NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset-House, June 20, 1864.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested therein, that preparations are now being made for the intended distribution of the proceeds, slave, and tonnage bounties of a launch and brigantine, names unknown, captured between the 20th and 21st November, 1862, by Her Majesty's ship "Zebra."

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the said proceeds, are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, in order that the same may be examined, taxed, and allowed by that Officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Agents and all other persons holding powers of attorney, prize orders, assignments, or other instruments, by virtue of which they may be legally entitled to claim the share belonging to any captor, are requested, with as little delay as possible, to transmit the same, accompanied by the usual documents, to the Prize Branch of the Department of the "Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset-House."

Due notice will be given, by future advertisements in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution; and, at the same time, the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced.

sex, Patent Agent, praying for letters patent for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for grinding or pulverising grain"—a communication from Charles Krempff, Louis Kuhn, and Georges Nicolas Schoumert, persons residing at Rue de Trevisé, Paris, in the Empire of France aforesaid—was deposited and recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 21st day of June, 1864, and a complete specification accompanying such petition was at the same time filed in the said office.

Patent Law Amendment Act, 1852.

Office of the Commissioners of Patents for Inventions.

NOTICE is hereby given, that provisional protection has been allowed

680. To Wilhelm Adolf von Kanig, of Bedford-place, Russell-square, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in railway telegraphs and signals, and also in the permanent way and carriages for preventing railway accidents."

On his petition, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 16th day of March, 1864.

1149. To Aimé Rieder, Gentleman, of 13, Rue Gaillon, Paris, for the invention of "improvements in shades, spectacles, and eye glasses, which can also be applied to telescopes and stereoscopes."

On his petition, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 6th day of May, 1864.

1160. To Elias Robison Handcock, of 23, Norfolk-street, Strand, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire, for the invention of "certain improvements in engines to be worked by steam or other motive power."

On his petition, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 7th day of May, 1864.

1257. To Augustus Bryant Childs, Engineer, of 481, New Oxford-street, London, for the invention of "improvements in machinery for separating and elevating grain."

On his petition, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 18th day of May, 1864.

1286. To Richard Archibald Brooman, of 166, Fleet-street, in the city of London, Patent Agent, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for increasing the illuminating power of gas and for producing gas by the vaporization of hydrocarbons and essences of petroleum."—A communication to him from abroad by Gustave Bouchery and Jules François Le Batteux, of Paris, France.

On his petition, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 21st day of May, 1864.

1308. To Louis Stévenaux, of 51, Rue de Malte, Paris, in the Empire of France, for the invention of "improvements in sweating rooms for drying malt and other grains."

On his petition, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 26th day of May, 1864.

1336. To James Paterson, of Greenock, in the county of Renfrew, North Britain, Engineer, for the invention of "certain improvements in the cooling and preparation of charcoal to be used for refining sugar, and in the machinery, apparatus, or means employed therefor."

On his petition, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 30th day of May, 1864.

1350. To John Martin Stanley and Jabez Stanley, of the Midland Works, Sheffield, in the county of York, for the invention of "an improved apparatus to be applied for steam and blast engines, pumps, water mills, and for other like purposes."

On their petition, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 31st day of May, 1864.

1354. To Thomas Eckersley, of Radcliffe, in the county of Lancaster, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus used for signalling in coal and other mines."

On his petition, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 1st day of June, 1864.

1366. To Oscar Eugen Prieger, of Bonn, in the Kingdom of Prussia, at present residing in the city of Manchester, Doctor of Medicine, for the invention of "the manufacture of Ferromanganese and cupromanganese, and the combinations or alloys thereof with other metals."

1367. To Peter Armand Lecomte de Fontaine Moreau, of the General Patent Offices, 10, Rue de la Fidélité, Paris, in the Empire of France, and 4, South-street, Finsbury, London, Patent Agent, for the invention of "an improved machine for cutting leather stuff, mill board, and other similar articles."—A communication from Antoine Peter, a person resident at Paris, in the Empire of France.

1368. To William Cormack, of 15, Little Moorfields, in the city of London, Chemist, for the invention of "improvements in the distillation or destructive distillation of all solid matters or semi-solid matters capable of yielding fluids or gaseous hydro-carbons, or other products of any kind whatsoever, be they liquids, fluids, or solids, such as pit coal, boghead, or other bituminous coal or shale, peat, wood, asphalts, tallow, lard, fats, or other semi-solid matters, and in the treatment of the same."

1369. To Richard Threlfall, of Bolton, in the county of Lancaster, Machine Maker, and Robert Walker Pitfield, of the same place, Machinist, for the invention of "improvements in machinery or apparatus for spinning cotton, wool, flax, and other fibrous materials."

1370. To William Henry Mellor, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Common Brewer, for the invention of "improvements in self-acting mashing or saturating apparatus for the use of brewers, distillers, and others."

1371. To Edward Myers, of Millbank-row, Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, Civil Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in the construction of rotary pumps."

1376. To William Edward Newton, of the Office for Patents, 66, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Civil Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in refrigerators or apparatus for cooling the injection water of marine steam engines."—A communication to him from abroad by William Lighthall, of the city of New York, in the United States of America.

1377. To James Jennings McComb, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Gentleman, for the invention of "improvements in the construction of presses for forming bales of cotton and other materials, and in apparatus to be employed in securing bands to such bales."

1378. And to George Coles, of Gresham-street West, in the city of London, Merchant, James Archibald Jaques, of Tottenham, in the county of Middlesex, Chemist, and John Americus Fanshawe, of the same place, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of tubular and hollow articles."

On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 2nd day of June, 1864.

1379. To Joseph William Lee, of Princess-street, Leicester, in the borough of Leicester, for the invention of "improvements in traction engines for ploughing, threshing, and other purposes."
