THE Secretary of State for War has received Despatches from Lieutenant-General Sir D. A. Cameron, K.C.B., Commanding Her Majesty's Forces in New Zealand, of which the following are copies:—

*Head Quarters, Pukerimu,
March 28, 1864.*

MY LORD,

AFTER the expulsion of the rebels from the neighbourhood of Te Awamutu, reported in my last despatch, I arranged with his Excellency the Governor, that my next operations should be directed against Mangatautari, to which place the Waikatos, under the celebrated chief, William Thompson, had retired after their defeat at Rangiriri.

Having therefore garrisoned the redoubts at Te Awamutu, Rangiawhia, and Kihikihi, and stationed a force of 800 men to support them, and to oppose any attempt that might be made by the natives to return to and occupy that district, and having placed the whole under command of Brigadier-General Carey, whom I transferred from the command at Tauranga for that purpose, I marched the force named in the margin,* on the 22nd instant, and encamped at Pukerimu, on the left bank of the Upper Waikato, seven miles from a position which the natives have fortified for the purpose of obstructing my advance to Mangatautari. Commodore Sir William Wiseman also arrived the same day at Pukerimu, with the "Avon" and "Koheroa" from Ngaruawahia.

* Colonial Defence Force—1 captain, 1 lieutenant, 21 rank and file; Royal Engineers—1 field officer, 1 lieutenant, 1 serjeant, 17 rank and file; 50th Regiment—3 field officers, 8 captains, 17 lieut-nants, 3 staff, 36 serjeants, 17 drummers, 598 rank and file; Forest Rangers—1 captain, 1 lieutenant, 46 rank and file; Naval Brigade—10 officers, 13 serjeants, 154 rank and file. Total—4 field officers, 10 captains, 20 lieutenants, 3 staff, 50 serjeants, 17 drummers, 836 rank and file.

I reconnoitred the position closely on the following day, and found that it consisted of two strong earthworks, well flanked and palisaded, 450 yards distant from each other, and constructed on a spur of the Pukekura range. The lower work, the largest and principal one, is about 600 yards from the river. The two works completely block the road to the settlement of Mangatautari, which is five miles behind them.

Being too strong to be taken by a "coup-de-main," I intend to try the effect of vertical fire upon them, and to endeavour to breach them with howitzers. I have consequently had two 10-inch and two 8-inch mortars, and two 32- and two 24-pounder howitzers brought up the river, and I expect to be able to commence operations in a few days.

I have established a post on each bank of the river, near this camp, for the protection of our supplies and stores; Commodore Sir William Wiseman having ascertained that the river cannot be navigated any higher by the steamers with safety.

I have, &c.,

Lieutenant-General.

MR LORD, April 1, 1864.

I have the honour to enclose two reports from Colonel Warre, C.B., Commanding at New Plymouth, dated 12th and 26th March, relative to certain operations in which the troops under his command had been engaged.

In the reconnaissance of the 11th March, Major Butler carried out his instructions with great judgment, and the detachment under his command behaved most gallantly. In the subsequent operations Colonel Warre displayed great ability, and his skilful arrangements for the attack of Kaitake have resulted in our acquiring a most important position with very few casualties to the troops engaged.

I beg to recommend Colonel Warre and Major Butler to your Lordship's favourable consideration.

I have also to draw your Lordship's attention to the services of the Officers, Non-commissioned Officers and Men referred to in Colonel Warre's reports, particularly to those of Lieutenant Larcom, Royal Artillery, who, although severely wounded, remained with his gun until the detachment retired.

I have, &c.,

D. A. CAMERON,
Lieutenant-General.

March 12, 1864.*

SIR,

CAPTAIN STAPP, Adjutant, Taranaki Militia, having reported to me at about eleven o'clock yesterday morning, that rebel natives had been seen near the spot where Mr. Patterson was murdered on the 28th ultimo, I determined to carry out a plan I had formed, not only to cut off the retreat of the rebels, but to destroy their stronghold at Kaitake, should I find it feebly defended. Acting on the supposition that the rebels had sent out a maurading party from Kaitake, of about the usual number (30 or 40), I despatched the Rifle Volunteers under Captain Atkinson (Taranaki Rifle Volunteers), direct to where the natives had been seen; I signalled to Omata to direct Captain McKeller (Taranaki Militia) to take out 30 men, and place them in ambuscade at Burton's-hill, and as I knew that Captain Carthew (Taranaki Militia) would be on the alert, having a wood party of 30 men at, or near the ford, on Hurford's-road, I requested Major Butler, who I sent at once to Oakura, to tell Captain Corbett (Taranaki Militia) to take some of his men from Parheteri, and intercept the rebels at the upper ford of the Oakura River, should they have succeeded in slipping by the other parties.

I instructed Major Butler, 57th Regiment, to proceed as quickly as possible to Oakura, to take out the 24-pounder howitzer with some rockets, under Lieutenant Larcom, Royal Artillery, and all the available men of the 57th Regiment, under Captain Lloyd, 57th Regiment, leaving the redoubt in charge of Captain Page, of the Taranaki Militia (Melbourne Volunteers), until I could send from town 100 rank and file of the 57th and 70th, under Captains Schomberg (57th) and Wright (70th), to act as a reinforcement, and support to any of the named parties, who the Lieutenant-General will be good enough to understand were all converging towards Kaitake, on which place Major Butler was to advance, to ascertain the number of rebel Maoris left to defend it, and to act as circumstances might warrant. As soon as the above arrangements were detailed, I left the town in charge of Major Baddeley, commanding Taranaki Militia, and rode to Poutoko, from whence, seeing Major Butler seriously engaged, I proceeded to Oakura, instructing Captains Schomberg and Wright to bring on their men as rapidly as possible.

I have the honour to enclose Major Butler's report of his proceedings, and can fully corroborate his statement regarding the conduct of the troops engaged, under circumstances of no ordinary danger or difficulty; and it is to the able manner in which Lieutenant Larcom, Royal Artillery (even after he was severely wounded), directed the fire of the howitzer, assisted by Lieutenant Ferguson, Royal Engineers, as the gun was so short manned, and the very great steadiness and precision in firing of the small party of the 57th Regiment, under Captain Lloyd, that so few casualties occurred. In the face of between 2 and 300 Maoris, concealed in rifle pits, and behind an entrenched stockade, which since our last visit had been completed, across the road, from one side of the gorge to the other; the men retired in perfect order, bringing back the body of Private Kennedy, 57th Regiment, and the wounded men.

I took the liberty of complimenting both officers and men on their excellent conduct, in a Garrison Order, which I do myself the honour to submit for the Lieutenant-General's approval, trusting that he will be kind enough to give some special mark of his approbation to the individuals named, and especially to bring to the notice of the Governor the gallantry of Captain Mace, Taranaki Militia, and Antonio Rodriguez, who on this as on a former occasion, so nobly assisted wounded men—a return of whom and of all casualties I beg herewith to transmit.

The 100 rank and file under Captain Schomberg were not required, and no natives having been discovered by the detached parties of Volunteers and Militia, the whole of the troops returned the same evening to their quarters.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) H. J. WARRE, C.B., Colonel,
Commanding Troops, Taranaki.

P.S.—As I fear I shall for some time be deprived of the services of Lieutenant Larcom, Royal Artillery, whose wound is progressing favourably, the ball having been extracted, I trust the Lieutenant-General will be able to send me another Artillery Officer and a few more gunners, the 22 now here being mostly superannuated, and so detached at different outposts it is with difficulty I can man one gun.

*New Plymouth, New Zealand,
March 12, 1864.*

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to report that in compliance with your instructions I proceeded to Oakura at about half-past eleven A.M. yesterday, and taking a force from that redoubt (strength as per margin*) marched up the Wairau road towards Kaitake, for the purpose of ascertaining as far as possible the number of natives occupying the pahs, and the strength and nature of the position; having previously left 80 men of the Melbourne Volunteers under Lieutenant Jackson with Ensign Duncan, 57th Regiment, at the extremity of the road to guard the approach from the south.

I advanced to within about 800 yards of the upper palisading, upon which I opened fire from the 24lb. howitzer; extending Captain Lloyd's Company of the 57th Regiment on both flanks, and in front of the gun, with instructions to keep down, as much as possible, the fire of the enemy, which was now considerable both from the rifle pits on the spur to my left front and the gully connecting the pits with the lower palisading.

The fire from the former became so hot that I desired Lieutenant Larcom, R.A., to throw a shell into them, which he did with great precision, and silenced the fire from this part for some time.

As it appeared to me at this time that there were altogether not many rebels in the place, I advanced the gun about 150 yards, still keeping out skirmishers in front and on the flanks, where they did good service in keeping down the fire of the enemy.

I now had the gun between 300 and 400 yards from the lower palisading, but out of sight of it, a low ridge intervening, to the top of which I sent a party of skirmishers, whose fire from here besides keeping down that of the enemy from the lower palisading, enfiladed the rifle pits and gully on my left.

Shortly after I had placed my men in this position the natives appeared to be in much greater force than I had anticipated, and opened a very heavy cross fire from three different directions.

I should think that at this time there could not have been less than 200 natives in the place.

Finding myself thus opposed to an enemy in a strongly entrenched position, with a force in number treble that of my own, I thought it prudent to retire.

It is impossible to estimate the loss on the enemy's side, as they remained the whole time under cover, but I feel confident that they must suffered considerably.

I regret to state that I lost one man (57th Regiment) killed, and Lieutenant Larcom, Royal Artillery, and five men (57th) wounded.

I cannot conclude my report without bringing to your notice the extremely gallant and steady conduct of the whole of the small force under my command.

I would more especially wish to mention Captain Lloyd, and Lieutenant Cox, 57th Regiments, and Lieutenant Larcom, Royal Artillery. The latter officer even after he was wounded refused to be taken to the rear, but remained by his gun until the whole force retired.

Staff Assistant-Surgeon Jones, was on the ground the whole time, and attended the wounded as they fell.

The mounted volunteers, who accompanied me, behaved throughout with their usual conspicuous courage and coolness. Of these I would beg to name Captain F. Mace, Taranaki Militia, and Antonio Rodriguez, the latter of whom again distinguished himself by conveying wounded men to the rear under a heavy fire.

GARRISON ORDERS.

New Plymouth, 12th March, 1864.

(Extract.)

COLONEL WARRE desires to record his high appreciation of the gallant conduct of the whole of the small force shown in the margin,* under the command of Major Butler, 57th Regiment, in reconnoitring the rebel position at Kaitake yesterday.

The object intended was fully accomplished, the strength of the rebel position, and the number occupying it ascertained—although unhappily with the loss of one brave man killed, and Lieutenant Larcom, R.A., and five men, 57th Regiment, wounded.

To Major Butler, Captain Lloyd, and the Officers of the 57th, Lieutenant Larcom, R.A., Lieutenant Ferguson, R.E., and to Captain Mace, Mounted Corps, the Colonel's best thanks are due, as also to Staff Assistant-Surgeon Morgan Jones, for the gallant and able manner in which, on the field, he attended the wounded; but it is not only to the Officers, it is to the Non-Commissioned Officers and men of the Royal Artillery, and 57th Regiment, who so fully deserve to have their gallant deeds recorded, and to the men of the Mounted Corps, and more especially to Antonio Rodriguez (who on this, as well as on the 2nd October last, bore off wounded men on his horse) that the Colonel would wish to convey his best and heartfelt thanks for their gallantry, under as heavy a fire from 2 or 300 Maoris as is usually met with in this description of warfare.

* Royal Artillery—1 subaltern, 1 serjeant, 5 rifle and file; Royal Engineers—1 subaltern—57th Regiment—1 captain, 2 subalterns, 4 serjeants, 88 rank and file; Mounted Corps—1 captain, 5 rank and file; Militia—(under Ensign Duncan, 57th Regiment, Covering Party on the right flank), 1 subaltern, 1 serjeant, 30 rank and file. Total, 2 captains, 5 subalterns, 6 serjeants, 128 rank and file.

