his Will, dated 12th day of June, 1834, devised the said Lands, amongst others, to Edwd. Earl of Darnley, the Honourable Edwd. Bligh, and Sir Ralph Howard, as Trustees thereof, upon the Trusts in said Will mentioned. And whereas the said Edwd. Darnley and the Honourable Edwd. Bligh subsequently died, leaving the said Sir Ralph Howard then surviving. Now I, Chas. William Hamilton, of No. 40, Lower Dominick-street, in the city of Dublin, as Agent for and on behalf of the said Sir Ralph Howard, require you or other the party or parties entitled to the Lessees' Interest in the said Lands, forthwith to renew the said Lease, and to pay to the said Sir Ralph Howard all Renewal Fines, Septennial Fines and Interest, which have accrued due to him by the fall of the said Lives, pursuant to the Covenant for Perpetual Renewal contained in the said Lease, otherwise you and all other persons will hereafter be precluded from all right of Renewal.—Dated this 26th day of March, 1864.

CHAS. WM. HAMILTON.