The gallant conduct of the brothers Privates Bartholomew and Martin, and Drummer Dudley Stagpole, 57th Regiment, all of whom have been wounded in this war, and Private Martin Stagpole, unfortunately severely on this occasion, also deserves special mention, as wherever danger is, there they are sure to be found.

Colonel Warre knows that he can depend upon the courage and devotion of all; but it is upon trying occasions like that he now records, with an almost invisible enemy strongly entrenched behind an impassable stockade, that the high discipline of men he is so proud to command is more than usually conspicuous, and the Colonel will feel great satisfaction in bringing their gallant conduct to the notice of the Lieutenant-General Commanding.

New Plymouth,
March, 26, 1864.

SIR,

IT is with much satisfaction I have the honour to report for the information of the Lieutenant-General Commanding, that by the result of a few days operations, the troops under my command have succeeded, with trifling loss, in driving the whole of the rebel Maoris from the several positions they have occupied since March, 1863, on the Patua Ranges; and by the successful attack on Kaitake yesterday, have left the rebels no place of refuge on this side of the Katikara River.

Finding by the tenor of the Lieutenant-General's letter of the 12th instant, that the extent of his operations in Waikato would prevent his sending me any further reinforcements beyond the 12lb. Armstrong guns, and 30 Non-commissioned officers and gunners, under the command of Captain Martin, R.A., and that the Lieutenant-General appeared to think that this settlement could not be safe from the incursions of hostile natives, so long as the rebels remained at Kaitake, I thought it my duty to endeavour to carry out his views, either by turning the rebels out of their formidable position at Kaitake, or by establishing military posts on the Timaru River, to cut off their communications with the south. With this object, therefore, on Monday, the 21st instant, I sent the Armstrong guns to Oakura, and placed them in position in the afternoon to try their effect, and show the natives that we were able to reach their apparently impregnable position at Kaitake at long range. The practice was excellent, and evidently made so great an impression upon the rebels, that I felt we could keep down their fire while the troops rushed their rifle pits. Considering it right, however, to destroy all their outposts, or places of refuge, before I attacked their main position, I left two of the Armstrong guns at Oakura to keep up an occasional fire at Kaitake, and marched on Tuesday, the 22nd, with the force noted in the margin,* to attack the Tutu

* See Return A.

Pah, situated on the Kaitakara River, four miles above the rebel position, so successfully attacked by the Lieutenant-General on the 4th June, 1863, starting at three o'clock, A.M., I hoped to gain the bush in which the pah is situated by day-break, and to take it in reverse by a bush track which I had explored last year; but on arrival in sight of the pah at the extreme boundary of the Tataraimaka Block, the position appeared deserted; so I detached Captain Atkinson, Rifle Volunteers, supported by 50 of the 57th Regiment, under Captain Lloyd, to feel their way by the track, while the guns remained within easy range (about 1,200 yards) outside the bush. The pah was unoccupied, or occupied only by a few women and children, who ran away as soon as the troops appeared.

The stockade was pulled down and burnt, as also were several whares, not only near the pah, but at some distance from it. Some cattle were taken and driven in, and many acres of cultivation destroyed.

As we observed, on our advance, that the chapel on the Tataraimaka Block had been pulled down and packed ready for carrying away, many of the side-boards being found lying on the road leading to Tutu Pah, I thought it would distract the attention of the natives from my further operations if I sent to bring away the remaining portions of the chapel, which, making eight carts' load, were successfully brought to Oakura by Captain Russell, 57th Regiment, with 100 of the 57th and Militia, on Wednesday, 23rd instant.

On Thursday, the 24th instant, I again organized a force, as shown in the margin,* to attack the rebel position at Au-Au, and explore the road on the north side of the Timaru River, to ascertain where the native track crossed by which the natives on the Ranges obtain their supplies and keep up communications with the south, which track we failed to find on Tuesday.

The guns at Kaitake, and the constant movement of troops, had apparently lulled the natives at Au-Au into security, as they allowed the troops to approach within about half a mile of the foot of the Ranges (where the track coming from the south crosses the river) before any apparent notice was taken of our advance; when, by the hurried discharge of muskets at different points, it became evident that only a few natives occupied this very formidable position, which crowns the top of a spur about twice the height of that upon which Kaitake is situated. Dividing the 57th into two parties, I sent one, under Captain Russell, up a very steep incline (covered with rifle pits) to the left, and the other, under Captain Schomberg, to the right, by the road which leads round the spur on which the stockade is situated, supported by the Militia, under Captains Carthew and McKellar, T.M.; the guns, under a covering party, being left on a small knoll, from which they could have shelled the pah and kept down the fire of the rifle pits, had it been necessary.

The twenty or thirty Maories by whom this place was very gallantly held gave way on the advance of the men of the 57th, who, without any cover, pushed up the very steep hill; the Maories retiring in front of them until the two parties of the 57th joined.

The Maories for a short time made a determined stand, firing very sharply from a small bush-covered hillock on the right from the pah; but although only a few feet distant from their opponents, only two men were wounded, and Captain Mace's horse shot, while the troops were tearing down the stockade and forcing a passage into the interior, from whence the Maories made a rapid retreat up the steep hill, densely covered with bush on the rear, through which the men could not follow them. The pah was ours, with great quantities of vegetable produce of every description, all of which, including several acres of growing crops of Indian corn, tobacco, tara, &c., were destroyed, after filling two empty carts which I had brought with the column for the purpose.

Having burnt and destroyed everything we could, we returned by the same route to Oakura.

Thinking it very probable that many of the rebels from Kaitake would go to Au-Au to ascertain their loss; and as Mr. Parris had informed me that Tamatione, the Kaitake Chief, had gone south to seek reinforcements from the Ngatiruanuis, who were hourly expected, I decided to attack the former position the next day. Having arranged that Captain Atkinson, with 150 Taranaki Rifle Volunteers, should proceed by the bush track which leads to the rear of Kaitake, and that Captain Corbett, T.M., with 60 of his men, should advance up an intermediate spur of the ranges from the left, I so divided the remainder of my force, that Captain Schomberg, 57th Regiment, and Captain Page, T.M., with 50 men each, should threaten the right, Captain Russell, 57th, with 80 men, should threaten the centre, while Captain Lloyd, 57th, with 50 men, and Captains Wright, 70th, and McKellar, T.M., with 25 men each, in support of Captain Lloyd, should proceed up the several small spurs on our left to take in reverse the rifle pits, which are constructed half way up the steep incline towards the two pahas, which crown the crest of the hill.

To enable the bush parties to accomplish their long and fatiguing marches, and to arrive simultaneously at a given time. I had arranged that the guns should continue firing until ten o'clock. The three Armstrongs, under Captain Martin, R.A., were placed on the right bank of the Oakura River to breach the upper pahas, and the 24 lbs. howitzer and rocket tube, which, owing to Mr. Larcom's recent wound, and a severe accident which disabled Serjeant-Major Arthur, I entrusted to a junior Non-commissioned officer, were placed within about 800 yards of the front of the lower stockade, which they were to endeavour to knock down.

The beautiful practice of the Armstrong guns, under Captain Martin, set fire to a whare within the stockade of the lower of the two upper pahas, at the very hour I had named (ten o'clock A.M.) for the simultaneous advance of all the parties; and of this fortunate accident immediate advantage was taken by Captain Corbett's party, who rushed at once upon the pah, and under cover of the smoke, climbed over the stockades and got into it by a zig-zag entrance between the two lines of palisades, followed very closely by the assaulting parties under Captain Lloyd, who climbed the spurs and rushed the rifle pits, from which a heavy fire had been kept up on the centre and right parties, who with a tremendous cheer for the "Queen", pushed rapidly forward; the party under Captain Schomberg, 57th, led by Major Butler, mounted the high ground to the right, also taking the rifle pits on that side in reverse, and * See Return B.

Captain Russell's party, under my immediate direction, forced their way through the very formidable double line of palisades which extends across the valley, backed by rifle pits, from which the Maoris had been driven by the fire of the parties above, and were escaping as rapidly as possible.

Captains Atkinson's and Good's Rifle Volunteers had found the bush track so overgrown that they were unfortunately a few minutes late, but they did good service by appearing at the very top of the clearing, by which line they prevented the Maoris escaping and killed one, Kati Knaturihati, the chief owner of the land in the Oakura and Tapuae district.

With the exception of Captains Atkinson and Corbett's men, who had a very fatiguing night march, and to the latter it is with much pleasure I give the credit of taking possession of the pah on the top of the hill, which is, as I always imagined, the key to the whole position; the troops generally only took up their positions at ten o'clock, and in 20 minutes they were in possession of the whole line of works extending for at least half a mile from the high ground on the right, which Major Butler gained by his successful flank march up a very steep incline, to the pahs taken by Captain Corbett on the left. The Maoris made one attempt to recover their prestige by creeping through the bush, and firing a volley upon Captains Schomberg and Page's companies, in which one man was severely wounded and one horse shot; another Maori was captured in the fern; after deliberately attempting to shoot one of the mounted corps, who upon this, as on every occasion, rendered me most valuable assistance. It is surprising even after the place was taken, that more casualties did not occur, so many Maoris concealed themselves in the fern and standing crops of Indian corn, which, with potatoes, &c., covered the clear ground round the pahs to an extent of 30 or 40 acres, and from which and the adjoining bush the Maoris kept up for some time an ineffectual fire; until driven away by a few rockets and shells from the "Cohorn" mortar; although the wounds are severe, we did not lose a single man.

I need hardly dwell upon the importance of this success, and the Lieutenant-General is well aware how impregnable the position appeared.

I am sure the Lieutenant-General will give the Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, and men of the small force under my command the credit they so truly deserve, for their gallantry and willingness to undergo the fatigue of the four days operations they have brought to so successful a close. I have taken the liberty of transmitting a nominal and numerical return,* by which the Lieutenant-General will see what Officers were engaged on this occasion.

I at once made arrangements to occupy one of the pahs, within which I directed Lieutenant Ferguson, R.E., to construct a redoubt, leaving the stockade to prevent the rebels from attempting to scale the parapets, as the nature of the ground obliges its construction very close to the edge of the bush; and I also directed the whole of the stockading across the valley to be levelled, and the rifle pits filled in.

To Major Butler, 57th Regiment, I am most especially indebted for the cordial co-operation and assistance he renders me on every occasion, and on this, for the gallant manner in which on seeing the place taken he not only conceived the idea, but led the men, under Captains Schomberg and Page to the top of the range on the right, from which he partially intercepted the retreat of the Maoris.

The firing of the Armstrong guns, and especially of that in charge of Sergeant Spink, R.A., was most excellent; but it is very evident that such guns are of little use in breaching native pahs.

My own Staff Officers, Lieutenant C. M. Clarke, Deputy-Assistant Quartermaster-General, and Lieutenant E. Brutton, Garrison Adjutant, were unremitting in the execution of my orders; Captain F. Mace, T. M., volunteered his services, and as on every occasion rendered me very good service.

Staff Surgeon Young was on the ground and attended promptly to the wounded men; and I would wish especially to bring to the Lieutenant-General's notice the very considerate manner in which Staff Assistant-Surgeon M. Jones, volunteered to proceed at 5 o'clock in the morning with Captain Atkinson's party, and at a moment's notice undertook the five hours long and fatiguing march through the bush, rather than allow them to proceed without a Medical Officer; all the Officers and men speak loudly in his praise, although his professional services were not actually required.

The native prisoner who is a returned slave from Waikato, and of no tribal importance, awaits the orders of the Government in the civil prison. He states that Kaitake was defended by 200 Maoris under Parengi Kingi, who was the first to run away on hearing the cheers which preceded our advance; a sudden panic seized the whole of the rebels, who after the departure of their chief lost no time in effecting their escape.

Two tiahás (spears) were taken at Au-Au, and two native flags from Kaitake; the latter I forward by this mail, one to his Excellency the Governor, and one to the Lieutenant-General Commanding.

The capture of Kaitake has given the most lively satisfaction to the inhabitants of this place.

I beg to forward a return of casualties, which I am happy to say are very small.

I have, &c.,

Head Quarters, Pukerimu,

MY LORD,

April 4, 1864.

IN continuation of my despatch of the 28th ultimo, I have the honour to inform your Lordship, that an attempt having been made by a body of about 300 rebel natives to re-occupy the village of Orakau, Brigadier-General Carey, Commanding at Te Awamutu, marched against them in the night of the 30th March, and succeeded in completely surrounding their position which they had strongly fortified. Having failed in an attempt to carry it by assault, General Carey advanced against it by sap, and compelled the natives to abandon it in the afternoon of the 2nd April, inflicting a very heavy loss upon them in their retreat.

The enclosed report of General Carey contains a detailed account of his operations.

The skill with which the enemy's work was suddenly invested on every side, reflects great credit on General Carey, who, by the manner in which he has conducted previous operations entrusted to him in this war, has proved himself a very able and zealous officer. I beg to recommend him to your Lordship's favorable consideration.

I would also beg to draw your Lordship's attention to the services of the Officers and Non-commissioned Officers reported by General Carey as having distinguished themselves in this attack, particularly Captain Baker, Deputy Assistant Adjutant-General, Captain Greaves, Deputy Assistant Quartermaster-General, and Lieutenant Hurst, 1st Battalion 12th Regiment, Assistant Engineer.

Our loss has been severe; and your Lordship will regret to see in the list of killed the name of Captain Ring, 2nd Battalion 18th Regiment, a brave and promising young officer, whose gallant conduct I have brought to your notice on two previous occasions.

I think it right to mention, that on arriving at the scene of action, and seeing the hopeless situation of the natives, and the probable destruction of the greater part of them if they withstood an assault from such overwhelming numbers, I directed the message—mentioned by General Carey—to be sent to them; and it is to be deeply regretted that they did not accept the terms thus offered. I cannot, however, in justice refrain from paying a tribute to the heroic courage and devotion of this band of natives, who, without water, and with but little food, for more than two days, and deprived of all hope of succour, held out so long against a vastly superior force; and, at last, disdaining to surrender, silently and deliberately abandoned their position, under a terrific fire from our troops.

I have, &c.

Lieutenant-General.

*Camp Te Awamutu,
April 3, 1864.*

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to state, for the information of the Lieutenant-General Commanding the Forces, that about mid-day on the 30th ultimo, it was reported to me by Lieutenant-Colonel Haultain, Waikato Militia, commanding at Kihī Kihī Redoubt, that natives were seen in force at the village of "Orakau," about 2½ to 3 miles distance from his post.

I immediately rode over and made a reconnaissance, found that the natives were engaged building a Pah, and as it was then too late in the day to attack at once, I returned to this camp, and made arrangements to march on the enemy's position during the night.

Captain Baker, 18th Royal Irish, Deputy-Assistant-Adjutant-General, fortunately found two men* in camp, whom, from their local knowledge, I at once engaged as guides, which circumstance enabled me to determine on a combined movement.

My plan of attack was to advance with the main body along the dray road to Orakau, to detach a force of 250 men under Major Blythe, 40th Regiment, who would take a circuitous route through a somewhat difficult country, crossing and re-crossing the Punia River, and marching on my right flank to take the enemy's position in reverse; and, thirdly, to draw a force of 100 men from Rangiahia and Hairini, under Captain Blewitt, 65th Regiment, who would march across to the enemy's position on my left; the three bodies of troops arriving, if possible, simultaneously before the enemy's stronghold, shortly before daylight.

At midnight Major Blyth, 40th Regiment, marched with 250 men, as enumerated in the margin,† with directions to take the road to the right, to cross and recross the Punia River, and to gain the rear of the enemy's position before daylight, halting there until he should hear my attack, and then to dispose of his force so as to cut off the retreat of the enemy.

The road from Rangiahia to Orakau, I found on enquiry to be very difficult, being intercepted by deep swamps and thick bush; however, having every confidence in Captain Blewitt's energy, I directed that officer, who commands at Rangiahia, to march during the night, and endeavour to form a junction with me before daylight on the proper right of the enemy's position, bringing with him one hundred men.‡

At three o'clock on Thursday morning, the 31st ultimo, I marched with the main body, as directed in the margin,§ along the dray road to Kihikihi, taking on Lieutenant-Colonel Haultain and 150 men from that post, and then proceeded by the same road to the village of Orakau, which I reached without opposition as the day dawned.

The enemy, evidently taken by surprise, opened fire on the advance-guard composed of 120 of the Royal Irish and 20 Forest Rangers, gallantly led by Captain Ring, 18th Royal Irish (and supported by 100 of the 40th Regiment), who immediately rushed forward to the attack in skirmishing order.

The position being found very strong (an earth-work, with strong flank defences, deep ditches, with posts and rails outside, and nearly covered from view by flax-bushes, peach-trees, and high fern), this party were forced to retire, but at once reformed, and, being reinforced by another Company of the 40th Regiment, again tried to take the place by assault, but with no better success. Here Captain Ring, 18th Royal Irish, fell mortally wounded, and Captain Fisher, 40th Regiment, severely so, besides four men were killed and several wounded.

On Captain Ring's falling, Captain Baker, 18th Royal Irish, Deputy-Assistant Adjutant-General, most gallantly galloped up, dismounted, and, calling for volunteers, again endeavoured to carry the place by assault. This also failed.

Finding that there was no chance of taking the pah in this manner, from its immense strength, and other men having fallen, I determined to desist from this mode of attack, and having heard that both Major Blyth, 40th Regiment, and Captain Blewitt, 65th Regiment, were at their appointed posts, I decided on surrounding the place, and adopting the more slow but sure method of approaching the position by sap, which was shortly after commenced, under the very able directions of Lieutenant Hurst, 12th Regiment, attached to the Royal Engineer Department.

At this time, Lieutenant Carre, Royal Artillery, endeavoured to effect a breach in the enemy's work, but could make no impression upon it.

A further supply of entrenching tools and gabions (which latter had most fortunately been prepared at the neighbouring posts for service of head-quarters on the Horatin) were immediately ordered up, with the men's blankets, additional food, &c., and every possible precaution taken by the proper disposition of the force, to prevent the escape of the enemy.

During the afternoon, a reinforcement of some 150 or 200 of the enemy, from the direction of Maungatautari, appeared in sight, evidently determined on relieving the place. They advanced to a bush situated about 900 yards in rear of our outposts, but seeing that it was scarcely possible to break through the line formed by our troops, they halted and commenced firing volleys, at the same time exciting the men in the pah to increased energy by dancing the war dance, shouting, &c.

The wounded were sent in to "Te Awamutu" and "Kihikihi;" the sap was pushed forward vigorously, and the troops so posted as to prevent any possibility of escape by the natives during the night.

Heavy firing was kept up by the enemy on the troops, both in the sap and around the place during the day and night, causing but few casualties, the men contriving to cover themselves in temporary rifle pits, dug out with their bayonets and hands.

A reinforcement of 200 men, as detailed in the margin,* under the command of Captain Inman, 18th Royal Irish, reached me from head-quarters during the afternoon.

Having reported my proceedings to the Commander of the Forces in the morning, I was glad to receive a reinforcement as detailed in the margin,† sent by him and guided by Captain Greaves, D.A., Quartermaster-General, which arrived about daylight on the morning of the 1st April, and which enabled me to relieve the men in the sap more constantly, and therefore to carry on the work more quickly, Captain Greaves also affording me material assistance in the duties of his department. This day was spent in working at the sap and making rifle pits around the pah, few casualties occurring.

Captain Betty, R.A., arrived during the day, and assumed command of the Royal Artillery, which enabled Lieutenant Carre to render some assistance to Lieutenant Hurst in constructing the sap, he having been at it without intermission.

During the night a few of the enemy were perceived trying to effect an escape from the Pah, but being immediately fired upon, returned to their earthwork.

I omitted to mention that Captain Betty, R.A., threw some well directed shells at the Maori reinforcement in the bush and on the hills, which evidently disconcerted them considerably.

At an early hour on the morning of the 2nd April, Lieutenant-Colonel Sir Henry Havelock, Bart., Deputy Assistant Quartermaster-General, arrived with hand grenades, which were at once thrown into the enemy's position with great effect by Serjeant McKay, R.A., who thus rendered good and gallant service, at great personal risk, under a galling fire.

About noon I ordered Captain Betty, R.A., to have a six-pounder Armstrong gun carried into the sap. An entrance having been made, it opened fire on the enemy's work, destroying the palisading, making a considerable breach, and silencing in a great measure, the fire of the enemy on the men engaged at the head of the sap.

The Commander of the Forces, with his Staff, &c., arrived on the ground at this time and witnessed the remainder of the operations.

Colonel Mould, C.B., R.E., coming up with General Cameron, gave his able assistance towards the completion of the sap into the enemy's work.

As it was known that women and children were in the pah, the enemy was called upon to surrender previous to the concentrated fire of the Armstrong gun and hand grenades on their work, they were told that their lives would be spared, and, if they declined, they were requested at least to have compassion on their women and children and send them out. They replied that they would not do so, but would fight to the last. The pah was then carried, the enemy effecting his escape from the opposite side of the work dashed through a space from which the troops had been thrown back under cover, to enable the gun to open. They were, however, speedily followed up, and suffered a severe loss during a pursuit of nearly six miles. Lieutenant Rait, R.A., with his troopers and Captain Pye, Colonial Defence Force, with a small detachment having headed them and kept them back until the infantry came up. I regret to say that in the pah and in the pursuit some three or four women were killed unavoidably, probably owing to the similarity of dress of both men and women, and their hair being cut equally short rendering it impossible to distinguish one from the other at any distance.

The troops were recalled about sun down and bivouacked around the enemy's late position.

At an early hour this morning I caused diligent search to be made for the killed and wounded of the enemy. Their loss was considerable, amounting to 101 killed, besides 18 to 20 reported by native prisoners as buried in the pah, 26 wounded and taken prisoners, 7 taken prisoners.

In addition to this number, the natives were seen to be engaged carrying off dead and wounded early in the morning, at the most distant point of pursuit, and fresh tracks showed that they had been similarly occupied during the night.

I beg to bring to the special notice of the Lieutenant-General Commanding the Forces the gallant bearing of Captain Baker, 18th Royal Irish, Deputy Assistant Adjutant-General, during the whole of the operations, but more especially on the occasion already mentioned, of the fall of that brave and lamented soldier Captain Ring.

Also the determined bravery of Captain Harford, Waikato Militia, who was very severely wounded (loss of eye), and the gallantry of Lieutenant Harrison, Waikato Militia, both of whom remained at the head of the sap nearly the whole time, keeping down the fire of the enemy by the well-directed balls of their own rifles, likewise the gallant conduct of Serjeant McKay, R.A., who, as before mentioned, under a galling fire, threw, with the greatest precision and coolness, hand grenades from the sap, and from the lodgment made in the outerwork of the enemy, into his stronghold.

The wounded received the greatest possible attention, on the field, from the Senior Medical Officer, Doctor White, 65th Regiment, ably seconded by Assistant-Surgeons Spencer, 18th Royal Irish, Stiles, 40th Regiment, and Hilston Royal Navy, until the arrival of Doctor Mouat, C.B., V.C., the P.M.O., who left nothing undone in providing for their comfort, &c. I trust the conduct of the officers and men under my command during this long operation of three days and three nights without cover, and constantly under fire, may meet with the approval of the Commander of the Forces.

The casualties on our side, of which I enclose a return, are, I regret to say, severe.

I beg to recommend to the favorable notice of the Lieutenant-General Commanding the Forces, the able services rendered by the following officers who so cordially assisted me in carrying out my operations, viz. :—

Colonel Leslie, C.B., Commanding 40th Regiment; Major Blyth, 40th Regiment, Commanding Detached Force, on right flank; Captain Blewitt, 65th Regiment, Commanding Detached Force on left flank; Captain Vereker, Commanding Detachment 12th Regiment; Captain Inman, Commanding Detachment 18th Royal Irish; Captain Cay, Commanding Detachment 70th Regiment; Captain Betty, R.A., Commanding Royal Artillery, Lieutenant Rait, R.A., Commanding Mounted Royal Artillery Troopers.

Lieutenant Hurst, 12th Regiment, acting as Engineer.

Lieutenant-Colonel Haultain, Commanding Waikato Militia, and Captains Jackson and Von Tempsky of the Forest Rangers.

Doctor White, 65th Regiment, Senior Medical Officer in charge of Field Force.

I have further to claim the kind consideration of the Commander of the Forces for the Officers of my Staff, viz. :—

Captain Baker, 18th Royal Irish, Deputy Assistant Adjutant-General, and Captain the Honorable F. Le. P. Trench, 40th Regiment, A.D.C., who afforded me the greatest help, both day and night, by their untiring zeal and energy in carrying out my orders.

I beg to enclose a sketch of the enemy's work and our approaches to it, made by Lieutenant Hurst, 12th Regiment; also a rough sketch of the country, between this and the enemy's position, shewing the combined movement of the Force on the night of the 30th ultimo.

I have, &c.

(Signed) GEORGE J. CAREY.
Brigadier-General.

The Assistant Military Secretary,
Head Quarters.

Puherimu, New Zealand,
April 5, 3 P.M.

MY LORD,

I HAVE the honour to inform your Lordship, that in making a reconnaissance of the rebel position at Mangatautari this morning, from the right bank of the Waikato, I found that the natives had just abandoned it, and were retiring up the left bank of the river. I have sent a detachment to occupy it.

I have, &c.

D. A. CAMERON,
Lieutenant-General.

The Right Honourable
The Secretary of State for War,
War Office, Pall Mall.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of June, 1864.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it has been represented to Her Majesty that, in the year 1857, a rebellion took place within that part of Her Majesty's East Indian Dominions known as Central India, that land forces, consisting of Her Majesty's troops and of troops of the East India Company were, for the suppression of the same, organized in three columns, termed respectively the Central Indian Field Force, the Sauga and Narbudda Field Force, and the Rajpootanah Field Force, under the command respectively of Major-General, now General, Sir Hugh Rose, G.C.B., Major-General Whitlock, now Lieutenant-General Sir George Whitlock, K.C.B., and Major-General Sir Henry Roberts, since deceased; and that, in the course of the operations which followed, certain property was captured at the places under mentioned, viz., Jhansi, Calpee, and Gwalior, by the force under the command of the said Sir Hugh Rose, of the estimated value of 4,90,000 rupees; at Kirwee and Banda, by the force under the command of the said Sir George Whitlock, of the estimated value of 70,00,000 rupees; and at Ahwah, Kotah, and Bunass by the force under the command of the said Major-General Sir Henry Roberts, of the estimated value of 1,82,000 rupees:

And whereas the said property belongs to Her Majesty in right of her Royal prerogative:

And whereas Her Majesty has signified her gracious pleasure, that the said property, and the proceeds thereof, shall be granted to, and distributed amongst, the forces concerned in the operations above referred to, in such manner as may be hereafter determined:

And whereas it has been proposed, for the consideration of Her Majesty, that the said proceeds of such property should be thrown into a common fund, and be distributed equally among the forces under the command of Sir Hugh Rose, Sir George Whitlock, and Sir Henry Roberts, respectively:

And whereas the Prize Agents of the force under the command of the said Sir George Whitlock have preferred a claim, that the said property captured at Kirwee and Banda should be granted exclusively to the force under the command of the said Sir George Whitlock:

And whereas the late General Lord Clyde preferred a claim on behalf of himself and his personal staff, that he and they should participate in the same, on the ground that he, as Commander-in-Chief in India, directed the operations which led to the capture thereof:

And whereas the said Sir Hugh Rose, has preferred a claim that he and the force under his command should also participate in the same, on the ground that such force co-operated in the actions or movement of the troops which led to the capture of the said property:

And whereas Major-General Smith has preferred a claim for participation in the same on behalf of himself and a Brigade under his command, in the event of the claim of the force under the command of the said Sir Hugh Rose being allowed; the said Major-General Smith stating that the Brigade under his command was detached from the before-mentioned force, under the command of the said Major-General Sir Henry Roberts, and co-operated in the actions or movement of the force under the command of Major-General Sir Hugh Rose:

And whereas a claim has also been preferred by Colonel William Middleton on behalf of himself and a force under his command, known as the Futtehpoore moveable column, for a participation in the same property:

And whereas other claims may be preferred by or on behalf of the same or other persons to the property, or some part thereof, captured during the aforesaid operations:

And whereas by an Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act to improve the practice, and extend the jurisdiction of the High Court of Admiralty of England," it was enacted, that, "the said High Court of Admiralty shall have jurisdiction to decide all matters and questions concerning booty of War, or the distribution thereof, which it shall please Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, by the advice of Her and their Privy Council, to refer to the judgment of the said Court; and in all matters so referred the Court shall proceed as in cases of Prize of War, and the judgment of the Court therein shall be binding upon all parties concerned:"

And whereas it is Her Majesty's pleasure to refer, under the authority of the said recited Act, all claims to share in the property captured during the aforesaid operations, and in the proceeds thereof, to the judgment of the High Court of Admiralty of England:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the claims of all parties whomsoever to the property captured during the aforesaid operations, and to the proceeds thereof, be referred to the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty of England, who shall take into his consideration, if it shall appear to him to be necessary for the purposes of justice, any capture that may have been made of any property during the said operations by any of the claimants, and shall make such order as to him shall seem right, both in regard to the persons who are, and the proportions in which such persons are entitled to share therein, and to the costs and expenses incurred in relation thereto by the respective claimants, whether before or subsequent to this Order, reserving, however, to Her Majesty the right to direct the rates or scale of distribution according to which the said property, or the proceeds thereof, shall be paid to the several ranks of the force or forces to which such property shall be adjudged.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of June, 1864.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to limit the time for proceeding to election in counties and boroughs in England and Wales, and for polling at elections for the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge, and for other purposes," it is enacted, that "It shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time hereafter, on Petition from the Justices in Quarter Sessions assembled, of any county, riding, parts, or division of any county, other than any county of a city or of a town, in England and Wales, representing that it would be expedient that any polling place or places mentioned in the said petition should cease to be such, and that any other place or places mentioned in the said petition should be substituted in lieu thereof, and praying that such alteration and substitution might be made, to declare that the said alteration and substitution shall be made in respect of all or any of the places mentioned in the said petition:

"Provided always, that the notice of, and proceedings to be had upon, any such petition, shall be according to the provisions of the second section of the one hundred and second chapter of the statute of the sixth and seventh years of King William the Fourth, in respect of the petition therein mentioned."

And whereas the Justices of the Peace acting in and for the county of Stafford, in General Quarter Sessions assembled, on Monday the fourth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, have presented a petition to Her Majesty, shewing (among other things) that, pursuant to the provisions of the said statute of the sixth and seventh years of King William the Fourth, referred to in the said recited Act, a certain notice, in writing, signed by twelve inhabitants, being registered voters for the southern division of the said county of Stafford, that the Court would be moved to make such petition at the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, on the said fourth day of January, was delivered to the Clerk of the Peace for the said county, one month at least before the holding of the said sessions, a copy of which notice the said Clerk of the Peace did, ten days before the holding of such sessions, cause to be inserted twice in two of the newspapers of such southern division of the said county, with a notice of the day upon which such next General Quarter Sessions would be held; and further, showing that at the said General Quarter Sessions, so held on the said fourth day of January, the said notice was taken into consideration, and it was then proved, to the satisfaction of Her Majesty's Justices so assembled as aforesaid, that it would be expedient that the parish of Kingswinford, in the southern division of the said county of Stafford, should cease to be a polling place for the said southern division of the county of Stafford, and that the parish of Kinver, in the said southern division of the said county of Stafford, should be substituted in lieu thereof; and humbly praying that Her Majesty would be graciously pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to declare that the parish of Kingswinford, in the said southern division of the said county of Stafford, shall cease to be a polling place, and that the parish of Kinver, in the said southern division of the said county of Stafford, shall be the polling place in lieu thereof, pursuant to the provisions of the said Acts of Parliament.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said Petition into consideration, doth, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that the said parish of Kingswinford shall henceforth cease to be a polling place for the said southern division of the county of Stafford; and that the parish of Kinver, in the said southern division of the said county of Stafford, shall be henceforth substituted as the polling place in lieu thereof.

"And whereas under the provisions of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, the said consolidated chapelry district of Christ Church, Derry Hill, is subject to the jurisdiction of the Bishop of the said diocese of Salisbury.

"And whereas by the authority of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the nineteenth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, and published in the London Gazette upon the fifth day of June, in the same year, certain contiguous portions of the said parish of Bishop's Cannings and of the parish of Bromham, in the said county of Wilts, and diocese of Salisbury, were formed into a consolidated chapelry, and were assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Mary, situate at Chittoe, in the said parish of Bishop's Cannings, and such consolidated chapelry was called 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Chittoe.'

"And whereas the said consolidated chapelry of Chittoe is assumed to have become, under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, a new parish of the character contemplated by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and is accordingly hereinbefore and hereinafter called the new parish of Chittoe.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend Walter Kerr, Bishop of the said diocese of Salisbury, who is also the patron in right of his see of the vicarage of the said parish of Calne, and of the vicarage of the said parish of Bremhill, and of the perpetual curacy of the said new parish of Chittoe, of the Reverend Meredith Brown, the incumbent of the same new parish, of the Reverend John Guthrie, the vicar or incumbent of the

AT the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of June, 1864.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-first day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes and districts.

"We humbly recommend and propose that there shall be paid by us, out of the common fund in the said Acts mentioned, in each and every year, to the incumbent for the time being of each of the benefices or districts described in the first schedule hereunto annexed, the annual sum set opposite to the name of each such benefice or district in the last column of the same schedule, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November, in each year: Provided always, that in consideration of the grant so recommended to be made by us to the benefice of Long Eaton, in the county of Derby and in the diocese of Lichfield, the annual sum or stipend of one hundred pounds, which, under the provisions of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the seventeenth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, was made payable by us to the vicar of the then consolidated benefice of Sawley with the chapelry of Long Eaton, in the said county of Derby and diocese of Lichfield, subject to the employment of a duly licensed curate by such vicar, shall, with the consent of the Reverend Samuel Hey, clerk, the present vicar or incumbent of the said vicarage of Sawley, from which the said chapelry of Long Eaton has, since the passing of such last-mentioned Order of your Majesty in Council, become separated, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, absolutely cease and determine.

"And we further recommend and propose that the lands and premises and other hereditaments particularly described in the second and three following schedules hereunto annexed respectively, with their appurtenances, now vested in us, and all our estate and interest therein, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the several spiritual persons herein-after mentioned respectively, that is to say: that the messuages, lands, hereditaments, and premises, described in the first part of the second schedule hereunto annexed, situate at Holloway, in the parish of St. Mary, Islington, in the county of Middlesex and diocese of London, all which were conveyed to us by a deed, bearing date the fifth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and made between James Peachey, of No. 17, Salisbury Square, in the city of London, Gentleman, of the first part, Alfred Peachey, of the same place, Gentleman, of the second part, and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the third part, which deed is intended to be deposited in the Registry of the diocese of Winchester; and also the messuages, lands, hereditaments, and premises described in the second part of the same schedule, situate at Sydenham, in the county of Kent and said diocese of London, all which were conveyed to us by a deed bearing date the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three; and made between Keturah Tuttiett Bishop, of Ludgate Hill, in the city of London, Spinster, of the first part, Alfred Rogers, of Albany Cottage, Upper Sydenham, in the county of Kent, Gentleman, of the second part, and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the third part, which deed is also intended to be deposited in the said Registry of the diocese of Winchester; and also the messuages, lands, hereditaments, and premises described in the third part of the same schedule, situate at Holloway, in the parish of Saint Mary, Islington, aforesaid, all which were conveyed to us by a deed bearing date the second day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and made between Frederick Barlow, of Edwardes-square, Kensington, in the county of Middlesex, Architect, of the one part, and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the other part, which lastly-mentioned deed is also intended to be deposited in the said registry of the diocese of Winchester, shall, subject nevertheless to the several indentures of lease, the dates of which, with the names of the lessees to whom the same are respectively granted, and the rents reserved thereunder, are, in the said Second Schedule hereunto annexed, set opposite to the description of the hereditaments which are demised by such leases respectively, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of Saint Philip, Lambeth, in the county of Surrey and said diocese of Winchester; that the lands and hereditaments described in the Third Schedule annexed, situate within the parish of Oving, in the county of Sussex and diocese of Chichester, and now vested in us, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said parish of Oving; that the lands and hereditaments described in the Fourth Schedule hereunto annexed, situate within the parishes of Rhuddlan and Saint Asaph, in the county of Flint and diocese of Saint Asaph, formerly belonging to the chancellorship of the cathedral church of Saint Asaph, and now vested in us, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said parish of Rhuddlan; that the messuages, lands, hereditaments, and premises described in the first part of the Fifth Schedule hereunto annexed, situate at Park-lane, otherwise Marsh-lane; Tottenham, in the county of Middlesex and diocese of London, all which were conveyed to us by a deed bearing date the twelfth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and made between John Green, of number 4, Grove-villas, Albion-grove, Stoke-Newington, in the same county and diocese, of the one part, and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the other part, which deed is intended to be deposited in the Registry of the diocese of Winchester; and also the messuages, lands, hereditaments, and premises described in the second part of the same schedule, situate at Forest Gate, in the parish of West Ham, in the county of Essex and said diocese of London, all which were likewise conveyed to us by the herein lastly-mentioned deed, shall, subject nevertheless to the several indentures of lease, the dates of which, with the names of the parties thereto, and the rents reserved thereunder, are, in the said Fifth Schedule hereunto annexed, set opposite to the description of the hereditaments which are demised by such leases respectively, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of Saint Jude, Southwark, in the county of Surrey and said diocese of Winchester.

“And whereas it appears to us, after duly considering the circumstances of the cases under-mentioned, to be expedient that the grants respectively recommended to be made by us to the benefices of Ebbesborne Wake, Lanchester, and Oving, and to the district of Saint Paul, Wokingham, should commence and take effect from the several dates hereinafter mentioned, respectively; that is to say, in the case of the perpetual curacy of Ebbesborne Wake, from the first day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three; in the case of the perpetual curacy of Lanchester, from the third day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three; in the case of the vicarage of Oving, from the twenty-ninth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two; and in the case of the district of Saint Paul, Wokingham, from the twelfth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

“Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that the several grants hereinbefore recommended by us to be made to the said last-mentioned benefices respectively, shall commence and take effect from the said dates hereinbefore in that behalf mentioned respectively.

“And whereas, under the provisions of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the third day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, an annual sum or stipend of one hundred and twenty-three pounds was made or intended to be made payable by us to the benefice of All Saints, Chardstock, in the counties of Devon and Dorset, and in the diocese of Salisbury, but the said benefice was, in such Order of your Majesty in Council, erroneously described to be situate in the counties of Devon and Somerset and in the diocese of Bath and Wells,

“Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that such intended annual grant of one hundred and twenty-three pounds shall, notwithstanding such erroneous description as before mentioned, be confirmed and made payable by us to the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of All Saints, Chardstock, in the counties of Devon and Dorset and in the diocese of Salisbury, as and from the date of the publication in the London Gazette of the lastly-mentioned Order of your Majesty in Council.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the respective Registrars of the several dioceses of York, London, Durham, Winchester, Saint Asaph, Carlisle, Chester, Chichester, Saint David's, Ely, Exeter, Lichfield, Lincoln, Llandaff, Manchester, Norwich, Oxford, Ripon, Salisbury, and Worcester.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of June, 1864.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and thirteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-first day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and thirteen, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for augmenting the income of the Archdeaconry of Wilts, in the diocese of Salisbury.

"Whereas it was by the said Act enacted that, so soon as conveniently might be, and by the authority therein provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same) any archdeaconry might, subject to the consent of the Bishop, be endowed, amongst other modes, by augmentation out of the Common Fund in the same Act mentioned, but not so as to raise the average annual income thereof to an amount exceeding two hundred pounds, with a proviso that no archdeacon should be entitled to hold any endowment or augmentation, or other emolument as such archdeacon, under the provisions of the same Act, unless resident for the space of eight months in every year within the diocese in which his archdeaconry should be situate, but subject to the same provisions as to licenses for non-residence which are enacted with respect to incumbents of benefices by the Act relating to pluralities and residence in the same Act mentioned.

"And whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council bearing date the tenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, and duly gazetted in the London Gazette of the sixteenth day of the same month, it was provided, that with a view to raising the income of the Archdeaconry of Wilts to the annual sum of two hundred pounds, an annual sum of one hundred and fifty pounds should be paid by us to the Archdeacon for the time being.

"And whereas the amount of the said grant of one hundred and fifty pounds per annum was fixed on the assumption that the average annual income of the said Archdeaconry arising from other sources amounted, as nearly as might be, to the sum of fifty pounds, and it has been made to appear to us that the average net annual income of the said Archdeaconry, inclusive of the grant above mentioned, does not now exceed one hundred and eighty pounds.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend Walter Kerr, Bishop of Salisbury, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that in addition to the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds in the said recited Order mentioned, there shall be paid by us, out of the said Common Fund, to the Honorable and Venerable Charles Amyand Harris, the present Archdeacon of the said Archdeaconry of Wilts, and to his successors in the said Archdeaconry, so long as he and they shall respectively hold the same, and shall duly reside in accordance with the provisions of the said first-recited Act, or shall produce to us a license of non-residence, the further annual sum of twenty pounds, on the first day of January in every year, so as to make up the average income of the Archdeaconry to two hundred pounds per annum, as contemplated by the said Act, and that the first such increased annual payment of one hundred and seventy pounds shall be made on the first day of January next.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the said Archdeaconry, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Salisbury.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of June, 1864.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Saint Leonard, Bromley, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said parish of Saint Leonard, Bromley, hereinafter mentioned and described (such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship), should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honorable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said parish of Saint Leonard, Bromley, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, be constituted and become and be a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Michael and All Angels, Bromley.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us in each and every year to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, the sum of two hundred pounds, and that so soon as a church shall have been erected within such district, and shall have been approved by us and consecrated as the church of such district, and for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and such district shall have thereupon become, according to the provisions of the said last-mentioned Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, there shall be paid by us in each and every year to the perpetual curate for the time being of such new parish, the further sum of one hundred pounds, making in the whole the sum of three hundred pounds, and that the said sums of two hundred pounds or three hundred pounds, as the case may be, shall be paid by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the license of such minister, or of the consecration and approval of such church as aforesaid, as the case may be; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or perpetual curacy of such district or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount then next thereafter payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or perpetual curate making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish; provided always, that if it shall appear to us to be expedient at any future time, that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the minister or perpetual curate of the said district or new parish, or, instead of any part of such annual sum, any land, tithe, or other hereditament, should be conveyed or secured to such minister or perpetual curate and his successors, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint-Michael and All Angels, Bromley, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Saint Leonard, Bromley, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, which is situate to the south of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said parish from the parish of All Saints, Poplar, in the same county and diocese, at a point on the southern side of Bow Common Bridge where Upper North Street is intersected by the towing-path on the southern side of the Lea Cut; and extending thence north-eastward to and along the middle of such towing-path, passing under the line of the North London Railway as far as the point where Saint Leonard's Road, otherwise called 'Bow Lane,' abuts upon the said towing-path; and extending thence southward and in a direct line to a point in the middle of the said Saint Leonard's Road, otherwise called 'Bow Lane,' aforesaid; and extending thence eastward along the middle of the said road or lane for a distance of one hundred and seventy yards or thereabouts to its junction with the road which leads from Bow to Bromley, and is called in part 'Brunswick Road;' and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-described road for a distance of twenty yards or thereabouts to the boundary which divides certain land and buildings belonging to the Right Honourable Viscount Eversley on the north, from certain land and buildings belonging to David McIntosh, of Havering Park, Romford, in the county of Essex, Esquire, on the south; and extending thence first north-eastward and then south-eastward along the said property boundary to a boundary stone inscribed 'B. St. M. and A. A. D. 1864,' and placed on the western bank of Bow Creek; and extending thence in a direct line due east to the boundary in the middle of the said creek which divides the said parish of Saint Leonard, Bromley, from the parish of West Ham, in the said county of Essex, and in the diocese of London aforesaid."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly mentioned Act, been transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron of the said parish of Saint Leonard, Bromley (out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken), and such incumbent and patron have respectively signified their assent to the said scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

Arthur Helps.

At the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of June, 1864.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorising the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Durham, and now vested in us.

"Whereas under and by virtue of an indenture of lease, bearing date the nineteenth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, made or expressed to be made between the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Durham, of the one part, and us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the other part, and by virtue of an order of exchange, under the hands and seal of the Inclosure Commissioners for England and Wales, bearing date the twentieth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, the tithe rent-charges arising in the townships of Harton, Claxton, Sandhutton, and Flaxton, in the parish of Bossall and county of York, particularly described in the schedule hereto annexed, became vested in us in possession for a term of years, subject to the rents and conditions in the said lease reserved and contained.

"And whereas by another indenture, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, being a conveyance of the reversionary interest of the said Dean and Chapter, expectant on the determination of the outstanding term created by the hereinbefore recited indenture of lease, and made or expressed to be made between the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Durham, of the first part, the Right Honourable Henry Thomas, Earl of Chichester, and the Right Honourable Spencer Horatio Walpole, two of the Church Estates Commissioners, duly constituted and appointed under and by virtue of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intitled 'An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,' of the second part, and us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the third part, the tithe rent-charges in question became and are now vested in us absolutely in fee, for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the tithe rent-charges aforesaid, or some part or parts thereof, on account of their character or situation, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said tithe rent charges, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our Common Fund, it is expedient that the same or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such tithe rent-charges, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorised and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law from time to time, to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any part or parts of the said tithe rent-charges so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he, she, or they, shall direct, or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight; and of another Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, sections two, three, and twenty-four; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight; and of another Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, sections two, three, and twenty-four; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property, formerly belonging to the Bishoprick of Ely, and now vested in us.

"Whereas on the vacancy of the said Bishoprick, which occurred on or about the seventh day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, by the decease of the Right Reverend Thomas, the late Bishop of Ely, all the lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, formerly belonging to the said Bishoprick (except rights of patronage and the episcopal houses of residence, situate at Ely, in the county of Cambridge, and in Dover-street, in the parish of Saint George, Hanover-square, in the city of Westminster and county of Middlesex), became absolutely vested in us, for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments aforesaid consist, to a considerable extent, of reversions expectant upon grants and leases for lives and years, and produce during the subsistence of such grants and leases only small annual revenues, and on that account, and in some instances on account of the character or situation of the property, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be assigned as an endowment for the said Bishoprick, or to be held or applied for the other purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by the last-mentioned Act power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions, or for the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas it is expedient that such of the aforesaid lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments lately belonging to the See of Ely (either with or without other property vested in us, as the case may require), as in the judgment of our Estates Committee, and subject to the approbation of the Bishop for the time being, shall be deemed convenient to be held as an endowment for the said See, and as will secure a net annual income of five thousand and five hundred pounds, being the income named for the Bishop of Ely and his successors, by an Act of the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Maesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, being the Act now in force, should be assigned as the endowment of the said See, and that for that purpose, as well as with a view to the more advantageous appropriation of the remainder of the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, and in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorised and empowered, by instrument or instruments, in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the respective holders (if any), to be testified by their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments heretofore belonging to the said Bishoprick of Ely, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same; and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he she or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and enquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Ely.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twelfth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme, relating to the endowment of the Archdeaconry of Stafford, in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas it was by the said recited Act enacted, that so soon as conveniently might be, and by the authority therein provided (that is to say), by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, any archdeaconry might, subject to the consent of the Bishop, be endowed by the annexation, either of an entire canonry, or of a canonry charged with the payment of such portion of its income as should be determined on, towards providing for another archdeacon in the same diocese, or with such last-mentioned portion of the income of a canonry, or by augmentation out of the Common Fund in the same Act mentioned, but not so as to raise the average annual income thereof to an amount exceeding two hundred pounds; and that no canonry should be so charged with a payment of a portion of the income thereof to any archdeacon, unless the average annual income of such canonry, after payment of such portion as aforesaid should amount to, or exceed, five hundred pounds, with a proviso that no archdeacon should be entitled to hold any endowment or augmentation, or other emolument, as such archdeacon, under the provisions of the same Act, unless resident for the space of eight months in every year, within the diocese in which his archdeaconry should be situate, but subject to the same provisions as to licences for non-residence, which are enacted with respect to incumbents of benefices by the Act relating to pluralities and residence in the same Act mentioned.

"And whereas by two several Orders of your Majesty in Council, the one bearing date the fourth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, and duly gazetted in the London Gazette of the eleventh day of the same month and year, and the other bearing date the eleventh day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and duly gazetted in the London Gazette of the fifteenth day of the same month and year, it was provided, that until the next vacancy of a canonry in the Cathedral Church of Lichfield, there should be paid by us, out of the Common Fund, to the Archdeacon of Stafford for the time being, the annual sum of one hundred and thirty-two pounds, on the first day of January in every year.

"And whereas a canonry in the said Cathedral Church of Lichfield has, since the passing of the lastly above-mentioned Order of your Majesty in Council, become vacant, and the above-mentioned annual grant has therefore ceased to be payable, under the provisions of the said recited Orders, but such canonry has not been annexed to the said Archdeaconry of Stafford.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of Lichfield, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that until the next avoidance of a canonry in the said Cathedral Church of Lichfield, there shall continue to be paid by us, out of the said Common Fund, to the Venerable Henry Moore, the present Archdeacon of Stafford, and to his successors in the said archdeaconry, so long as he and they shall respectively hold the same, and shall duly reside within the diocese according to law, or shall obtain license of non-residence, the said annual sum of one hundred and thirty-two pounds on the first day of January in every year.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the said archdeaconry, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-one; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twelfth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of your Majesty, chapter forty-one; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for setting out and constituting a district for spiritual purposes, and annexing such district to the consecrated church of Saint Thomas, situate at Lower Crumpsall, within the original limits of the parish of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district for spiritual purposes should be set out and constituted for and annexed to the said Church of Saint Thomas, situate at Lower Crumpsall aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Prince, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that all those several parts of the new parishes of Saint Luke Cheetham Hill and Saint Mary Crumpsall respectively (which said new parishes were sometime part of the said parish of Manchester), which are described in the schedule hereunder written, and which are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying this scheme, be severed and disannexed from the said new parishes of Saint Luke Cheetham Hill and Saint Mary Crumpsall respectively, and shall be set out and constituted for and annexed to the said Church of Saint Thomas, situate at Lower Crumpsall aforesaid, and shall become and be a district for spiritual purposes, and shall be named 'The District of Saint Thomas, Lower Crumpsall.'

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or to any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the herein-named Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Thomas, Lower Crumpsall, being :—

"And also all that part of the new parish of Saint Mary Crumpsall, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester aforesaid, which is situate on the southern side of an imaginary line extending north-east and south-west; such imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said last-mentioned new parish from the new parish of Saint Mark Cheetham Hill aforesaid, at the point where the Crumpsall Union or Workhouse Road is intersected by a certain footpath leading from Cheetham Hill aforesaid to Tetlow Bridge, such point being situate due south of the southern corner of the boundary wall of the premises belonging to the Crumpsall Union House; and extending the ice eastward along the middle of the said footpath to a point in the centre of the aforesaid bridge called Tetlow Bridge, which spans the River Irk; and extending thence, first northward and then north-eastward, along the middle of the said river, and then again northward along the middle of the same river as far as a point opposite to the middle of the south-western end of a certain branch stream flowing past the eastern side of Moss House into the said river; and extending thence north-eastward to and along the middle of the said branch stream as far as the boundary (near Moss House aforesaid) which divides the said new parish of Saint Mary Crumpsall from the new parish of Blackley, in the county and diocese aforesaid."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore firstly mentioned Act, been transmitted to the incumbents and to the patrons of the respective new parishes of Saint Luke Cheetham Hill, and Saint Mary Crumpsall, out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken.

And whereas one calendar month has elapsed since drafts of the said scheme were so transmitted as aforesaid, and no objections have been made thereto.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the second day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorising the sale and disposal of certain property now vested us.

"Whereas, under and by virtue of a certain indenture, bearing date the fourth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and made or expressed to be made between the Very Reverend Richard Bonnor Maurice Bonnor, Dean of Saint Asaph, the Reverend William Hicks Owen, Thomas Wynne Edwards, Thomas Brown, and John Sturkey, Clerks (vicars of the parish and parish church of Saint Asaph, in the county of Flint), the Reverend William Robert Wyatt, Clerk, formerly one of the vicars of the said parish and parish church of Saint Asaph, but then perpetual curate of Moreton, in the county of Salop, Trustees of the National Boys' School, at Saint Asaph aforesaid, of the first part; the said Reverend John Sturkey, as the principal officiating minister of the parish of Saint Asaph aforesaid, Honoratus Leigh Thomas, Esq., Brynelwy Robert James Sisson, Esq., Talardy Owen Roberts, M.D., all of Saint

Asaph aforesaid, the Managers and Directors for the time being of the said Boys' School, at Saint Asaph aforesaid, of the second part; the Right Reverend Father in God, Thomas Vowler, Lord Bishop of Saint Asaph, of the third part; the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Baronet, G.C.B., of 14, Eaton-place, in the county of Middlesex, Secretary of State for the Home Department, of the fourth part; and us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the fifth part; a certain piece or parcel of land with the National Boys' School Room, Teachers' House, and outbuildings thereon erected, situate near the River Elwy, in the township of Brynopolin, in the said parish of Saint Asaph, and coloured green on the plan attached to the same indenture, became and is now vested in us in fee simple for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the land, tenements, and hereditaments aforesaid, are not subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant, and are now in possession, but, on account of their character or situation are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said land, tenements, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time, and from time to time, think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such land, tenements, and hereditaments, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorised and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said land, tenements, and hereditaments so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and enquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Saint Asaph.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of June, 1864.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter seventy-seven; and of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the second day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter seventy-seven; and of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-two; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for amending an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and published in the London Gazette on the twenty-eighth day of the same month, ratifying a scheme prepared by us for augmenting the endowment of the College of Saint David, at Lampeter.

"Whereas by the said Order it was ordered and declared, that upon your Majesty being pleased, by a new or supplemental charter, to authorize the Principal, Tutors, and Professors of the said College of Saint David's, at Lampeter, to accept the endowment in the said Order and hereinafter mentioned, subject to such endowment being applied to the purposes and in manner in the said Order specified, and to such further provisions and regulations as your Majesty might think fit to establish by such charter, there should be paid by us to the said Principal, Tutors, and Professors of the said College of Saint David's, at Lampeter, out of our common fund, in respect of the proceeds of certain lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments vested in us, by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of November and the first day of May in every year, the yearly sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds, until lands, tithes, and other hereditaments producing a net annual income of equivalent amount should be transferred from us to the said Principal, Tutors, and Professors of the said College of Saint David, at Lampeter, and their successors.

"And whereas the purpose for which the annual payment aforesaid, and the proceeds of the lands, tenements, and hereditaments which may be substituted for the same is to be appropriated, is the provision of two third parts of the salaries of the Principal, Vice-Principal, and of three of the Professors of the said College, the remaining parts of the same salaries being derived from the surplus of the matriculation and other fees payable by the pupils of the said College.

"And whereas it was our intention that the salary of the Principal should be fixed at eight hundred pounds, but by an oversight in the engrossment of such scheme, such salary was erroneously fixed at seven hundred pounds.

"And whereas the annual sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds, so to be paid by us as aforesaid, is sufficient to provide two third parts of a salary of eight hundred pounds to the Prinprincipal of the said College of Saint David, at Lampeter, without requiring any deduction to be made from the salaries fixed by the said scheme for the Vice-Principal and other Professors of the said College respectively.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that the said Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the said scheme may be amended, so that the salary receivable by the Principal of the said College of Saint David's, at Lampeter, in the county of Cardigan, shall be fixed at eight hundred pounds per annum, in lieu of seven hundred pounds per annum.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measure relating to the endowment of the said College of Saint David, at Lampeter, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Saint David's.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the second day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for compensating the Reverend Henry Wildey Wright, the incumbent of the parochial chapelry of Saint John, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, in the county of Northumberland, and in the diocese of Durham, for the loss of certain fees, dues, or other emoluments which has been occasioned to him by reason of proceedings under the said Act.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that the fees, dues, or other emoluments of the said Henry Wildey Wright, as such incumbent as aforesaid, have been diminished by reason of the constitution under the provisions of the said Act of the district of Saint Paul, High Elswick, which district has since become a new parish under the provisions of the same Act, and that the assignment to the said Henry Wildey Wright of the annual sum hereinafter mentioned, would be a just and reasonable compensation for such diminution.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that there shall be paid by us to the said Henry Wildey Wright, the incumbent of the Parochial Chapelry of Saint John, Newcastle-upon-Tyne aforesaid, so long as he shall remain such incumbent and no longer, the annual sum of thirty pounds, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May, and the first day of November, in each year, by way of compensation for the loss of fees, dues, or other emoluments sustained by him by reason of the formation of the district of Saint Paul, High Elswick, which district has since become a new parish as before-mentioned.

"And we further recommend and propose that payment of the said annual sum of thirty pounds shall be held to commence as from the thirtieth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, being the day on which a church provided for the said new parish of Saint Paul, High Elswick, was consecrated, and from which day the incumbent of the same new parish became empowered to perform in the church thereof various offices which had heretofore been performed at the church of the said Parochial Chapelry of Saint John, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and also became entitled to receive and retain for his own benefit the fees accruing therefrom.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Durham.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament, held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act to amend the Burial Acts," it is amongst other things enacted, that, in case it appear to Her Majesty in Council upon the petition of the Local Board of Health of any district established under the Public Health, or upon the petition of any Commissioners elected by the rate-payers, and acting under or by virtue of the powers of any Local Act of Parliament for the improvement of any town, parish, or borough, stating that the district of such Local Board of Health, or of such Commissioners is co-extensive with a district for which it is proposed to provide a burial ground, and that no Burial Board has been appointed for such district, and that an Order in Council has been made for closing all or any of the burial grounds within the said district, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, in case Her Majesty see fit so to do, to order that such Local Board shall be a Burial Board for the district of such Local Board, or that such Commissioners shall be a Burial Board for the district of such Commissioners, and thereupon such Local Board or such Commissioners, as the case may be, shall be a Burial Board for such district accordingly; and the powers and provisions of the Acts thereinbefore mentioned (excepting the provisions relating to the constitution or appointment and resignation of members of Burial Boards), and the provisions therein contained, shall extend to the district of such Board, and to such Board, or to the district of such Commissioners, and to such Commissioners, and to any burial ground and place for the reception of the bodies of the dead previously to interment which may be provided by such Board or by such Commissioners, in like manner as to any parish or parishes and the Burial Board thereof, and any burial ground and any such place as aforesaid provided by such last-mentioned Board, save that no approval, sanction, or authorisation of any vestry shall be requisite: Provided always, that notice of such petition, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and in one of the newspapers usually circulating in the district of such Local Board or of such Commissioners, one month at least before such petition is so considered.

And whereas the Improvement Commissioners for the borough of Bury, in the county palatine of Lancaster, have, under the provisions of the said recited Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign, presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council, stating that the Petitioners are the Commissioners elected by the ratepayers under the powers of the Bury Improvement Act, 1846, entitled "An Act for better lighting, paving, cleansing, draining, regulating, and improving the borough of Bury, in the county palatine of Lancaster, and for otherwise promoting the health and convenience of the inhabitants," and that they act under the said Bury Improvement Act, 1846, and that the district comprised within the limits of the said Bury Improvement Act, 1846, includes the township of Bury, and part of the township of Elton, and is co-extensive with a district for which it is proposed by the said Commissioners to provide a burial ground under the provisions of the said recited Act, and that there is no Burial Board in existence for such district, and that Orders in Council have been made closing some of the burial grounds within the district comprised within the limits of the said Bury Improvement Act, 1846; and that the said Commissioners have made application to the Poor Law Board under the provision of the Public Works (Manufacturing Districts) Act, 1863, for a loan of fifteen thousand pounds, to enable them to purchase land for a public burial ground and to construct and lay out the same, and that a suitable site for such burial ground has been selected, and the terms of purchase agreed upon and approved on behalf of the Poor Law Board, and that such burial ground cannot be proceeded with, nor the arrangements for the loan concluded until the petitioners are constituted a Burial Board under the provisions of the said Act, and praying that the petitioners may be a Burial Board for the said district comprised within the said Bury Improvement Act, 1846.

And whereas notice of such petition, and of the time when Her Majesty was pleased to order the same to be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, has been duly published as required by the said Act.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Improvement Commissioners of the said borough of Bury, in the county palatine of Lancaster, shall be a Burial Board for the district of such Improvement Commissioners in accordance with the provisions of the said Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Burial Acts," it is amongst other things enacted, that, in case it appear to Her Majesty in Council upon the petition of the Local Board of Health of any district established under the Public Health Act, or upon the petition of any Commissioners elected by the ratepayers, and acting under or by virtue of the powers of any Local Act of Parliament for the improvement of any town, parish, or borough, stating that the district of such Local Board of Health, or of such Commissioners, is co-extensive with a district for which it is proposed to provide a burial-ground, and that no Burial Board has been appointed for such district, and that an Order in Council has been made for closing all or any of the burial-grounds within the said district, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, in case Her Majesty see fit so to do, to order that such Local Board shall be a Burial Board for the district of such Local Board, or that such Commissioners shall be a Burial Board for the District of such Commissioners, and thereupon such Local Board or such Commissioners, as the case may be, shall be Burial Board for such district accordingly; and the powers and provisions of the Acts thereinbefore mentioned (except the provisions relating to the constitution or appointment and resignation of members of Burial Boards), and the provisions therein contained, shall extend to the district of such Board, and to such Board, or to the district of such Commissioners, and to such Commissioners, and to any burial-ground and place for the reception of the bodies of the dead previously to interment, which may be provided by such Board or by such Commissioners, in like manner as to any parish or parishes and the Burial Board thereof, and any burial-ground and any such place as aforesaid provided by such last-mentioned Board, save that no approval, sanction or authorization of any Vestry shall be requisite: provided always, that notice of such petition, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and in one of the newspapers usually circulated in the district of such Local Board, or of such Commissioners, one month at least before such petition is so considered.

And whereas the Local Board of Health for the district of Dukinfield, in the county of Chester, formed by a Provisional Order made by the General Board of Health, dated the twelfth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and which Order was confirmed by the Public Health Supplemental Act, 1857, have, under the provisions of the said recited Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign, presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council, stating that, by an Order of Her Majesty in Council made the twenty-second day of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, some of the burial-grounds within the said district were ordered to be closed: and that it is proposed to provide a burial-ground for the said district of Dukinfield, and that no Burial Board has been appointed for such district, and that the said Local Board of Health district of Dukinfield is co-extensive with the district for which it is proposed to provide the said burial-ground, and that there is a great and urgent necessity for a burial-ground within and for the said district, and praying that the said Local Board of Health for the district of Dukinfield may be a Burial Board for such district.

And whereas notice of such petition and of the time when Her Majesty was pleased to order the same to be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council has been duly published as required by the said Act.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Local Board of Health for the district of Dukinfield, in the county of Chester, shall be a Burial Board for the district of such Local Board, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act. passed in the session of Parliament held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of June, 1864.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the seventeenth and eighteenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to make further provision for the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the Metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the petition of the Town Council of any borough, stating that an Order in Council has been made for closing all or any of the burial grounds of one or more parishes, being wholly or partly within such borough, and that there is difficulty or inconvenience in providing, under the powers of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," requisite places of burial for the inhabitants of such parish or parishes, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that powers shall be vested in the council of such borough for providing such places of burial, under the provisions of the said Act; provided always, that notice of such petition, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and in one of the newspapers usually circulating in such borough, one month at least before such petition is so considered.

And whereas by the ninth section of the said Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, it is enacted that where, previously to the making of any Order in Council under the same Act, it shall be made to appear to Her Majesty in Council, upon the petition of the Town Council, so made as aforesaid, or otherwise, that any parish, wholly or in part within such borough, is provided with a sufficient burial ground, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, in and by such Order, to direct that no part of such parish shall be assessed towards defraying the expenses of executing the said Act in such borough; and that, in such case, no burial ground provided for such borough under the said Act shall be deemed to be provided for such parish.

And whereas the Town Council of the borough of Neath, in the county of Glamorgan, have presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council, stating that the said borough consists of the parish of Neath and of a small portion of the hamlet of Blaenhonddan, in the parish of Cadoxton-juxta-Neath, in the county of Glamorgan; and that an Order in Council has been issued, directing that interments shall be forthwith wholly discontinued in the parish church of Neath, and also in the churchyard of the parish of Neath (with the exceptions or modifications therein mentioned); and representing that such Order has been duly complied with, and that the only other place of interment (besides the said church and churchyard) in which the inhabitants of Neath have any right of sepulture, is a burial ground in the parish of Lantuit-juxta-Neath, which said burial ground is of small extent (namely, one acre only), and that from the great number of interments which have taken place of late years in consequence of the aforesaid Order, it has become inconveniently crowded, and will only admit of a very small number of additional interments being made therein. And that there is difficulty and inconvenience in providing, under the powers of the Act made and passed in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the Laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," a requisite place of burial for the inhabitants of the parish of Neath aforesaid; and that such place of burial can be much more readily provided by and through the agency of the said petitioners. And that the inhabitants of the said portion of the said hamlet of Blaenhonddan, which is situate within the said borough of Neath, are already provided with a sufficient burial ground, that is to say, the churchyard of the said parish of Cadoxton-juxta-Neath. And that it is expedient and desirable that powers should be vested in the said petitioners at the Town Council of the said borough of Neath, for providing the requisite place of burial for the inhabitants of the said parish of Neath, in the said borough, under the provisions of the said Act so made and passed in the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty's reign as aforesaid. And praying that Her Majesty would be pleased to order that power shall be vested in the Town Council of the said borough of Neath, for providing such place of burial as aforesaid, under the provisions of the Act of Parliament last above-mentioned. And that Her Majesty would also be pleased in and by such order to direct that no part of the said hamlet of Blaenhonddan should be assessed towards defraying the expenses of executing the said Act in the said borough; and also that the burial ground to be provided under the said Act for such borough should be deemed to be provided for the parish of Neath only; and that any money required to be raised in such borough of Neath for defraying such expenses as aforesaid, or repaying any money which may be borrowed under the said Act by the Town Council of the said borough of Neath, or any interest thereon, by means of any rate to be levied in such borough of Neath, should be raised by a separate rate to be levied within the said parish of Neath alone; and that the said hamlet of Blaenhonddan might be declared in and by the said Order to be exempted from being assessed to any expenses of providing a place of burial for the said parish of Neath.

And whereas it appears to Her Majesty, from the statements in the said petition, that the said parish of Cadoxton-juxta-Neath is provided with a sufficient burial ground.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that powers be vested in the Town Council of the borough of Neath, for providing requisite places of burial under the provisions of the said first recited Act, intituled "An Act to make further provision for the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis," or of any other Act of Parliament relating to burials, for the inhabitants of the said parish of Neath; and that no part of the said hamlet of Blaenhonddan, or of the said parish of Cadoxton-juxta-Neath, shall be assessed towards defraying the expenses of executing the said last-mentioned Act in the said borough.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Burial Acts," it is amongst other things enacted, that in case it appear to Her Majesty in Council, upon the petition of the Local Board of Health of any district established under the Public Health Act, or upon the petition of any Commissioners elected by the ratepayers, and acting under or by virtue of the powers of any Local Act of Parliament for the improvement of any town, parish, or borough, stating that the district of such Local Board of Health or of such Commissioners is co-extensive with a district, for which it is proposed to provide a burial ground, and that no Burial Board has been appointed for such district, and that an Order in Council has been made for closing all or any of the burial grounds within the said district, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, in case Her Majesty see fit so to do, to order that such Local Board shall be a Burial Board for the district of such Local Board, or that such Commissioners shall be a Burial Board for the district of such Commissioners, and thereupon such Local Board or such Commissioners, as the case may be, shall be a Burial Board for such districts accordingly, and the powers and provisions of the Acts thereinbefore mentioned (except the provisions relating to the constitution or appointment and resignation of Members of Burial Boards), and the provisions therein contained shall extend to the district of such Board, and to such Board, or to the district of such Commissioners, and to such Commissioners, and to any burial ground and place for the reception of the bodies of the dead previously to interment, which may be provided by such Board, or by such Commissioners, in like manner as to any parish or parishes and the Burial Board thereof, and any burial-ground and any such place as aforesaid provided by such last-mentioned Board, save that no approval, sanction, or authorization of any Vestry shall be requisite. Provided always that notice of such petition, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and in one of the newspapers usually circulating in the district of such Local Board or of such Commissioners, one month at least before such petition is so considered. And whereas the Improvement Commissioners for the town of Burton-upon-Trent, in the county of Stafford, have, under the provisions of the said recited Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign, presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council stating, that the petitioners, under and by virtue of the several Acts of Parliament in that behalf, were duly appointed Improvement Commissioners for the above-mentioned town of Burton-upon-Trent, and had become the Local Board of Health for the said town, and that in the month of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, an Order in Council was made for closing the burial grounds therein mentioned, within the said town of Burton-upon-Trent, subject to the qualifications therein set forth; and that there is difficulty and inconvenience in providing requisite places of burial for the inhabitants of the said town; that the district of the petitioners is co-extensive with the district for which it is proposed to provide a burial ground, and no Burial Board has been appointed for such district, or any part thereof; and praying that power shall be vested in the petitioners, as the Improvement Commissioners of the said town of Burton upon Trent, for providing such place or places of burial, as may be requisite for the inhabitants of the said town. And whereas notice of such petition, and of the time when Her Majesty was pleased to order the same to be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, has been duly published as required by the said Act. Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Improvement Commissioners of the said town of Burton-upon-Trent shall be a Burial Board for the district of such Improvement Commissioners, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign.

No. 22863.

tuled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-ground or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require), that after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time, as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation, shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish;

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation, stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground shall be opened in the undermentioned parishes, without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials shall be discontinued therein:

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground shall be opened in the undermentioned parishes, without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials shall be discontinued therein;

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 96, for the regulation of the duties of postage, certain scales of weight and rates of postage were fixed and made chargeable and payable upon, for, or in respect of letters, newspapers, parliamentary proceedings, and printed papers, transmitted and forwarded by the post, and various regulations were made for facilitating the transmission of such letters and papers by the post; and by the same Act powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of postage therein mentioned.

And whereas further powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament, passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 85, for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office.

And whereas it is expedient to authorize the transmission by the post between the United Kingdom and Ceylon and Hong Kong of certain packets, and for that purpose to make certain regulations in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said hereinbefore-recited Acts of Parliament, and every of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided, order and direct as follows (that is to say):—

1. All packets consisting of patterns or samples of merchandise of no intrinsic value, posted in any part of the United Kingdom, addressed to any part of Ceylon or Hong Kong, or posted in any part of Ceylon or Hong Kong, addressed to any part of the United Kingdom, may be transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and any part of Ceylon or Hong Kong by British packet-boat, direct or via Egypt, subject to the several rates of postage hereinafter mentioned (that is to say):—

On every such packet, if not exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, an uniform single rate of postage (British and colonial combined) of fourpence.

And on every such packet, if exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, for such transmission thereof respectively as aforesaid, the several progressive and additional rates of postage, hereinafter mentioned.

2. All packets consisting of patterns or samples of merchandise, of no intrinsic value, posted in any part of the United Kingdom, addressed to any part of Ceylon or Hong Kong, or posted in any part of Ceylon or Hong Kong, addressed to any part of the United Kingdom, may be transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and any part of Ceylon or Hong Kong in closed mails via France (the sea conveyance being by British or by French packet-boat) subject to the several rates of postage hereinafter mentioned (that is to say):—

On every such packet, if not exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, an uniform single rate of postage (British, colonial, and foreign combined) of sixpence.

And on every such packet, if exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, for such transmission thereof respectively as aforesaid, the several progressive and additional rates of postage hereinafter mentioned.

3. Every packet which shall be transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant, if exceeding four ounces in weight, shall be subject to the several further and additional and progressive rates of postage hereinafter mentioned (that is to say):—

On every such packet, if exceeding four ounces, and not exceeding one-half of a pound in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, two rates of postage.

And on every such packet, if exceeding one-half of a pound, and not exceeding one pound in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, four rates of postage.

And on every such packet, if exceeding one pound, and not exceeding one pound and one-half of another pound in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, six rates of postage.

And on every such packet, if exceeding one pound and one-half of another pound, and not exceeding two pounds in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, eight rates of postage.

And for every additional half of a pound in weight of any such packet, above the weight of two pounds, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, two additional rates of postage, and every fractional part of such additional half of a pound in weight shall be charged as an additional half of a pound in weight, and each progressive and additional rate, chargeable under this clause, shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such packet would be charged with under this Warrant, if not exceeding four ounces in weight.

4. Every packet which shall be transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant, shall be so transmitted in conformity with, and under, and subject, to the several orders, directions, regulations, and conditions hereinafter contained, (that is to say):—

5. No such packet, which in length or breadth, or depth, shall exceed the dimensions of two feet, shall be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant.

6. No pattern or sample, being of any intrinsic value, or being an article or thing of a saleable nature, or having a value of its own apart from its mere use as a pattern or sample, shall be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant.

7. There shall be no enclosure, sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, nor any other enclosure not authorized by this Warrant, sent in or with any such packet.

8. There shall be no writing or printing in or upon any such packet, or on the cover thereof, except the address of the person for whom it is intended, the address of the sender thereof, a trade mark, and numbers and prices.

9. All such packets shall be sent in covers, open at the ends, so as to be easy of examination. Nevertheless samples of seeds, drugs, and such other articles and things as cannot be sent in open covers, may be enclosed in bags of linen, or of other material; but bags so closed that they cannot be readily opened, even although they be transparent, shall not be used for that purpose.

10. If any packet sent or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall in length, or breadth, or depth exceed the dimensions of two feet, or shall consist wholly of patterns, or samples of any intrinsic value, as in the sixth clause of this Warrant mentioned, or if there shall be any writing or printing in or upon any such packet, or on the cover thereof, except the address of the person for whom it is intended, the address of the sender thereof, a trade mark, and numbers and prices, or if any such packets shall not be sent in covers, open at the ends, so as to be easy of examination (except samples of seeds, drugs, and such other articles and things as cannot be sent in open covers, and which may be enclosed in bags of linen, or of other material), or in case of bags being used, if such bags shall be so closed that they cannot be readily opened, every such packet shall be chargeable, and shall be treated in all respects as a letter.

11. If any packet sent, or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall contain any enclosure, sealed, or otherwise closed against inspection, or any other enclosure not authorized by this Warrant, every such enclosure may be taken out by any officer of the Post Office, and either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or be forwarded to the address on the packet, charged not only with the full rates of postage as an unpaid letter, but also with a further and additional rate of postage, equal in amount to the single rate of postage chargeable under the provisions of this Warrant on a packet not exceeding four ounces in weight, and the remainder of the packet, if duly pre-paid by stamps, may be forwarded to the place of its address, without any extra charge.

12. The postage of all such packets as aforesaid posted in the United Kingdom, shall in every case be paid at the time of the same being posted, not in money, but by being duly stamped with the proper postage stamp or stamps affixed thereto, which stamp or stamps shall in every case be affixed or appear on the outside of every such packet, near the address or direction, and shall be of the value or amount of the postage duty payable thereon, under or by virtue of this Warrant.

13. The postage of all such packets as aforesaid, posted in Ceylon or Hong Kong, shall in every case be paid at the time of the same being posted, either in money or by the proper colonial postage stamp or stamps being affixed thereto.

14. If any packet sent, or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be posted in the United Kingdom, or in Ceylon or Hong Kong, and the postage paid thereon, or postage stamp or stamps affixed thereto, shall represent a less amount than the rate of postage to which such packet would be liable under and by virtue of this Warrant, every such last-mentioned packet shall be forwarded, charged with the amount of the difference between the postage so paid thereon, or postage stamp or stamps so being thereon or affixed thereto, and the postage to which such packet would be liable as aforesaid, together with a further and additional rate of postage, equal in amount to the single rate of postage chargeable under this Warrant on a packet not exceeding four ounces in weight; but if any such packet shall be posted in the United Kingdom, or in Ceylon or Hong Kong, without any postage having been paid thereon, or without having thereon or affixed thereto any postage stamp, every such respective packet shall be forwarded, charged with a postage of double the amount of postage to which it would have been liable under and by virtue of this Warrant, if the postage had been paid when posted.

15. In order to prevent any obstacles to the due and regular transmission of letters by the post, any officer of the Post Office may delay the transmission of any packet posted or forwarded by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, either for the space of twenty-four hours after the time at which the same ought to be dispatched in due course of the post, or (at his option) until the dispatch of the mail next after that by which the same ought in due course of the post to be forwarded by him.

16. In all cases in which any question shall hereafter arise, whether any packet or any pattern or sample contained therein transmitted under or by virtue of this Warrant, is entitled to the privileges of this Warrant, and to be so transmitted within the intent and meaning thereof, such question shall be referred to the determination of the Postmaster-General, whose decision thereupon shall be final and conclusive upon all parties.

17. The terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, cap. 96.

18. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands, duly made at any time hereafter, alter, repeal, revoke, or modify any of the rates of postage hereby fixed, or any of the regulations hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time may appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid.

19. This Warrant shall come into operation on the 1st day of August, 1864.

To the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the parish of Chudleigh, in the county of Devon;—

To the Clerk or Clerks to the Justices of the Petty Sessions held for the division or divisions in which the said parish is situate; And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS the population of the parish of Chudleigh, in the county of Devon, according to the last census, exceeds two thousand persons:

And whereas, at a meeting of the Vestry of the said parish, held at the Vestry Room, and by adjournment at the late National School Room, after public notice in that behalf, on Thursday, the fourteenth day of February, 1861, it was resolved,—

“That the Poor Law Board be requested to issue an Order, under their Seal of Office, directing that the Act passed on the 5th of August, 1850 (13 & 14 Vict., c. 57), entitled ‘An Act to prevent the holding of Vestry or other meetings in Churches, and for regulating the appointment of Vestry Clerks,’ shall be applied to and put in force within this parish, as regards erecting suitable buildings for the purpose of holding Vestry or other meetings for the transaction of any business of or relating to the parish.”

And whereas at another meeting of the Vestry of the said parish, held at the said Vestry Room, and by adjournment at the National School Room, on Saturday, the thirtieth day of January last, it was resolved,—

“That an application shall be made to the Poor Law Board to issue an Order, under their Hands and Seal, directing that the sum of six hundred pounds shall be borrowed for the purpose of carrying into execution the Act passed on the 5th August, 1850 (13 & 14 Vict., c. 57), entitled ‘An Act to prevent the holding of Vestry or other meetings in Churches, and for regulating the appointment of Vestry Clerks,’ so far as regards the provision of accommodation for holding the Vestry meetings within this parish, by purchasing a moiety of the market house and premises there, and erecting a building thereon, and directing further that the repayment of the sum so to be borrowed, and the payment of the interest thereof, shall be charged upon the poor rates of the said parish, so, nevertheless, that such sum shall be repaid by ten equal annual instalments.”

And whereas at another meeting of the Vestry of the said parish, held at the Vestry Room, and by adjournment at the National School Room, after public notice in that behalf, on Saturday, the nineteenth day of March last, it was resolved,—

“That the following resolution, passed by the Vestry of this parish on the fourteenth day of February, 1861; viz.—That the Poor Law Board be requested to issue an Order, under their Seal of Office, directing that the Act passed on the 5th August, 1850 (13 & 14 Vict. cap. 57), intituled ‘An Act to prevent the holding of Vestry or other meetings in Churches, and for regulating the appointment of Vestry Clerks,’ shall be applied to and put in force within this parish, as regards erecting suitable buildings for the purpose of holding any Vestry or other meeting for the transaction of any business of or relating to the parish, be adopted, recognized, and confirmed by this meeting, and that the Poor Law Board be now requested to carry such resolution into effect.”

And it was also resolved,—

“That this meeting fully approves of the purchase of the moiety of the market house and premises in this parish vested in the ‘Official Trustee of Charity Lands,’ for the sum of thirty pounds, and the costs and expenses attending the purchase thereof, for the purpose of erecting such buildings thereon, and hereby authorizes the Committee appointed by the Vestry on the 30th day of January last to complete the purchase thereof on those terms, and have such moiety conveyed, under the authority of the Poor Law Board and of the Commissioners of Charities, to the Churchwardens and Overseers, for the use of this parish.”

And whereas the Churchwardens of the said parish have made their application in writing to the Poor Law Board, pursuant to the before-recited resolutions;

Now, therefore, we, the said Poor Law Board, under the authority of the several Statutes in that behalf made and provided, hereby order and direct, that so much of the said Act passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, as relates to the providing of a room or buildings for the purpose of holding Vestry or other meetings for the transaction of any business of or relating to the said parish of Chudleigh, shall forthwith be applied to and be put in force within the said parish of Chudleigh.

And we do hereby authorize the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the said parish to borrow a sum not exceeding six hundred pounds, and to charge the poor rates of the said parish with the repayment of the sum so borrowed, by ten equal annual instalments, together with the interest which shall from time to time accrue on the respective balances; and we order and direct the said Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor to apply such sum, when so borrowed, to defray the cost of purchasing the aforesaid land, and erecting the said buildings thereon for the purpose of holding Vestry or other meetings for the transaction of any business of or relating to the said parish as aforesaid.

And we do hereby order and direct that a copy of this Order shall be published in the London Gazette.
